CHAPTER ONE

BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS, FOR THEY SHALL BE CALLED SONS OF GOD

I

THE PEACE OF EUROPE AND THE IMPERIUM OF THE FOURTH REICH

Who is responsible for World Peace? Because we know that kings, generals, businessmen, all those who put their signatures on declarations of war, History, Chronicles, Annals, Memoirs, are there to remind us that they do not die under fire, that they hide, abominable rats, in palaces, congresses, senates, private paradises, while we our parents our brothers our children our friends... we die crushed by the wheels that those filthy beings set in motion.

What is it about war that makes those who declare it believe that they, they, are superior to all other human beings, and will not be crushed under the fist of vengeance, of God and of men?

Should they or we be interested in the existence of the war?

We are the cannon fodder in which these abominable and filthy criminals satiate the stomach of the crisis they generate to keep us all enslaved to their disgusting vices, their drug addictions, their sexual perversions, the typical behavior of an infernal, abominable beast, crushing the brains of all those who, like the Son of God, we refuse to kneel before these new gods, antisocial beings, enemies of the human being, the only north and horizon that their eyes see is their own pleasure, their own will, their ego, their mind atrophied by darkness, which they need to continue hiding their thefts, their crimes, their endless crimes to the health of Progress, of Order, of Security... to continue floating in the river of filth in which they swim like ducks in the water, from which they live, disgusting worms, sewer rats through which blood circulates like fire in hell.

Who should be interested in Peace more than us, the Unknown Soldier, this lamb always at the foot of the altar of the rich and kings waiting for our sacrifice to the health of their whores, their bastards, their syphilitic cocks? Are we going to continue to be massacred to the health of such rational political animals?

What will Charles Darwin answer when the Creator of Man asks him why he banished Intelligence from the Human Race and threw us into the hell of the empire of the strongest, the greatest murderer, the worst of men? What was the 20th century if not the battle to the death between the most savage disciples of Charles Darwin?

And all that occurs to that race of beings enemies of the Human Race who fill the palace of the gods of the Fourth Brussels Reich, is to recommend some aspirin, some cans of preserves and steal from our own pockets 2% of the misery we must deal with every day to survive.

Cursed are they and their palace, because the day the War they control gets out of control and bursts the borders, the herds will rise like a tsunami and we will not leave one stone upon another, and the head that is saved we will crush with iron boots.

What are you doing? What are they playing?

Instead of proceeding to a Military Revolution that frees the Armies from the Modern Mentality, daughter of the Ancient, and sets up a Military structure according to the Technologies of Peace and the Mentality of our time, the gods of the Fourth European Reich ask us for money, in normal words: They bleed us.

The weaker they are, the less opposition to their laws to ruin our economies, increase suicides, create poverty, make the streets the bedroom of those they condemn to failure.

This is the vilest political generation that has ever set foot in Europe. The previous ones had a genocidal absolutist paranoid schizophrenia on which to base their war crimes; This generation of European politicians has no morals, no ethics, no ideology, no reason for being except their dicks and pussies swimming in a sea of gold, the gold they turn our blood into.

"No maldigas, bless".

Yes, Father. But should I also bless the disciples of the Devil?

The Tower of European Babylon is falling. Nations do not understand each other. They agree on the need to set themselves up as authoritarian governments prepared to crush any opposition to the policies of the fathers of the Fourth Reich. They are brainless gods; they do not study the History of the Rise and Fall of Empires. They believe themselves to be omniscient and all-powerful; Even if the stone remains on the road and the ears are seen a league away from the donkey, they truly believe that, even if they stumble on the same stone, they will not fall. How such sick people find the doors of power open we have already discovered: One has only to kneel before the gods of the Fourth Reich, the Holy See of Brussels!

Is our Peace defended by dying like Abel? Who should die, Abel or Cain?

Those who have brainless Abel by affirming that his death is that of the phoenix, are disgusting hominid animals; but those who have been seduced by that image are real imbeciles born of idiot mothers, children of suicidal roots. Let them throw themselves into the fire and let us see them reborn from their ashes! Then we'll talk.

Peace is defended with Life. To life or death. Slavery is not for a child of God of the House of Christ. Slavery is a thing for Chinese, Russians, 21st century socialists, communists, Muslims, Buddhists... We are the creators of Civilization, Law and Sciences that fill libraries, Arts and Literature, and Technologies that all the inhabitants of the planet enjoy. And now they want to eliminate us in the way that Julian the Apostate wanted to destroy our fathers: by pretending that we did not exist.

We, children of God, Citizens of the Kingdom of our Father in Heaven, do we not exist?

What is the origin of all the thoughts that circulate among nations? We have taught nations without number to think, and do we not exist?

Our Peace is threatened by a Beast born in the North, suckled by the UN, and now its Threat is used by the Fourth Brussels Reich to take off its mask and declare us all slaves of its Empire, because in its Empire we will all have our salvation.

Any excuse is good to tighten the tax noose around our necks. They don't want us dead, but they don't want us alive either. Our position is that of the victim whom the political vampire keeps alive for his glory, but it does not even occur to him to leave our veins dry.

Shall we not tear down that castle in which all the worst of Europe take refuge? How many castles have we demolished on our way to our birth? How many kings mad for Power and madmen crazy for riches who believed themselves to be gods have crushed under the iron boots of our will to stay alive and continue to build a Civilization in which Peace and Health are our daily bread?

This generation of politicians who fill Europe and the world tear bread from our table and throw it to their dogs. All of them, corrupt to the core, barking wag their tails at the voice of "pichi: no one moves from here".

Better, we'll answer them, so we'll catch you all before jumping ship, like the rats you are!

Peace selling Ukraine to a son of Satan, or War selling us all into the poverty and slavery of those who work "under wartime law".

How much wickedness a man and a woman must have to consider one or the other!

How much absence of wisdom must be computed in a politician to sit around such a table suitable exclusively for war criminals!

How much mass of gold is necessary to seduce those who are already corrupt!

The Great American Chief comes to sell what is not his, to buy what no one sells him. Do you not know that your Nation betrayed the Treaty of Budapest, and since then the word of America is worth as much as the word of the Devil before the Throne of the Divine King? What does Europe have to do with America? Does America want to add fuel to the fire of War?

Peace is the business of the living. The dead are not interested in the War. War is not made with money. Peace is built with an army of soldiers from all nations in the service of the Life of all the living, ready to move against Cain at the speed of sound.

Because the UN cursed the Intervention of the armies of Peace in the internal affairs of a State, blessing the Genocide, the UN will be wiped off the map of History, and with the Blessing of our God we will raise up an Organization of the Fullness of nations at the sound of whose Voice all the armies of the Earth will rise up against any Cain that arises, wherever it arises, and this Army of the Earth will have for its Supreme Head the King of Heaven, to serve His Peace for the Eternity of the eternities.

The Alliance of Christian Nations, signatories to NATO, must not only be strengthened by the mass uprising of all the citizens of its Corps, but open to nations that love Peace and want to establish the Life of their children on an Invincible Universal Law: "One for all and all for one".

Europe, independently of America, whose betrayal of Ukraine serves as a stone of scandal to reject the word of a traitor, must invoke the Fifth Article of the Alliance against the Russian Federation, and proceed to break diplomatic relations, in both directions. For cowards do not win battles. And this is a Political Battle. It is the Russian people themselves who must rise up and hold their rulers accountable for the war crimes committed, for the deaths of their citizens sacrificed to the madness of a government led by world-renowned criminals.

And yet, is our Creator not interested in Peace in His Creation?

Which leads us to insist on the Truth. Since the creation of the Christian Alliance, called NATO, war has been from the borders of member countries banished. That Europe divided for religious reasons, imperial ideologies and pseudo-scientific anti-Christian systems, a breeding ground for the Three World Wars that Death drew in the History of the Earth, that Europe is dead.

Interestingly, the Ghost of Communism rides again. Twice he opened the Gate of Europe to Hell, from where he spread the War to the whole World. Europe is reluctant to ride that horse again and its response is a New Reich.

Count the days of the gods in your bed, Brussels! Keep them all in their golden armchairs to the health of 500 million sheep; the roof is about to fall, and as the roof of the Temple of Jerusalem collapsed on the true enemies of Israel, by God none of your lovers will be left alive among stone and stone!

We will build a Fortress for Peace in Paris, for Justice a Palace in Madrid, and for Truth... the Truth already has its Temple in Rome.

May God bless us in this way, and all men see it.

II

REVOLUTION IN THE BARRACKS

Death is the mother of War. All the wars with which the body of nations has been watered have the same origin: Death. Before making a foray into the Necessity of building World Peace a Fortress worthy of its glory, it is good to walk hand in hand with Wisdom and open the veil that for millennia has kept our World under pressure of total extinction.

Let us remember that despite the sorrows of the songs of the mad Satan, the Life of the Human Race on Earth is guaranteed by the Word of God; the Son of Man will not return above the clouds to an Earth turned into a nuclear cemetery: "All eyes will see him" is the Promise of those who give their Word with the guarantee of God's being. This Guarantee of Life was signed by the Son of God, ratified by the Christians of the Apostolic Age, the Blood was the Testimony of what they saw with their eyes and their ears they heard, with their hands they touched and with all their senses they lived.

The Proof of the Divine Veracity of the New Covenant between Man and God, in Jesus Christ, is us: two thousand years suffering persecutions, wars of invasion, of religion, civil wars, revolutions and world wars, always the Christian Faith the target against which Death throws all its forces, we are not only here, but we invoke the Divine Covenant as the Way to that Time in which the Son of Man will let himself be seen on the Gospel. the clouds and "every eye shall see him... raise the dead." I mean, despite the sorrows and misfortune of those who have joined the song of the new bogeyman: "The end of the world is at the gates", we can affirm that the end of his world, that abominable world in which Death is the Big Business: Weapons, Drug Trafficking, Slavery, Human Trafficking, Prostitution, diseases... that world is indeed coming to an end; but the end of the Human Race on Earth will not occur until that happy day in which the Son of God will reveal Himself to all in His Almighty Being.

That the living at this moment create or stop creating does not take away or add anything to that Encounter in any of the stations of the Timeline on which we have been making our way for millennia. The children of God, citizens of the Kingdom of His Son, will survive all the armies that Death has activated in its march against Life on Earth.

In short: What is Death?

There was a time, before Creation, when the Cosmos was regulated by Life and Death as Natural Cosmological Forces. Let's say, before continuing down this path, that everything you have been forced to read in schools about the Origin of the Universe is pure fallacy, a scientific chimera behind whose face the scientists of the twentieth century hid their Absolute Ignorance about Creation. The Door of Light being closed to them, in their pride and contempt for Divine Wisdom, they did what the Ancient Greeks did with Socrates; the former killed the body, the latter lined up to kill the Soul of Man, if they did not understand the Principle of all things it is because there was never a Principle of any thing. The twentieth century had to invent a universe, a flying donkey before which all the illiterate people of the world in the things of Intelligence would bend their knees and banish the Christian Faith from their heads. This is from a site. And on the other, a natural savage rational system in which to justify the Genocide of the World Wars. And they called it Cosmology of the Twentieth Century; the most poisonous scientific chimera ever conceived, to whose health were hundreds of millions of human beings sacrificed. Its creators were hidden in Sweden, from whereas Rome imparts its Divine Doctrine to all nations, from Stockholm they impart its infernal doctrine to all the universities of the Earth. In short, Life and Death are Uncreated Forces operating in Eternity and Infinity from the beginningless Beginning of the Cosmos. Life raises its tree; a World made; it reaches its glory, and Death advances by reducing to dust everything that was born to fill a chapter in the Book of the History of the Universe. It was always like this, until God intervened and sought the secret of Immortality, in the pages of the Book of the Science of Creation, Life in His Image and Likeness.

It is unnecessary to get lost in the major lines of his Formation as the Creator of the New Cosmos; a process about which HE Himself has written: "I AM GOD, I have been formed and there will be no one after me." Of course, it is; His Son has everything in Him, His Father. His Son has not and will not pass through that Eternity of eternities during which time the Creative Wisdom placed in the hands of His Father all His secrets about Life and Death. The Victory of His Father over the structure of the Old Cosmos and His Elevation to that of the Creator of the New Cosmos places in the hands of this Son the Creative Omniscience from which, by saying "Let there be Light", the Light is made.

Life is in the Son, Wisdom is in the Father, and by living God in both, the Word of the Son becomes the Word of the Father, for this reason the Holy Spirit says: "The Word is God", the Word of the Son is the Word of the Father.

That said, our existence, "we Christians are here", proof of the Almighty Truthfulness of the Promise of the Son of God, return to judge the living and the dead, our eyes cannot remain closed to the true structure of the Historical Reality we are living, nationally and globally. All the forces of Creation, those of the Heavens as well as those of the Earth, are at War against Death, "the last enemy".

The enemy of the human being is not Man. My enemy is not my neighbor. Only perverse minds, stuck in a suicidal dimension, aspiring to a life in the image and likeness of Satan, that is, "beyond Justice", live according to their own laws, declare everyone and everything that opposes their status as gods on earth, their enemy. Free to do and undo at will, they tread on all the laws of creation and civilization in order to build a society founded on the most serious crime that exists, to create hatred among peoples, political wisdom aimed at a single end: to maintain themselves until death "beyond Justice".

They are their own enemies; The pride of their egos aspires to make the entire world revolve around them, and against those who do not do so stick and trigger. They are at war with everyone because they revolt against their plan: to live as a god, to be a god in the image and likeness of Satan. From where it is understood why they reject Jesus Christ: the Image made Flesh of the spirit of the Creator.

But let's get into the matter. We do not exist in isolation from Life in the Heavens. The Empire of Death on Earth is not a fallacy. The growth of war since a son of God, not of our world, opened the door to the Earth for it, proves that the horizon to which our history is heading is its own because of the existence of the worlds in the cosmos before Creation.

Death is an Uncreated Force whose job it is to reduce the whole world to dust once its quest for Immortality has sunk into the impossibility of elevating its existence to the nature of Divine Life. This was the line that marked the Beginning and End of the worlds during the eternity of the Uncreated Cosmos. What Life could not do by itself, God made possible. God and Life became one: Creation.

"I am the Life," said the Son of God as the Son of Man. That is, the Creator and Creation are to the New Cosmos what Life and Death were to the Old Cosmos: An Inseparable and Indestructible Reality.

From this Reality and living the impossible victory of Death over Life, as revealed to us in the Resurrection, our Duty before the song of the madmen for War as a means of preserving their Power and maintaining their riches, which is all that unites them to Life, is to create for Peace in the Human Race an impregnable Fortress. almighty and incorruptible against whose walls all the forces that Death will unleash will still crash until Life on Earth reaches that Day "in which every eye will live the return of the Son of God on the clouds... to judge the living and the dead"

The war is not over in Ukraine, or in Sudan, or in Syria, or in Gaza... War is the future of the tree of the Science of good and evil; its origin is Death. To cut down that cursed tree, to immunize the earth against its seed, this is our Future; A future that we will bequeath to the generations born of our flesh, as we were born of the flesh of our fathers. But we know that the interests of those who have in Death their capital, hearing that we are ready to close the mines of blood, the origin of their fortunes, will invoke their gods, in their seat in Stockholm, and move their governments of lead to make it impossible for World Peace to remain among us for the centuries that will pass until the Son of Man returns above the clouds.

Who wants to live, who wants to die?

The Defense of Peace is the Defense of Life. It is up to every man to defend Peace, because it is to defend his own life, that of his own and that of all nations. Every man must be involved in this Defense. For Peace is spoken of as if it had nothing to do with Life; as if Peace were one thing and Life were quite another. Have the gods of the Academy reached such a degree of homicidal Perversity in their silence?

There are no philosophers anymore, there are no historians left. Politicians have displaced philosophers and mass media agents have displaced historians. The truth, however, we know: What is worthless floats because its weight is light like an idiot's brain. And those brains without intelligence are ascended to Power to serve by hiding behind the skirts of females the true face of their "fucking masters", all disciples of that First Man who dreamed of being a god in the image and likeness not of the Son of God but of that other son of the Creator named Satan.

It seems evident that the absence of intelligence is absolute in the Europe of the Fourth Reich. Instead of revolutionizing the relationship of nations with the Defense of Peace, they rearm themselves to wage War. It seems that they are looking for it, they want it, they need it to establish those authoritarian governments that the 2030 Agenda calls for on its way to the legalization of socialist and communist dictatorships and Islamic theocracies. If there is war, do only the soldiers die?

Once the Peace Lost Freedom Still Exists?

Is Libertad the one that is lived inside a prison of laws and fiscal decrees born exclusively to serve as a table for the hanged?

Peace is the Particular Duty of all citizens of a nation, and of the World in General.

World and National Peace is the competence of all human beings.

The Structural Revolution of the Barracks for the Training of the Soldier of the XXII Century must begin today. The Soldier's Career must follow the nature of the University; and open to the Population following the rules of a University Career whose Subjects include Sciences, Technologies and World History of Peace and War.

The Barracks must be a University Campus in which the most beautiful and powerful of all the Forces of Civilization is cultivated: World Peace. A Military Campus from which generations emerge specialized in all branches of the Defense of Peace, nationally and internationally; from which emerge the State Security Corps, private and public, formed in Inalienable Laws and Constitutional Rights of the Citizen, with no other "fucking master" than the Law and the Laws within whose walls World Peace lives.

Military Campus open to Intercommunication and Coexistence for Language Learning of the Future Commanders of the Alliance of the Plenitude of Nations.

Five years of formation, in constant renewal to make an immense part of the population soldiers in communion with the Life of their Nation and Peace in the World. Public Servants during the years of their hiring, Peace has in them a private fortress inhabited by a Universal Soldier always ready to revolt against War and for Life.

What do they talk about in the Europe of the Fourth Reich? Money! He is the god of Brussels. The palace of the Brusselian gods is where everything that floats in a nation ends up. And what is it that floats in a sea of corruption? "Well, that's it"

III

NATO

NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization) was born to fulfill two historic missions. First: Create an International Defense System under a Unified Security Law subject to the classic "one for all and all for one", which is summarized in the following Article:

"Article 5 of the Washington Treaty harmonizes the concept of collective defense of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). It states that an "armed attack" against a member country in Europe and North America will be considered an attack against the entire Alliance. As a consequence and under Article 51 of the UN Charter on self-defense, NATO members may exercise the necessary measures, including the use of force, to restore peace and security. However, with the rise of the Internet and the development of other new technologies, new threats such as cyberattacks have emerged, which have brought the complexity of the article to the table."

In short: "One for all and all for one".

The success of this Treaty is measured by its historical effects. Since NATO was created, not a single member country has suffered invasion of its borders.

NATO's Second Law has also been perfectly complied with: NATO's National Security Law guarantees the impossibility of Civil War on the territory of any of the member nations.

It is enough to open the History of the XXI Century to see that Peace is the Flag that governs each and every one of the member nations. Not a single European NATO member nation has fallen into civil war since was the Organization created. The Victory of the Law of Peace defended by NATO, International Defense against an invasion of the borders of the Member Nations, and Internal Security in the territory of the Member Nations, has allowed the Christian founding spirit to continue to be the wind that makes the Flag of Peace fly.

The question is why within the NATO member nations do they demonize their Peace and have acted, and continue to act, from within as their fiercest and most implacable enemies, traitors to National and International Peace, and predisposed to lead a Civil War that leads them to raise the Flag of Socialism of the 21st Century?

Where did this betrayal come from?

Who can be interested in dividing the member nations of an Organization whose Victory has maintained Peace between European States, for centuries in constant wars; and from which Europe has freed itself thanks to the creation of the North Atlantic Treaty Alliance?

Do they want war? Is War a dish on the menu of those who defend Peace by destroying their Strength?

We could raise questions from the ground the way the wind shakes dead leaves. Wisdom in life opens the doors of intelligence so that understanding becomes strong and can be a source of courageous advice. From this Truth the origin of the Betrayal of the Peace of Europe and its Well-being, abundant harvest after a sowing of centuries, we discover in the Creation of an Alliance of Civilizations between the Russian Federation, China and the World Islamic Organization. The first objective of this Bloc against the Hegemony of Western Capitalism, with Christian roots, was, and is, to weaken NATO by creating Parties of Socialist and Communist tendencies, which, disguised as Greens and NGOs, attack the foundations of the European Alliance, and predispose the NATO member countries in favor of the Alliance of Anti-Christian Civilizations.

The pro-Russian position of these parties on Ukraine Question leaves no room for doubt. Funded by the Alliance of Civilizations, the second objective of these pawns is the legalized invasion of Europe and the United States by millions and millions of men, women, and families from the allied continents, weakening the economy of the NATO nations. Well, we know that every territory has limited resources, and 100 cannot be stored where 50 fit, and even less so when of these 100 there are 40 who live day by day, month by month, and year by year seeing how the future does not raise the black clouds.

If we add to this an artificial crisis financed by the China-Russia-Islam-Socialism of the 21st Century Alliance, such as the War in Ukraine, forcing Europe to rearm, the European Economic Crisis enters a Second Phase of extreme Poverty. International Poverty which, by reaching a Foreign Population of tens of millions subject to pay and benefits, joins with the Pro-Russian and Pro-Islamic Parties to destabilize Democracies, foment Internal Separatism in European nations, and install Authoritarian Governments.

China is always a passive actor, watching from above the fights between the Whites and their invaders, a vulture always ready to gouge out the eyes of the dying.

What is Europe's response to this Real Threat that is being experienced at this time, the year 2025?

Unbelievable but true, to play along with the Alliance of Anti-NATO, Anti-Christian, Anti-Capitalist, Pro-Russian, Pro-Islamic Civilizations.

We observe, without going too far back in time, that the Alliance of Civilizations declared war on NATO in general, and on Europe in particular, in 2004. That year a coup d'état financed by the Alliance of Civilizations elevated the Government of Spain to its socialist pawn; the objective: to open the Borders of Europe to the Massive Invasion from Africa. The Policy dictated by the Islamic Member dictated to his Spanish pawn to blow the trumpet of the Invasion, a call that swept across Africa to the tune of 2,000 euros per child born in Spain. The Invasion had opened. Italy, Greece and Spain opened their doors without Europe saying this mouth is mine. On the contrary, financed by the Alliance of Civilizations, the Parties of the European Left condemned all processes of control of Illegal Immigration, accusing all the Parties of the European Right of being Fascists and being the cause of the deaths in the Mediterranean. So that not those who opened the doors but those who wanted to close them and open them under the Law of International Law, the upside-down world, the power of the Mass Media, became the culprits of the Economic Crisis that painted such black clouds over the Future.

The Answer to this Second Phase of European Rearmament, if not yesterday, at least today, must be the Expulsion from NATO Countries of all diplomatic corps of the Russian Federation, and the call home of all diplomatic corps of the Christian Alliance: in addition to the cessation of all activity, in all fields of Western Christian Civilization, of all citizens and companies of the Russian Federation.

It is they, the citizens of the Russian Federation who must settle accounts with a Neo-Soviet Central Government that has installed itself in a Crime against World Peace and a War Crime. It is they, the citizens of the Russian Federation among us, who know, because they live it, that Peace is the core of the Western Christian spirit, and it has never occurred to us to declare war on Russia, China or any Islamic country; it is they, among themselves killing each other, devouring each other, hating each other and hating each other, a reality that we see at present in Syria, they have expelled the Butcher from Damascus and when we should see them embracing, sitting around a national reconciliation table, we have them massacring each other and murdering all Syrian Christians, to whom the European Left denies refuge and asylum.

Why doesn't the Secretary General invoke NATO's Article 5 on behalf of the European Community? Are we not threatened with Total War by a Russia that has destroyed the Budapest Treaty, that with the Invasion of Ukraine has shouted loud and clear that it does not respect any treaty, any alliance, any word given or received?

What is the NATO Secretary General afraid of?

We are 500 million Europeans. Or are skirts going to give pants lessons about what balls are?

Didn't Europe and the whole of NATO respond as one man to the call by the United States of America for Article 5? Does the current American government intend to betray sister nations?

Has America renounced defending the Honor and Dignity of its Word, enshrined in the Treaty of Budapest, at the price of Ukraine's sacrifice?

Will we buy time to rearm at the price of Ukrainian blood?

Has the American Giant cowed before the Alliance of China, Russia, and Islam, and in the event of a Thermonuclear War is it willing to surrender Europe, and thus save its miserable life?

Is it not following the Manual of Communism to plunge nations into internal crises by predisposing the workers to Civil War as a lever to the Power of Socialism of the 21st Century?

Will the executioners save the dead by receiving the reward of the Presidency for Life?

The enemies are within. A few million foreigners are missing for the Alliance of Civilizations to proceed to physically destabilize the European nations through the lever of the Left and the Islamic communities, and to elevate its pawns to the governments of the Union. They have been given until 2030. These 5 years are decisive for Life on Earth.

From the Heavens the Battle is seen with different eyes. The eyes of God are the eyes of Victory. The Creator of the Cosmos sees the movements of the Enemy before the command of the brain reaches the nerve that pulls the strings of World Anti-Christian Policy.

The King of Heaven placed before our eyes a Model Alliance for Peace and against War whose success is on the table. Since NATO was born, all, absolutely all member countries, have grown and enjoyed Peace.

How beautiful Peace is! She is the Mother of Liberty. Without Peace there is no Freedom! Peace is Paradise in which all arts, sciences and technologies grow hand in hand with the Divine Creative Wisdom.

Is La Paz the number 1 enemy of the arms industries? It is up to all of us, not governments made up of clans of thieves raised in legal corruption, to decide who our enemies are, the enemies of our Health and our Peace.

They made our grandparents believe that the enemy of Man is God. Every dictator, every tyrant, every murderer, every thief, is always looking for a culprit against whom to divert attention and squeeze out his crimes and crimes. The Church was always there to be the scapegoat of kings and aristocracies.

That Voltaire, who thought himself very funny declaring the Catholic Church the number 1 enemy of European Civilization, was the worst enemy of Peace, and in his boundless adoration of emperors and kings, all traveling the highway of Absolutism, he did a disservice to the thinkers of his century, who instead of fighting against Absolutism diverted all their speeches against the Church and the Christian Faith. The Mother of Western Civilization, according to that school of sages without intelligence, was to be exterminated. A resounding failure that teaches us that whoever does not know how to contemplate the World from the heights of Divine History is a fool with a mouth of gold spitting garbage from the depths of his soul.

The Model that we see in NATO is the Model on which we must work in this Century so that the Fullness of nations is welcomed, lived and developed in the Firmament of World Peace, and Perfect Immunization against an outbreak of Civil War in the member countries is an Everlasting Reality. Now, how can we give the government of our history to cowards and enemies of Peace?

The Rearmament of Europe, necessary in the face of the position of abandoning it that the American Government has silently taken, and the position of land for life with which Russia threatens the EEC, can only be executed, without plunging the nations into a lethal Economic Crisis, closing the Borders, expelling from the EEC the extra dead weight that is sinking their economies and serving the control of our Governments on a platter to the Left by the Anti-Christian Communist-Islamic Alliance.

It's not a joke. We are in the Prologue of the Third World War; Whether the book ends there depends on all of us. I only know that the King of Heaven signed a Covenant between his Father and Man by which his Christian civilization will remain in the World, in History and in the Universe, while the others will disappear from the face of the Earth.

Whoever wants to believe, let him believe; those who do not, let them open their eyes, because to see the End of a World, with origin in the spirit of Fratricide, and to live the Beginning of another, with origin in the spirit of Intelligence in the Image and likeness of the Divine, this is an Unrepeatable Event whose Victory will be celebrated for centuries to come.

V

What is Peace?

In pre-World War times, they call it the Third, designation for humans disconnected from the image and likeness of Jesus Christ, and plugged into the Wild Animal Reason, "civilized" is a saying, because to affirm that Modern Man, after Two World Wars, (let's abandon the topic of designations), bestial massacres, genocides of unbridled hatred, wars of religions, times of terror, etc., etcetera and etcetera; To affirm that Modern Man is a Rational Civilized Animal is not only to throw in the towel, it is even to deprive every human being of the use of that natural Animal Reason to the beasts, a deprivation from which world wars, massacres, genocides, times of terror, and so on and on and on and off are understood. created by beasts to elucidate which is the Master Beast.

To leave the Definition of Nature, of the Soul of Peace, in the hands of the heirs of such beasts is universal suicide.

The philosophers, and even less so the scientists of Modern Atheism, never stopped in front of Peace, looking at her face. Or perhaps they shed a single tear on the health of that Unknown Soldier? whose number contradicts the Reason of the scientific Beast, whose Master Reason affirms that the Infinite does not exist, and yet does not understand how not to count the dead for that which does not exist: The Infinite.

Peace?

What is that?

A prostitute at the service of the new imperial senators, all democrats, thistles and thorns, dog food, modern gods defending their privileges with blood and fire? What will they understand by PEACE if it is not the maintenance of their privileges?

China is rearming itself to the teeth as it puts neutral fire on the conflict in Europe. As long as the Whites kill each other, more life for the Union of the Soviet Republics of China!

The United States follows the same logic, better for Europe to disappear than to get into a Thermonuclear War with the son of Satan; Has not Europe always been the cradle of all Great Wars? Let it defend itself; It's about time.

Russia is holding on until there is not a single man left in Ukraine. He knows that China and the United States will not touch the nuclear button.

Germany, France, England, Italy and Poland have lost precious time. Isn't Washington's policy not to win the war?

Historical memory: Washington did not want to crush the Taliban in Afghanistan; the American Secretary of Defense then said that the goal of the War is not Victory.

In a truly democratic country, governed by a True Justice, would that general and its entire government not have been called before a Council of War?

Is Victory not the goal of War? Does a Secretary of Defense say such bestiality?

LA PAZ? What is it?

Answer for political rational animals: "Peace is the Absence of War."

Bravo, with honors.

And what is more interesting: Who is interested in Peace?

La Paz?

Peace is the Daughter of Justice, and where there is Justice there is no Corruption.

La Paz?

From governments led by political animals, what can be expected?

Corruption?

Corruption is the air that gives life to Politics, the scoundrel behind which gangs of thieves and criminals hide whose objective is to get rich in the shortest possible time. And that is it.

Beasts, rational animals, for them Intelligence is an ass's jawbone, a bloody sword, the club of taxes around the neck, the rope of the hanged man, Judas; to say the opposite of what one thinks and to do the opposite of what is said, is the essence and the guarantee of the victory of Corruption.

Judges to the wall, the State on its knees, no one moves from here, what did you think, that assaulting the Treasury of the Nation is a joke?

Whoever comes out of the photo I will take it away, here no traitors, we are all traitors.

Peace? Are you stupid?

War is the Business, the shield against which Justice crashes and elevates every Operation of Assault on Democracy and its Treasures.

Insisting:

Rational animals are a sack of lies and a pit of betrayals. For The Political Beast recognizes no law other than its own. For the beast of a political master, there is no truth or a lie, no good or evil: all that exists is his ego and his will, and he laughs at everyone and everything because he cares absolutely nothing or anything that is not his law: "to live like a god for the rest of his life on account of the blood and sweat of the nation that served him as a victim".

Universal History is a Lesson of Wisdom; Its chapters say it loud and clear:

"As long as a World does not make all its Defense Corps a Living System in the image and likeness of the Immune System of the human being, Peace will always be a Utopia, War the daily bread, and the End of all life on Earth will be the consummation of a Chronicle Foretold: "Dust you are and to dust you will return".

How this return will come we already know, we are on the edge of the precipice and the ghosts of the Past push us to fall.

The political animal class has its god in Money; in the fratricidal war Russia versus Ukraine lit the candles to their god.

The Response of all nations should have been:

A home call from all Western diplomatic corps, expulsion of all nations from all diplomatic corps of the Russian Federation, expulsion of all Russians from all nations.

Another rooster would be crowing. But War is a Business: what are the great War Industries going to live on if we ended all Wars overnight?

They are beasts, they have no intelligence. They believe they can control Death. If Jesus Christ defeated her, how can they, the Master Beast, not defeat Death!

Is not the Goal of Civilization to establish Peace on the foundations of Justice?

Does the political beast have any other objective than to bring Justice to its knees?

Ah, but I forgot, I am a child of God, and what a child of God thinks and the rational beast thinks are two worlds on both sides of the same precipice. Those of this world worship corruption and chaos; we who are of the world of Jesus Christ abhor Corruption and War, we adore Justice and Peace. And first and foremost: THE TRUTH.

SAW JUSTICE

Justice is the Mother of Peace. This Declaration was sealed by God in the Book signed by Christ, which we call the Bible. Although it may seem to belong to another subject, let us here record this Eternal Truth: There is no Bible where Christ does not exist; or, in other words, God does not recognize as His own any book in which his Son is not the Star.

But returning to the subject, what is Justice?

We know that there is no Manual on the Nature of Justice. We also know that during the time of formation of the intelligence of the Citizen, Justice does not have any subject. The Citizen must learn what Justice is or is not as a consequence of his own or others' experience.

Example: A citizen is sentenced to one, two or three years in prison for stealing 600 euros from another citizen; a citizen steals 6 million from the public treasury and is decorated by his political mafia, extolled as a hero, and defended from the Crime of Robbery.

The lesson on Justice that Life gives us makes us wise. Unfortunately, there is no chair of Wisdom. If there were, we could say "with justice" this citizen is wise, that one is not. But since there is no such chair, a president can create a council of wise men, even though none of these wise men has anything to do with Wisdom.

Along the way we have written "justly," and intelligence has not rebelled against its inclusion in the plot. This gives us the opportunity to declare that "justice" is inscribed in the genetic moral code of the human being; this is why we say "in justice", "with justice", because although we are not given any special subject on the Nature of Justice, without the need for any book we understand, even if we are illiterate, what is just and what is unjust in the social dimension of the human being.

Experience is the mother of science, and Life the Mother of Justice. I mean, Life is a University, from whose lessons some learn for good, others for bad, and some for nothing, because their intelligence is not enough for more, to work like a slave, to be a neck open to the fangs of Power; Wealth is for them the summit of existence.

In the Case of God, author of the Declaration with which I open these lines, Life found in his Intelligence a mine. Both by the depth of His intellect and by His ability to open His mind to an infinity of experiences, Eternity came to be transformed into a University, from whose classroom Life poured into God a Wisdom whose roots sink its Existence in the Uncreation of that Cosmos that with its Being shares Existence.

Life, not Power, is the Source of Justice. Seeing that two people for the same job receive different salaries depending on who one is and who the other is and the relationship of the other and of the one with the boss, the intelligence understands that this measure is an injustice. The key word "injustice" must lead us to decipher what is the True Nature of Justice.

We all have engraved in our minds that statuesque image of justice with a blindfold over his eyes and a scale on one arm. The veil that covers her face is so as not to differentiate between man and man, for the same crime the same sentence. A utopia!

We return to the example first, for 600 euros a poor person goes to jail and for 6 million euros the politician does not return the money, and he also mocks all the poor people who trusted in his decency to administer the public treasury.

Deduction: Utopia exists to bring citizens to their knees and with their mouths open, and not precisely to get caviar and champagne in their mouths.

Utopia is the daily bread of fools, which the clever serve them piecemeal while they live reality, and their reality is that whoever steals 600 euros is an idiot and whoever steals 6,000,000 is a hero. Which brings us back to the beginning.

Justice has as its root Intelligence in Life. Animals live, "they don't think... and they exist", but the absence of intelligence in their lives makes it unnatural for their instincts to be governed by Justice. Intelligence in Man, on the contrary, makes it unnatural that Justice is not the nucleus from which our behavior and thoughts arise. Because if Intelligence did not exist in our Being, good and evil would not be by our brain conceived.

Intelligence is the great barrier that separated Man from the Animal world; the Science of Modern Atheism was the Beast that brought it down and returned all humans to the condition of beasts. Proof: Are Two World Wars Enough?

Animal Reason does not understand good and evil, ergo, it does not act "according to Justice".

Once again we open the way: "with justice", "in justice", "according to justice". These principles are natural and unique to the Intelligent being. Reason is the animal instinct proper to the human being, and, like all animal instincts, it tends exclusively to preserve the existence of the individual and of the species, necessary but powerless to create its own world and to rise above all animal species to integrate them into that world of its own.

Intelligence is the Ontological Power that allows the Being to observe his world, dominate it and create a new one without destroying its universal foundations.

Reason is an instrument of survival in its form of natural instinct to all species in the universe.

Intelligence is a Creative Power that feeds on the Knowledge that comes from experience and multiplies its Power over Time: the more years the Being in whom Intelligence lives, the greater is its Creative Power.

In the dimension of the Human Being, the growth of this Power is related to the interconnectivity of individualized intelligence; and vice versa, the erection of international barriers preventing this interconnectivity reduces to its minimum expression the growth of the creative Intelligence natural to the Human Race.

For four eyes see more than two, the greater the intelligence opens to the same Wisdom, the greater and more powerful will be their Power to set themselves up as Creative Power, always in the realm of Nature. The growth revolutionized by this dimension by the open interconnectivity between intelligences implies in its growing movement each and every one of the social dimensions on which a Civilization is built: Justice among them.

Justice is the Mother of Peace, wrote to be read by all a Person whose Life is as great as the Cosmos itself. Whoever speaks of Justice is because he loves Justice. Whoever does not love Justice never speaks of it. Justice blocks the will of the Being that has in Animal Reason its axis, the column of its thought and the source of its emotions.

Being a political animal understands justice as the elimination of all social barriers that prevent it from achieving its primary objective, to be the center of the world.

The Intelligent Being has as its horizon the growth of his civilization on the basis of a Universal Justice erected as a barrier against the will of the political animal.

Intelligence tends to grow with Time; its movement takes place within civilization, and it places all its Creative Power at the service of the growth of this Civilization on the foundations that gave rise to it, that is, as a dimension of interconnectivity, open and free, among all citizens.

We return to the same thing: Four eyes see more than two; which equals the law of maximum performance with minimum effort. Hence the social nature of Man; the freer we are and the more the intelligence of the Human Race will grow more rapidly, and its Creative Power will multiply in this relationship.

If human beings had not reproduced, they would never have achieved dominion over all the species on Earth. Dominion "in justice", because the Creator of the Earth never ceded to Man the Property over His Creation.

The Tragedy of the Human Race had its beginning when a generation proclaimed itself Lord of all lands and their species, including humans.

God set the table and called all his children to serve themselves. But some raised their knives to kill their brothers and take the whole table. Slavery or death was the ultimatum. Abel (human parable) preferred to die than to be a slave. Christ (divine parable) preferred to die than to kill. The parable is always the reduction of a whole lesson of wisdom (both about the Past and the Future) about specific facts.

The Parable of the Evil Sowing, already put, exposed from the Present of Christ the birth of the Division of the churches in the event of the Protestant Reformation.

The parable of the foolish Virgins exposes the future event, from Christ, by which God calls all the churches to Obedience, and sends a son, born as Adam, to bring the oil of Intelligence to their brains, slaves of the Lie in which their parents lived.

So if Man had not been created in the image and likeness of the Divine Intelligence, his lordship over all species would never have been realized, and his Reason would have remained in the dimension of the instinctive reason of animal nature, exclusively dedicated to survival, incapable of creating Civilization.

Civilization is the Society created for the Development of the Creative Power of the founding Intelligence of both: Civilization and Society. The greater the growth, the greater the development. This is an operation proper to Justice; the opposite would be unfair; that greater growth corresponds to less development would not be fair: a formal non-professorial conclusion inscribed in the basic cognitive reason of the human being.

What he affirms in the primary statement: What Justice is, or what it is not, is inscribed in the moral genetic code of the human being. Not speaking for the sake of speaking, the Holy Spirit wrote that the Divine Law of the Decalogue be into the human being as a moral code integrated. And once again we accept as natural that wherever we direct our intelligence we find again this word: Justice.

Very great must have been the admiration of the Divine Being for this Word: Justice! And not because He needed it. Who is Indestructible and can destroy even a forest of galaxies, reduce infinite stars to dust of nebulae, in the face of such a Power, what does Justice have to do?

It is not speaking in vain. Since the record of the kingdoms and empires of men exists, we observe how Power and Justice are related. That is why the first thing that the one to whom Power is given does is to crush Justice, or like Cain to Abel, to bring it to its knees or die.

One who is Almighty and beyond the animal sphere does not need to crush anything. The one who does need it is the one who must make Justice his Private Harlot, in order not to answer for his crimes even when they are in the light of day.

As Satan once manipulated women to bring down men, it has become fashionable in our day to hide behind women's skirts to make their crimes a feminine cause. What most horrifies the Intelligence is the absolute submission of women to the perpetuation of such a crime.

Why did Satan use women as the man's Achilles' heel?

Was it "in Justice" that God condemned the woman to die in childbirth? Because there is no pain in childbirth in the mammalian kingdom, and in the animal kingdom in general. Since it was through the curse that pain came, it follows that during the blessing, "Be fruitful and multiply," the birth of the human being was painless, in every way the birth of man was similar to the birth of all the species of the earth.

"By Justice" we understand, therefore, a Moral Law from which what is Good and what is Evil, we identified. Moral Law integrated into the Genetic Code of Intelligence, whose principles are universal in relation to the Creation of a Society moving towards a higher stage of Life and Existence: "Civilization."

In fact, Man is a civilized being from the moment he receives the Divine Moral Law: "The Decalogue". This Decalogue becomes a tree in constant growth but always maintaining its roots and its sap; and its destruction has always implied the destruction of Civilization raised against this Universal Social Moral Law.

We know that Human Society has been created to be a single Reality with Universal Civilization, established by the Creator of Man on a Justice whose Law he has in the Wisdom, of whom he has in the Eternity of his Life, his university.

Men study Justice to apply laws that Power invents according to the criminal needs of governments that succeed each other over time. So many are the types of governments invented, so many are the laws that decreed with the sole purpose of keeping legislators shielded from "Justice".

Here is another prepositional version: "To Justice." And yet we still know nothing, except that Justice is the Mother of Peace. And we know this because God tells us so, whose Word has its Science in Eternity.

God does not speak for the sake of talking. He who knows everything is Indestructible, in addition to the fact that being Almighty he has no need of Lies.

Lying is typical of political animals whose natural habitat is Crime, Crime, Corruption, War. That is to say, everything that a man formed by Wisdom in the University of Life finds repugnant, disgusting, abominable and worthy of suffering in rigor the full weight of Justice. Hence it becomes insufferable for those who hate Injustice and adore Justice. For he who worships has full knowledge of the subject of his worship; and vice versa, he who repugnant, despises and abominates has exact and profound knowledge of that which he hates, repugnant and abominates. It is useless, therefore, to look for a definition of what is by Life defined.

Justice is that Measure which separates Good from Evil. A definition against which Criminal Reason rose up in war supported by its Cerberus: Science, affirming that Man is the Measure of all things; translating: There is no Good or Evil, there is no Justice or Truth, the one who has the Power is "the fucking master", the one who has the weapon of absolute destruction is the king, the god and the "whore who gave birth to him".

Needless to say, to affirm, to declare, that this Neo-Nazism is the one in which the 2030 Agenda of that Alliance of Civilizations has been installed, from which each Ally hopes to reap its fruit: Islam, the Socialist Islamic Republic; Russia the conquest of Europe on the wickedness of Cain: Kneel or die; and China is going it alone until it makes its Neo-capitalist Absolutist Communism the Hegemonic Superpower directing the traffic of world trade.

The 20th Century Battle to Make Man the Measure of All Things led to the World Wars. Obviously, if Wisdom had been the source of the Academy of Sciences, the lesson would have been enough to break such a declaration and return to the Universal Founding Law of the civilization against which they rose to create that Socialist Utopia of fools, the paradise of Big Brother Communist.

Intelligence in the Image and Likeness of the Divine not having been the field of cultivation, but Political Animal Reason, which rose as god over Science, was the same, we are living a rebirth of that miserable war against the Faith and its Foundational Law, the effect of whose renewal is the Cry of the drums of a New World War.

In effect, the scientist and the politician of the twentieth century slept together in the crime against Humanity from the moment they banished the Creative Intelligence from their brains and clung to Animal reason as the measure of their behavior, making the human being a Beast, the most terrible, the most murderous, hungry for Power and thirsty for Riches. Gog and Magog in open war for World Domination.

Was it in justice, of justice, for justice, that the nations engaged in that Genocidal Suicide without quarter or truce?

What, then, is Justice?

Does it come from Power or from Life?

Where there is no Intelligence there is Justice?

Can we judge the lion that chases and tears the deer?

Will we take the cat that devours the mouse to a court of law?

How many examples can we invoke before closing the bestiary and affirming that Justice and Intelligence are united in the whole of Life!

Isn't Wisdom the Origin of Life? Why did the ancient philosophers not find Wisdom? Why did they look for in Death what comes with Life?

If the Creative Wisdom had not lived in God, would God have become the Creator of the Worlds? Therefore, he who wants to embrace Wisdom must embrace Him in whom he lives.

The Parable is Eternal, "I am the Life," and the question is obvious: who lives in that Life?

Is the Answer necessary?

Wisdom, then, is the Mother of Justice. And since Wisdom lives in God and God lives in Life, he who departs from Faith abhors Intelligence, worships Animal Reason, and declaring War on God declares War on Justice, Wisdom, and Life; a chain of fratricidal errors that led the nations of the twentieth century to the miserable ruin of the World Wars, and in this century it rearms itself to consummate its War by destroying all life on the face of the Earth.

It doesn't matter what the Human Beast wants; everything he thinks backfires; all the Good he desires always explodes in his face. The Political Beast always stumbled over the same stone: it always believed that with the Power of the Armed Forces and the stones and metals with which they buy and sell men it took Control of the Universe and the forces that move it. Instead of being scandalized by such bestiality, the Academy of Sciences set to work in favor of that genocide; its members despised Justice, Law, Law, Truth, all that is good and beautiful, and gave themselves, like filthy prostitutes, prostitutes ferocious of riches at the price of their bodies, to clothe their masters with the most powerful weapons of destruction they could invent.

This was the Justice of the 20th Century, bequeathed to the 21st Century and picked up by an Alliance of Civilizations whose Agenda is shattering the foundations of Civilization.

Even more. We are living witnesses of the Justice of our Creator. Did he forgive the people who made his Law a harlot in the service of Power, even when that Power was dressed as sacrosanct? Would it not have been a corrupt Being who would have condemned all peoples for doing the same, while absolving those who in His Name did the same?

Is Crime measured by the relationship of the criminal with Power? Wasn't Satan a son of God before he revolted against his brother Adam, another son of God?

Do we not say that Justice cannot open its eyes to distinguish between criminal and criminal because of its kinship with Power?

And yet we are witnessing, we continue to witness, a new attempt to make Justice a whore of lux, a rabid bitch biting at the orders of Power.

How many civilizations must fall at our feet before we understand that Justice is beyond Reason as the measure of all things!

Wisdom is the Measure from which Good and Evil, Law and Right, are defined. Any Justice alienated from this Definition transforms all Power into a Criminal Organization, from which Society must once again free itself through Civil War.

We don't say it, the record of the history of nations says it. For a time, this type of Animal Organizations builds its apogee and extols itself in the glory that it will obtain the day after its victory, that is, its lifelong conquest of Power. To succumb during its uphill climb under the avalanche created by its injustice and its bestializing corruption, sworn enemy of Intelligence as the True Engine of Civilization.

God says it, and his children acclaim it: Justice is the Mother of Peace. When Justice is prostituted, the cultivation of War begins. The Seed of Corruption, once opened, engenders in Society the tree of the Revolution, on whose branches the bodies of its sowers have always been hung by the immensity of their crimes.

The new beast of the day thinks that experience has made him wise and believes that he will be able to control the effect of this millenary law. Each century puts at the disposal of the new beast new means of controlling the reactions of peoples to cultivated injustice, for 600 euros you are a criminal, for 6 million you are a hero; and in his insanity the new beast believes that his will not be one of the bodies to be computed hanging from the branches of the tree of corruption.

And it is understood; except the American generals, every army that rises up in war, in this case against Justice, firmly believes in victory. That is why God will take the Rod of Iron from America's hands and give it to a people who will do His will and remain in His Wisdom forever and ever.

What is Justice?

If you don't know, what man is going to tell you what you don't want to hear!

Do you believe that God's children are created in your image and likeness?

VII THE HOUSE OF SATAN

From the Beginning the Founders of Christian Civilization maintained the Acts lived by them by writing a dogma for Eternity: "God is Love". Any objection or discussion of this Principle is a Crime Against Life and an Apology for Hate; this is recognized by all the Citizens of your Kingdom. They wrote this Dogma from what they saw: The Choice of His Only Begotten and Firstborn Son as the son of Man, the Champion God gave us to crush Satan's head and bring us Redemption.

By Law: "from the life of a man another man shall be called to collect the Blood", it is understood that "from the Blood of a son of God any other son of God may be called to claim the price of the Crime".

"Adam, son of God," wrote the Holy Spirit.

True, God could have begotten in man another son, in the image and likeness of Adam, and have guaranteed him victory against the murderer who killed his father. But the Redemption was not intended to be a gladiatorial spectacle between a son of the Earth and a son of the Heavens. Not at all!

The Biohistorical revolution with which God opened the Creation of Man was revealed on Earth insufficient to sustain Peace among the children of God in Heaven; the Kingdom of God found itself overnight on the brink of the abyss. A final step was necessary to prevent such a universal apocalypse. No one in Heaven and on Earth except His own Son, born of His uncreated womb: "THOU GOD, JESUS," could make this Step His own, and act in Union with His Eternal Father, looking not exclusively at Man but at the whole of Creation. For it was the entire Creation that the Fall of Man threatened to collapse before the eyes of its Creator.

The House of Satan threatened, nothing more and nothing less: God, with remaining in a state of perpetual war if the Creator did not agree to put "beyond Good and Evil" all his children. By this elevation dignity the House of Satan meant: absolute freedom to govern according to the will of the ruler, exalting the ruler to divine condition through the impossible call of his person to respond to the call of Justice.

To accept this Abomination, to expose all the peoples of His Kingdom to this regime of constant terror, to give His blessing to the transformation of Paradise into a Hell... before opening this door God would choose to destroy everything and begin the Creation of a New Kingdom. But since God is Love, this Nature of His Spirit, instead of being embraced like a son who adores his father, was taken by the House of Satan as an Achilles' heel, from which to take advantage to extract from God what would otherwise have been impossible: Universal Regency invested with the Properties of Absolutism most repugnant in the eyes of God Himself.

This Claim of the House of Satan, written in the blood of Adam and sent to the entire House of God, regardless of the insanity it exposes, was to be answered by the King of Heaven in person; for in the extreme case, God would reduce to dust every creature, child or non-child. But JESUS CHRIST is His Son, His Child, "You-God", His Familiar, His Equal, His All, the Life-Giving Force to His Heart, the Source of the Inspiration of His Creator spirit.

JESUS could not remain on the sidelines of the Cosmological Revolution that his Father came to conceive in favor of the Universal Salvation of the entire Creation.

Love in the Creator of the Cosmos is a fire that feeds on the Life of His Son; the Son's Love for the Father is the Wind that keeps that flame alive. Neither did God want to destroy the House of His Son or accept the House of Satan in His Creation. Tempting the Son of God with the Forbidden Fruit of War?

Needless to say, from what is known, but it is good to remind those who have their ears closed to the Eternal Truths: "Two Persons, one Spirit". The Spirit who lives in the Father lives in the Son. In the Two Divine Persons lives the same Holy Spirit of Creative Wisdom.

So, war is an Abomination to both the Father and the Son. God is Love, God lives in the Two Persons, one Spirit, Creator of the Heavens and the Earth. The Father is the Source of Creative Omniscience, the Son is the Mouth and the Arm through which Creation emerges from Matter, Space, and Time, in short: HE is the WORD.

The Son speaks and so it is done; he asks, and his Father gives him everything.

The Decision to consummate the Biohistorical Revolution that opened with the Creation of Man, in whose Decision the Son had no part, had to come to an end with the integration of the Son into the Father's Decision. The elevation of Christ to the Cross was the Work of the Two Divine Persons. The Discourse of Wisdom to the entire creation, both of the House of YAHWEH and of the House of JESUS "Admits No Buts": Father and Son, Two Persons, One Spirit.

This Conclusion was derived from the Acts lived by the children of God of the House of Abraham; Brothers of the King of Heaven, JESUS CHRIST, and sons of YAHWEH GOD. In the resurrection both Houses, that of God the Father and that of God the Son were united into one and the same. "God is Love" is since then the cry of victory that lives in the Blood of all creatures.

It is not the only Dogma that Eternity wrote in the Gospel. If the first is "God is Love", the second is no less visible: "GOD IS PEACE".

God, in the Son, preferred to give himself up than to touch a single hair of his enemies. "Drop the sword, Peter, for he who kills by the sword dies by the sword" is the re-edition of the Law given at the Beginning: "Do not eat, for you will die."

The First Man could not understand the meaning of such a prohibition, given subliminally by God to the House of Satan; it was HIS ultimatum to the enemies of his Government.

The Fruit of the Science of Good and Evil is War, a truth questionable by the rational beasts of the Academy; but evident in the eyes of one who has in Wisdom the source of his Intelligence.

Peace is the Future of the Tree of Life!

Peace is to Life what War is to Death.

And since God has declared, in the Person of His Son: "I AM THE LIFE", it is understood that he who makes War belongs to Death and will not enter the Kingdom of Eternal Life. It is for this house of Death, in the Heavens as on Earth, that the Divine Sentence was written and remains: "Dust you are and to dust you shall return."

Each one decides his Future.

It is known: the Word of God is the Word, and the Word is God, that is, the Law is eternal and all-powerful; nothing and no one can change a single letter of his statement. From this it is seen that he who makes war belongs to the House of Satan, his mother is Death and his father is Hell; head and body, body and tail, the whole Beast will be banished from the Heavens and thrown into the Abyss; whether it is a Nation or a Federation, whether it is a Community or a Union, every people that rises up against its neighbor and brother to raise Hell in Creation belongs to Death, it is the family of Satan, all the people, from the child who suckles to the old man who dies, from the young man who breathes to the adult who perspires, all that people belong to Death, it is the House of Satan; the sentence against that people is the Banishment of Creation, their place is with their father: Hell, guarded by Death.

God offers Peace: "My Peace I give to you, my Peace I leave with you". Your deduction is understandable. Cursed is every being that lowers its arm, grabs the jaw of a donkey and the smash against its brother's skull. Or did not God create man naked? Without weapons of destruction, without homicidal thought, without feeling of violence towards their brothers and fellow men; the Perfect Nudity of those who are born in Love and live in Love; "He has nothing to fear from anyone who no one should have anything from him."

The Word is the Life of the Human Being. A word woven from the sources of Wisdom that feeds his intelligence and opens the doors of the Sciences of Creation.

We have not been created to be lux species of a Divine zoo. The doors of Creation are open: "God will show greater works than this to his Son so that you may be amazed"; the Son of God is speaking, that Son of whom his Father says: "God said, and so it was done"; this same Son at the sound of whose Word "the winds were stilled and the dead were raised".

From HIS Gospel he is speaking to us of New Works, greater than the Creation of our Heavens and our Earth. And God does not put in our hands the Technology of movement among the stars because He knows and sees that our scientists are in their immense majority dogs of War, slaves of Death, worshippers of Hell, animals haters of Man in the image and likeness of the Son of God, this Universal Prototype whose Image is reflected in the Soul of the entire Creation; and they would put at the service of the House of Satan on Earth a Science, whose beginning and end was Peace and Health, the two towers against which the Academy of Sciences rebelled and conspired to bring them down.

Peace is not a vice, a totem word with which to blind the understanding while sharpening the blade with which to end the life of others. The wisdom of criminals has for its glory to extract from words its true nature; they take out the core of their existence and instead integrate a virus, which can be political or religious. They talk about Progress and are leading to ruin the fools who applaud the speech. They speak of a happy afterlife and drag the people into absolute misery; they speak of freedom and chain the future of all families; they talk about Change and throw everyone into the jungle of survival.

Peace has only one nature: Life.

Where there is Death there is no Peace.

Where there is War, Death dominates. And Hell will swallow up that people.

From the First Fratricide to the present day, the crimes of Power have been so many and so varied that, without wanting or seeking it, we have become experts in the Knowledge of the laws of the Science of good and evil. The last thing we heard is the dialectical legalization of Evil, in its form of Absolute Corruption, as "a public good", and the Universal Good as the number one enemy of the "private good".

The House of Satan rules from darkness the threads of the world. Beyond the irrational thoughts of its worshippers among the nations, the House of Satan has only one mission: To reduce all life on Earth to dust. The Sentence against that House is signed and sealed; The day of his execution has arrived. The Final Battle began on February 24, 2022. From that day on, the King of Heaven and the King of Hell have faced each other without truce or quarter; the king of Hell seeks to move his son's finger in the North towards the nuclear button; the King of Heaven creates all the conditions so that the Day After His Victory the Universal Peace will be armored against all War in the Future of His Kingdom. If the First Man was created Naked, the Last Man comes dressed in Invincible Garments to make impossible even the Idea of War against his King and Lord, God the Only Begotten Son Jesus Christ.

First we must end this War, and then open the Human Being to Peace, so that, just as he lives in the Creator, he may live in His Creation for eternity.

Let no one fear Death, because from the hands of Death God can deliver any child; fear God, for if he lifts up his arm against you, give yourselves as flesh thrown into the fires of Hell.

God loves only those who love their neighbor; the people who hate their neighbor will answer for that Hatred of their creation before the nations of the Heavens and the Earth.

The Judgment is written: "He who kills a wound with the sword dies"; it is the one who writes the Law who is responsible for executing it. God says, and God does. Those of you who defend the death of your neighbor, for religion or politics, invoke the Judgment of God against your heads; and having read "the Word of God is God," it is better to kneel before the Son of God than to stand before the House of Satan.

Two Models have been set up before all Creation: to become the image and likeness of the Son of God, Jesus Christ, or to become the image and likeness of the Son of Death, Satan. Each one chooses to do with the Mirror of the Soul, in which this Reflection is produced, what he wants. God does not create robots, rational animals disconnected from Wisdom; the Creation of Life is inspired by Life in the Image and Likeness of its Creator.

The Wisdom that formed the Intelligence of the Divine Being to give it the Perfect Mastery of the Sciences of Creation, this same Wisdom lives in creation to make it a participant in the Life of its Creator.

The principles of Logic, on the dimension of which Intelligence is structured and Thought grows, are the same for the Creator as for the Creature. The same Wisdom that formed the Thought and spirit of the Divine Being, as we read: "I, Yahweh, have been formed and there will be no one after me", it is this same Wisdom that participates in Creation to raise it to the Intelligence of its Creator.

Let us remember the words of Solomon:

"I am mortal man, like all others, born of him who was first formed out of the earth, and in my mother's womb my flesh was formed. I was taking consistency in the blood for ten months, a product of the virile sperm and the pleasure that accompanies sleep. And when I was born, I breathed the common air, and fell into the earth, which likewise bears all; and my first voice was crying, just like everyone else. And I was brought up in swaddling clothes and with care; for there is no king who has any other way of coming into being; one is the entrance of everyone in life, and the same is the exit. That is why I prayed and prudence was given to me. I called on the Lord, and the spirit of wisdom came upon me.

And I preferred it to scepters and thrones, and in comparison with it I had wealth in nothing. I did not compare it to precious stones, for all the gold before it is a grain of sand, and as mud is silver before it.

I loved her more than health and beauty, and I put her possession before light, because the radiance that springs from her has no rest. All the goods came to me with her, and in her hands she brought me incalculable wealth. I rejoiced in all these goods, because it is wisdom that brings them, but I did not know that it was the mother of all.

Without deception I learned it and without envy I communicate it, and I hide its riches from no one. It is an inexhaustible treasure for men, and those who profit by it become partakers of God's friendship, recommended to Him by the gifts acquired through discipline. May God grant me to speak judiciously and think worthily of the gifts received, for He is the guide of wisdom and the one who corrects the wise.

For in His hands are we and our words and all the prudence and skill of our works; for He gave me the true knowledge of things, and to know the constitution of the universe and the strength of the elements; the beginning, the end and the middle of time; the alternation of the solstices and the changes of the seasons; the cycle of the years and the position of the stars; the nature of animals and the instincts of wild beasts; the force of the winds and the reasoning of men; the differences of plants and the virtues of roots. I knew everything hidden and manifest, because wisdom, the architect of everything, taught me.

For in it there is an intelligent, holy, unique and manifold spirit, subtle, agile, penetrating, immaculate, clear, harmless, benevolent, sharp, free, beneficent. A lover of men, stable, secure, calm, all-powerful, omniscient, who penetrates all intelligent, pure, subtle spirits. For wisdom is more agile than everything that moves; its purity is diffused and pervades everything; for it is a breath of divine power and a pure emanation of the glory of Almighty God, so that there is nothing defiled in it. It is the radiance of eternal light, the spotless mirror of God's action, the image of his goodness. And being one, she can do all things, and remaining the same, she renews all things, and through the ages she pours herself out on holy souls, making friends of God and prophets. That God loves no one but him who dwells with wisdom. It is more beautiful than the sun; it surpasses the whole set of stars, and, compared with light, it comes first. For night succeeds in the light, but wickedness does not triumph over wisdom."

Thus, the Intelligence of creation is formed in the Image and likeness of the Divine Intelligence, Life and Peace being the two sides of the same coin: not to defend Peace is to abandon Life in the hands of Death.

To believe that Peace is to throw in the towel in the face of War for fear of Death, is suicide; it is as much an abomination to wage war as not to defend peace.

Whoever applauds the War is a murderer; their place in Life will be deserted. Whoever defends War as a modus vivendi is a murderer, his place in Creation will be erased.

The First Man was like a fool before a son of God expert in the science of War. God did not believe, as Father, that a son of His Hands would dare to challenge Him to Total War.

The Last Man came clothed from the soles of his feet to the crown of the head of the Wisdom that has banished Death from his Being and given to his God all Glory and Power. It is in the Image and Likeness of this Last Man, our King Jesus Christ, in whose Image and Likeness all beings are conceived.

Peace is not a luxury. Peace is the cradle in which Liberty casts its teeth, stands on its legs, and raises its head to the Intelligence upon whose understanding Wisdom rains its sciences. If this is not the Metaphysical End of the Formation of generations, then the Rulers are all criminals cultivating Slavery as a means of lifelong rule. But that such nullities in the field of intelligence, wise only to ruin nations and peoples, should come to power is the chief enemy of liberty.

Reforming a Constitution so that Corruption is legal is a Crime against the Freedom and Life of the peoples.

The People who do not rise up to defend the Freedom and Life of their children are a dead people, they do not deserve life.

The nation that does not come to the aid of the Freedom and Life of a neighboring nation enclosed within the walls of a tyrannicidal Criminal Government is a nation that does not deserve its existence among the nations of Creation, will be erased from the map of the History of the XXII Century.

The UN Worship of the infernal Gospel of the House of Satan, accepting the Doctrine of Non-Intervention in the internal affairs of a people massacred by a Dictatorial State: was the signature of his death and burial. No one should come to the defense of an Organization that has abhorred the Defense of Life and has installed itself in the field of Death. The Devil is not faithful to the word given to his servants; Once the service is done, devour their souls.

Peace is not a privilege. Peace is not bought or sold. The Crime of War Crime is not paid for with gold or land. Whoever wants to make a pact with Satan for Peace has lost the north towards which the forces of Death are heading. With the Budapest Treaty broken, any response other than VADE RETRO SATAN is to bless the Genocide of the People who disarmed in the Name of World Peace.

Peace is a Divine Right for the enjoyment of the Freedom of all the peoples of Creation: Today, Tomorrow and Forever. Whoever attacks this Divine Right of Man declares himself an enemy of God.

He who raises Hatred among the peoples of a nation in order to keep himself in Power, is an enemy of Peace, cultivates War, and will perish in its flames.

Hatred between neighbors is the seed of Crime, individually, and of War, nationally. Whoever makes Hate the pillar on which to maintain his Politics will be crushed by the ceiling that he could not finish.

Man and God are tired of so much madness, madness, darkness and lies. There is no longer time for medium inks. Every man must choose his place, with the House of the King of Heaven, or with the ranks of the House of Satan, the Final Battlefield is open, there is nothing left to discuss or talk about.

Fear therefore the God of the Cosmos and the King of the Heavens; as Father he is a Bread "that comes down from Heaven"; as an Enemy it is a Fire that devours absolutely everything; for he who has in his Mantle the Responsibility for the Life of all the Peoples of Creation must have in Peace his Sceptre and in War his Enemy.

CONCLUSION

There can be no Peace in our World as long as the Armies of nations continue to be enslaved to the interests of dynasties, dictators, tyrants, businessmen and political agents, the purpose of whose movements is to maintain the status quo of World Fratricidal War in which the Human Race has been since the fall of the First Kingdom that the Earth knew.

Peace cannot be subject to the chains of a nation's commercial interests. This policy is an aberration of the nature of the human being. The Fall in this Aberration is the origin of the homicidal behavior and transformation of the human being into a murderous beast.

The Mission of every army is Peace. The subjection of an army to the interests of a dynastic class and a political party is the beginning of the Dictatorship and the liberating Civil Revolution under whose wheels the bones of those who fought the evil from which they thought they were escaping by creating wars of invasion, as in the case of Ukraine, have always been crushed.

Which leads us to a new stage of knowledge. Namely, how many kinds of war has the Creation story known on the face of the battlefield between God and Death that the Earth eventually became?

We are talking about our World, about the blood shed by the families of the Human Race, our People, since a man was deceived and, raised to the condition of a god, rose as lord of the life and death of all peoples, crushed the Freedom of his own brothers, banishing Peace from the Future of the World.

War has been the school of deadly fire in which the human mind has been forged by blood and iron. War found in the human being refuge, cave, castle, palace from which to go out to harvest the dead on whose corpses to establish dynasties, monarchical and political.

An Army that defends the interests of particular bodies and abandons the Peace and Health of the peoples in the criminal hands of such interests, is an Army that serves Death; its future is that of its disappearance from the face of History.

Peace is not in the interest of a Political Party engaged in a War against everyone, all enemies of its interest, all fascists, demons to be freed by committing genocide. "Let there be war" is the word of the enemy of the Human Race. Those who make it and those who defend it fall into the Judgment of God: "You eat, you die."

Peace cannot be violated under any premise, ideology or religion. For those who declare War and promote it, whether Independence or Invasion, the Divine Judgment is Almighty and Incorruptible; whoever he is, from a child of God to the humblest citizen of Creation, who does it: he invokes on his head the sentence of death.

The Jewish People invoked on their heads and that of their descendants this Almighty Sentence in the belief that the origin of the corruption of their Temple was the Will of the God whom they claimed to worship. At the Last Supper of the Holocaust, to which the descendants of that criminal house were summoned, the Power of Divine Justice has discovered its True Nature; namely: no one, from the priest who sits in the chair of St. Peter to the humblest of the Church's servants, from the most powerful king to the humblest citizen of the Earth, every creature lives in the light of the Law: "You make war, you die." This Incorruptible and All-Knowing Justice is the guarantee of the Peace of the whole of Creation.

But as I have already said, Peace is defended. Yesterday, God begat him a Temple; Today I create for him, before the eyes of the whole creation, a Fortress, impregnable and invincible, in which Wisdom will govern all the Armies of the Earth, in which Peace will find its Rod of Iron, with which to break down all the borders within whose walls dictators and tyrants, the mad and the wicked, will never find. for Eternity, refuge, cave, castle or palace from which to plan their wars.

War is an Abomination: anyone who proposes it as a means to achieve an end, either of Independence or of Expansion, invokes against his Head the Sentence of the Law: "Banishment from Life".

Those who believe themselves to be better than God and invoke an Amnesty against those who in their mind prepare the Civil War as a lever towards the satisfaction of the Hatred that consumes them against their fellow men and their neighbors, in whose Hatred they hide the need to escape from the crimes committed against Wealth and Public Health, on these saviors of criminals, partners in the crime of embezzlement of the wealth of nations, what sentence will rain down from Justice once the Law is freed from the yoke of the tyrants who have it kneeling like an impudent harlot signing sentences at the stroke of a heel?

Then it is seen that banishing God, our Creator, from our World is the origin of all the evils that all the families of the Earth have been suffering. To believe that there are more nations than the Nation formed by all the families and peoples of the Human Race is the primary symptom of the madness that promotes the birth of War, whether civil, international or worldwide.

This symptom of self-destruction has its etiology, its source, in the genetic inheritance of the millenary behavior of human peoples. We all know that all species are endowed by nature with an instinctive reason that prevents them from danger and moves them towards life; except when this survival mechanism fails and as an effect its reaction movement is directed towards death. We are talking about a Pathology of Animal Instinct, very rare in species, but its existence has been sufficiently demonstrated to understand that this same pathology related to the behavior of the human being puts on the table the Pathology of the Intellect. That is to say, human Intelligence has been sick for centuries directing peoples to War.

War is the final product of a Pathology that has spread its virus throughout society; society incapable of seeing its illness and procuring its cure, it allows itself to be dragged into war as a means of curing the symptoms of its moral decay and its material crisis. This truth has been the engine of wars between kings, empires, nations and the so-called superpowers until World War II. It is this Cursed Phantom of Communism that has risen again to impose on all of us Cain's ultimatum to Abel: "On your knees, or death".

Thus, as by the symptoms the nature of a disease is discovered, by the behavior of the people we detect the nature of that pathology that cultivates Hate: that abominable story of being the cause of all one's own evils "the neighbor," the death of which will bring to the national body the health that the prosperity of its own rulers ruined by its crimes and crimes.

It is not in Division, but in Unity, that the Glory of Peace resides, and the Wisdom in which Justice found Mother, and Father in God, pitches its Tent. The man who rises up against Peace curses God.

Creation has no King other than God the Only Begotten Son.

For a time God kept the crown among the Christians in order to defend His people from Death; until Man himself rose up and faced Death: the Last Enemy, in the words of the Holy Spirit.

This Day has been born.

Every kingdom founded on that Necessity will divest itself of the Crown and place it at the feet of the Throne of the Son of God, which is the Church. The house that does not do so will be banished and thrown into prison.

As it was done in Heaven, so on Earth.

The SPIRIT OF TRUTH

I

"Jesus said to Peter, 'Turn your sword back to its sheath, for whoever takes the sword will die by the sword.'"

The Discourse of Divine Wisdom does not admit of buts, nor justifications, nor family members. Justice is Universal, its Force is God, Father and Son. And the Word of God is the Word, and the Word is God. And the Word is the Son, and the Son is God. The Word of the Father is the Word of the Son. And the Word of the Son is the Word of the Father. Ergo, the Word of God is God, and receives from the Divine Nature His whole Being. The Word of God is Eternal, it is Law, Universal Law, Almighty Law, Incorruptible, Unfading, Perfect, Pure and Holy. For when does God open His Mouth to declare to the whole Creation, the children of God of Heaven and Earth, this Decree of Death against whoever rises up in War against his brother, whether of the Earth or of the Heavens? We all know this, not before but after he proclaims the headship, over all the pastors of his Church on earth, of this same Peter whom he puts on his knees before the Law: YOU SHALL NOT KILL, YOU SHALL NOT MAKE WAR.

Concerning this we must remember the Word of God concerning the other Flocks, not of our World, which refers to the Universal Supreme Pontificate of Jesus Christ, over whose churches in Heaven the Son, as He is of the Church on Earth, is the Head, hence St. Gregory the Great wrote that he who declares himself Universal Bishop speaks from madness, for this would imply that the Bishop of Rome is the Supreme Pontiff of Heaven, an abominable declaration at which the Holy Spirit in Gregory cries out: VADE RETRO SATAN.

But returning to Peter, leaving this new theme for another time, we return to the Divine Wisdom on the Law of Universal Peace, declared by the Father in Genesis: "Do not eat, for you will die", and ratified by the Son in the Gospel: "Put down your sword, for you will die".

The Son signs the Father's Law against War and Death; as Adam does not escape judgment, neither could Peter escape. It is for this reason that he first raises him to the Chieftainship of his Shepherds on Earth; he raises Peter to the highest in the Service of the Lord of all the churches of the earth, and immediately brings him to his knees before the Justice of God, before which the Son himself bows, for he knows no respect of persons.

Adam was the son of God, and he is the son of God, but being the son of God did not save him from the Sentence against Disobedience and Rebellion against the Law of War and Death.

The Law is not abolished because of Man's Weakness, nor is a clause embedded in its nature by which the House of God is exempted from Obedience to the Law. Not at all! The Law is Eternal; the Judge who administers it is God, and his Word is God. God cannot deny himself, neither for love of a son nor for love of a servant, nor for love of anything or anyone. The acceptance clause would become a crack in the wall, a breach through which Death would enter and sow its evil seed: the Division between peoples for the Supremacy of the Race, from whose roots the Poison of Hatred infects all branches with the fire of War.

Absolute Abomination is that of God the Father and God the Son against that Tree of Hell!

Perfect Abomination that lives in the Spirit of all the House of God, Brethren, children, Citizens all of their Paradise, each and every one of them, from Peter to the lowliest and least priest, from the gods, children of Heaven, to the Princes of Heaven, all are subject to the Law.

It is the King of Heaven Himself and Lord of His Father's Creation, Creator of Creator Himself, who, after standing before Satan, bends His knees before His Father's Infinite Wisdom and Holy Law against War and Death. For, in effect, God sent his Son to Earth with the Freedom of one who has the Power to do according to his Thought or act according to the Wisdom of his Father: JESUS had the Power to give His Life to the Cross and to redeem it in the Resurrection; he also had the Power to forget the Cross and do his own Will, to crown himself king of the Jews and to declare war on Rome.

JESUS bends his knees before the Wisdom of his FATHER. The Source of Divine Wisdom is the Love of Life. His Father's Law is Perfect, looking at the Immortality and eternal life of His entire Creation. He, JESUS, his Son, is here on Earth, living first-hand the Horror of War, the Terror that comes with Death: Is there any other Law that can close that Breach in the Wall and keep the explosion away from the Kingdom of God, other than to put before the whole of Creation that To Rebel against the Law is to declare War on the Creator of the Cosmos Himself?

It has already been seen in the DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS CHRIST that the Rebellion of a part of the House of the Children of God, of the Heavens, against the Law, using the blood of Adam as a War-Axe, had in the belief that they had found the Achilles' heel of the Law in the Love of God for His Creation. But the Law was written so that no one would be confused. "God says and so it is done," God writes as soon as he opens his Old Testament. The Word of God is God, God writes as soon as he closes his New Testament. This is why God says of Himself, "I am the Beginning and the End." The Law remains, it is Universal and it is Eternal. And for this reason he first lifts Peter up and then puts him on his knees. The Law against War and Death is to Life what the Firmament is to the Earth; if the Firmament sinks, all life is extinguished. If the Law is erased or perverted by a clause, such as the one that Satan asked for with his Rebellion in Eden, the entire Kingdom of God would be condemned to live what Adam's world did in the days of Noah, its destruction.

The Law Against War is Universal; not only for Pedro. They are all the Citizens of the Kingdom of the Son of God, of the Earth as of the Heavens, of the Present as well as of the Future, who, enjoying Obedience, enjoy the Freedom of those who live in a World governed by an Immaculate and Incorruptible Justice, on whose Foundations Universal Peace is Perfect. What would become of God's Paradise if Hell were his dwelling place? Who wanted to be Immortal in a world eternally subject to the winds of War? This is what Satan sought when he brought Hell to Earth, to seduce the King of Heaven himself with the beauty of War, the glory of one who crushes armies and nations and raises his genius above all the kings of the universe, to make War a game with tin soldiers.

Cursed be every man, every living man who lifts up the battle-axe on the blood of his brother, he and all his people will be cast into the Abyss of Death, that there for eternity they may devour one another!

We see also that He first lifts Peter up and then brings him to his knees, thus making it clear to God that the Power He gives Peter to bind and loose does not include in His Nature the Absolution of the Crime of War, a Judgment reserved exclusively to God. It is God who stands as King and as Lord, as Law and as Judge. Peter has the Power to forgive sins committed between man and man, concerning the nature of Sin: "Thou shalt NOT envy, NOT testify falsely, DO NOT perjure himself, thou shalt not kill, DO NOT steal, DO NOT commit adultery, DO NOT cease to worship God above all things." Sins upon which Peter and the Church received from God the Power to forgive them for the salvation and perfection of all Christians, who, born on the battlefield of Heaven against Hell, and because they are born in favor of the murderous fires, uncontrollable since the Fall, under whose flames the nations burn and souls are burned, by the force of social and historical circumstances they are forced to live the abyss that exists between what is wanted and what is possible.

Man being unable to conquer Death on his own and knowing that sin is a snowball that if not forgiven ends up becoming an avalanche that takes the soul into exile from Being, God has wanted to place in the hands of Peter and his brothers in the Priesthood of Christ on Earth the Power to forgive those defects that stain the soul. but they do not drag it into the abyss of selling their souls to the devil for thirty pieces of silver. But here that Power begins and ends. The Law against War rests its Glory in the Hands of the King, Lord and Judge of all the peoples of Creation: Jesus Christ, our Father in Heaven.

Thus, it is up to Peter to see his own Crimes by rising up as Judge of kings and worshippers of War: absolving from his crime what God condemns, while legitimizing as Pope his own crimes, as if the Lord were dead and the Servant was free to lift the sword "and not die".

Truly the Law is Universal and the Power of Absolution conquered by the Son on the Cross is Universal as well, but "the spirit of Jesus is the spirit of Prophecy," portrayed in the Event of Jonah and Nineveh: Repentance and due Obedience, in Peter's image and likeness of JESUS CHRIST Himself, is the Way to this Victory of the Human Race over Death. There is NO other way: than to immediately take up arms.

"I AM THE WAY."

Which brings us to the Word God: "Sheath the sword." The Creation of the Kingdom implies the Creation of a Universal Army of Pacification among all the peoples and nations of the Heavens at the service of the Everlasting King, our God: JESUS CHRIST. Sheathing the Sword does not mean "standing naked" in the face of a Future in Eternity in which a New rebellion could break out. On the contrary, it means the Unification of all the armies of all the Peoples of Creation into a Single Peace Defense Corps: Inviolable, Invincible, endowed with all the Power to move at the speed of sound of the word of War and stand between Cain and Abel before the arm of Death consummates its crime.

Hence the doctrine of the UN to refrain from moving the Force of Peace between nations and against a Genocidal Criminal State: it is its sentence of Dissolution, at the same time as the announcement of the Creation of a New Organization of the Plenitude of nations whose Pacification Force will have for its Origin the Spirit of the King's Law: the Spirit is God, and God is the King. The Force of God will be the Force of Peace.

From which it is seen and understood that any social system empowered to circumvent Justice through the creation of laws decreed to shield legislators against their crimes, past, present and future is a suicidal system dragging the people to their ruin. Hence it is the duty of every man to rise up against the legislators and worshippers of such anti-social systems, and to make Duty his Right: to claim, the immediate overthrow of legislators and systems created in the name of social welfare, when the reality is that they lead to ruin and the Right to create a Society and Civilization in which the Law is Incorruptible, Universal, and its Justice does not know that meaning from which the two classes of citizens arise: the class of those who suffer those laws, and the class of those who enjoy the laws that they write to turn the Police House into their den of thieves, from where they carry out their crimes oblivious to the condemnation against those who make Power their shield against Justice.

From this it is also understood that any type of armor, parliamentary, senatorial, military, judicial, priestly, or of any other sign: is a direct attack against the Peace, Freedom and Health of nations.

There is NO True Democracy where Power transforms Congress into a Cave of gods defended by a Justice and Law on its knees in the face of corruption and evil.

The crossroads we find ourselves at is clear. We live in our Being a Society in which the movement has two luminous directions, Peace and Health. And yet we suffer from an ancient system for which Absolute Corruption is the best of all existing social systems. The option proposed is diabolical: This system of Absolute Corruption or a socialist-Islamic type Dictatorship, on the way to a Russian Communist Theocracy.

The decision is everyone's. But I only know that cowards never won a battle. Nor was it ever seen that women conquered a War.

II

"What is Truth?"

Knowledge is the source of the behavior of the animate being, that is, endowed with intelligent life in the image and likeness of God.

There was Redemption because there was Ignorance. There can be no redemption of the crime when the Transgression is committed in the use of the fullness of the intellectual and mental faculties; if there is, Justice becomes an accomplice of the Criminal.

In the Adam vs. Satan Case there was redemption for the former in response to his Ignorance of the Knowledge of the Cause for which the latter declared War on God. For the latter there was no redemption because his Homicide was executed in the full use of his mental and intellectual faculties; the Murderer had full knowledge of the consequences of the Crime he committed, Satan knew that the Murder of Adam, whoever committed it, meant signing with his blood a declaration of War against the Creator of the Cosmos.

The Divine Jurisprudence, source of all Justice in Heaven, from that very moment flooded upon Satan his Sentence of Eternal Banishment from Creation, marking the difference between Ignorance and Knowledge. Whoever deceives, who lies, who betrays his word, who makes Lies his ladder to Power: he falls, from the ascended height, to Hell.

He who is deceived, who is moved by Lies and led to his own ruin, answers before Justice according to the evil produced to his fellow men, but his condemnation remains open to redemption by reason of his Ignorance of the true target against which his enemy, until then brother in arms, shot the Arrow of his ambition for unlimited Power. at whose feet the State must place itself in its fullness.

In the Satan Case we see the absolute insanity of the murderer reproduced in the painting of the Temptations of Jesus. The murderer wanted to bring God to his knees. Bringing God to his knees would have the direct consequence of disposing of his Kingdom as he pleases.

In the modern case, transferred the Cadre to International Socialist Politics, co-participant in the Intellectual Authorship of the Alliance of Civilizations Headquartered at the UN, from where the 2030 Agenda is pontificated, whose purpose is to take away from the human being his Freedom, that is, his Soul, the Socialist Power, since in the Islamic World the end is already given in its Religious Agenda, seeks to bring the Body of the State to its knees in front of the Government in office: a necessary step to put its boots on the neck of the Nation and crown the Dictatorship, making Democracy a lever for the assault on Power.

The UN offers to share power over the whole world to the brothers in arms of the 2030 Agenda in exchange for bringing their respective nations to their knees. Now it is the People who must kneel or rise; to cower or follow the example of Christ: "Vade Retro Satan".

Truth is in Life, it comes with Life, it is the Universal Force that lifts the Self from the dust to Intelligence. The Mission of Justice is to discover the Truth. A State that lives on its knees before a Government is a Criminal Organization; it has despised, it has denied the existence of the Law as the guarantee of coexistence among peoples; and it is so because its Slavery to the Government is a Fundamental Necessity for those who conceive the Power of Democracy as a lever of access to the Dictatorship.

Someone said it, I don't remember his name: "Give me a lever and I'll move the universe." The UN has put the lever of the 2030 Agenda to guarantee the "democratic" transformation of Democracy into Dictatorship. Now it is up to each nation to decide to kneel or stand up.

Returning to the Christian Question par excellence, the Fall, the Prohibition of transgressing the Law under pain of Banishment from Life, we see it written in the Canticle of Moses, where we read that God colonized the Earth by distributing among his children, not from our World, princes of Heaven, the different First Families from which the Human Race came to be created. "But God's proper portion is Israel," the son of Abraham, the son of Noah, the son of Adam, the son of God.

The formation and growth of the First Kingdom of Mesopotamia of Eden was reserved for Himself by God; it was up to God and exclusively the God of the gods to choose the First King of the Earth. The Sumerian Chronicle is indisputable in its authority when it reports: "The crown came down from Heaven." To intervene in the formation of the King and his kingdom was, and is, to sign a death sentence against one's own head.

So that whoever has knowledge of the nature of his Crime and executes it in the fullness of his mental and intellectual faculties signs on himself and his body politic the Sentence due against a Criminal Organization. Anyone who is in the service of that head, forming part of that body, is subject to condemnation. If the State and the People do not proceed to follow the example of Christ, on their heads and that of their children the weight of the Criminal Dictatorship of those who used Democracy as a lever to move the universe of the Mother Constitution.

Truth is the path by which Science and Justice move in Time. But if Intelligence did not exist in Man, neither Justice nor Science would have been conceived as a fundamental part of our Civilization. Both, Justice and Science, recognized from their birth that Truth is the horizon towards which they move. When both, Justice and Science, do not respond to this Universal Objective Criterion, and are defined by Power, both open their march towards their participation in the Criminal Organization of a State kneeling before a potential Dictator, whose goal, nature itself indicates, is to use Power so that power becomes act.

God did not bend the knees before Death. Nor did Christ, the Man, kneel before the madman who dared to want to kneel at his feet the Son of God. "Like Father, like Son."

Disciples and relatives of Christ, the Man who lives in us, opening our souls and showing in our Being our Response in the Image and Likeness of that of our Master and Father in Heaven, comes of itself. It is self-evident that everything maddened to death by his unlimited ambition for Power and Riches, seeks his victory by leading all the public powers at his service against the enemies of his transformation into dictator for life. "A dead dictator, a dictator in place."

Whoever ignores this equation becomes part of the Crime.

Speaking of Truth and History, we can compare the Fall of the World of Adam with a hypothetical apocalyptic fall of ours, current and alive, in a total and absolute collapse of the energies that move it: electricity, oil... We go to bed one night turning off the light, and we wake up in a dawn of absolute communicative darkness. All satellites fall, all existing technologies sink into the abyss. We wake up in a world back to the caves. Civil war between Cain and Abel. All those who knew how things worked disappear, only those who used them without knowledge of how they did it remain; the only possible social order at that time was the one founded on military power.

A reality that we see described in the Ancient History of Mesopotamia, where the rebirth of civilization began to open its career on the backs of empires founded on a military class exclusively dedicated to War as a means of maintaining the end obtained, Power.

History is one of the branches of the Tree of the Science of Life. To deny the search for Universal Objective Truth in favor of the personal interest of Power is to betray its nature; it is to transfer to the Memory of Man the evil caused to Society by a Justice given over to Corruption.

Memory is the Motherboard from which Intelligence analyzes, builds, and creates the Reflection in your Mind of the True Image of the Universe in which you live and exist in Space and Time. From the moment the Motherboard is touched to erase functions and redirect its work in an established direction, not predetermined by its creator, the consequences of this manipulation will be seen, in the short term, in space and time.

To erase Living History in order to rewrite it for future generations that did not exist or live in the times of which we speak, is to produce at a national and universal level the malignant effect that pathological amnesia, or loss of memory, temporary or absolute, produces in the individual.

The Brain without Memory puts into action a corpse on two legs, animated by existence, but not by life. Intelligence without Historical Truth reproduces this evil effect in nations. Hence, any assault on the Truth in the field of History sharpens more and better discovers the nature of the Criminal Organization that by lying and deceiving conquered Power with the original intention of bringing the State to its knees, an unconditional and indisputable necessity to put its boots on the neck of the Nation.

The historians of the nineteenth century sinned of anti-Christianity because Protestantism lived in their national genes. Even with the evidence on the table that the Archaeological Revolution of the second part of the nineteenth century put at the service of European and American universities, they kept their eyes closed to any connection between History and the Bible. Despite their predetermined refusal to admit the existence of the Biblical Flood, despite the historical gap discovered between the centuries on both sides of 3,000 BC and the last cities of the Neolithic, back between 4,000 and 5,000 BC, the Surgeons of the Historical Memory of the Human Race preferred to skip that gap, forget about the Neolithic Revolution and fly straight to the Palaeolithic, more romantic, more open to science fiction than to Truth. The Damage caused to the Twentieth Century by the dazzling conjunction determined by the fusion of Cosmology and Anthropology in a World Scientific Ideology, from which to begin to relocate the place of the world in the universe; that Damage does not even need to be named, a few letters are enough to say everything: GMI, GMII.

The damage persists. The gate that gives access to the shores of that lagoon between the end of the Third Millennium and the beginning of the Fourth Millennium B.C. is found in the History of Joseph, son of Jacob, son of Isaac, son of Abraham; but not in the one that, from their ignorance, some, and from their rejection of the Bible, the others, have made wander like a ghost adrift on the other side of the waters of that sea of oblivion. The Story of Joseph is the gateway to the true chronology of Abraham's sojourn in the Third Dynasty of the City of your.

No historian up to the present has wanted to get bogged down in the search for Pharaoh's omnipotent and all-powerful Hebrew minister. The perfect excuse for intelligences without a finger of forehead? The most stupid conceivable: No minister by the name of Joseph has been found in Egyptian records.

I don't know if they are fools on a whim or if it comes from their genes to be useless. To pretend to find a Joseph in the Egyptian records would be like denying the existence of the prophet Daniel because of the absence of an all-powerful chief magi of Babylon named Daniel. The integration of a foreigner into the power structure of an ancient kingdom went with the change of name by royal order, accommodating the new one to the reigning society. To look for the all-powerful and omnipotent minister of the Pharaoh of Egypt who transformed his kingdom into an empire, and to do so by looking for the son of Jacob from his birthplace is not only a demonstration of complete foolishness, it is also to discover in a university chair of such magnitude and transcendence for the Memory of Humanity: a true imbecile.

It is impossible to admit that between the first of the historical kings of the cities after the Flood, Megabarasi, (2631-2601 BC), and the last of the kings before the Flood, Ziusudra, our Biblical Noah, (3100 BC) this historical legal vacuum necessary after the Event that sank, as it were, the Atlantis of the moment in the waters of the Mediterranean, can be denied.

A world is not remade overnight. Nor is it wise to read the Bible without looking at God, its Author, denying that the "letter alone kills." I mean, the Bible has only one horizon and path: The House of Adam, banished from his throne, and the following of his Prophetic Heritage through the Millenniums. The Author does not enter at any time into the social condition of the heroes of his books. But intelligence has been given to us to open his Word, to enter and see in his exposition what God, as God, tells us.

That Noah was not just any shepherd, nor just another farmer. How to build the Ark of the written proportions and save all the animal species of his time and region, without seeing a Patriarch of the species of that Abraham who faced only five kings, head of many families, among which the princes were his sons!

The Biblical Author focuses all his Work on following the Prophetic Line from which the son of Eve will be born: the Avenger of Adam's blood, and Redeemer of the World. Everything else does not count in his eyes; count ours.

The House of Christ persecuted by the murderer who stole the throne from his first patriarchal father, Adam, believe that in those times of savagery and barbarism, as seen in the cause for which God decided to put an end to that perverse civilization, for which the Law of the Reproductive Nature of Creation had been banished from the Civil Code, and the Law of Man in the image and likeness of its Creator trodden like grapes in a winepress of blood; To believe that the House from which "a child, a son who has sovereignty on his shoulders, and who will be called a wonderful counselor, a mighty God, an everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace," would be abandoned by God to his own strength: is to believe much.

In a time when killing was a game open to the brute force of the most wicked, to believe that a man without real power could have built that Ark without being a Prince among the Patriarchs of his time, in the company of whom all the families of his House were saved from the Flood, is not wise. "Enter the ark, you and your whole house," says it all. This "house" comprises the houses of his three children, and the houses of his children's houses. It took an army to build that Ark, another army to gather all the species from which animal life would be reborn in New Mesopotamia.

In that world, being a warrior and a shepherd, a warrior and a farmer, was the law. Banished by the Fall of Civilization among the peoples of Mesopotamia from Eden, man became a murderous beast for man. The law of survival became the order of the day. But since there are no documentary records that resurrect the centuries between the Fall and the Flood, we must all refer to Sumerian, Babylonian, Akkadian and Assyrian mythologies... the Chronology of Abraham can only be rewritten from the Discovery of Joseph, son of Jacob, Pharaoh's all-powerful minister.

The evidence speaks clearly about the relationship between the Third Dynasty of your and the banishment of Abraham. After the defeat of the Gutis by the patriarchal houses of Mesopotamia led by Utukhegal, seated on the throne your-Nammu (c. 2112-2095 BCE), the deification of the latter caused the departure of an Abraham who was not willing to lead the coalition of the Patriarchs that gave Utukhegal the throne, nor to remain in a city in which a mere mortal had proclaimed himself divine. An unhealthy custom that would travel through the Ancient East to the West of the Roman Empire. Abraham had Isaac, Isaac had Jacob, Jacob had Joseph.

Let us recall the facts:

The carbon evidence says that the date of the Flood must be placed towards the beginning of the third and end of the fourth millennium B.C. The reconstruction of history from archaeology adds to the testimony. Many were saved from the disaster and started again from scratch. During that process of international reconstruction, Noah's sons had the part of the warrior who comes down from the mountains to the amphitheater of the Babylonian vanities.

The structure of the Akkadian Myth is a copy of the structure of the Hebrew Myth, not in vain many historians have believed that they discovered in the Gilgamesh of the Sumerian Myth the Jewish Connection. Let us remember that God promised the sons of Noah invincibility as a rule.

Noah and his sons came down from the Eastern Mountains in army formation. (Let us not forget that, in cuneiform texts, the warrior of warriors, Gilgamesh, is attributed with his origin in the mountains of Armenia.) Noah's sons lived in the cities. They grew and multiplied. The original clan expanded through the cities of Nippur, Uruk, Ebla, Kish, Lagash, Umma, your. Abraham's parents lived in this Ur of the Third Dynasty when egomaniacal madness dragged the king of Ur to grant himself the constitutional immunity that the gods were supposed to have. But let us reconfigure the succession of those events in master lines.

Recycle. The so-called Protodynastic Period places its origin in 2,900 BC. This location forces us to place a couple of centuries between the flood catastrophe and the rebirth of the populations. The city of Kish was the first to come out of the waters and give itself a king. Soon the city of Uruk entered the dynamic, bringing to history the adventures of its hero and king, Gilgamesh. After Gilgamesh's death, the city of Kish returned to collect the Rod of the Empire, its king acting among the neighboring cities as arbiter and judge of their disputes. Power that passed to your, and then to the city of Lagash, thus placing us in the twenty-fifth century B.C. To finally fall into the hands of the city of Umma, whose hero king claimed for himself the empire of Eden. An empire that would last Umma a short time. It was snatched from his hands by the young Sargon, cupbearer to the king of Kish. Sargon rebelled against his king, founded his own imperial city, Akkad, and from Akkad he went out to conquer the world. He conquered it. His sons reigned from approximately 2278 to 2193; then the First Barbarians, the Gutis, fell upon the empire of Eden and spread their anarchy from one end of the Four Regions of New Mesopotamia to the other.

The fall of the empire of Akkad brought the classical cities back to prominence, among which Lagash once again came to the fore under the leadership of the famous and legendary Gudea. But it was not this Gudea who liberated the country from the empire of the Barbarians, but the coalition of the cities of the South led by the king of Uruk, under whose banner we must place the grandparents of Abraham.

It happened, then, that, after the defeat of the Barbarians, the chief Utukhegal wanted to proclaim himself emperor, which the chief Nammu and his council of princes of Ur did not like at all, and declared the logical war of independence against him. Under this banner, in fact, we can place Abraham's parents.

We are on the border between the two millennia, Third and Second B.C. Let us observe, however, that before the discovery of the Sumerian Lost Cities, in the second part of the nineteenth century, speaking of Nineveh, your, Kish, Akkad, Lagash, etc., these Cities and their World, which are part of the Prophetic-Old Testament World, these cities and their world, in the opinion of the Science of the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries, never existed. the Genesis of Moses and the books of the Prophets, dealing from Nebuchadnezzar backwards, being pure literary invention, a tale of old mythological stories that the Israelites had pulled out of their sleeves and the Christians had rescued in order to keep the nations in darkness, from which Science was going to take them all, especially at the height of the twentieth century, a date that scientists signed as the date of the death of Christianity.

But by one of those events that should never happen, but that do occur, a generation of "mad" scientists, as if invested with the power of Jesus Christ to raise the dead, set about resurrecting the Lost Cities of Sumeria that, until then, were only old wives' tales. The Sayce, Maspero, Rawlingson, etc., exploded the dialectic of historical materialism of the nineteenth century with the New Science of the Interpretation of the Languages rescued from the Grave: Sumerian, Hittite... where Nineveh, your, Kish, Lagash, Akkad, etc., the cities protagonists of the Sumerian Royal List, rested. The relationship between the years of life of the Biblical Genealogies and the years of life of the kings of this List was and continues to be one of those phenomena that leave you with your mouth open.

Returning to the divine line: The structure of the facts allows us to believe that Nahor, grandfather of Abraham, was one of the chieftains of your who under the leadership of Utukhegal of Uruk liberated the country from the anarchy into which the Barbarian Gutis plunged it. When the Gutis were defeated by the coalition led by Utukhegal, Teraj, father of Abraham, following this line, participated in the coalition of the princes of Ur that under the leadership of Nammu rose up against the tyranny to which Utukhegal later abandoned. The victory of the Ur coalition allowed the sons of Nammu to take the crown. A crown that soon succumbed to the paroxysm of perversity when his successor, Shulgi, declared himself to be god on earth. Let us say that we suddenly returned to the days before the Flood, when the heroes of very ancient times proclaimed themselves to be authentic and genuine children of the gods and claimed for themselves all the rights of divinity. Was it not their religions and their deeds that led the nations to ruin? Under the reign of the sons of Nammu, reigning over your Shulgi and his brothers, our Abraham left his hometown. Unable to endure this egomania any longer, Abraham left your. Curiously, without encountering resistance. There is little room for doubt left by the facts. From the strength that the army of cattle soldiers under the command of Abraham later demonstrated, everything indicates that the son of Teraj was in the eye of the hurricane of the civil war that the divinization of Shulgi put on the table. Had his God not been involved, Teraj's son would surely have led the coup d'état against Nammu's son. Another rooster would then have counted in your. The army of the son of Teraj would have decided the fate of the city.

When Abraham therefore left your, the son of Nammu saw his most dangerous enemy go. The voluntary banishment of Terach's son reduced opposition to his dynasty to the minimum possible expression. And so it was that, at the head of a powerful army of warrior-shepherds, Abraham climbed the banks of the Western River with no one who dared to confront him. He entered Syria from the north, a no-man's-land open to grazing and banditry. The Bible says that Abraham fought against up to five kings together. And he always triumphed. And he continued to triumph. Nor did Pharaoh dare to consummate his audacity. What was the result of his announced wedding with the wife of the Son of Noah? An army of battle-hardened men moving to the sound of one man's word, when was it what is called an easy enemy.

As for the approximate date of the pilgrimage of Abraham and his son Isaac through the lands of the Middle East, the famines of which the Bible speaks and the famines that devastated the reign of the sons of Nammu, especially during the reign of Ibbi Sin, between 2028 and 2004, serve as a point of their location in the timeline. The presence of Abraham and his son among the Amorites, an enemy people of your, with whom Abraham's relations were typical of the enemy of my enemy is my friend, opens our eyes to the geopolitical situation in which Isaac's father moved. In addition to confirming us in the chronological limits between which we have placed Abraham and his son. Incomprehensible a decision that could have stained his reputation with the fame of cowards, Abraham preferred the wisdom of his God to that of men. His theological position did not admit mutilations or revisions. The time of Eve's son had not come. This was his truth. The other thing – believing that the story of Paradise Lost was just that, a story of old women – for Abraham was Satan's temptation.

In fact, impatience was the mother of Cain's sin. Ignorance, not wisdom, was the driving force behind his crime. Whoever swore vengeance retained the right to put a number on the day of the death match between the son of Eve and Satan. It was up to God to say when and how. He says, and the whole creation writes, "And so it was done." "Count the stars of heaven if you can, so numerous will I make your descendants be." Where are the descendants of the House of Nammu?

After Isaac's death, during the lifetime of Jacob, Joseph's father, famine struck again in the lands of the Ancient Near East. During those famines that devastated the known universe, the settlement of a powerful Hebrew clan on the Nile has been discovered in the papyri. The Jewish Connection introduces Joseph to the social movements that the famines caused in Pharaoh's Court.

With Joseph, Providence entered Egypt. It is understandable that in gratitude the Pharaoh and his Court allowed the brothers of Providence to settle on the bank of the Nile that they liked best. With Providence at home, goodbye to bad weather.

We have located the Abrahamic period during the Third Dynasty of your, between the two extreme points of the twenty-first century. And we have seen how in the pharaonic records of the Middle Kingdom, in the reign of Amenemhat II, between 1929 and 1895, the Asian tribes began to move into Egypt, moving further and further south. It was in the chronicles of Senusret II, successor of the previous one, that there is already a firm record of this immigration of Asian tribes into the empire. But the point of interest that draws our attention is the famines that ravaged Egypt during the reign of Mentuhotep III (c. 2010-1998 BCE). Famines that connect us with the story of Joseph, allowing us to place the entry of the Hebrews into the Land of the Nile at the beginning of the Second Millennium. The importance of this connection lies in the response demanded by the event of the settlement of cattle tribes in the kingdom of the pharaohs, farmers. The fact of the break with the traditional pharaonic culture, of rejection of nomadic, cattle-raising peoples, opens our eyes to a change that can only be explained by the revolution that Joseph's presence in the Pharaoh's Court entailed. Without going any further, it was during this period that the Pharaoh acquired all the classical notes, so typical of Asian imperialist structures. It is understandable, then, that until the arrival of that pharaoh who did not know Joseph, the Hebrews enjoyed a policy of privileged friendship, enjoying which as they grew up they extended their settlements further south, at the price, of course, of abandoning the cattle-raising tradition of their fathers.

How soon, then, the bad times are forgotten!

Now the evidence is missing. Chronological recreation from the knowledge of the social and historical conditions of those centuries is enough for those who have intelligence. It is up to the wise to look for the proofs.

The integration of Joseph in the twentieth century B.C. and the penetration of the Hyksos, pharaohs who did not know Joseph, gives us the sixteenth century for the Exodus, and the middle of that same century for the Destruction of Jericho.

The last piece of the puzzle is missing, the Pharaoh's army. Knowing God, it is to be believed that his Hand will rescue from the depths of the Red Sea the trial that will determine the Chronology of the Exodus from Egypt, the Destruction of Jericho and the Reconquest of Egypt by its true inhabitants, refugees in the South since the conquest of their kingdom by the Hyksos.

Truth is the Mother of Civilization. During these last 50 years our Civilization, based on Knowledge, has advanced more than in the last five thousand years of existence. Everything indicates that in the next 50 years the revolution of all the branches of the Tree of Science will cross the red sea of darkness that the 2020 Agenda has raised over the future of the fullness of nations. Our part is not that of the one who sees, it is that of the one who participates. Our Duty is to bequeath to our children all the tools that will allow them to continue advancing without ever breaking the Law of Peace and Health of the King of Heaven.

We have not had Peace and Health because we have been looking for him like someone who cultivates a sick land watered with blood. At the beginning the Crown came down from Heaven; and returned to Heaven at the Head of the King, Jesus Christ; from whom we will see with our eyes his Law of Peace and Health descend upon all the nations of the earth.

The Final Battle between Death and Life is an old one; victory will be ours.

SPAIN 2025

Life is an adventure. Not even the kings themselves ever knew how they were going to end. The world is there. It surrounds us. Smells. Sucks. The drums of the end of the world are beating. The Lullaby of Change emerges from the mouth of Death. Always in search of the all-powerful weapon that will give its possessor the imperial scepter of the universe. No one is infallible. Everyone falls into error. The vision of the privileges of riches is a virus that takes over the brain and nullifies the strength of the spirit. What happy times those of Absolutism! Who doesn't want to be an absolutist autocrat! The world at your feet, Justice is your harlot, Armies are your big cock, the State is your eunuch. Pants on the floor, panties on the table! He rebels, he opposes your will, he is a fascist, an enemy of democracy, of progress, of... of... of... of whatever. Let them impale him, now!

ECCE HOMO. Behold the Man. Here is ME. Man lives in me. In you? I don't know, the same thing a Judas lives, you know. If you hang yourself or if they impale you, what about me? You don't know how to govern yourself, you need someone else's brain to feel that you have a brain? That other one will butt-you until you are breathless. Do you think you'll go crazy? Well, let the pump continue to serve you pleasure.

How good it is to exist on the line between survival and misery! You're a superhero, your whole life is a never-ending battle against supershit. Zombies are here to stay, the end of alternate endings to Earth's history. Yes, very well fandango, Netflix is an ass manufacturing shit at the speed of light. Not happy? You will experience the end of your world, the beauty of the oceans burying the lands, volcanoes crushing cities, cyclones dropping the weight of the skies on your head. Brilliant, awesome, Hollywood is the court of the Devil running the City of Angels. What madness! We're going to throw it all away for a handful of gemstones.

When did we leave the Palaeolithic? Are we not still living in the Age of Stones and Metals? Of course not, we live in the Age of the Atom. Of the Atom that blows up and pulverizes buildings, lives. How much beauty there is in destruction! The Atom, the weapon of mass destruction perfect, not perfect, imperfect, but not forever not perfect. The architects of the New Global Order run to the W.C. Woke, they are going to shit the Planet's Weapon of Destruction.

They only complain about one thing: They do not know how to create the Weapon of Destruction of the entire Universe.

How did such anthropoid beasts get to the Academy?!

We all know the answer.

The voters have a price, they are garbage of light, they need to dress in gold, they adore the animal species "Judas Iscariot", for thirty silver coins they sell the Nobel even to the mother who gave birth to them: (I was going to write "the whore who..." but it seemed to me politically incorrect, that is to say free, and after all the poor mothers have no power of choice over what they are going to bring into the world, although well thought they could undo the daisy: will it be good as bread, will it be another motherfucker?). Maduro, Barack Obama, Vladimir Putin, Camilo José Cela, anyone who puts enough stone and metal on the scale to win the Peace Level Prize, for Literature.... conquers him. The Academy is a casino, a bunny club. And isn't Life an adventure?

How can you believe in God, stupid from birth, if you have never heard the roar of Niagara, nor conquered the Balkans, the Taurus, the Austrian Alps on foot on roads that rise to marvel at their mountains of pure granite! I see the Arm Strength of my God. "God does not exist," they say, fools without wisdom walking masks of professorships bought in the market of lies. The price? Freedom from the glory of a child of God.

The real adventure begins: eternal, indestructible, immortal life, Wisdom for mother, the Tree of Life of the Worlds opens a New Branch in a New Heavens and a New Earth, what will your Civilization be like? Which Branch Will God Cultivate? I want to be there. To follow my Creator through the seas of stars that fill the galaxies and extend their shores over the Abyss covered by Darkness.

Stupid Mr. Einstein, putative father of the Atomic Bomb, the Cosmos expands for Eternity through the infinite spaces on the other side of the shores of the Ocean of Galaxies. The Galaxies are Continents, Islands, Andean Mountain Ranges, Himalayan Mountains shining with the strength of infinite suns, I also want to travel through the Magic Forest of the Cosmos, nothing is what it seems, none of them are where you think they should, they advance and retreat, they continue to advance and unfold before your eyes a new landscape, you look back, and all you see is the obituary in the sea that the Lord of Infinite Spaces has opened over the surface of the Waters of the Cosmos. You see them born as you approach them, and you see them grow as you move cosmos inside. Galaxies are trees that move in magical terrain. The Enchanted Forest of Creation. I am delighted by my Creator and everything I have seen can be contained in the palm of my hand. How he will marvel at God who sees the world through a Smart Crystal APP. TV! Or of leaves glued with saliva to a cardboard.

God does not exist and you do exist, because you think. And what do you think? Oh yes, to get rich, to be powerful, to in the mouth of a Sacred Constitution and to die of laughter, you are god! and your mother was the whore who fucked the whole town. Of course! All on their knees, whoever does not pay the tax of being alive, let him be impaled. Take out the whip Mariquilla and let all the fascists bleed their ribs, (they are all fascists, until they learn what Progress is). We are the good guys, Mariquilla, the others are ghosts for a sixth sense. Fry them for taxes. It's like shaking a tree of ripe apples, some fall and others resist, for those that fall we create a survival cushion, do you understand Mariquilla? We call it... I don't know, call it what you want, social coverage for the vulnerable?, which will be everyone, except us, Maraquilla... We are the immortal gods, the divine guard of the foolish king, a very rare thing, but it doesn't matter, you kneel at my feet and everyone else kneel at your feet.

"This is the world turned upside down"

The Lie to Power; the Truth in the trash. Let each one who cannot choose his glory dig his ruin.

I remember discussions with friends from the Institute a few days before the first democratic elections in Spain, in 1976. I had just disembarked from India, a sabbatical year to get my act together, which everyone should enjoy, a sabbatical year between the Institute and the University, but which is granted to no one except those who have the güevos to live by living. In the USA of the 70s and 80s of the twentieth century, that sabbatical year was sacred, at least in the middle class. They put in your head an image of the world and the universe that you want to touch, smell, feel, live. From school to workshop? That was one of the great crimes of the Ancient Society that we are going to kill and bury. Do you think that the Modern Age was not a joke? From the Neolithic we returned to the Paleolithic, but not to that happy state of Homo Sapiens conqueror and dominator of Flora and Fauna, but to the Homicidal Paleolithic that is recorded in the List of the Kings of Sumer, city against city, without quarter, without stop, Kish defeats Umma, Uruk crushes Mari, Babylon with the hand of Bar Tibrá, etcetera etcetera etcetera, the Neverending Story. Two Thousand Years eating each other alive. An example for eternity. That the Greeks did not learn, for example. The Greeks devoured each other endlessly (this is the part they don't teach you in school) until Persia went to fuck them all, and from the birth of blood Alexander the Great was born.

Nor did the Italians, centuries and centuries and centuries later, learn anything from the teaching of the Ancients. Pre-Renaissance Italy was an of endless battles between Florence, Genoa, Venice, Siena, Naples, all against all, dance all damn the dance of war. Is it strange that God would erase from his sight a world in which violence was the law, as described in the case of the man who entered Sodom and Gomorrah with his concubine, took her from her, and raped her to death? From Paradise to that Hell they ran, how many centuries? And do you think that Socialism of the 21st Century is going to bring paradise back to Spain? Read in the history books, what nation devoted to Socialism did not travel its path to dictatorship? Stones don't talk, but books do: Answer, "none." Where Death enters, cemeteries are created, where Socialism enters, misery and ruin are created, necessary to build on them the edifice of the Dictatorship of the Socialist Worker. God does not exist, it is the Creed of the Woke Agenda 2030!

And Felipism was made. Thirteen years later the State went bankrupt. Five million unemployed.

Aznarism came, he had to sell the properties of the Nation that Felipism did not have time to sell, and the Bankruptcy of Social Security was overcome. Two million unemployed.

Zapaterismo came, eight years later the State, Social Security, the entire edifice of the Nation went bankrupt. Back to 5 million unemployed.

Is the sky bricked, who will be the bricklayer who will brick it?

Rajoy lived the announced chronicle of a failure. Spain was found in the ICU, in a comatose state. Those who brought it to that happy state, Zapaterismo and its partner: the guild of the arts: musicians, actors, celebrities, signed up for the banquet of the plundering of the wealth created by Aznarism. Then a New Art was invented: The Looting of the Nation's Treasury. New artists emerged, they created a Society for the Happiness of all the nations of Spain.

The Alliance of Progress between Communists, Socialists, Podemites, Thieves, Narcos, Human Traffickers, with the most lethal venomous chameleon of all reptile families: The Bourbons.

Sanchismo came, and the "YES WE CAN" March was opened, we will eliminate the Evil Ultra-Right that wants to dismantle Democracy and prevent the Bourbon-Sanchista Dictatorship from being seen as the salvation of Spanish Democracy.

What a laugh, Marisa! The waters of Sanchista corruption have reached high, very high, but not enough to cover the top of the mountain from which the Bourbon king and his socialist queen move their pawns on the chessboard of Politics.

How can a man understand what Geopolitics is without ever having left his nation, his people, without speaking languages, without having had the happy joy of enjoying a sabbatical year around the world: a prize of the perfect near future against the abandonment of studies! Who runs for fifteen years from Childhood to Youth without seeing a prize for his career?

"Live, son, spread your wings and fly." Travel through Asia, Africa, the Americas, Australia, Europe, Indonesia, the world is your red carpet, enjoy the glory of being alive, let Creation speak to you of its Creator, feel the pulse of the thunderstorms over the deep Mediterranean, do not be afraid to get lost at a crossroads, in a nation that you have seen a thousand times on the map, it's the Earth, it's your world. But if what you want is sex and drugs, and life is that and nothing more than that, go back to the dust, be dust, get out of the way. You don't exist if you don't live. Descartes was a bitter man who closed his eyes to life: "I think therefore I am", or what is the same: I do not want to know anything about anyone, neither dead nor alive; I don't want to see anything at all, that they kill each other, that they devour each other, those beasts... I think, I exist, do the others... that they die?

We return to Sodom and Gomorrah. Threat of Nuclear War. Can't get the connection?

I think because I exist. Do stones think? And stones don't exist?

I Think because Man lives in me. Not Stalin, nor Pinochet, nor Guevara, nor Einstein. The Man who lives in me is the Reflection in my Living Soul of the Being of the Son of God, in whose Image and Likeness Life is created, in this World and in all that exist and will exist.

The Soul is the exclusive Dimension of Man. Its Property is that of the Living Mirror in which the Image of the Divine Being is reflected; this Reflection absorbs the whole being of Creation and lives in its Being the "I AM": image and likeness of the spirit of the Creator". Wisdom, intelligence, understanding, Morals, Sciences, Ethics, Law, Law, Politics, Sociology, History, Religion. "I AM a child of God, a Citizen of His Kingdom, a Creature of God's Paradise." From adventure to adventure. Eternal Life is the Great Adventure, "There." Here we are at War.

Death flies on wings of destruction from the moment the first drop of blood is spilled until not a single drop of blood is found in the world. It is his Strength, his Destiny, to reduce to dust every World that opens the door to him. Written Universal History does not lie: The Engine of History is War, the search for the ultimate weapon after which the Earth will become a Graveyard. Another Mausoleum wandering through the darkness of the cosmos. An abortion thrown into the Abyss. Death rides from the first homicide to the Global Genocide on the shoulders of the wise, enemies of the Universe as the Creation of a Being in whom God lives.

In our Being lives Man in the Image and Likeness of the Son of God, Prototype of all the children of God, both Adam and the Apostles. In the Being of the Creator of the Universe lives God, an Indestructible, Eternal Person, of limitless Intelligence, with a Power that extends His Force to the Infinite, and Omniscience founded on the Science of the Creation of Star Clusters, Galaxies, Worlds. There is no other dimension of True Knowledge. Death spreads His majesty over all lands because He lives in man as a beast. Life extends its glory in Man because Man is a child of God in the image and likeness of the one who called us to eternal Life: "Let us make Man in our image and in our likeness."

50 years before this Victory, the world was covered by the darkness of an Agenda signed in the hells of the mind of anthropoid homo sapiens, marching in a single direction: The Annihilation of the Human Race: Man and Woman, the Origin of the Family, the Beginning of the History of Civilization. The Earth gave birth to its Creator a single Human Race. Man and Woman, two persons: one soul. The Human Family is born. Cities are born. Nations are born. Man and Woman are the Door through which generations enter, succeed each other, and Civilization grows in Intelligence and Wisdom. Two genders? A multitude of genres? Do you want to erase millions of years of Geological and Astronomical History? What crazy have the authors and apostles of the Woke 2030 Agenda escaped from? The UN called it the 2030 Agenda with the exclusive purpose of hiding from all of us the target towards which its arrow was headed: The Destruction of the Human Race, its Absolute Alienation from the Law of the Universe and the Earth. Didn't Anthropes, father of Homo Sapiens, belong to the world of Mammals? How many genera does each mammalian family have? To this day, as far as we know, male and female is the genus of all mammalian species. Millions of them have passed through the Earth and each and every one of them has known a single gender, composed of the union of the male and the female. There is no other genus in each and every one of the mammalian families than that composed of the Male and the Female, father and mother of the families that make up the species to which they all belong, and all are under a Universal Law of Reproduction.

Where are the anthropologists, biologists, zoologists? Do they not feel shame for others? The formation of human intelligence in the hands of a band of intellectually ill people hired by the UN and its New Global Order (the New World Order failed) to overcome where God, according to them, has failed: And to create a Human Being alienated from Natural Law, exclusively governed by the Law of the Elimination of Man in the Image and Likeness of the Christian God. And don't we Christians have the Duty to rise up against a Program of Destruction of the Soul from kindergartens and schools?

The right of the creators of a Civilization, mother of all arts and sciences, to defend their Soul is Almighty. There is no fear of Defeat. A Covenant was sealed between Man and God, with the blood of Christ Jesus, by which our Strength is our Strength, His Wisdom is our Wisdom. In His Being we have Victory. They manipulate the being of Childhood by diverting the path of their lives towards Prostitution, Madness, Suicide, Misfortune and Ruin. Who cares? Not to European International Socialism. The great industries of Pornography, Pedophilia, Pedophilia, Sexual Perversion... they need lambs that will be freely given to the Tycoons and their Crime Industry clients. Voluntarily? Never! During Infancy they destroyed in their being the Mirror in which Man sees himself in Divine Mode: Creative Intelligence, Free Mind, Superior Analytical Judgment, Understanding of the Laws of the Universe and of the Engineering Sciences and Architecture of the Tree of Nations, Cultivation of Civilization in Time. The Image of Christ Jesus on the Being of God is the Sap that vivified the tree of the species on Earth, and, cultivated by God, bore its fruit: The Human Race, mammalian species, male and female, two persons, one reality: the Christian Family. Everything that is said too much, is superfluous, comes from Death.

Death chooses his servants. They howl like dogs in the palaces of Power. A Minister of Health, a wolf crazy for Power, reaches her throne, a medicine against cancer is known, and Minister Loba denies any budget for its acquisition and salvation of those affected by that group of cancer, the Devil's Wolf says that this money should go to alleviate Climate Change. And doesn't the whole of Spain rise up to hunt down the She-Wolf and try her for a crime against humanity? Another She-Wolf rose up by signing a Law by which the Crime of False Testimony was annulled for the Woman: the Female is free to give false testimony and not be penalized for the consequences of her Crime... but I forgot: giving False Witness is not a Crime in the mouth of the Human Female. Reward? Shielding her in the Palace of the Gods in Brussels, the police box in which once the thief inside the law cannot pursue her, because the law of A. 2030 protects the criminal wolf and pursues the hunter.

Someone must tell the generations that they will enjoy the Universal Christian Victory over the Battle that was fought, the forces that were deployed and the harshness of the combats of the Christian Nations against the Death of the Human Race by pathologized powers that seek to dethrone God so that they can sit on the Throne of the Son of God. Isn't that what Satan sought before the Creation of our Heavens and our Earth?

The Woman has opened her ears to the Serpent again. The Poison of the WOKE Agenda must bear the fruit of Sodom and Gomorrah, against which God would rise to destroy not two cities but all the cities of the Earth. Our Universe is His Creation. Our Creator can destroy everything that Death has sown in His Creation whenever and however He wants. They take out the Rainbow flag challenging God: "You can NOT destroy us, you promised, you will not cause a Great Flood again." They have lost their way, alienating the generations from the Law of the Universe, they have alienated themselves from the Creative Wisdom in whose palace Power is exercised over every Creature. They are Nazis. They are Menguele's children. Humankind is a species to be eliminated in A.W. 2030 Mode. As many genera will be created as there are branches in the tree of Death; fresh human flesh and young, healthy blood will be served to the elites enslaved by the Power of the god who sits on the throne of the UN. These elites will be beyond good and evil, because whoever governs makes the Law, theirs are the children of all families, and theirs is the State. "They shall have nothing, and all shall be happy," the word of Satan. The great question is, why don't they start with themselves, so that we can all see how happy they are with nothing?

"Children do not belong to their parents, they belong to the State." Another Dogma of the A.W.2030. The big question is: Why do parents keep quiet, not get up, and not knock their teeth out of such an evil sect? Do our children belong to them? Will we all be happy without anything?

To belong to this A.W.2030 Sect is to launch a War Cry against the Human Race. To defend Our World, Our Civilization, Our Origin, the Law of the Universe, to shield the Leap of Evolution from the Sapiens Family to the Christian Family: it is a Duty before God and the History of the Generations that will enjoy the Victory of the Covenant between God and Man, signed in the Event of the Resurrection of Christ Jesus, the Man whose Image and Likeness built in our fathers the Civilization we enjoy and is at the present attacked by Death.

Parents, defend your children from this 2030 Agenda. We are in a state of war. If they kill the Human Race: two people, a single being, this end of the Family would open the door to the destruction of the Earth. We cannot allow it. We are children of Peace, but he who gives his House to an enemy who seeks the death of his children is not a man, he is a coward. "I have not come to bring Peace, but War." War on the Death of the Universal Christian Family, War on International Criminal Organizations, War on Tyrants, Genocidalists, Dictators, Corrupt Politicians and Judges. War on the Diseases and Poverty of Nations. Were NOT each of the Works of Christ Jesus a declaration of war against Death signed by God and Man? It is time to assume this Alliance to its ultimate consequences. The Serpent spews venom from his mouth, who will be scandalized? The She-Wolves howl at the Full Moon invoking the Power of darkness, who will marvel at their thirst for blood? Living is the greatest Adventure we can know. He who surrenders Adolescence and Childhood to the Banishment of the Law of the Universe erases from his Future this Truth: Life is a Multidimensional Adventure; if you are boxed into the dimension of Sex, you are dead for the Adventure of Life.

This is the Creed of the Sect A. 2030: Sex is life, choose yours and don't worry about Sciences, the Arts, Wisdom in the History of the Human Race and its Creation in the Universe.

To affirm this Dogma: There is only one Genus per Mammalian species, and all the Mammalian Branches of the Tree of Life on Earth live by the Law of Procreation and Reproduction activated by the Male and the Female: it is a Crime.

To hand over Adolescence, sexually overexcited from Childhood by the UN Slave States, to cover the Sexual Needs of the predators who signed A. 2030, is a Duty; denying them the right to abortion is a crime.

Abortion is the erasure of the evidence against the sexual predator, who could be a grandfather, a relative, a neighbor, a teacher, a cretin, all of them criminals on whose hands the blood of the eliminated being, of the destroyed Evidence, falls.

To destroy the Evidence of the Criminal Males, to glorify the False Testimony of the Murderous Females, this is the Ideological Ideology of the Sect A.2030, exported from the UN against all nations under the Sign of the Cross.

IV

THE EUROPEAN TOWER OF BABEL

"The sky is blue," this is an Absolute Truth. His denial "The sky is gray," this is a Declaration of Absolutism.

"The clouds are gray," but "the sky is blue." The blue of the sky does not depend on our eyes, it depends on the Sun and the Earth. The sky is blue, it is an Absolute Truth because its nature does not depend on man. That which is Absolute exists in relation to a dimension of Universal Reality in which man has no art or part. When an individual or group of individuals associate to impose their word: "The sky is gray" on the basis that the firmament is covered with clouds, either from the ideological or religious point of view, that party or sect is an Absolutist Association, understanding this Absolutism in relation to a Power that imposes its word either through arms or through taxes.

We all understand that Absolutism is a system in which a group of subjects imposes their vision of Natural Reality, "the sky is gray", based on an Unnatural Force from which its members: class, association or party, obtain private benefits. The Absolute Truth, on the other hand, benefits all beings comprehended in the dimension of the Universal Reality of Nature, human beings and living beings of all species living on Earth. All species, Flora and Fauna, live under the roof "of the sky is blue". Absolute Truth against which raising a discourse only suits and proceeds from minds exclusively aligned with the Madness of a Power established on the denial of the Nature of the Universe.

There are, therefore, Absolute Truths within whose dimension we live, from which we learn, and thanks to which we progress in intelligence.

La Paz, for example.

Universal History shows that all periods and epochs of intellectual development of peoples flourished during that time between war and war that we call: PEACE.

We can travel to the British Empire, whose long period of Peace, once the religious wars were over, turned England into a fruitful field in which the seeds of intelligence, Science and Arts flourished to produce the Industrial Revolution, the true mother of Modern Civilization.

In the case of the Spanish Empire, this intellectual development was impossible as a result of the continuous civil wars to which Spain was subjected throughout the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries under the crown of the Bourbons. The imposition of the Bourbon dynasty in Spain imported a French absolutist conception of Power, forged during the reign of Louis XIV, whose lines of government were a declaration of war on the civilizing march of Spanish civilization since the Catholic Monarchs. The corruption and insanity of the Bourbon house dragged Spain into one civil war after another that ended with its fall in 1931. Under that historical firmament of civil wars and governments of the Almighty Valid, it was impossible for Spain not to miss the train of the Sciences and the Arts, in which the other kingdoms and republics of Europe were already traveling.

I have exposed these two cases in which we see "the blue sky" and the "gray sky", as indisputable representatives of Peace as the mother of the Progress of Intelligence in nations. Universal Reality that allows us to solemnly declare that PEACE is the Mother that nourishes Civilization and engenders in Nations all the Natural Benefits to the Progress of Intelligence.

WAR, comparing good with evil, is the return of nations to the state of barbarism and natural inhumanity to beasts endowed with a superior rational intelligence subordinated to the triumph of their wild animal force. If in peace the human being rises above the clouds in the firmament of Intelligence, in war the nations sink into the hypogea of insanity.

Peace, the Mother of the Progress of Nations, is an Absolute Truth. Another question would be what a nation dedicates that Peace to, whether to dress for War, or to elevate its peoples to a Society where Justice reigns.

What Universal History teaches us is sufficient to affirm that Justice is in turn the Mother of Peace. From which it is understood, in turn, that Absolute Corruption is the mother of the Civil War. And in turn, it is inferred that the root of Justice is to be found in the Absolute Truth. Hence a nation can see its fall in the Civil War according to the closeness of the Corruption of its Government to the walls of a system based on an Absolute Corruption of all the bodies of the State.

And this is also an Absolute Truth: The Absolutism of the State drags the Nation into the Bloody Revolution of the People in favor of Justice, because where there is no Justice Freedom cannot breathe. Rather die fighting for Freedom than die drowned by the noose of State Corruption.

There is another Absolute Truth that History puts before our eyes.

Peace is the field in which the seed of Intelligence blossoms and becomes a tree. But the Existence of an International Language, common to all nations in the dimension of the same Civilization, is to this Tree what water is to the field. The living Interconnectivity between the intelligences of the different nations is the cause of an Accelerated Development of Knowledge, which we can basically summarize in the law of Intelligence: The greatest result with the minimum effort created.

We return to the Roman Empire.

The International Nature of a Language Common to all the nations of its Civilization set in motion a universal growth of Knowledge. That lasted beyond the Fall and gave the Christian Catholic Civilization a space for Learning and Development based on Communication among the wise men of medieval European nations. It was under the firmament of that International Language that Europe was able to abandon the state of barbarism to which its peoples were condemned by the Fall of the Roman Empire, and under the Christian Peace the Universities were born, from where, the International Language in activity, the Tree of Sciences and Arts began to take shape, its trunk became strong and in its branches the disciplines began to flourish that over time in turn became branches, mothers of different new university disciplines.

This means that the policy of destruction of a Common Language implies the cultivation of a fratricidal corruption, which, by force of the universal historical logic, must lead the peoples thus divided from Living Intercommunication with their neighbors and fellow men: to stupidity, ignorance, insanity and natural wickedness to those who establish the Word not as a Bridge of Communication but as a Wall of Hatred against all families at their disposal. around, inside and outside their region.

Take the biblical example of the Tower of Babel. Whatever the reasons that the first founders of that Babylonian Europe had for creating a common political space, as soon as their growth took place and the Languages multiplied, without the existence of a Common Language for all the participating peoples, growing these and that, the Rupture of a Common Communication system ended up bringing down what, at first, the use of a Common Language set in motion.

From this it is understood that when the Nature of the Word: Bridge of Communication between the Intelligences of the different peoples is killed, and it is transformed into a Symbol of National Identity, Civilization begins to sink and direct its steps towards the creation of Walls of Mutual Hatred and Ignorance, generating the return to barbarism of those who, having stripped the WORD of its Divine Nature: Lever with which to move the Universe and create a Civilization in constant revolutionary growth as an effect of the Multiplicity of Intellects and their Intercommunication Living in Freedom; from this moment on, that Society is doomed to collapse.

And this is an Absolute Truth founded on the Experience of the nations in the History of Man's Life on Earth "under its blue sky."

It follows from this truth that those who make a Regional Language the Identity of a People separate themselves from the Universal Nature of Intelligence, and condemn that people to the ostracism that entails the Hatred that these enemies of Civilization used to create a Neo-Feudal system in which they are kings. without a crown, but owners of all the privileges of the feudal lords; ergo: Immune to the consequences of their crimes, shielding themselves, in reward for the Isolation to which they condemn their nationalist slaves, to answer for their crimes before any system of justice, which they themselves create to shield themselves against the crimes that in payment for their services they tore from the people thus subjugated.

The Logic of the Growing Evolution of every Civilization with a Universal Vocation responds to an International Language through which the development of the Sciences and the Arts circulates from one intelligence to another, uniting them all in a tree of the Fullness of Nations that, fed by the water of Divine Wisdom, it raises its Trunk to the heights of the Science of Creation. And this is Civilization.

The Victory of civilization has its summit in the Unity of all nations in a tree of Universal Intelligence, with the Word for sap. But if the Word of Liberty is banished by the Language of corrupt powers whose interest is basically that of rational beasts, and everything they see and do is subjected to their persons, the tree is undermined, and finally Civilization detaches itself from that branch to continue to live and grow in Intelligence, Wisdom and Understanding.

Why has the English-speaking world dominated the progress of the sciences and the arts in the last two centuries? Because the Freedom of the Word of a common Language among the heir nations of the British Empire made it possible for the Law of Intelligence to be fulfilled: The greatest result with the minimum effort.

The Banishment of a common Language of a Community by the rise of Regional Languages, out of use beyond its borders, by disconnecting from the Vital Law of Intelligence, drags that Community to its Fall and disappearance.

No species that was unable to survive the changes in the Biosphere was absolved of its disappearance; in order to allow the species riding on the Law of Intelligence to adapt, and finally to master their relationship with the world without breaking the laws of Nature, disappeared. The Future of every people always depends, as it always did, on its ability to understand that we are all moving towards the same horizon and that the things that were left behind cannot be resurrected without causing the earthquake that will devour them to step on the ground. Who speaks the Language of Homo Sapiens? Who speaks Latin?

Languages evolve, transform, give themselves a new body, continue to grow, feed on neighboring languages, recognize each other, and this Power makes the Word of Intelligence find in all peoples a Direct Line of Communication, regardless of the use of a regional language.

Let us take the Basque case in Spain, a language that has frozen in space and time, interned between walls of hatred by the logic of reality, must have engendered within those walls of hatred a monster of terror and death. Because those who abominate the Nature of the Word: a highway of communication and growth between peoples, and transform it into a sign of National Identity, the fruit of their work against the Growing Evolution of Civilization is a latent schizophrenia that by force of its evil character must give birth to inhuman monsters moved by Hatred towards all its neighbors and brothers.

There are, then, two Absolute Truths that every man must receive in his Intelligence. Peace is the Field in which the Tree of every Universal Civilization grows with an eternal vocation. And the Sap that feeds it is the existence of an Invincible Word that runs through all the branches and bodies of the Nations, uniting them in the same Intelligence, whose Law is the Necessity of the Free Participation of all in everything, fulfilling the Supreme Law of Wisdom: At the least effort, the greatest yield.

It is against this Supreme Law that the creation of Hatreds between peoples, based on the schizophrenia of savage politicians whose only interest is focused on resurrecting the feudal system of their caveman fathers, such is the nature of the feudal system in my eyes, that the Nationalists and the New Barbarians use a Regional Language against a Universal Language with an open line to the Intelligence Centers of the Fullness of Nations.

Now, let everyone draw their own conclusions.

Creation continues its course on the highway of invincible laws which, once violated, rains down on the enemies of Civilization the full weight of the Power of its Creator. The Creator has all Power over His Work, either to create it or to destroy it. This Power is inherent in the spirit of Creation. And nothing and no one except a thief can destroy the Work that the Creator executed. The same in the Heavens as in the Earth, the same in God as in Man.

In every creative spirit lives the "lord". He is the one who decides what is done with his Work. No Work not created by him can bear his Name. No one can exercise Lordship over a Work without adjusting to the consequences of the crime committed against its Creator, whether God or man.

The Disconnection of a Civilization created by God based on Hatred against a Universal Language cultivated by God, implies the creation of an ideological and mental prison, over which evidently those creators can exercise absolute feudal lordship; but the Lordship of all that exists in the Universe belonging to its Creator, He possesses all the Power to cut from His tree of nations the evil branches in which Hatred and Terror made their home.

The potentially Second Spanish Civil War must serve the European nations not to base their power on the linguistic division between the peoples of the nations of the Community. We note that it is the political line of behaviour that under the time of the current president of the Commission, who is exclusively interested in acting as a goddess in the palace of the gods, is being exercised: to divide in order to remain in glory. On this road the Community is going to be dissolved.

CONCLUSION

How much beauty, what joy, how can I not live gratefully, through the pores of my brain the hallelujahs flee, blessed are the corrupt, judges, journalists, businessmen, politicians, what would we talk about if we didn't have you stealing, rotting to the last floor of society, violating even the last laws of the penal code! What joy is that of the people, shame is mine. And what a lesson in the Science of Good and Evil. All of you, harlots, pimps, spoils of the Anthropes, brainless sapiens, cannibals of happiness, hypocrites by vocation, murderers of civilization, come all to share the cake of the Public Treasury. Should we not thank God for this Lesson for Eternity? The serpent opens its mouth and my soul dresses itself in war to the teeth, spits the fire of fratricidal war through the sting of the scorpion and my spirit cries out: Crush, burst, destroy, let there be no tail or head left of the beast. Light the fire, brave ones, feed the embers until the wind of the centuries carries away into the abyss the cursed ashes of the worshippers of riches and war. Isn't God a fire that is never consumed? Is not Man created in His image and likeness? Like a father, like a splinter, like the father, like the son.

The thief enters the house, the law curses the owner and blesses the criminal, is this justice? "This is progress."

The tyrant invades a nation, murders strangers and his own by hundreds of thousands, is the dictator the invaded and the invader is the saint?

What a lesson in the Science of Good and Evil, Lord! How can I not be a spark if my God is Fire!

Complaining? You are a fascist, an enemy of Civilization. Offspring of corruption, worshippers of stones and metals, is not the Soul of Man saturated with horror? The Terror sits in the armchairs of the gods and dictates laws to the victims: the worms remain, the apples for the waste. The bad is the good, the good is the bad.

Shout Victory bodies in which the Soul still lives in the Image and Likeness of the children of God: rather dead than living on their knees. We know, they have the Power of the Media, their slaves are psychologists who are experts in manipulating the masses, the disciples of Hitler and Stalin have created a hybrid monster, Socialism of the 21st Century. Can there be a covenant between God and the Devil, between Life and Death, between Heaven and Hell?

Pedro dies. What have you done with the seat of the Holy Spirit, to make peace with the enemy of your Lord, to renounce the salvation of those who walk in darkness, to turn the gospel away from your mouth? Why do you preach Peace when the whole of Creation is at war? Are you fleeing from the Cross? Your Lord will call all his servants to account, one by one. Do you think the Church is a Congress? Look at them, all beyond the law. They are corrupt judges, worms dragging their rottenness on the ground. Does your Lord sit on a throne founded on a sea of filth? Do you not want to remember who is the Rock on whose Glory God has raised His Church? Like Father, like Son. The Father is a fire, what is the Son but a flame that consumes all the leaf litter, the cut branches of the tree of Life!

My heart beats to the rhythm of the Soul of my Creator. His Image is the source of my existence. I think, because He lives. Who are those who congregate in academies of silence to kiss each other's butts while Wisdom is denied the Word in the house of Sciences. Is she not the Mother of Creation? Isn't God your Hero, your Disciple, your Beloved Husband? He found him with the head of the dreamer who paints a new Cosmos in his mind. What a beauty of his Painting! What a Power of His Imagination! Wisdom fell at the feet of its God as a lover, overcome by the unblemished Love of a Perfect Man. The entire Cosmos opened its eyes, the galaxies were placed in its hands. Wisdom stood by his side, gave him her Hand, called him his Lord, gave him the treasures of the infinite sciences that govern with their laws the House of Space, Time and Matter. Who are these, brains lost in that abomination and boundless craving, hungry and thirsty for fame and riches, sitting around the fire of the destruction of Life on Earth? They pat each other on the back, they call themselves geniuses and wise men, creators of lethal pandemic viruses and absolute destructive weapons, children of hell, traitors to the Hippocratic oath, gods for a science engendered by Death, will not the son of Man judge you as one judges filthy demons who renounced the defense of Life and sold the peoples for a handful of silver? How many were there, Descartes, Darwin, Einstein: thirty?

Cursed is the man who defends his house, it is the law of Progress.

Cursed is the people who defend their land, it is the law of the Left.

Cursed is every mother who begets her daughters in her image and likeness, is the Law of Equality.

Cursed is every parent who invokes parental authority, it is the 2030 Agenda Law.

The State is the sole father of all the children of the Nation, it is the Law of Neo-Communism.

Bless, don't curse. "Yes, Father, but my soul is a battlefield laid waste to the ground by cluster bombs. Shall I bless the Devil whom your Father cursed?"

I only know that the Lord died so that His children might live. Blessed be the Lord.

CHAPTER THREE

THE DISCOURSES OF WISDOM

The Human Race, as a World, has been in a state of Universal Civil War for approximately 6,000 years.

The ideologues of War as a legitimate instrument of Natural Selection, a privilege that the family of the Strong must not renounce, the right to mass annihilation, when appropriate, always selectively, of the Weak, by reason of either the State or the Survival of the individual, and which the Science of the Twentieth Century imposed as a General Law: exposed our World to the consequent World Wars. The Need to rise in communion with Peace and for Life is needless to highlight on this Day that dawns to the sound of the drums of the Ultimate World War. These drums sound because the historical and social foundations that dragged nations to devour each other in the twentieth century, as did their parents in the nineteenth, their grandparents in the eighteenth, their great-grandparents in the seventeenth, their great-great-grandparents in the sixteenth, remain. The Technology of Mass Destruction has evolved. From the donkey's jawbone used by Cain to kill his brother Abel to Russia's nuclear jawbone to commit the genocide in Ukraine, the basis of large-scale Murder has the same principle as the one committed individually: The Thirst for Power and the Hunger for Wealth of a Family Dynasty, of a Political Party. Wealth and Power united to the same coin are transformed in their essences to become the two pathological sides of the same coin. True Power has nothing to do with Riches; true Wealth has nothing to do with Power. Does God buy stars from him in order to build universes in the market of galaxies? Power is Wisdom at the Service of Peace among peoples and nations; Wealth is Participation in the Creation of goods at the Service of the Health of the body and mind of all human beings. Definitely every human being must understand that there is no Science outside of the Science of Life, the rest is Technology. We can exist without Technology, we cannot live without Health. When every human being understands this, machines are not science, they are Technology; that the invasion of Technology in Science means the conversion of the human being into a consumer product for the enrichment of the Industries of Death; when everyone understands this, then everyone will rise up to, under the penalty of death against whoever reopens the Business of Death, separate Science at the service of Technology and put Technology at the service of Life. From the first kingdom founded in the Mesopotamia of Eden, man and woman chose Death as a means of integrating all the families of the Earth within their borders: they chose the Law of War over the Law of Peace. From then on, all peoples, donkeys stumbling at will on the same stone, between War and Peace chose the Death of all, War the means to reach a stage of Civilization founded on Power and Riches with a license to kill. The Opposition between this type of Political State and the Divine Concept of Universal Civilization brought upon the horizon of the Human Race the Massive Destruction of all kinds of life on Earth. Not that God provokes it, the fire was made in the forest, and hell pitched its tent, Yesterday, in the insanity of the Dynastic Families; Today, in the Political Parties. They say that the Necessity of the License to Kill corresponds to the Necessity of Peace. But what History tells us is the opposite, they are the causes of the Wars that fill the pages of the Book of the History of Nations. The thirst for power of the one and the hunger for riches of the other lie together in the bed where Venus and Mars begat Satan. To trust in the worshippers of the Justification of Evil as a means to attain Good is to put one's neck in the snare of the hanged. Religions and political systems that defend the Necessity of Death, by civil war or martyrdom, of the neighbor, his neighbor, are the product of the cursed carbol and lead the historical forces to the same point: The World War. Our Duty to the generations born of our being must be focused on shielding the generations against the temptation to fall into the Conception of Power and Wealth as a weapon of definition of the Strong, (the Rich) in whose hands Death has placed the Life of the Weak (the Poor). Glory to Darwin and his gospel of the Necessity of crushing the peoples for the sake of the domination of the Pure and Immaculate Caste of the wise men of the Socialist Republics of the 21st Century! It is in that vessel that the Pilate of the Modern Age, the Atheist Scientist, washes his hands of the genocides that his masters have carried out against nations. And will they not be judged by God in the manner that the Roman Empire was for having put their signature on the Death Penalty of the First of Christians, Christ Jesus himself?

Let us therefore take the bull by the horns and judge it according to the law: "If the bull has gored before, let the beast be exterminated."

Point One

The end, the goal, the objective of a Civilization is its projection to Immortality. This implies that War is the number one enemy of this natural projection to the very existence of Civilization.

Nothing excuses the origin of the War. War is always the effect of madness! Whether scientific, political, religious, whoever defends it, one like the other is both murderers defending an unjustifiable evil. Neither from Science nor from Politics nor from Religion can Crime and Genocide be justified as a Reason of State.

The question is how to achieve the Absolute and Invincible Immunization of the Civilization of the Fullness of Nations against War, Civil or International.

Point Two

War presupposes a paralysis of the intellectual forces of Civilization with respect to its projection in Time. War is the triumph of the political beast, the domestic animalization of Man and his internment in a Society designed for a specific species of Cattle, the rational human animal.

Now, History is the Memory of the constant and merciless struggle between societies-cattle following their leaders-beasts through the plains of the centuries, against the forces of a World Civilization operating from Genetics, moved towards a Final State of a Human existence defined by "Intelligence without limits in the image and likeness of the Divine".

In order to immunize the Human Race against War, therefore, it seems evident that the first measure is the formation of the Being of the Spirit of Intelligence in Man, beginning by extirpating from his brain the implant of the scientific materialism of the Twentieth Century, by which the Being sees himself as an animal, and, therefore, he himself justifies the animal treatment he receives from Power on the basis that this is the treatment that every domestic animal deserves.

The man-individual-people as a domestic beast (voter-taxpayer, whose right it is to vote, whose duty it is to pay, and there is limited its relation to the enjoyment of the goods of Civilization), that domestic animal is the oncogen, the lethal virus of Peace in the body of Civilization, which the political animal tends to cultivate and cultivates in order to maintain its status as a beast-leader.

The contradiction arises when cultivation gets out of control and leads the beast to the Guillotine, of whose uncontrolled the book of History is full of examples.

Point Three

"In the day that you eat of it, you will surely die." We therefore have that the Death Penalty is reserved exclusively for every man and subject who uses War as an instrument of Power.

The Fall – on the part of Man – was nothing more than the instrumentalization of War as a natural means of projecting Civilization to the entire Human Race. The peoples of that First Civilization being enjoying different stages of Intellectual Development, as seen by Archaeology and the History of Civilizations, God forbade, under Pain of Death, establishing this Condemnation for Eternity, any attempt to use the Force of War in the service of the integration of peoples in the Course of Civilization.

We also observe that the Death Penalty was lifted by Christ with respect to all human action, yet His Prohibition against War remained, thus establishing God in Law the Legitimacy of the Sentence against War as a Means of Civilization.

War is, from Universal Law, a Crime against Man and his Creator. And anyone who declares it, without the Defense of Peace being its basis in response to the genocidal Aggression of a group of Power, commits a Crime against Life; the sentence against this enemy of Man and God is the Banishment of Life.

Point Four

Experience shows that the origin of war is to be found in the subordination of the State to the Government. The need to immunize Civilization against War, knowing the Cause of Evil, could not be more direct: Separation of State and Government.

The historical function of the Armies being the Defense of the Peoples entrusted within the borders of their Nation: the General Staff can only move legitimately, without committing a crime against Humanity, and fall under the Death Penalty, basing its Movement on a Reason, not of State but of National Defense, which responds autonomously and directly to any foreign aggression, and does not obey any order of any Government subject to Political Interest.

Any Movement against the Nation, whose Life it protects, by that General Staff is a Crime against Life, and its penalty is Death; to use War, in its Civil form, against the Life of the Nation, is to commit a crime against Peace: the sentence against this crime is Banishment from Life.

Point Five

The foundation of a General Staff involves the Armies in a mission of Constant Peace within the limits of the territorial administration that is the Nation. So that the spontaneous existence, after the foundation of said National Administration, within whose limits the destructive phenomenon of Peace that is called Separatism occurs, if peaceful involves the political administrator, and if violent the bodies of Defense of the Nation.

The General Staff cannot intervene in a spontaneous social-political struggle without opening a gap between Law and Crime; especially when the very growth of Humanity moves on a dynamic of constant transformation of societies.

Now, if a separatist uprising based on hatred against its fellow men produces a declaration of war and demands a Militarily Organized Roundtable, we speak of Civil War, and although focused, the General Staff, fulfilling its Duty to defend the Life of the People it serves, is legitimized to act together with the State Security Corps. And the declarants of the Table of the State of War against the Nation are subject to the Law of War, their Penalty is Banishment if there was no blood, if there was any: Banishment from Life.

The Political Government that feeds a Civil War, establishing a Law of Hatred behind which the Hatred of Separatism towards its neighbors is shielded, and paralyzes the State by plunging it into the breach of its Duty, the Unity and Peace of the Nation: once the fuse is prepared, it has the Duty to rise, and declare the Political Party and Social Organizations that see in the Civil War the lever towards the Nation. the consummation of their existence in the Hatred of the Nation that gave them life in History.

A Nation is not a pimple in the ass of a Continent, it is the fruit of Centuries and Millenniums of forging a specific character, in the Western case: watered by the spirit of the Christian Law, whose properties: Fraternity, Equality and Liberty could not be realized during the Ages Before the Modern One, and neither did it reach its goal during the immediate centuries that have preceded us. The Thirty Years' War was the failure of Medieval Christian Civilization to establish the Building of Civilization on those pillars. The World Wars were the resounding failure of modern philosophies and social systems to do without the Church what the Church could not do with kings: to raise intelligence to the heights of the citizenship of the Kingdom of God.

As for Freedom, and as reflected in the Case of Czechoslovakia and the Example of Canada, the People's Referendum with separatist differences is of Law, and must proceed as it is, without fear of the partition of borders or panic to that effect. Freedom implies the choice to live together according to the same laws or to separate and live in the light of Peace, and there that each one abides by the consequences determined by his decisions. The opposite is, as in an ill-fitting marriage, to direct coexistence towards tragedy, in this case the dictatorship of the minority over the majority.

Point Six

Since the Death Penalty is a transcendental exceptional case, it is understood that the International Criminal Court is the competent body for its application, at the same time that it is understood that any other matter is not within its competence, and should only deal with Aggression against Humanity, so as not to turn a Court of such Transcendence into a chicken pen. and political power proceeds to render it useless through the strategy of flooding the court with work, a policy that corrupt governments use by creating paralyzing laws in which in one or another it is impossible for the citizen not to fall day in and day out.

Now, if the Power of an International Final Judgment is not accompanied by an Executive Decision for the Member States: the Court is reduced to a simple washing of consciences, as is the case for example of the Judgment of the Court against the President of Sudan.

The Final Judgment Power must involve all National Members, and submit to obedience to International Law the State that is requested to surrender the Convicted Subject and proceed to the expulsion – negative case – of its entire diplomatic corps from the Member States; in addition to the instant arrest warrant of the Convict wherever and whenever he is found outside its borders.

Point Seven

The nature of Universal Justice has as its substance and essence the immunization of Civilization against the Hell of War.

When the love of Universal Peace has been overcome in the Individual and the State, and the madness of the passion for War has given way, through the fear of a Tribunal with Supreme Power over all life, whether political, military, or private, an all-powerful Edifice of Peace is established, the shock against whose walls condemns the Transgressor to ruin.

The involvement in the Establishment of Universal Justice by the Plenitude of Nations immunizes its States against Civil War since it makes Universal Peace the competence of the Plenitude of Nations, and all States are subject to International Law: the Arrest against the Coup Plotters becomes Direct, and it "legitimizes" the Intervention of the Member Governments against the Coup Government, whose authors automatically pass to the jurisdiction of the Court, the only one competent to determine the Penalty of Banishment from Life according to the blood shed.

Point Eight

The Human Being begins with the Word and gets his nature from the Word. And any use of Animal Force gives up the Being in the Individual and in the Nation for dead.

The use of the Force is the negation of the Self, and leads to its loss in the individual. Civilization, being the Natural Habitat of Being, must proceed in the face of such a response in the manner in which it deals with the murderous beasts which have tasted blood and engendered in them the passion for War as a means of establishing themselves in Power.

The existence and constitution of Civilization has its root and its rational sap in the Word; the Word is the only valid instrument for the solution of problems, at all levels, and there is no level outside the Power of the Word. All Beings are naked in front of everyone, and we all sit around the table of Civilization as if we had no arms, to pick up a weapon, or feet, to trip ourselves, and from this reality we are subjected, with all the infinite love for Peace, to talk until our mouths are dry.

The Earth is full of water! Let's drink and start again.

Consequently:

The mission of every soldier in a situation of violation of the peace, whether civilian or international, is:

to take up arms and arrest the immediate superior commanders, to proceed with the survey in all the national barracks, to continue with the arrest of the commanders in rebellion against the Law of Peace, and to continue until the arrest of the entire General Staff and the Council of Ministers on which the Law of War depends;

if there is blood, that blood on their heads, let the courts proceed, and there be General Elections.

Nature of Political Power

The origin of Political Power has its foundations in Universal History, but to understand its Nature it is enough to say that its Origin is Society. And since the Family is the Natural Principle of Historical Society, it is understood by logic that any attack on the structure of the Natural Family is a destructive attack on the historical foundations of Society.

The social structure of the Natural Family is repeated in all the species of the Mammalian Era according to a Prototype of distribution of existential functions between the integral parts and components of the Family. To determine the Origin of Political Power, it is necessary, therefore, to determine the Origin of the Family.

The Family arises as a natural effect of the structure of Life. The Patriarchal Heterosexual (father-mother) reproductive Foundation on which Life on Earth moves determines the Historical Nature of the Union of the Two Sexes in a Social Unit regulated by the Law of Mutual Protection within the phylogenetic foundations of Being.

Due to its phylogenetic Origin, materialized in Civilization, the Natural Family is the Natural School in which the Individual acquires all the attributes connatural to a Participation within an increasingly complex Society.

From this it is understood that any subjective transformation of this Natural Prototype, on which Life is based in order to project itself in Time, is a direct attack, more or less massive, against the very Future of the Existence of Society.

The destruction of the Society can come from different flanks.

The annulment of the Maternal Function during the Breastfeeding Period, one year, due to the need for survival of the heterosexual nucleus in the heart of a jungle of conflicting political interests, which sacrifices the Natural Model on the altar of material need to the idol of the Consumption of Junk Technology – mobile or fixed – is a frontal attack against the Social Development of Children.

The correction of this distortion, returning to Nature its Law, the liberation of the mother from extra-familial activity during the Year of Lactation, is and supposes a return of the Human Being to the Law of Nature, and since Being is the basis of the Future, this Law is of superior power to any political law derived from the economic and administrative structures subject to change and modification.

For Political Power has as its existential work dimension the creation of concert in the apparent chaos of a complex society in constant movement, the complexity of whose movement comes from its continuous growth. But there Political Power begins and ends, and when Political Power breaks its limits and seeks to replace Natural Law: Political Power declares itself outside the Law of Nature, it becomes Public Enemy Number One of Historical Society.

Political Power, consequently, not being founded on the Family but on the Law of Nature, attacks Universal Society, or Civilization, when it intervenes in the Structure of the Family, either to destroy its Essence of Distribution of existential functions, or when it intends to create a new family model based on merely economic considerations that do not entail any Natural function in terms of Procreative Duties and only prevails in such non-heterosexual associations Economic Rights.

Now, we see that the Law of Nature has "NO" established the Origin of the Family on economic reasons and "YES" on the Protection by the Procreative Nucleus over Procreated Life.

In this order we can say that the use of the sex of each individual and the way of using his body is a personal matter, as long as it does not violate the laws, but whatever the model to which the structure of individual sexual behavior conforms: the Family, having been ordered by the Natural Law, is Sacred because it is Universal, and any Violation of its Historical Foundations is an attack against the Validity of the Natural Law within the Universal Society, or Civilization.

Two first conclusions:

Liberation of the Mother from Work during the Year of Breastfeeding as a historical priority of the Society, and abrogation of the denomination of any type of non-procreative sexual association as a family.

The Family has only one Reason for Being: the Procreation and Protection of Procreated Life. And consequently the denomination of "Family" for a sexual association alien to this Raison d'Être is a rejection of the Universality of Natural Law.

This is in terms of the relationship between Civilization and Nature.

Raison d'être of Political Power

The Principle of Society is, in fact, the Family. And the Origin of the Family is, as seen in the Mammalian Universe, Nature. And since Natural Law is the cause of the Family, we understand why the Human Model raised the Future of our species above the others and determined and extended before our Gender what we call Civilization.

And it is in this final context where Political Power comes into play, so that, since the Family is the Origin of Society, this Society already formed by Natural Law is the Principle of Political Power, which arises in order to extend the natural law to the social whole, determining the behavior of said Society from that of the Natural Family.

Political Power arises, thus, to maintain the effects of Natural Law on Society as a Great Family, within whose Family the Individual, as a nuclear entity, retains all his natural prerogatives, which become Law on a Universal basis in order that these prerogatives be the Model of behavior of Society. and hence Political Power is established on the pillars of Fraternity, Equality and Liberty, which are the natural prerogatives between brothers, now extended to the universal.

Civilization is, therefore, a Universal Fraternity founded on the Historical Law of Mutual Protection and Distribution of Activities among its Members, in the image and likeness of the Natural Model of the Family. It is the Values of this Natural Model that make the lifeblood of Civilization, and provide the tree of Life with its Laws, its Essence and Substance.

The main and transcendent function of Political Power is, in this order, the defense of this Natural Model, so that its Values: Fraternity, Equality and Liberty, remain unshakable regardless of the technological transformations due to a Complex Society in constant growth over Time, and, at the same time, these Universal Values, elevated from the Law of Nature to the Law of the Spirit, cannot be demolished by reason of subjective temporal interests originating in the rebellion against the Natural Law as the Principle of the Historical Family, within whose Model these Universal Values grew and were forged.

When the Political Power breaks the Protection of Society to the Historical Family and breaks into its Natural prerogatives to form the Being in exclusive values of that Power, the Political Power attacks the Future of Society by rising up in rebellion against the Natural Law in the bosom of which these Universal Values have their Principle. and his justification of the destruction of this Universal Value of the natural majority in defense of a circumstantial minority is a suicidal discourse that advocates the end of Civilization, since it is understood that it is not the majority that must bow to the value of the minority but the opposite.

Now, we observe that the Political Power in rebellion against the Universal Law tends to divide into minorities in order to proceed to a majority constituted by minorities, establishing on the sum of the minorities the crushing of the majority, proceeding democratically? to cultivate the suicidal end reached by so many civilizations that made their way under the blow of the whip of the imperium of a minority.

This is in terms of the Raison d'être of Political Power.

But we observe a historical rupture of the Historical Law, the effect of which transformed Political Power into Imperium, and by this Imperium Society ceased to be the guarantor of the Law of the Family to become an organized entity under the weight of a homicidal and criminal minority.

Archaeology and the Bible – although each in its own way – say that this suicidal step originated in Mesopotamia. Archaeology does not enter into the causes of that Fall and expose the ruins, and the Bible does not enter into the effects and exposes the causes of the rupture of the Natural Law under which the First Civilization had begun its historical journey.

The result of that rupture was Fratricide, and with fratricide the loss of Equality and Freedom.

Deprived of the foundations of the Law of the Natural Family, Civilization became an agent of destruction of Humanity and Society.

This was, in short, the drama that led the Biblical Fall to Adam's world, and that translated into Spanish meant the use of force as a vehicle for the extension of Civilization, which was opposed by Abel, prototype of the Resistance of his time, and against whose resistance Cain, the Imperium, dropped the atomic bomb of his time. a simple donkey's jaw.

Let's say that the history of the Force from then to the present day has undergone many transformations, but its meaning is the same, the submission of some to the will of others, or death. And as long as this law of Force continues to exist—whether using War as a means of Pacification, or terrorism as a means of Conversion—Political Power and Crime will be united in the manner of the jaw of the ass to the arm of Cain.

In this order, the Dialectical End of Socialism was the conquest of Power to tear the jaw of the ass from Cain's arm, but once this was done: Socialism broke the discourse of Dialectics to become Demagoguery, which as everyone knows is what the would-be tyrants used against dictators.

The tyrant, in fact, uses the unwavering passion for freedom to defeat the dictator, and once defeated, to use the jaw of the Imperium against the people on whose backs the dictator ascended the throne. This is called demagoguery.

Therefore, the origin of slavery is found in the moment in which the Political Power transformed its social prerogatives into an instrument at the service of a cause originating in a personal, individual ideology, typical of a party.

Freedom, therefore, does not reside in Power, but in Being, and any discourse of Power on Freedom within a Democracy is Demagogy. And this without depriving that same song, if against a Tyranny, of the sweet charm of Wisdom.

This is in terms of the relationship between Freedom and Political Power.

List of Powers

The political nature of Power can be resolved by taking as its Origin its Social Principle, that is, the Family, and not as a metaphor but as a historical foundation. The behavior of the family in the face of a source of subsistence, in the face of which the relationship is determined by fraternity, equality and freedom, is the behavior that Political Power inherits, and by which it becomes the guarantor of the preservation of the Natural Principle in the field of Society.

Comparing the Goods of a Society with a tree and the nation as a whole with a family, let us say that Political Power has the function of preventing any member of the family from making his own the common tree on which the subsistence of the whole family depends.

Let's say, then, that Empire is any structure governed by an elite, whether blue blood, or "red" blood, but that always in cold blood is beyond the law. In this order, the Parliament of the United States of Europe is the Imperium of an elite that is not subject to the Law of any State and imposes its own on all Member States. That this Imperium proceeds from a democratic root does not annul the law of History, and against Wisdom directs the course of Communitarian Civilization towards its Fall. For History, like Time, does not forgive.

Who will serve as the EEC's cushion once it becomes the U.S.?

The heir of the Red Tsar is waiting for the collapse of the European Community in the belief that it was the weight of the international structure that Moscow threw on its back, and not the betrayal of the Soviets of their Dialectic, that caused the ruin of the Communist Empire.

Islam is confident that the deepening of the economic crisis, fueled by oil, will determine the fall of European democracy.

Who else waits like a vulture drooling over the offal? And yet the fate of every Empire is its Fall. Who, therefore, is financing the creation of a European Super-Parliament with imperial functions?

So much for the Nature of Political Power.

The Challenge of the 21st Century

As I have already been saying, the Future is ours, but Tomorrow is God's, and in this order, leaving speculation about who owns Tomorrow, because who knows what the world will be like in the twenty-fifth century?, but being characteristic of Being to move in Time, and assuming these limits by which the forces of the Individual are centered in the sphere of his social dimension, where his Future is realized and calls him to action, and taking this consciousness as a starting point, let's say that the World Crisis, which is a crisis of Civilization, has its etiology in an unnatural relationship between the State and Man.

If the State-Man relationship had occurred within an Ontological Structure, the foundations of reality would be different at this point in History.

The absence of a Creative relationship between the State and Being is one of the pillars that are making Civilization tremble, and if it is not corrected, it will finally end up sinking it.

The basic point that is shaking the whole edifice of Civilization is the Manipulation of that Ontological Period in which the Creative Force of Being, in its Youth, gives way and is transformed into the Creative Energy of Wisdom that proceeds from the Experience of many decades in Life. The forces of this assault against Being have their strategy of action in the transformation of Youth into a product of Consumption, and the state action with respect to this Ontological state is that which corresponds to that of the handkerchief that is used and thrown away.

The Foundation of a Social Building with an Aspiration of healthy and joyful growth, dynamic and fruitful, has in the Wisdom that comes from experience its backbone. The function of the Modern State is to squeeze man, to suck his blood, and when he has no strength left: to throw him into the garbage can. But without Youth there is no State, no Civilization, or anything like it.

So in a New Model of State-Man Relationship, where the Realization of Being is its Goal, and since without Youth there is no World, and because Youth is the Force of the World, it is only natural that once this Force is vivified, Civilization responds by placing at the feet and in the hands of Being all its benefits.

Translating this to the present moment, let us say that at this point the Society should have been articulated to meet again with the Being, whom it financed in the flower of its Youth, and to which it returns now looking not at its Strength, but at its Wisdom. It is at this moment in which the entry into the Third Age takes place, that Civilization should place in the hands of the Being a new amount, multiplied by the decades, thus promoting not the withdrawal of the Being from Activity but its integration into Civilization from a new perspective.

In real numbers, let us say that it is only of Justice that at the end of the Active Period, and at the beginning of the Passive Period, the Family, understood as the Creative Couple of Youth of the Future, already Present, receives from Society a decisive amount, so that in its experience it administers it according to Wisdom: for the enjoyment of the Being in Space and the Fruit of its Flesh and Blood in Time.

We observe, therefore, that since the State has had in Youth a Product of Consumption and of the extraction of Force without compensation of any kind, except the parking in a Third Age deprived of all enjoyment of its experience and Wisdom, and alienated from the Cultivation of its Blood in Time by impotence of means, and both Democracy and Dictatorship tend to impose this Society against the development and Maturity of the Being as the Supreme Manifestation of Creation, it was only logical that sooner or later a World based on such Foundations would undertake a downhill slope with no return.

But let's say that the World has entered this Final Phase not of its own volition. We observe that both the systems of the left and the right, all unfailingly tend to the perpetuation of the State as the Supreme Entity of Regulation of Thought and Subordination of Being to the animal system of conversion of Man into a beast, producer of the blood that Power requires to remain "forever young".

Obviously I take it for granted that no one will believe that a Society can be founded on Ontological Periods, and I assume that Power has in this Unbelief its lethal Weapon. But this Century will tell if Possibility became real or became a thought without a future.

As for what we see, the absence of this Architecture has been the breeding ground where madness, violence, dictatorship, empire and the corruption that feeds the infinite wars that we have lived, as Humanity, found their breeding ground.

No one is to blame, and the one who was to blame has already been redeemed, so what we are left with is Action. To think of the Possibility of the Articulation of a World Society based on these Ontological Periods, such that the Pillars of the whole Building create in the Power of Man to make possible this Transcendent and Decisive Evolution of his Civilization, is to take the First Step towards its Construction.

And as we go along, we will see how we are solving the problems that have to come our way, especially if we do not forget that we are walking on the edge of the precipice.

As for the one that concerns us, we observe that the structure of Being on which the Modern State was based had in an Animal Model of Man its prototype, and that, once overcome, and in the process of final improvement, extending the period of existence of Being from the average of half a century to a century, and seeking the realization of the 120 calendar years proposed by God, the entire System of Human Relations must be transformed in order to articulate the State and Society according to this New Dimension that awaits us on the other side of the Evolutionary Leap that we are about to take, if not voluntarily, at least provoked by force by the world situation in which we find ourselves.

It is one thing to conceptualize Existence by taking the average life of modern man: half a century, and quite another to start from a Being whose natural average life is one century. It is the whole edifice that we must transform in order that the existence of civilization may continue on ontological foundations.

It is because the Modern State, democratic or dictatorial, of the left or the right is the same, they are the same, it cannot conceive the existence of a Man endowed with a Natural Half-Life of a Century, that its System collapses and produces War as a means of liberation of the unbearable human mass, to free itself from which it has no strength. just as it was done in the World Wars.

This Modern State, incapable of sustaining a Society of eternal vocation: free of Diseases, Madness, Criminality and Suicide, is, unwittingly, but by inertia, the one that tends to the perpetuation of War as a Means of Liberation of its forces, and promotes the Impotence of the energies of Civilization in order to perpetuate the status quo of the Savage Families who have shared Power and aspire to Control of all the Means of Nutrition and Production in the World.

Incapable of conceiving a Human Society Free of Diseases, the Modern Power has to promote Disease at the same time as proceed to a cure, eliminating in the process a great human mass.

A resounding and tremendous truth that we see in the State-Tobacco Association, where if on the one hand the cure for Cancer and the diseases associated with tobacco is sought, on the other hand Cancer is promoted through its Monopoly on the tobacco company and the Freedom of the Producers to put into circulation a product that malignantly threatens Health.

The same element of Criminal Association is found in the legislation on Alcohol, a highly toxic product that threatens the mental health of the human being and his family and social relationship, but which is promoted by the Modern State in order to eliminate through its consequences that human mass whose growth would sink the system on which it bases its Power.

The Delirium Tremens of the failure of the Modern State is the necessity of War as the final measure to which it is led by its impotence to transform itself and its inability to give free rein to a Human Model whose Average Life Span is one Century.

The challenge, therefore, that we have ahead of us and on whose platform Civilization will play its Future in this 21st Century, is, as the poet said, to Be or not to Be.

Science of Good and Evil

The World is still open to the Future. The challenges of each Century, of each Millennium, are realities that each Generation must face from the Intelligence that looks to the Universal Interest. We are like God; we are the living reflection of His Social Soul. From this Truth we understand that from the moment that a man, a group of Power, a Political Party, a Secret Society, a religious institution, etc., places the universe of the Relations of Society at its feet for the satisfaction of its own instincts and passions, from this moment the lethal Virus of Corruption begins its journey towards its goal: Dictatorship, Tyranny, Theocracy and finally War.

Six thousand years of living in hell enables man to draw conclusions about the nature of the laws that govern the behavior of the living under the rule of the Science of Good and Evil.

Six thousand years of experience suffering the hell of corruption beyond justice, six thousand years are enough to arm oneself with courage and rise up against every tyrant, dictator, corrupt and demented egomaniac who in the name of a revolution made to measure only seeks to mask his conquest of the status of a god in the image and likeness of Satan.

We cannot remain living on our knees before Death. The Fear of Death is the beginning of all dictatorships and tyrannies. The Crime of the Dictator is as bad as the Cowardice of the Citizen.

There are no conclusions except in relation to the problems of the moment. Each generation has its own and each century must respond to its problems in accordance with the same spirit that leads humanity from century to century until it reaches World Peace on the basis of Truth and Justice, never on the evil pillars of the dictatorship of political laws and the tyranny of individual interests.

In this order, it is good to affirm that Political Power in a world governed by the law of Good and Evil has its Origin in Crime, and its Reason, having Murder as its End, has for its End the ruin of the people on the corpse of those who oppose the execution of the crime without whose consummation Power cannot be accessed.

The Episode of Cain and Abel is the Supreme Lesson Number One that God puts in front of our faces so that the one who has eyes can see the Origin and Reason of Power in its most sordid and disgusting nature, the murder of one's brother as a result of his opposition to supporting the plans of the would-be savior of the world.

The function and mission of every man, deducing from six thousand years of Uninterrupted Universal Fratricide, is to abolish the Power founded on this Crime.

A Political Power that does not have Universal Fraternity as its Beginning and End, but that rises above the Law of "I am the Government, I am the State", is a Murderous, Parricide, Matricidal, Fratricidal, Homicidal Power, that Power is, in short: a Crime against Humanity, it is a Power that is born in Corruption to lead the Nation to Tyranny.

There is no excuse, there is no justification, there is no reasoning or discourse that is valid in defense of that Power; Power in so far as it justifies the Crime, and wants to make the Crime the necessary means to an end that transcends the Crime itself, that Power is in itself a Crime against the Nature of Life.

This perversion of the Nature of the State sets before us the Necessity of the Separation of Government and State, in order that by the Government that Necessity may be abolished, and by the State the Government may be regulated, that it may not use the powers of the State to cover up crimes of any nature.

We observe that in Nations where Power and State are one, Socialist type, State Crime is still a legal Necessity.

In nations where Islam has power, crime is part of the state and targeted killing, for religious or political reasons, is a natural condition for its survival.

Thus, in the Socialist States, without renouncing Crime as a Political Reason, the Crime of the State is regretted because it cannot manifest itself in the fullness of its meaning in order to the repugnance that is operating in the bosom of the People, whose aspiration to Democracy grows unstoppable, although repressed.

We observe that, in Islamic Nations, Democracy being contrary to State Crime, the State is Criminal by Religious Nature; and since Democracy is the State in which Political and Religious Crime is a crime, it is only natural that Democracy and the Islamic State should always and eternally be trapped in the Episode of Cain and Abel.

The Arab Spring Revolution speaks better than I write.

Thus, the same Law that staged Crime as a necessary condition for access to Power, continues to operate in nations where Power, achieved through crime, needs Crime as a Reason for Survival.

It is not in vain that Christianity having reached its position in Civilization without having used Crime as a Means, where Christianity grows Democracy has grown, and once born, coexisting with Christianity, the People by their own evolutionary inertia tend to the Suppression of Crime as a Reason of State.

And vice versa, the Christian State having been the field where the tree of Democracy took root and grew until it reached the evolution that is observed in the European States, the battle for the extinction of Christianity by the Socialist Power is a sine qua non condition for its perpetuation in Power.

After 30 years of Socialist Power, what could be expected in the future of Greece if not ruin?

The Law is obvious, wherever Socialism is implanted, ruin grows; wherever Islam is implanted, Democracy aborts.

Thus, six thousand years of experience in hell is a whole course in the Science of Good and Evil which, following natural intelligence, should have made every man, male or female, a true professor in the subject. Unfortunately we observe the opposite, that is, that each person acts as if the world had been born with him and History had nothing to do with his present and his future.

This disconnection of Memory with Consciousness is called schizophrenia.

It is not in vain that every organization that seeks Power tends to provoke this schizoid process during the Period of Growth of Natural Intelligence. Creating an abyss between the Present and Universal History, Power intensifies the implantation of an Artificial Historical Memory, erecting between the Present and the Future a Wall against whose harshness Reality breaks its head. In this game of individual interests, man remains, as the proverb says, dancing on a tightrope.

The Law is logical: where there is no cultivation of Intelligence, the harvest of the Junk Voter necessarily occurs, who is the one incapable of relating the laws of History, which are the conclusions of experience, with the Present and its circumstances.

Is there a single Islamic nation where the Law of Democracy reigns over the Koran?

Is there a single nation that after thirty years of Socialist Power has not succumbed to ruin?

Ruin and Tyranny is the way out to which every State subjected to Socialism leads; examples of ruin, Greece, and of Tyranny, Cuba.

Then, returning to the magistracy that grants six thousand years of experience in hell of the Science of Good and Evil, man, male or female, who seeks a world for his children where the Law is that of Life, has the task of never touching any of the branches of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. be it Socialist or Islamic, at the same time that it has the task of perfecting the Democratic State through the evolution of its entire structure until the total and definitive suppression of State Crime as a Reason for Government.

The Government does not have the privilege of using the State to crush the opposition forces; the State has the historical function of preventing the Government from stepping on the Laws; that is, the Future of Civilization passes through the Separation of State and Government, two parallel dimensions that coexist, but should not be mixed.

We observe that where the State is enslaved to the Government by Law, Political Corruption and the Perversion of Governments by international and national economic powers leads the State to an intensification of its repressive capacities, justifying the Government the abandonment of the Democratic Heritage achieved for decades in the need to get out of ruin. to the fact that the People were led by that same Power that now wants to rise up as the savior of the Nation on which such ruin would be brought about.

It is, therefore, a "phenomenon" to read the declarations of the rulers proclaiming to be the saviors of the ruin that they themselves caused. They stab and demand to be the doctor who heals and closes the wound, and whoever denies them the duty that assists them to cure the dying is an enemy of Democracy.

If the "phenomenon" is this type of ruler, no less a "phenomenon" is a voter incapable of linking dagger with wound, and Judas with thirty pieces of silver.

It is difficult, therefore, for those who love History as the source of Universal Memory, to assimilate the intellectual schizophrenia that proclaims Power, Socialist or Islamic, as a necessary condition for the preservation of Order and the Progress of the State.

It is not the State that must progress, it is the Nation that must evolve from a savage, barbaric, rational state, to an intellectual one, in the material and in the spiritual, where Power does not exist as a Means or as an End but as a Principle of the Human Being, and this Principle based on the Word, which becomes Law to make each man law in himself; and according to this Evolution the State grows to always keep the Government within the Laws.

Hence the opposite, Corruption and the ruin of States: it comes from the creation of laws by Governments that look exclusively at the legalization of the criminal attitudes and behaviors of the Powers, whether Political, Religious or Economic.

We already see, following the Course on the Science of Good and Evil, that God had to open, against His Will, to make our world the book in which to read, written with our blood, why God abolished all Power and declared the End of all Crown and Lordship, establishing a Universal, Unique and Almighty State, that is, Incorruptible, the Government of each Nation remaining distinct from this State, and at the same time subject to the Law of said Universal Government.

On a closer surface of reference, to speak of the human, the State is to the Government what the skeleton is to the human body. The person has the freedom of movement to direct his existence towards what his desire for life suggests; and yet the person has no dominion or power over his skeleton. The State, (skeleton), following this law of life, does not have the mission of repressing or imposing on the Government (the body) the direction of its movement; and vice versa, the Government cannot manipulate the structure of the State, and when it does, Corruption and Ruin enter the Nation that leads to Dictatorship, and through the Dictatorship, to Civil War.

The biohistorical action of Government and State in "inseparable" but "separate" coexistence is what determines the Immunization of Society, Nation and Civilization against Corruption, Dictatorship and War.

Obviously every Political or Religious Power that seeks its own Interest, no other than its Survival in Privilege, must rise up against this Separation of State and Government; now, if Abel was a saint and preferred, like Christ, to allow himself to be killed rather than respond to violence with violence, the right to the defense of life is superior to martyrdom when there is no cause for crucifixion and he who is ready to commit crime has placed himself beyond all capacity for redemption; or as the Founding Charter of Democracy recognizes: the Nation, the People and the State have the Duty to rise up against the Government when it wants to use Power as a platform towards Dictatorship through the ruin of Civilization.

We observe in the behavior of the political classes how the Global Economic Crisis is being used for the creation of Totipotent Figures, whose special powers threaten the evolution of Civilization. The response of the alliance between political and economic powers to the urgent problems that evolution itself promotes is nothing but the need to endow Democracy with "special powers", to the health of which Freedom of Expression and Movement are sacrificed for the sake of "Freedom, Order and Peace".

FIRST DISCOURSE OF WISDOM

5786 years, according to Jewish historians, have elapsed from Adam to the present day, 2025. For six millennia the whole of Creation has been waiting for this Day, the Day of the Glory of the Freedom of the Son of God, this Day in which, seen by David and Solomon, the One to whom the Lord of Moses said, "Sit at my right hand until I lay your enemies at your feet," was to rise in the Fullness of His Divine Majesty to return to His Hand that which belongs to Him by Right of Creation: The Earth, the Human Race. How could the peoples of the earth not succumb to Confusion! Where is the wise man who denies the Foreknowledge of the Divine Author, announcing from the very Beginning of His Book the Confucius into which the Christian nations were to fall under this time of waiting which has lasted two thousand years? God again declared the existence of this time in St. Paul, saying: The whole creation awaits with its heart in a pole the manifestation of the glory of the liberation of the children of God. Is not the Only Begotten Firstborn? From whom does the glory of all the children of God come but from this Firstborn? It is through HIM and from HIM that all the children of God receive their divine dimension. How then did the servants dare to separate from among themselves and God the Father the One in whom the Heart of the Lord of the Cosmos has its Life! Adulterous Church, you gave yourself to the Lord of Byzantium despising the Lord of the Glory of the children of God; In your wickedness you said to yourself: "For my sake the Almighty will annul his decree of destruction against the empire of Rome, Babylon the Great." Did not the Judgment pursue you as far as Constantinople of the Byzantines? What remains of the glory of the bridegroom with whom you prostituted yourself before Heaven? You fled like a harlot found in a filthy brothel, you took your filth to a virgin land, you raised up your true lord, the Devil, a Third Rome. Today you have taken off your mask, you have uncovered your true face, found on your knees before Satan praying for the Empire of the World. You have brought the Curse of Constantinople to Moscow, you have consecrated the son of Satan, you have said to him: "Conquest, all the kingdoms of the world are yours." Because you have hated Peace, Love for your fellow men, and you have loved gold and huego, the Hour has come for you, the Decree from which you fled has pursued you to the Third Rome, the People who worshipped you will rise up against you and will not remain in all the territory consecrated by you to Satan, the Warlord, neither jewel nor stone to remember your Filoque. The Heavens cry it out, "Surely the Spirit who lives in the Patriarch of Moscow does not come from the Son, it comes from the Devil." There is no one to plead before God for you. Not content with cultivating hatred for all Christian nations, the true source of your evil glory, you have blessed the Fratricide of Moscow against Kiev. Where will you flee to this time? Hell is your only escape, Absolute War your only salvation. The Lord whom you despised as the Source of the Glory of all the children of God comes to give you your reward: you serve Satan, not God; your mother is Death, not Wisdom. You threw out of yourself the Divine Word: "Build according to the Model that has been shown to you." Was not the Aaronic Priesthood that pattern? Who but the High Priest approached the Most Holy? For this reason you abhorred the Son of God, because it offends your Almighty Pride that you are not the one invested with this Eternal Glory; you, the Patriarch of the Third Rome, prevented from appearing in person before the Lord of the Cosmos! and you cursed the glory of the Only Begotten: We do not need the Son of God, God is enough for us. Your wickedness is worthy of your ignorance; you led a people to total ruin, to slavery for centuries, and instead of mourning their misfortune you swore to raise a New Rome, the Third, infinitely more powerful, Indestructible, even against God, ruled by the House of the Devil, the son of Death, your brother. Will he revoke his judgment against him who has made hatred of his Son and of the Christian nations his banner? Like that king who received his punishment by turning everything his lips touched into gold, what will yours be? If your husband is Satan, what will your sentence be?

And you Greece, the mother of the harlot of Moscow, punished according to your own sentence: Rather the Sultan is king than the king of heaven, have you not had enough? will you remain in your sentence cultivating hatred of the Catholic Bishop? For behold, time is running out, he who has been seated, is standing up and comes to give to all the churches according to the sentence that in their Hatred they wrote against their Legitimate Spouse, the Catholic, Apostolic, Roman Church, the Mother of his son. Flee, Athens, kneel, Thessalonica, ask forgiveness Heraclius, the Lord to whom you turned away, because it offends the Pride of your Patriarch that in Heaven and on Earth no one represents God before his entire Creation, except the Son of his Heart, This Son of the Glory of the Creator of the Cosmos comes to ask you to tell him in full face that the Holy Spirit of his church does not come from the Son. Having been the cradle of Logic, how did you end up, Greece, being a den of insanity? You taught everyone to read and now you are unable to understand the Divine Scripture: Let us make Man in our image and likeness? And so it was: "Adam, son of God." In the likeness and image of which child of God does his Father create his children? He incarnated him for us to touch him, to knead him, and do you prefer the image and of Satan in Cain? Alas, Athens, From the beginning Wisdom turned her back on you, she turns away from your children because they did not seek her to serve her, but to make her your servant. And you still don't see your madness in the mirror? Do you want to bring God to his knees? Have you been freed by those whom you hated, and will you still remain bound by the Pride of him who despised the Lord as his Bridegroom to give himself up to an emperor condemned to death? Run Greece, run, hunt down the rhythm of history, grab a priest of the Son of God and say to him "baptize me, there in that fountain there is water, your word makes it blessed, in your blessing I have my salvation". For behold, the Day is born in which the church that is not by the side of the Bride of the King of Heaven will be plucked from the tree of Life as one who detaches herself from an arm afflicted with death; the rebellious branches will be piled up, waiting for the Voice of the Lord: "Set them on fire, let the creatures of the earth eat us from their remains." For this reason the Lord has sent me, because he has mercy on those who have been separated from his glory by men who have chosen the king of Hell as the king of glory.

Doesn't God live? Did God abandon His Son? How to tear out the heart who is Love! Did the Earth die in darkness? Was it in her Confusion thrown into the Abyss? Who kept His Body indestructible during the absence of its Creator? Who has maintained the Faith of the Catholic Church, invincible against all the attacks of Death? Will we narrate their victories? Will we be crushed by the Confusion that the drums of War beat against Her? Is your Lord powerless? Wasn't God going to give him Offspring? For whom else did Christ leave His Testament?

There is a time for Darkness, and a time for Light. Before His Descendants were born, God said: "Let the Light shine in the midst of darkness." Like the Beginning to the End. Even Darkness serves God. For this reason God freed the Evil One from his Prison, to hasten the times and bring about the End of Man's life on Earth, and a man born in the fires of hell that Death and its king kindled, suckled by Wisdom, in his Soul written with the fire of the Divine Bush the True Nature of the Science of good and evil. How can we find Justice outside of Wisdom? As one who hopes to embrace the Truth outside the Son of God, and in his Pride believes that he can approach in person the Lord of Infinity and Eternity, as he approaches one another as equals, all Science, all Theology, all Philosophy that does not have its Source in the Wisdom that lives in God, Father of Jesus Christ, he comes from Death and leads his followers to ruin.

The Darkness tightens its ties against the neck that proclaims the Universal Truth: God lives in his Son. They want to banish from the nations founded on the Sign of His Invincibility all thought of His existence. They have raised a new idol, and before it kneel all the followers of a Covenant between Death and the nations, conjured to banish from the human Soul the Thought of rising to the dimension of the children of God "in the image and likeness of the Firstborn." They are Alma's thieves. The Human Soul is the mirror in which the Divine Personality of its Creator is reflected. That is why the fathers of this Alliance between Hell and the UN have conspired to make Childhood the land in which to plant that man in the image and likeness of a beast subject to the law of the strongest: Primitive Darwinism genetically modified with the Nazi law of Absolute Power that proceeds from the Need to govern the Chaos that they themselves have created. Those who rose up for the Rights of the Child are precisely those who are making the Violation of that Right their modus vivendi in the Crime against Humanity. Miserable beings, without any Biohistorical conception of what the Formation of the Magnetic Being is in relation to the Freedom and Happiness of the peoples in the course of the centuries, want to reduce man and woman to simple pieces of flesh from whose blood to extract the strength to remain in Power, and once absorbed throw their corpses to the dogs. This is the face behind the mask of the 2030 Agenda. From childhood, man and woman have been modified to be, exclusively, a sexual object at the service of predatory wolves, hungry for fresh meat. The Great Sex Market of the 2030 Agenda! That meat must be cultivated from primary schools. Intelligence, Freedom, Justice...? They do NOT exist: there are only Power and Riches. The equation is simple: with Money you buy Power, with Power you pay what you Buy and you buy more Power. This is the Science of Good and Evil. How can my God not abominate this Law! Whoever has the Infinite Power to create a Universe and generate a Cosmological Big Bang, what can creatures worshipping stones and metals, the source of their murderous and criminal Power, tell you!

Science has lost Reason. Pride was his cancer. He despised Humility. He sold out to Power. He loved the golden chains to Peace. He deceived all the nations by vacating the lullaby of the Utopia of a Perfect World, if they turned away from Christ, and when they got up in the morning they all found themselves in the hell of the World Wars. Hypocritical people, wicked in their pride, even when they saw where they dragged the nations, they did not beat their breasts; on the contrary, they set out to lead the World back to a New World War, for the Academy the most beautiful, they their creators, from whose genocidal fires they and their masters would emerge more powerful like a phoenix that rises from its ashes. "A dream of a few, a nightmare of all". And will you not pay for your crimes in the service of the Riches and Power of those few? Was Pontius Pilate not as guilty as Annas and Caiaphas? "We are not guilty of what they do with nuclear bombs" you justify to each other. "Nor of the malignant viruses created in our laboratories." Is it really not guilty who puts a knife in the hand of a schizophrenic of the blood he sheds? What do you understand by Justice? The salary that has been stipulated for you? For you too, the day of judgment has come. You will choke on the viruses you create, the brain you put at the service of Death will rise up against you, and the House of Fools will be filled with wise men. Let us melt down the gold chains with which they seduced you and serve them to you in asbestos cups. Doesn't God live? When these things happen the world will see God.

He who has Intelligence let it run through his soul, for the Day of Judgment has a date, and woe to him who is on the Left of the Son of Man!

SECOND DISCOURSE OF WISDOM

Why did the Early Philosophers not attain Wisdom? Why was Wisdom before them embraced by King Solomon? Judging from both situations the answer is clear: The difference was made by the God and Lord of Moses. Because the kingdom of Wisdom is the Knowledge of all things, and living this Wisdom in its Fullness in God, Father of Jesus Christ, whoever wants to reach it and be embraced by Wisdom must seek it in GOD. Hence we read: "The Spirit of YAHWEH is the spirit of Wisdom and Understanding..." So, having Wisdom in God, finding it in Him, we find ourselves before and in the presence of a Being whose Knowledge of Himself is Perfect. And hence there is no more sublime Knowledge than the Knowledge of the Personality of this God in whom Wisdom lives. And he is our Creator, in addition to everything visible and invisible that exists in the Cosmos.

In the Knowledge of His Personality is our Life, and the Life of all the peoples of the Universe. From this Knowledge we discover that God has His own Reality. A reality that minds outside of Wisdom have interpreted over the centuries according to their intellectual inability to understand HIS Book. Because, as I have been saying, in order to embrace Wisdom it is necessary to embrace God, your Lord. Then you see the World from your Mind and your Heart.

Powerless to even approach Wisdom, these men saw in the God of Abraham a Cruel and Avenging Being, Wrathful and Irascible, in this discovering the absolute absence of intelligence that in them pitched its tent, for having His Son, His personality perfectly photographed by His Disciples, it goes without saying that to affirm of the Father what the ignorant declared is to deny the Son. and he who denies that in the Father and the Son lives the same Spirit must logically deny the declaration for Eternity of the Holy Spirit: "God is Love".

But, just as each one of us, in particular, and the Human Race, in the universal, has ours and from this we contemplate, observe and understand the World in which we exist and are: God has His Reality, and if we do not understand the nature of His Reality it is impossible for us to understand His Relationship with the Universe. the world and us.

From what we know from what we read, we understand that the Fall of Man in a world in perpetual war the first to strike his mind and heart was the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth, whose Name we all know from His Book: "YAHWEH is MY Name."

Who is LOVE, and this Love to the extent of what is eternal and infinite, an affirmation that we see in his Son, not by long and elaborate speeches, full of rhetoric and dialectical arts, but by the Life of the Blood, exposed with an open heart from the Cross; and because GOD, Our Creator, is LOVE, we know, we not only deduce or infer, but we know, that the fall of his son Adam and his World into the Law of the Science of good and evil, a Science that is defined because each man makes his own being the center and the measuring stick of the world, "Good" being that which is "good" to him, and "evil" that which is "bad" to him, and there being many men and every man moving by this rule of measurement, Pandora's box once opened, the fire of war between wills lit, Chaos becomes the norm, Homicide the natural, genocide as necessary, a path along which as History goes one arrives, at a cosmic level, to total self-destruction, the case of the dragon who, having devoured everything, begins to devour his own tail until he consumes his body and disappears in the inference of his infinite hunger for Power... From the LOVE of the Father of His Creation it is understood that before the vision of the fait accompli of the Fall of His son Adam in Temptation, provoking the chain reaction whose final effect we are approaching on this Eighth Day of the Creation of our World, because in the Seventh God rested, but in the Eighth God was to reap the fruit of His Work: The Creation of a Kingdom on Earth governed by Wisdom, founded to be part of a Universal Kingdom, whose Crown of King of kings and Lord of lords belonged to His Son Jesus, this same JESUS who was incarnated in the Virgin Mary of Nazareth, She herself is a living incarnation of the Infinite and Eternal Love of wisdom through the Son of her Lord, YAHWEH GOD.

It is the Reality that God lives. Death found the door to His Creation and came to extend His Force and reduce to dust all life, not only on Earth but in the entire Universe.

During the eternity of the eternities prior to Creation, since there was no thought in Life, the idea of eternal life, the Worlds arose and disappeared from the face of the Cosmos without Violence. Death and Life were a Whole, two sides of the same coin, so to speak. The conflict of Immortality, absent in beings, the existence of every world, was that of a tree that is born, grows, bears its fruit, and dies, without an unnatural episode to the law of Uncreation.

The Fact of the Revolution that God planted in the hands of the Creative Wisdom provoked the conflict. Once the Seed of Immortality was sown in Life, his struggle to achieve it broke the natural uncreated balance, causing Death, following its nature, to intervene against the Resistance to death, following its nature, to convert a Good achieved into an Evil whose growth power corresponded to the actualization of knowledge in search of Immortality.

The War between Life and Death was waged. The greater the resistance, the greater the power of destruction, the victory of Death, the War being the fire in which Life ended up being burned, never able to reach the Goal of Immortality for the Individual, a goal towards which God directed the spirit of Creative Wisdom in whose hands Life and Death were from the beginningless Beginning of the Cosmos.

The Personality of Godhead was forged in the fires of that Struggle between Life and Death. From being a spectator, God became an actor on the battlefield, until finally becoming the Creator of a Cosmological System in which the Immortality of the Individual and the eternal life of his World come in the genes of our origins.

It was from this Victory over Death that the Divine Overcomer began His Work: The Creation of a World in which the Peoples of the Universe find an eternal Home. His Son told us: "I am returning to my Father to prepare a Home for you." From the very beginning of our Creation, the eternal life of the human race and individual immortality were guaranteed. Death had been left out of Creation; the New Cosmos is no longer chained to the law of Death, the Tree of Life of the Worlds is nourished by the very Nature of its Creator, whose immortal sap runs through roots, trunk and branches, giving its Creator its fruit: eternal life in his image and likeness.

Overnight God finds himself transported to the days of Uncreation, when the Conflict between Life and Death caught Him in His War; which He Himself had opened by sowing in Life the Thought of Immortality. When the Conqueror of Death in the Cosmos has already believed that he has erected an indestructible Wall between Death and Life, he discovers that Death has penetrated that Wall, is installed in His Creation and pursues what is natural to Death: To destroy all life, in the Heavens as on Earth.

God could not remain with his hands crossed, as if apart from the consequences of the Fall of our World in a War that without Him we have lost.

Yahweh God is Our Creator, the Arm from whose Muscles arose the Force that opened the First Big Bang, the Beginning of the New Cosmos. The Declaration of His Law: "Do not eat, for you shall die", extended to the whole of Creation, had been violated by the one in whom Death had become incarnate, Satan, a son of God, not of our world, in whose breast the Serpent of Tradition to his Creator found cave and refuge, and whose Poison poisoned the desire for life of the human being, making him seek in the bloody sacrifice of his own brothers the door of Immortality.

In the Fall, GOD feels the natural shock of a father who has raised his son with all his love and suddenly he has been murdered. The War between Life and Death is an experience that God has lived countless times. He believed he had conquered his Victory for Eternity when overnight he encounters Death roaming freely in his Creation. His Battle for the eternal life of all beings had not been complete. He had given everything, he had opened to his children, not of our world, the gods of ancestral mythologies, art and part in the Creation of our Heavens and our Earth, and the Formation of our World in the image and likeness of their worlds, that is, to raise a kingdom on Earth whose Crown would "come down from Heaven" to be the inheritance of the son He begat in man.

The whole of Creation came into tension. If a New Revolution is not opened in the Universal Kingdom of His Son Jesus, and a Revolution whose Victory will be the Banishment of Death from Creation, Death, extending its Force from Earth to Heaven, would explode Earth and Heaven.

A New Reality opens up to the History of the Human Race. Overnight our world is abandoned at the feet of Death, whose evil prince had to force God to admit the Change: the elevation of the children of God to the condition of gods invested with Absolute Power to govern according to his criteria the Destiny of all peoples, those of the Present and those of the Future.

God faces Death. The whole of Creation is paralyzed, as if under checkmate. What would be God's Response to this Challenge? How can we banish for eternity the Death of His Creation, open between Death and Life an unfathomable Abyss touching its depths the roots of the Infinite? The Silence of God the Father becomes Impenetrable; nor could God the Son read in the Mind of His Father His Answer to the Final Battle between God and Death, "the last enemy."

When his Son JESUS came to incarnate Life, Satan being the encartage of Death, he entered our History as King of kings and Lord of lords who advances on his war horse, and comes to conquer us all for the Kingdom of God. The Answer of God the Father for the Final Victory that will remove for eternity the shadow of hell over the Future of His Creation, enjoyed by Abraham, prophesied by Moses, seen by David, is revealed by Wisdom to JESUS, the Only Begotten Son of his Lord; the ANSWER is CHRIST, Visible Incarnation of the Spirit who lives in God, Father and Son.

Whoever believes and lives in CHRIST JESUS has Eternal Life; whoever does not believe in HIM is judged for his crimes and offenses. The Gospel is written, I will say no more.

This is God's Reality, and what is ours? After six thousand years under the law of Death, we see how the greater the knowledge, the power of self-destruction in our hands doubles. Those who have found in the law of the Science of good and evil their paradise believe that the Chaos that Death generates can be controlled. They believe that this Chaos can be used to erect authoritarian governments with supreme dictatorial power to maintain order. It is what they call the New World Order, an Order in Chaos. Such inventors are unaware that Death, once unleashed, has only one horizon: To bring back to dust what has arisen from the dust.

To increase Chaos as a means of legitimizing the need for legal, democratic or monarchical dictatorships, is to allow oneself to be dragged by an Absolute Lie: That abandoned from the hands of God, Life can bring Death to its knees.

Chaos is the breeding ground in which War grows, and once its fire has passed through the centuries and millennia its voracity becomes inextinguishable, exclusively extinguishable when all the forest and all that it contains is turned to dust and ashes. It is the oldest Reality in the Cosmos: The greater the opposition to the destruction of a World, the greater the force of Death, until it reaches its end: To make all life disappear from the face of Space and Time.

Before Christ Raul, the veil that covers the eyes of intelligence has persisted; since it is impossible for all men to open the Door of the Light of Genesis, the Silence of God has weighed like a stone on all the aspiring sages who have left their names inscribed in the books of History. Born to be wise, condemned to hide their ignorance by creating a fictitious universe, existing exclusively in their heads, our current world is chained to scientific, religious and ideological systems in which the Law of the Science of Good and Evil is fulfilled; namely: Good and Evil is measured by the yardstick of what is good or bad for man in Power. Which is the cause of all the warlike conflicts and criminal annals that have filled the Earth with blood during the last seven millennia.

It is not man or any creature, from the Heavens as well as from the Earth, who says what is Justice and what is not, what is Truth and what is not, what is Peace and what is not. It is God, the Creator of all Life, who cultivates the Tree of Life of the Worlds in the Universe, who has in His Wisdom the Measuring Rod by which every being must govern its behavior, its thoughts and its words.

"What do you see?" "I see trees that walk"

The need to stand before the Future to which the forces that have led the movement of nations for thousands of years, drag the Human race to the Third World War, inevitably remain active, obliges us to enter into the origins of our History. Blaming the Past for the evils that the Present is experiencing is a suicidal strategy; and yet we must carry out a final introspection that allows us to understand why we are being dragged into the Universal Genocide after continuing with impunity to undertake the Geocide underway in our days.

Seeking the answer in ideologized social systems whose effects have always ended, and we are experiencing it, in dictatorships, civil wars and world wars, is the same as stumbling over the same stone again. Those who seek to "change" this final effect, we know because we see them, as soon as they access the means to operate that "change" they fall into the hole of the temptation of wealth, luxury and that armored crime with which Power seduces such "revolutionaries", for whom "change" is real, because overnight they are admitted to the circles against which they raised their voices. and from their admission to them they become the defenders of that "accursed social system" thanks to whose criticism they opened the doors to the elites of the "gods".

In all places and times, the process of growth of the different systems invented by men shows us the same line of behavior: the revolutionary saints are transformed, once in power, into evil sinners in the image and likeness of those who raised the revolutionary banner of Progress and Freedom.

To delve into the causes of this behavior is to walk in the footsteps of those who used this path to create a space among the elites. Criticizing and then defending what was criticized is immoral behavior.

Whoever seeks to cross the gorge over the abyss of the Third World War that is painted on the horizon, without dragging nations to the precipice, must do so with a balance beam appropriate to his weight and to the winds that shake the times.

The Truth, having said this, we must seek not the Beginning of the Past but the Beginning of the Future. Knowing, because we know, that the origin of all social systems have been rivers of blood, and ready to cross the abyss without falling into the precipice, the first thing we must discard is to recreate a New Civilization under a New Heavens and a New Earth, making Fratricide the rock on which to found the Society of the Plenitude of nations that awaits us on the other side of the precipice.

It is necessary to affirm it, declare it and live it: Universal Fraternity is incompatible with the Expropriation of the Property of the Earth that belongs to its Creator. The Divine Declaration that Man is a child of God implies the Distribution of all the goods that the Earth produces and our Creator engenders in Man according to the Law of a Family, in which brothers and sisters are Nations, and we must History our behavior from the Law of who is the Lord of all that exists in the Heavens and on the Earth. and being Father he makes us all a partaker of all the goods that belong to him by Right of Creation.

From the origins of the Fall that led to the First World being buried under the waters of the Flood, men were divided into families, clans, tribes, kingdoms and empires with the only legal basis coming from fratricide. The temptation to make all the goods of the soil a means of living as "a god" implied slavery or death. Many systems were invented in order to justify this filthy crime. And the ancient religions were born, their sole purpose being to legitimize the Crime of Expropriation against God, and of Homicide against men.

From the fratricide of Cain to the Murder against Christ, the number of religious systems invented, with the sole purpose of maintaining that status quo of all-powerful gods with the Power of Life and Death over all and against all, can be studied in the history books. From Babylon to Rome, the social, monarchical, imperial and republican systems had the same base: To maintain that privileged status quo by the force of Iron and Fire. Over the centuries, from Caesar to Napoleon, and from Napoleon to the Attilas of the twentieth century, slavery has remained as a basic social system; We observe that the difference between one system and another is based only on the nature of the concessions of survival that, depending on the century, are granted to the new slaves, after all the animal force on whose blood and sweat "the new gods" organize their tyrannies, their dictatorships and justify their wars.

To criticize one system and praise another is to fall on the same stone; after all, they all have the same beginning and end. The slave, even if he is chained with gold and is called a "worker", is still a slave, a beast of burden at the service of Power Groups, who once they have tasted the fruit of the cursed tree do not want to and cannot stop enjoying that pleasure: They become parasitic apostles defending the status quo achieved.

The failure of all social systems that have survived time and persist in remaining at the expense of Health and Peace among peoples allows us to affirm that those who are in need of transformation are not the systems, it is men who must accept the need and undertake our intellectual, mental and emotional transformation; it is we who strip ourselves, free ourselves from the weight of the centuries, throw every ideological chain away from our spirits, and sit around the same table with an Unquestionable and Inalienable Truth: We are brothers, and we must behave as such.

The Human Race is a Family of Nations living and enjoying the same principle of Equality before the Creator of each and every one of the peoples. The same Tree of Life, Five Great Branches, dozens of minor branches. This is what we are: a Tree with the same Root, the Trunk nourished with the sap of Divine Wisdom, Mother of the Human Race.

This Existential Principle was the one that was broken Six Thousand Years ago, came to Restore the Son of God and has been fought by Modern Reason to the point of implying the Necessity of Scientific Atheism for the Destruction of nations as a starting point towards a New World Order, structured on an Alliance of Civilizations. enemies of each other, but in a Truce of Peace, until the Final Decision of the extermination of billions of human beings is taken "for the Good of the Future of Humanity". What Bien do they talk about? If this is the Good, what is the Evil? Or could it be that the Evil of all is the Good of those few? Well, if that is so, what are you waiting for to make that satanic decision? Don't have confidence in Control Chaos? Who wants to create a New World Order must not do so on the ruins of the Old Order? Or does the crime seem so monstrous to them that they are afraid to proceed to make a pact with Hell?

Let's be true, the Modern Worker is a slave deprived of the Freedom of a child of God, theft compensated by a "right" to make of his body what he wants. He can throw his body to dogs, to pigs: it is his right. Not his freedom, because he who from the cradle is manipulated to be served his flesh on the bed of beasts does not act freely, he is a slave of the psychogenetic manipulation to which he was subjected from his childhood by the servants of such beasts.

This is the only right that the Modern Worker has; to be flesh in the bed of prostitution of "revolutionary" beasts; the Freedom of the Ancient Slave reconquered by the Masters of the 2030 Agenda as the Right of the modern slave.

Moreover, this is where all its law lies. As for Duty, the Worker has all the duties in the world, the most "revolutionary" of all: To maintain the divine status quo of the conquerors of that Right. And one marvels, because: Wasn't this Duty the nature of the Ancient Slave's social status? Did not slavery consist in the absolute loss of Man's right to live his Life, ad maioren imperium gloriam?

So how can we proceed to the transformation of this Human Race, our Existence, without having a vision of what exists to the other of the Abyss that opens before our feet?

The threat of World War III has been in the air since a brother killed his brother, a murder committed by the victim not getting down on his knees in front of his killer. Do we not have this event by God staged in the Encounter between the King of Soils and the King of Hell? Don't we have this same event live and direct in the Massacre of Ukraine by Russia?

To believe that the hell of infinite wars that the Human Race has lived through has had a different direction from this, to be dragged into the abyss of Thermonuclear Destruction, is to renounce intelligence. God made it very clear: "You are dust and to dust you will return." Let us understand this Declaration.

Who has lived during Eternity this dynamic of self-destruction more times than he could tell us, our Creator in short: YAHWEH GOD, Father of JESUS CHRIST, and fought against this Destiny of a World fallen on its knees at the feet of the Law of the Science of Good and Evil, by speaking as He did, and HIS Word is recorded so that all peoples, both those of "our creation" and that of the peoples created before our Heavens and our Earth, engrave this Universal Truth in our Being: the Fall into the Law of the Death of others as a Means to achieve the End of the Life of a god is the origin of the Chronicle of his Self-Destruction.

The experience lived by the Creator of the Universe involved him in the creation of a Wall of resistance against that Temptation. This is the Origin of the Law against Schizophrenic-Suicidal-Homicidal Pathology of those who see in their Neighbor a means to achieve a personal End: "To be a god", to live the life of a god. And a god in the image and likeness of Satan, that is, to be beyond the Nature of Justice, to commit a Crime, and not to have to give an account of his Crime either before God or before men. Knowing the Father through the Son, is it any wonder that the Abomination, by a "law" written by criminals and for criminals, raises in us a sea of shame for others?

In fact, seeing the Human Race fallen into this "law" man converted into a Means for another man, it was declared to us what is the terminal station of every World open to War between brothers of the same Mother: the Earth. At the same time in the VADE RETRO SATAN has made known to us the Law of Eternal Life: Rather dead than living on our knees.

So six thousand years must have passed before our ears heard the trumpets of World War III. She was talked about; they tried to prevent the hands from grasping that trumpet. At the same time, behind everyone's back, the orchestra rehearsed the symphony of the End of the World. What to say? The stars of an infinite and eternal cosmos welcomed countless worlds into their arms, one day innocent and happy, the next transformed into houses of monsters devouring their own flesh, to finally become dust wandering through the cemetery of Darkness. Why wouldn't the Earth suffer that same End? Didn't God forbid His children not to open the Pandora's box of the cursed tree?

What is the double-headed Demon from the North thought to be doing? He is the son of Death; it was born to fulfill a purpose: to open the door to Hell. The Lord of Heaven will lift up the earth under his feet, swallow his head and tail, decapitate the Beast, and burn his bones in Red Square.

What is the eagle of the 50 stars believed to be doing blessing Cain and cursing Abel? He wants to do business with Death. The opportunity to do business, how to waste it! You betrayed Peace, for this reason the Lord will tear from your hands the Rod of Iron with which in His Service you freed the nations. Do you sell Abel for thirty pieces of silver?

Death knows no other Future for Life than its return to the Dust.

The Masters of the Alliance of Civilizations have invented a new religion: The 2030 Agenda, with which they hope to satisfy their god: Death, and buy their lives at the expense of the Soul of Man, which will be sacrificed for them to live. They believe that by kneeling before the king of Hell they can buy their lives. What no world in the eternities of the cosmos ever could, they believe they can do: tame the horses of Death.

But was there no Redemption? Didn't the Son of God sign a Covenant between His Father and the Christian Human Race by which that trumpet of hell will choke in the throat of those who put it in their mouths?

We know what they're doing. They want to raise a law against the Hoax and legitimize the Lie. The Lie leads them to Power, the "Hoax" is the "criticism" of their permanence in Power. It is the New System invented by the 2030 Agenda: The Lie is "God", the Criticism is the "Devil".

The right of the modern slave is to listen and be silent. The Right of the Master is the enjoyment of the natural privilege of the Absolutist Monarchs. This is the essence of the Democracy of the Alliance of Civilizations, covert absolute monarchies, defended by an ideological system that owns and rules all the Mass Media, head of the body of Justice, the Utopia of scientific atheism finally made a reality.

Like Yesterday, the Woman has once again listened to the Devil and tries to seduce the Man so that the Word of Power is Law and his Will the rod that marks the difference between Truth and Falsehood.

How many mortal enemies has Christian Civilization defeated? Was not the Resurrection the Universal Announcement of God's invincible Power over Death? What should the Christian be afraid of when the bridge over the abyss has been cast and the rod of balance comes from the hands of the Son of God?

The Covenant of Christ between God and the Human Race has been sealed, has conquered the centuries and is preparing to leave behind the World born of Fratricide and the Expropriation of the Earth from the hands of its Creator. Leaving behind Scientific Atheism in all its ideological forms, all religions and traditions bequeathed by homicidal systems to the present living generations, is the ballast that every man must throw into the abyss before putting his feet on the bridge to the Future, or that weight will drag him to the precipice. That is why I said that we must remain naked, as in the beginning, when God created Man: without weapons in His hands or fire on His lips.

Every man and woman who makes another man and another woman a Means to the End of being immune from Justice and making Power the shield that protects him against his Crimes: is an unclean being. Be it through the door of Lies or through the door of Arms, any social system that legitimizes what is filthy: To make man a lever towards personal glory, is a criminal system. Once this door is opened, the creators of said system, if they want to remain in it, must do so through the Crime against the Constitution that did not foresee this transformation of their Body by a political and military organism acting as a prefabricated Malignant Virus to bring down the Immune System of Society.

The Law is firm, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow: "Whoever eats of the fruit of the forbidden tree is banished from Life."

THIRD DISCOURSE OF WISDOM

The question for every man in whom the Christian intelligence lives is direct: Can the Wisdom of the Creator of the Cosmos allow itself the repetition of the Tragedy that the Earth has lived and is living? Has not His Will not been sufficiently affirmed in the Cross of His Son not to allow such a Tragedy to be repeated in Eternity? Whose Responsibility is it for this if not the Creator of the Universe? And yet, don't your children and your whole House, including Man, have a share in this Responsibility? For the Creation of Life in the image and likeness of the Creator is an Inalienable Act. And since all the Peoples of His Creation have known the Nature of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, is it not for the Decision of each child of God to make the Will of his Father his own will? Does God raise in his image and likeness beasts and animals that live on the other side of the line that separates the dimension of intelligent beings from other creatures governed by basic laws that they cannot transgress? Can a beast understand the Law? So that when a child of God, a citizen of His Kingdom, a Member of His Family, transgresses the Law, he breaks evolution and throws himself into regression; that is, he banishes from his Being the Image of his Creator and chooses to be a wild beast governed by a force that drags him to create a fictitious world in which he imposes his law. In short, this is the fruit of the Science of Good and Evil, against whose fruit, War, God raised up the Law: "Do not eat, for you will die."

It is in this system of Genocide-Suicide that nations have been existing for the last six millennia. A political system that those who make the law of their will impose it through war. For the Law belongs to the Creator of the Human Race. Divine Right and Duty that the generations of all millennia mocked by creating animal gods in which to justify the kings and their emulators that homicidal behavior, characteristic in all the dynasties that Universal History collects in its Annals and Chronicles.

The Creation of a Civilization animated, by divine vocation, of Eternal Life infers the Necessity of a Perfect Incorruptible Universal Law, to which all peoples embrace in satisfaction of the Peace and Health that the Being of all love. Hence, by creating our Intelligence in the Image of His, Creation is born in the spirit of the Wisdom of our Creator and grows in our Soul the love for the foundations of the Society built by Him: Peace and Health.

There can be no Peace and Health if its roots are not nourished in the Truth that lives in Divine Wisdom. Justice cannot be harvested where Lies have Power and reap Peace where Corruption feeds the body of the State is a chimera, absolute mockery invoking resilience to sustain it, to win the pulse of a Society for that Power dragged into the Repetition of a Civil War.

We go back to the beginning: Are those who feed that arm that challenges an entire nation to a pulse or not responsible for the Evil that must inevitably be harvested? Is he who has made Lies his Lever to Power going to renounce the harvest that he cultivated with so much resilient care?

There must be an Inviolable Constitution whose transgression implies the arrest of those who ascend to the Government of a Nation in order to step on it from Power: step on it, tear it up, and throw it to dogs hungry for wealth that do not hesitate to sell their souls for thirty silver coins.

The Road to the Civil War is described in the Chronicles of the Peoples. What is Wisdom if not the lesson learned from the general and particular laws by which a Civil War breaks out? What is Ignorance but closing the mind, the eyes and the senses to the lessons that the Annals of the Nations put on the table? It is forbidden to stumble on the same stone! Who is it that deliberately approaches it but one who thinks himself more intelligent than a whole nation, and in his pathological pride believes that the law will withdraw its effect and the stone will turn out of its way surrendered to the glory of its presence?

There can be no Wisdom where Intelligence does not live. There can be no Peace and Health where Science turns its back on Wisdom, and imitating the Fool believes that it can create a universe to which to impose the natural law on the insanity of the Atheist.

Does not God have a Plan, a universal historical direction, a way through the fields of the ages, a Necessity, a Reason for behavior, an Intelligence devoted exclusively to a Special Metaphysical End? Any reader of His Book, understood from the Thought of Jesus Christ, sees in the light of day that the Creator has never abandoned His Creation, a historical declaration of absolute validity that we see in the Resurrection of His Son. "My God, why have you forsaken me?" is a question projected, by the One in whom Wisdom lives, to all peoples and sages of all places and times. The Necessity of answering it touches all men of all nations. Let us start from our Knowledge of the Creator of all that is visible and invisible, Author of the Cosmos, the Arm from which the First Bing Bang emerged in Time and Space with a view to the Creation of Life in the Image and Likeness of that of its Creator: Beings endowed with eternal life and limitless Intelligence to grow in the dimension of the Omniscience of God Himself. Has this not been an unprecedented Cosmological Revolution in the History of Infinity and Eternity? How can we understand the nature of the First Bing Bang at the Origin of this Cosmos if we separate its Creator from its Formation? Has NOT the Radio Astronomy Revolution of the late 20th century shown that the formation model of the First Big Bang was a chimera, a dark smokescreen and unbearable density behind whose wall they kept the "wisdom" of Academic Scientific Atheism held the type in its Pride and Mania to hide its Ignorance about the Origin of that First Big Bang? The donkey flies, "even if all men have to be blinded," was the Ethics of the Academy's Tribe. No one moves, no one talks, everyone listens, all men are donkeys advancing on the basis of carrots and sticks except them, the inventors of atomic bombs and Chilean viruses prepared for any emergency. God? Who is God? Where does it come from and where is it going? But if it does not exist, why consider an answer? Absolute Knowledge with the minimum effort, a Negation written between periods and asides. Philosophy did not attain Wisdom because Wisdom does not exist; there is Science. And Violence says that God does not exist; so how can Wisdom exist! Or don't God and Wisdom come in the same package? Can Power without Knowledge build something? What is Knowledge without Power for? To affirm the Existence "God Lives" implies the Negation of the affirmation of Science, its fall into a labyrinth with no way out. Why pursue what cannot be reached? Good line of reasoning; Scientific Reason is Almighty: the Bible alone, Science alone. The Sage's Handbook: the Enslavement of Future Thought to Ignorance of the Past, held by a tribe of Ignorant Ones who refuse to acknowledge their ignorance... because Reason is Almighty, its affirmations are what the Word of God is to the masses what the Word of God is to the Church, who departs from the line of thought of the Academy falls into anti-scientific heresy. And everyone is happy and content, "and when we have nothing we will be happy from the cradle to the grave", a word of the 2030 Agenda. The question is obvious: Do those who declare themselves wise when they hear such infamy feel shame?

The anti-scientific current of the Cosmology of the Twentieth Century could not fail to penetrate through the windows of the Building of History, plunder all its treasures and, glorious zenith: Bless the Theft of the Soul. For the Soul is the Living Mirror in which our Creator reflects His Personality, His spirit, and begets us, "we are born again": Image and Likeness of His Son. That is why we read that the First Man was created as a Living Soul and the Last as a Life-Giving Spirit. Obviously, those who see in Religion a business will hardly understand this dimension of Creation through which, after the death of the Soul, God comes in life-giving Spirit mode to raise us up and give us new life. So who are those who intend to keep us in Civilized Savage mode? Why do they want us to be beasts, whether in political animal mode or in rational wild animal mode? We are offered a horizon in which the Spirit of Intelligence of our Creator opens its field of growth to us, and all that the pastors of science go to is to ally themselves with the political wolves to prey on us at our expense? It is true, I will not deny it, that there was a time when the shepherds of the churches and the wolves of the flocks under their charge divided the plumpest sheep, feasted on the flesh of the most tender lambs. It was the Cause of the Protestant Rebellion known as the Reformation, and those who turned away from one or the other ended up imitating the example of the devil? Have you preferred the image and likeness of Death to the image and likeness of God?

What is Corruption if not the Denial of Evidence incriminates teas by the part of a system of Government that blames the innocent and shields the guilty as criminals due to their service to Power?

Things are not as complicated as they seem, if by the heat and the cold we know the nature of both, it is enough to do the opposite of what the laws promoting corruption implement to put an end to such a system of government and create one in which Justice is Incorruptible. The question is "why do the People want to create this Justice" the Politicians tell themselves. When a building collapses under the weight of floors upon floors, violating the laws of engineering, is it not enough to free the building from that weight so that all families can live safe from that risk? It seems that Logic and Politics do not get along; they do not combine, they repel each other, they proscribe each other, and they even hate each other. Hence the Law of Hatred pulled out of the sleeve by an evil Agenda that seeks to impose the inversion of the values inherited from the Christian Law that founded Western Civilization? We could continue to question the world as we live it, suffer it, and dream it. The Truth, however, does not lie. The Lie does not recognize any truth. God has a Plan. The First Man wanted to know the Science of Good and Evil, and the Last Man knew it until he bled to death on a Cross. We wanted to know about the War and we have been learning its effects to its ultimate consequences. The final question is: Who wants to live that ultimate consequence? For here we have to differentiate between the Knowledge that comes from the Word and that which comes from Experience. A father tells his son "don't put your finger in the socket", it is Knowledge by the Word; the son puts his finger in the socket because he wants to know the Reason in the Word; this is Knowledge by Experience. This Knowledge was the one that the First Man chose. The cause of this choice is found in the Thought of Christ, which I believe I have opened up in Divine History. There was an attempted coup d'état at creation by a rebellious generation of God's children who wanted to bring about a legislative change in the foundations of universal civilization, the effect of which would be to place the government on the throne of God. From then on the Law would be dictated by a Party situated beyond Good and Evil, and the rest of the peoples chained to the personal interests of such ministers of Death.

God had a Plan, God has a Plan. Neither Death nor the World can prevent your Creation from reaching its Goal. The Creation of Man in the Image and Likeness of His Son. For this reason he presented it to us in flesh and blood, so that what could not be attained by Reason alone could be touched with the senses of the Soul. This was God's work. And this is also the Work of our Creator: To give us as Universal and Everlasting King the Son of His Uncreated womb. Once that coup d'état against the Kingdom of God has failed, the next thing is the Victory of His Spirit, the source of Justice and Science that will govern the Fullness of Nations.

FOURTH DISCOURSE OF WISDOM

What is Wisdom? The teacher asks the student.

It will be the opposite of Ignorance, the student replies to the teacher.

Truth. The opposite of cold is heat. The opposite of War is Peace. And when do we say that a person is ignorant?

When you don't know the answer to a problem.

Therefore Ignorance is in relation to Knowledge. Or not?

Of course.

But the fact that a person does not know the answer to a specific problem does not imply ignorance in absolute, universal terms. An engineer, a bricklayer, are wise in their professions. They will be ignorant on issues across the boundaries of their specific knowledge. But we cannot speak of Ignorance, which we define as the opposite of Wisdom. In this order, Wisdom is understood as the Knowledge that gives the Power to answer all the questions that Intelligence faces. Which leads us directly to God. To call a person wise because of his knowledge of a specific subject is relative, he will be absolute knowledge in his parcel of Knowledge, but relative in that his Knowledge is reduced to his profession, because once you take him out of the boundaries of his specific knowledge he is ignorant. So Wisdom and Ignorance refer to the Universe of the issues that Intelligence has before it. We know from experience that the human being has a pathological tendency to believe himself superior to all other men by reason of his mastery of his particular science; as if the rest of us, because we did not know his science, were irredeemably ignorant. Humility is the opposite of Pride, and experience tells us that Knowledge in the ignorant, but wise in his area of knowledge, tends to feed his Pride, to end up banishing from his Being that Humility that corresponds to him and is due to the partial Knowledge of the universe of the Questions whose Answer is exclusive to God. This is why we affirm that Wisdom lives in God, and whoever wants to embrace Wisdom must embrace God.

In short, Wisdom is the Answer of those who possess all the Knowledge due to the universe of those referring to Life and Death, Space and Time, Matter and Energy, natural dimensions and proper to the body of the Cosmos.

He is also wise in his wickedness who invents an ideological system of crushing the Knowledge of the Truth in whose Power it is to discover that evil. From this it is seen that ignorance due to human nature becomes a murderous weapon in those who have the profession of hiding behind a mask of omniscience their absolute ignorance about that area in which they claim to be wise. So Wisdom is not only concerned with Truth but also with Lies.

We observe throughout the nations that there are many who, getting into the armor of Power and Riches, use that Mask to block the vision of their true face. We are talking about the Mass Media, and hence that group of wise men to do Evil, that is to say the Good that they do. and only them. it is in their best interest to have as an absolute priority to chain the Freedom of the Press and Communication to the Wall of their personal interests, interests that are none other than to hide their true face behind the mask of those who make the State their body. In the end, Riches is the goal they pursue, even at the price of Tyranny, Despotism and, in the last extreme, War. If we had an Aristotle among us, he would describe one by one the models of social systems invented exclusively to keep that group in Power and get hold of the Riches that if it depended on their natural talent they would never get. No one should think that this is new, or a hoax of a citizen subjected to that pathological despotism that puts an entire nation at his service without any scruples; it matters nothing to such a group that the price of their Wealth is the Poverty of the people.

We see, then, that there is Truth and Falsehood, Wealth and Poverty, Wisdom and Ignorance, Death and Life. What interests us is to define Wisdom, because whoever wants to achieve something must have Knowledge of what he wants to achieve. Thank God, we start from an infinitely happier position than the one from which the first thinkers started. We reap what many generations have sown. We are not gods. Nor are we Wise. To make our own that "I only know that I know nothing" would be to burn all that harvest that with so much effort, sweat and blood the generations that have preceded us have placed in our hands. We know that God lives because his Son was among us. We know that his Son is with Us because his Bride and Our Mother, the Catholic Church, is among Us. That those who call themselves wise have pretended and continue to pretend that this Truth is a Neurosis, this Evil and its Lie have no value before the Universal Truth of Divine Wisdom. There is no wiser man than God, Creator "of all things visible and invisible", the word of the Church. Hence Pride is a pathology and Humility is the true nature of the Soul of Man. As far as we know, "Let us make Man in our image and in our likeness" the Soul is the mirror in which the Personality of Godhead is reflected, permeates our Being, and elevates us to the Family dimension of His Son. "I am who I am" is not a cry of Pride; it is the Revelation of a Personality forged in the fires of Eternity, whose sparks become Being and gives us Life in His Image and Likeness. From that Fire our star is born. Now, from here to believing oneself to be a god, or what is the same: the body in which the Fullness of Creative Wisdom, source of God's Creative Power, came, there is an abyss; to put it bluntly, the form of a psychiatrist; which, as we all know, that sick person eliminates in order to maintain that aura of Supreme Soul returned to Earth to lead all the ignorant to the paradise of his Pride.

Wisdom, therefore, is the Answer to each and every one of the problems to which Intelligence opens our minds. He who wants to be wise in his Science must seek in God the Answer to the riddles that this particular Science puts on the table. In God lives the Answer to all the riddles of the Tree of all the sciences on which the Creation of the Cosmos and the Universe exist. From this it is understood that Wisdom is not exclusively Knowledge, but "the lever" that allows God to be the Creator of "all that is visible and invisible", of what "is and what will be".

Knowledge is Power, obviously. The question is what this Power is wanted for: To create, or to destroy? To give life or to eliminate it? To build a universal civilization on the basis of the Creative Personality, or to chain a society, in which such a Civilization exists potentially, to the Ego of a Group of Pride sufferers around whom the crescendo movement of Life on Earth must revolve?

Wisdom is necessary for everything. Fighting Lies, Corruption and Tyranny, inherited from sick degenerations whose existence was based on the Business of Death and War, how will it be achieved by following the tracks marked by the wheels of a Genocidal Fratricidal History marking the step towards the Destruction of the Human Race! It is the social systems bequeathed by the past centuries and millennia to our generation that are the inertial forces that drag us into chaos and universal suicide. Once thrown into the air, while atmospheric conditions persist, every arrow hits its target. It is the law of Physics. The arrow hurled against the Life of Man in the image and likeness of his Creator shot out of the bow of Death six thousand years ago. Since that date, which we call the Fall of the First Man, the history of nations has been a perpetual world civil war, the target of which is called the Third World War. That those who call themselves wise deny this Fact says nothing to the Force that has kept the nations on the battlefield, providing the arm of the Cains of all times with a weapon of ever greater destructive power. Until the Present, when the line that separates us from the Thermonuclear Abyss is a thin thread of total madness. Not to divest ourselves of Pride and to present ourselves before Wisdom "naked", dressed exclusively with the Humility of one who invokes the Covenant of God with his Creation, signed with the blood of his Son, because with all our "Wisdom" we cannot stop the Force of Death; our Destiny will be fulfilled: "We are dust and to the dust of the cosmos we will return". But having in God the invincible Force that can transform the atmospheric conditions that the arrow for Death thrown: will we continue to choose to do for ourselves what without God we cannot do? Will Pride be greater than our Need?

How we will change the course to self-destruction if we do not get off the bandwagon, and together we sit down to rethink what we are, we break with all the social systems inherited from our parents, each and every one of them founded on the Ego of a few and the slavery of all at the service of that insanity for the riches with which they buy and sell Power!

No one is perfect, no one is wise, no one is holy, except our Creator, our Life is in aspiring to perfection and wisdom in His Image and Likeness. Everything that is not this Truth comes from Death, and Death has only one end: To bring Life back to the dust.

"There is NOTHING hidden that does not come to light"

Requiem for statistics. Happy were those times when health professionals, and, if not, journalism, published statistics on the increase in diseases: venereal diseases, suicide, AIDS, mental illnesses... The Progress of the 2030 Agenda arrived, and there was silence. From the Ministries of Interior and Health, the absolutist Progressive dictatorship of Almighty Silence has been imposed, with the programmed response of fascism to anyone who wants to put on the table the statistics of the increase in venereal diseases, suicides and madness since the absolutism of the WOKE 2030 Agenda was imposed. Generations have been handed over, thrown at the feet of an Evil Alliance whose shield is Absolute Silence on the relationship between the Banishment of Natural Law versus the Law of Power of the New World Order A. 2030. They don't just keep quiet, they hide. What happened in England, mass rapes by Muslims, buried for the sake of not offending the criminals, with absolute freedom to rape all girls, all "Christian", was it not a crime for which all politicians and police commanders should have been dismissed, prosecuted and sentenced? Haven't they been doing it in Germany, Belgium, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, France...? Those who allow, and bless in silence: Are they not part of the crime? IN Spain you call a woman beautiful and they take you to jail if she dictates it: Muslims gang-rape girls and throw them out on the street for reasons of culture. The horror of Rotherham: the rapes of 1,400 girls by Muslims For almost 20 years, between 1997 and 2013, clans of Pakistani origin (Muslims) abused 1,400 girls, according to the report commissioned from Professor Alexis Jay, although other sources put the number at 2,000. They lured the minors with gifts, and then drugged and alcoholized them to traffic and rape them. The aggressions took place in houses and basements, but also in parks, atriums... in some cases they waited for girls at the doors of schools. Everyone knew about it, but the municipal and police authorities covered up the scandal so as not to appear "racist" and even removed the agents and social workers who were willing to investigate. "They didn't want to stir the multicultural ship," acknowledged Dennis MacShane, then a Labour MP, according to an article published in ABC in 2017. Former Prime Minister Theresa May blamed in Parliament in 2014 — as Home Secretary — "institutionalized political correctness." "Many victims suffered the injustice of seeing their cries for help ignored. Cultural concerns, and the fear of being seen as racist ... should never prevent the protection of minors," he said. And the Glory and Goodness of the WOKE 2030 Agenda continues August 6, 2024 The political silence in the United Kingdom in the face of the murder of three girls in Southport (Liverpool) and the government repression of those who protest against the danger posed by Islamism is reminiscent of what happened in the English city of Rotherham, where the authorities did not act against Pakistani rapists so as not to appear racist. Recently in Southport an individual of Rwandan parents killed 6-year-old Bebe King; Elsie Dot Stancombe, 7 years old; and Alice Dasilva Aguiar, 9 years old. The attack was initially censored by the media and the political class that encourages illegal immigration and its pull effect.

When you see your neighbor's beard chopping, put yours to soak.

Behind the Silence of the Alliance of Civilizations, Putative Mother of the 2030 Agenda, its satanic father the UN, lies the destruction of Christian Civilization in the hands of its Godfathers: the World Islamic Organization and the Socialist International of the 21st Century. But from all this it is finally understood why the United Kingdom was removed, no matter what, by the Crown of His Satanic Majesty, from the European Union. The crimes of His Satanic Majesty's Government, the Crown Fortune being intimately linked to the gold of India and Pakistan, the Jewel of the British Empire, would have uncovered the English hell in the eyes of the EEC, the prologue to the hell that was to be unleashed on all the nations of the Old Continent once the European crowns were linked to the Black Gold. Entire cities in Germany, Sweden, and Denmark live under the Islamic Terror. The Progressives of the WOKE AGENDA close their eyes, they are silent, they bury the crimes of mass rape by Muslims for the sake of the joy of being able to call FASCISTS those who boil their blood in the face of this Betrayal of the Historic Constitution of their nations. We have already witnessed gang rapes of Muslims in Spain, and seeing criminals acquitted for reasons of culture. We have seen Spanish men innocent of all crimes falsely accused of non-existent aggression and mistreatment by indecent women, and condemned for being Spanish. How long will it take for fear to be banished from the heart of Man and to put WOKE kings and governments before the courts, to raise their crimes, to put them before the eyes of the people and the People to judge them as beasts who believed themselves to be gods? Won't God keep His Word? A man who does not defend his children is not a man, he is a worm. A man who on the plate that your children eat, is not a man, he is a murderous beast, and as such, he must chase himself through forests and caves, until he finds it and banishes it from life. When the War for Peace and Health has been declared, whoever does not arm himself to the teeth to defend his home, his people and his life, is a slug that perishes under the boots of real men. God's Word is God; in the coming years we will see the cemeteries rise and all the crimes of the crowns and their governments come out of the graves. The case of the Pakistani mafia that raped girls in the United Kingdom and hid behind the mantra of racism... The disgusting behaviour of the British regime: cases of serial rape by Muslim immigrants hidden from the public; it is Geostrategy.

They DON'T Stop Criminals, Lock Up RACISTS

"I will multiply the labors of your pregnancies; you will give birth to children in pain and you will ardently seek your husband, who will dominate you"

How are nations born? Are they born by indeterminate natural associations?

But let's stop rambling, from what we lost we deduce what we had. Since the Human Race has been condemned to give birth to nations through the blood of the Civil War, it is understood that this dynamic of growth of World Civilization is the opposite of what God put on the table in His Wisdom in His Creation of our Universal History.

The Chronicles of the Nations that have preserved their records, whether through religious mythologies or political chronicles, reveal the Civil War as the beginning of the foundation of all the kingdoms, empires and republics that existed and exist. I mean, by speaking in that way, "Thou shalt bear children in sorrow," the Creator of mankind was not contemplating the birth of an individual.

Although deceived, Man de facto claimed to be the true intellectual author of his existence in the world.

It is not possible at this time to enter into the reason why God, being Man His Son, and being all-powerful to heal souls, acted as if Man had deliberately and consciously banished his Creator from his Future.

The reason why God, the Father of the Human Race, condemned an entire world to banishment from his life by the decision of a single generation is written in THE DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS CHRIST. The betrayal of the Universal Constitutional Law by that son of God, Satan (not of our world), deceiving his brother, Adam (of our world), posing as an Envoy of the Father of both: it involved in its consequences the Future of all the kingdoms of Creation. In that Betrayal, the declaration of merciless war against the Holy Spirit was signed.

In terms of the history of the Empire of God, this was the Third Universal War in which the various kingdoms of Creation were trapped. The Fall of the king that God raised up for the peoples of the Earth (the crown that came down from the Heaven of the Sumerian chronicles) was not limited exclusively to the History of the Human Race. The foundations of Creation itself were attacked.

This dimension of the event, for the sin of one man all men being condemned, remained in Silence. All the peoples returned, as they say, to the caves. And from there the questions began, which no one knew how to answer, and the mythologies began.

We, six thousand years later, the Redemption consummated, Christians by birth, children of God by the spirit of Intelligence, speak from this side of the sea of the countless wars waged to the health of the Universal Empire that the Stalin and Hitlers of all nations have burned into the memory of the world.

The First Man refused to open his soul to the Image and Likeness of his Creator, who became incarnate in Jesus Christ, and chose to have Satan as his divine model, hence the Nimrods, the Gilgameshs, the Tiglath-pileser, Ramesses, Xerxes, and Nero-Neros writing their names in the Book of History, the pen drowned in the blood of hundreds of thousands of men.

What will we answer today: To be the image and likeness of Christ Jesus, the Son of Man, or to look at ourselves in the mirror of Power, to become disciples and children of Satan, worshippers of Riches and Wars?

Thrown to evolve as if nothing had happened before the Fall, deprived of the invincible spirit of intelligence; banished from Civilization to the world of wild beasts, long and narrow has been the path of nations from the Flood to the abyss that has opened before all, the Third World War. The Russian Cain has unleashed against the Ukrainian Abel all the evil of his satanic father; he gathers all the children of his infernal evil around him, finally revealing to us what is the true face of the Alliance of Civilizations sealed in the UN, since then the throne of Satan. And will not America banish from its sacred soil such an Anti-Christian Organization dedicated to destroying the Creation of Man and Woman?

History teaches: and implies.

To those who have no intelligence, and are exclusively cheap labor force, the goal of the Socialist Communism of the XXI Century, to erase from Homo Sapiens his Intellectual Nature, leaving him exclusively in HOMO, and an exclusively existing HOMO to serve the Power of an Evil Agenda written to destroy the seasons of the year (Climate Change), and reduce the world population by a third (Global Pandemic), basic need to successfully restart the process of a New World Order: without Morals, Ethics, or Natural Law that is valid. To those who are hindered by the freedom that comes with Intelligence and find in the slavery of the Worker their paradise on Earth, the existence of a Universal Truth sounds like a fascist discourse, that ultra-right that claims Historical Memory as the sediment of the Personality of nations, the structural plate on which the edifice of Modern States was raised.

The absolute indignity and capacity to turn shame into a political abomination we have today in Spain, where an Alliance between Socialists, Pro-Terrorist Groups, and Regional Associations of Hatred of the Neighbor intends to lobotomize the generations that come by making them swallow the elephant of the Year 1812 as the Origin of Modern History. But if there is something that hallucinates the Intelligence, it is the silence of historians, professors and professors in the face of such an association born to destroy the Personality of the Spaniard, forged by fire for 2,500 years.

The Life and the Word belong to the Brave; Death and Applause belongs to the cowards. They want to silence our Tongue based on laws, to cut off our hands by decrees cooked up in the cave of Ali Baba and the 40 thieves. Why, after two world wars, when we expected universal peace, are we on the brink of the nuclear abyss? We find ourselves in the same scenario of the Fall: when the dream turned into a nightmare. Who has caused the dreamed Peace to become a nightmare in the light of day? Was it God? Who deceived Science by telling it that God does not exist? Was it God? For because they did not believe in the Event of the Fall and Betrayal of God, the origin of the Tragedy of the Human Race, God has wanted to represent to us in the Fall of Science in Anti-Christianity the Face of the non-human agent that was hidden in Luther, Calvin and the divines of Westminster. Scientific atheism has its cradle in Death, mother of Hell, father of Satan. Whoever has the intelligence to understand, let him understand.

CHAPTER FOUR

I

Sunday. Day of Rest of the Creator of the Universe. A time to contemplate his Creation. Time to dismantle the fallacy of twentieth-century cosmology.

1) A star a thousand light-years away moves within a relative space; Whatever the final figure formed by its movement within its gravitational domain, it proceeds to create an area equal to 100 light-years; This star has a luminous peak of, say, 10 light-years. Between the two peaks their light disappears into the distance. When his light reappears, TEN years later, his position has changed. During these 100 years of travel through its gravitational domain, this star will be seen ten times in different positions in space, to return to its starting point.

and who is observing our star from 1000 light years away. Here it goes:

Given the example, how many stars, starting from the previous example, will you compute in your astronomical chart: One or Ten?

Well, now project this rule onto all the stars in the Heavens and calculate their number after the millions of ghost stars have been wiped out of space, 9 in the case of the example.

If you know how to solve this simple equation you will understand that the astronomer of the twentieth century was a brain lobotomized by a current of cosmology whose force was Hatred of God.

Do not fall into that pit for brains at the service of the Death of the Human Race.

2) If you are a Geologist or Oceanographer and you come from a brain washer that prevents you from seeing Reality with the eyes of Intelligence, think.

You know that the abyssal trenches are subject to 4 degrees Celsius, the temperature at which water is compressed. If this temperature of the bottom of the oceans were to break, the rise in the level of the planet's waters would rise to kilometers above the current sea level. In fact, the Ring of Fire, which multiplied its geophysical activity during the 50 years of the Atomic Age, endangered the balance between oceans and lithosphere, a constant balance during the billions of years that were necessary for the development of the Tree of Species on land from primordial stem cells to Man. Without going any further, the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth had to intervene at the beginning of the second decade of the 21st century to cool the Lithosphere: He lowered the temperature of the Sun, on which the Earth's Core feeds, and thus slowed down its heat production.

The question is not for brains that are the product of universities, with their war medals against God hanging from their penguin costumes without honor or dignity of any kind. Here I go:

Knowing that the stability of 4 degrees Celsius is the thermocooling engine that keeps the relationship between the Lithosphere and the Biosphere constant, a relationship absolutely necessary to create that dimension in Geological Time that allows the Tree of species to develop until it reaches the birth of Intelligent Life, how to combine this Geophysical Necessity with a trip of the Continental Plates around the Earth without breaking this 4 degrees Celsius, the effect of which the waters would invade the lands drowning all life on dry land?

Enemies of God, of Truth and of Man, all of us in their eyes beasts from which to free ourselves in favor of the existence of that evil elite, which they serve with the loyalty of the Devil to Death, which intends to destroy the 4 seasons, create a single one, mother of a New World Flora, transgenic, at the price of the annihilation of all the species of the air and the earth, and replacing it with a new, cloned one, the question is not for such enemies of Humanity, because if they triumphed the human species would have become a species without morals, ethics, philosophy or religion, by bible its science Geocidal and Genocidal. The question is for you, whose soul has not yet been stolen. It follows the lists of atomic explosions from 1945 to 2000 and follows the list of volcano growth during those 50 years.

Whoever has intelligence should understand. Whoever does not want to see, let him not see.

Why do you think they signed the stop nuclear testing treaty? Why are scientists and their political masters very good people? What are you, an?

They understood that the Ring of Fire was going off and if it were to blow up, the first nations they would take away would be those of the Far East and North America. In addition to tsunamis, earthquakes and clouds of poisonous gases that would reduce the living mass on Earth by a third, which they now want to achieve through pandemics and relentless exposure to the electromagnetic radiation of those little toys called mobile phones.

3) The Moon is 400,000 times larger than the Sun and is 400,000 times the distance of the Earth from the Sun. Since its creation as a satellite of the Earth, its orbit has not changed one degree. Astronomical records over thousands of years confirm this. Its Gravity is superior to that of the Earth, to the point of exerting on the oceans the function of being what you bridle a horse. The astrophysical constancy of flight of the Moon sustains the centrifugal force of the liquid contained in a vessel, creating the Tides; if the Moon had not been regulated by a perfect Astrophysical Equation that created this Relationship, Life on land would have been absolutely impossible. And it goes without saying that since its gravity is higher than that of the Earth, the Moon acts as the Earth's shield against the Sun's radiation. All this is the Work of God's Omniscience.

II

What is the world? What, and who are the people? What is the human being? What about Intelligence? What is Truth? Why should man be concerned about the life or death of his fellow men? Is the life of someone who wants to deprive another of his life so important? What is a nation? What is Earth? Why do stars exist? Why does the Moon shine? Should we believe in scientists, or in Science? Politicians, or Politics?

Why do Riches drive politicians crazy? What is Power? What is Justice? Does the Law exist as a universal dimension on whose surface the seed of Civilization becomes a tree?

What is Society? If man is social by nature, why is man the only species that devours his fellow man? Is not this experience sufficient cause to speak of a Pathological Phenomenology of the Criminal Behavior of the Human Being, and Reason from which to deny the affirmation about the Social Nature of Man?

Is he social by nature who crushes his fellowman's head with an ass's jaw?

What social nature do scientists talk about while they put a nuclear jawbone in the hands of murderers?

The ideology of those who banish from the Strong all feeling of compassion for the weak has been installed in Power.

Was Scientific Atheism the last folly of the 20th century?

Have Atheists lost their minds? They take us all for fools. They affirm that man is a social species while justifying, legalizing and blessing the fratricidal behavior of Power.

What species on Earth has its food among its peers? Is man the exception to the rule? So Intelligence is the hammer that crushed man's social nature? Who has lost their minds, the atheists or us?

They say of us that Christians suffer from a neurosis. They say of themselves that they are wise. They deny that Wisdom turned its back on them. They claim that they have responded to him an eye for an eye; they have turned their backs on Wisdom by affirming that there is no contradiction between being social and witnessing the genocide of a people from the sofa at home.

Compassion is suicide in the house of Power.

When a man must die for a people to survive, why not eliminate an entire people for the world to survive?

Universal History is rich in questions. To live is to question our Origin, our Nature, and our Destiny. We know that nations are born with pain. The Civil War is that birth whose blood welcomes a new Nation into History. There is no nation whose birth was not the Civil War. The existence of a new nation was gestated in the bowels of the centuries, but its birth was only established on the bloody fields of the Civil War. God says that in His Day we chose this mechanism of birth; we did not want Peace as a mother, our fathers preferred War as a bosom. Peace does not create heroes, nor gods; War breeds demons for Hell.

The thing is that we are born in a world established in War as the Engine of Civilization. They have chosen for all of us what we do not want for anyone. The Revolution is the only option they leave us.

Change is a chimera, the Civil War is History, not Memory. Destiny is written on the ballot. You don't pay for the trip, you're born on the train. You can get off or stay until the end of the journey. You are free. Do what you want.

Destiny is in your hands, it is called Freedom. On the train of History you are born, it is the only thing you cannot choose; Get off at the next station?, of course you do.

You can believe those who deceive by claiming that the Changing Rails will prevent the derailment of the train of History.

Bad people, they seek your interest! They exist because they think, but what they think is not of interest to you. They don't want you to get off the train. How else are they going to eat the sweat of your brow!

Power cultivates Youth to prepare that cheap labor force on whose sweat to live like kings. When the poor pass away and the rich remain, who wants to be poor when he can rise to the pinnacle of Wealth over the corpse of the nation?

Wealth is the target towards which the arrow of the Socialist Power of the XXI Century flies. There is no other. Whoever believes otherwise denies the obvious, chooses to be blind, not to see reality with the eyes of the face, to be the forehead from which to extract the Wealth towards which the target of that Change that changes nothing in us and changes everything for them flies.

Destiny is written on the banknote. You own it. You can get off the train whenever you want. It can also happen that a group of passengers assaults the driver, takes control and forbids everyone to get off. What option do you have left: break the window, jump into the void, banish yourself from your own home. And while you are executing the somersault, the scientists come to tell you that Man is a Social Being by Nature. And they see no contradiction because you are the Weak One, the corpse on which the Strong One executes its ascension to Power.

The Assault on the Train is called the Socialist Dictatorship of the 21st Century.

The Socialists of the 20th Century preached the necessity of sinking the economic conditions of nations as a preliminary step to the establishment of a universal dictatorship of the proletariat. When they were born the socio-economic conditions had been created. It was up to them to take advantage of this scenario, to plunge that social stage into absolute chaos to justify the declaration of the revolutionary socialist coup d'état in the need for a new world order. This was the case in Russia, and in many other nations. This Revolutionary Mechanics could not be consummated in Spain under the Power of the Left of the Spanish Twentieth Century because God raised up a name of His People, the Spaniards, of His liking. And Francisco Franco called him.

Does God have the right to intervene in our world? First he makes the Intelligent and Wise Man in his Image and Likeness, then he abandons him to his fate, then he repents and writes a New History. What is all this?

Man is the prodigal son. In his youth he wanted to live his freedom, to get off the train of Predestination, to write his own Destiny; God stops the train, the man gets off, au revoir, bye, hasta la vista baby. And God expects His Son to return to the Train of eternal life.

But there is a time to wait and a time to keep moving forward. Sooner or later the train will have to continue its journey. What will happen then when the Gate closes? It is a Door that cannot be opened or closed by any passenger. The Driver controls the openings and closings. Opens to call: Passengers on the train. It closes to continue the Journey to Eternity. Those who do not rise, their fate is over their heads. Those who stay at the station lose their ticket. That's what I know, I don't know more. It is a Parable. To go up or not to go up.

There is also the other Parable. Foolish virgins perish in darkness. Once the Door is closed, no one will be able to open it. When it is opened, no one can close it either: as long as it is open, you have to run, even if it is in the dark: run, run, run. God is a father who awaits the return of the prodigal son. He sends another son of his to the foolish virgins to fill their lamps with oil and follow him to the Gate. The door is open: "let's run", when it closes no one will be able to open it.

God does not lie. Intelligence has been given to us to understand that Destiny lives in Predestination, but if you want to write your own Destiny, you are free.

God does not create machines, robots, ours is not an artificial intelligence, ours is creative, active, living, personal intelligence, with its own will and analytical judgment. Do you prefer to stay guarding someone else's pigs? Do you refuse the oil sent to you to fill your lamp? Would you rather buy it than have it given to you? Or don't you trust God because we went to bed in paradise and woke up in hell? Ignorant, you haven't read the Gospel?

It happened 2,000 years ago. You did not see with your eyes, you did not touch with your hands, you did not hear with your ears. Ok! God puts on your table THE DIVINE STORY OF JESUS CHRIST, signed by one of His Sons, the one who bears HIS New Name. How will you justify your refusal to see God's Innocence in the Event of the Fall? Doesn't the Testimony of Blood or Millenniums work for you? Do you want to see the Cross again? Do you think God is going to pass through the same place twice?

"Our Father who is in Heaven" died so that "His children who are on Earth" would not die.

What do you want to see? Will you believe if you see the head of a man rising from Nothing rising in the sky of the century? Don't you want to tempt God? That is why God will tempt you by making your eyes see what you are unable to believe without seeing. But "blessed is he who believes without seeing."

Destination or Predestination? Fear of Predestination? It is understood; all those predestined by God from the womb of their fathers ended up crucified. You don't want to end up burned in the fire of Predestination! But you forget that the Train Driver of Eternity is God. Do you know the difference between Destiny and Predestination?

Fate is a scenario dominated by your own death. The truth is that you have no Power over your Destiny; You would have it if you were a god.

Fate depends on factors that you do not control. You are an actor in a story run by a world in chaos.

In your Youth you believe you are capable of anything. You trust men who were young, and forgot they were boys. There is very little in them of human beings. They are Old in the image and likeness of the Old Men who raised their fortunes, their dynasties and their clans by using the blood and sweat of their fathers for mortar. Your power over your Destiny is such a fraud that it is a chimera to change them.

If you want to live in the Paradise of Freedom, why get off and cross the hell of War and Disease when the Glory Train flies on the wings of Health and Peace?

Look around. They call black white, good evil, progress corruption, law crime, pardon for collusion with crime. The world turned upside down. Is Science guilty for having sung us the Lullaby of Utopia in exchange for banishing the Faith from us, to wake us up on the verge of World War III? Was this disaster premeditated? Do we exchange the strength of faith in Man and God for trust in the word of wolves dividing the flesh of the sheep, getting drunk with the blood of the lambs?

Six thousand years surviving in this graveyard that the Earth has become, and still placing your trust in the word of individuals who believe themselves to be gods, kings who believe themselves to be more than men, and madmen who pretend to be wise, and impose their madness for Power and Riches on the altar on which they sacrifice your youth?

How beautiful is the Youth of those who are not afraid of life, to whom an Earth full of wonders opens up in front of them, each of them testimony of the Hand of a Creator in which Art and Science are the arms of his Genius!

III

The Divine dimension of the "Son of Man" is a reality of the perfect knowledge of the Son of God that not even the wise men of the theological sciences could well understand. And it is understood. Begotten to glorify their Lord in the midst of the nations, pillars of the Faith through the centuries, the defense of the Truth against the constant battles that Death was unleashing against the Bride of the Lord Jesus, kept them apart from that Wisdom by which God sent His Son into the world to perfect Him.

Mysterious words, more than anything else, and above all because God is not the fruit of an evolution of Being in space and time. "True God of True God," the perfection cited by the Holy Spirit is not referred to the Divine Being as God. Nothing could add or take away from His coming into our world to His Being. So we must refer to his words to understand the enigma of the "son of man."

Pedantism would be to copy to this page the words of the "Son of God" himself about himself as the "son of Man". Many times he spoke of himself as the "son of Man." They were all written to lift our eyes to the Day of Judgment, when the Son of Man will come to judge the living and the dead. And here is the Mystery. That corresponds to its secret.

Could a judge judge us justly whose knowledge of our world and its crimes were external to our historical reality? Would it be normal for a person whose being was never touched by our human historical reality to sit down to judge us for our crimes?

External to our reality, like someone watching a movie on a screen, how can we understand what envy, ambition, cruelty, greed, weakness and fear are of peoples in the face of monsters whose passion for Power and Wealth exceeds all limits?

Would that Judge be impartial justice?

Would he accuse the weak for not having preferred rebellion to slavery?

Would you condemn Spartacus in justice for having rebelled against those who lived crushing human beings?

How will this Universal Judge understand the force that drags some into the mud and others to bury us in the mud if he has not experienced in his own being that insane force?

According to what the Holy Spirit of Wisdom has transmitted to us, the Son of God was kept by his Father far away and absolutely alien to this Knowledge of the Science of good and evil that proceeds from living experience, objective knowledge that for us is our daily bread. The Son of God witnessed the consequences of the Fall of the First King of the Earth as one who witnesses in wonder an incomprehensible irrational phenomenon: a creature taken from the mud: challenging its Creator, Lord of Infinity and Eternity, in whose Word the Galaxies have the wind that moves them!

Madness? Treason? What was that? God condemns all the peoples of the earth, abandons them to their fate in the hands of Death.

The phenomenon of the Betrayal and Fall left the Son of God floating in the void. He does not understand how a creature born from dust can challenge its Creator. Madness, insanity?

God could no longer hide the existence of Death from his Son. So he makes the Wonderful Decision to make his Son take on the being of man and live in his being the Science of Good and Evil. May he know the cruelty in person, the boundless wickedness of those who believe themselves to be gods for a day and act like immortal demons at whose service all men are. He has to become man in order to understand men and to be able to judge them according to the human dimension. Subject to the law of Death, our condition had to live this dimension to its maximum extreme: to be condemned who is clean from all sin, to be executed by one who is an open tomb, to be beaten and spat on for the crime of loving one's fellow men as only the Creator can love his Creation.

His Incarnation was the school in which his Being was perfected in the dimension of Universal Justice. It is precisely in this that the Universal Hope of Salvation is deposited, because the One who suffered in his being all the evils that Humanity has lived for millennia, is the Only Judge who can in Justice write Eternal Sentence, for the Good of some and for the Evil of others, or for the Good of all. Whatever His Verdict may be, whether according to His Spirit of Prophecy, or according to His Mercy and Power, His Sentence will be Just.

We must all understand that if the very children of God, speaking of Satan and his followers, once amnestied returned to their crime, the Divine Judge cannot drag the Kingdom of his Son to its similar ruin. Hence it is written: "The Father shows the Son all that he does, and the Son does as he sees what the Father does." There was an Ancient World Universal Judgment, in which the Judgment against the Rebellion and Treason of the children of God of the House of Satan was sealed. It was seen that acquitting through amnesty those who swear to commit the same Crime for which they were prosecuted leads to a Greater Evil. And what is worse than the Civil War?

It is thus understood that before placing this Power of Universal Judgment on the lips of His Son, His Father would like to perfect Him in Universal Justice by making Him live in His own Being Injustice.

We are on the same ground to which Death wanted to bring God. That is, to confront the Father with the Creator in God. Here we have the confrontation between the Son of Man and the Son of God; if by Mercy the Son of Man absolves our world despite understanding that the same tragedy would be repeated in another time and place, the Son of Man would raise against the Son of God circumstances of lethal consequences for his Kingdom.

All the Power to write Sentence is His. But the Son of God must keep in mind the Future of His Father's Creation in order not to provoke a conflict based on a misunderstood Mercy and not on Divine Jurisprudence.

As has been seen in the Betrayal of Satan, just as God begets children in Living Matter, Death begets his children in the Flesh, and they are his children, and as such they do what is proper to them: To kill for Power and Riches, a criminal force that moves all those who are banished from Humanity to deposit their whole being at the feet of a limitless ambition that separates them of the Truth to settle in the Lie.

In every man it is natural that there is a desire for forgiveness and forgetfulness of the wrongs suffered by others. But when this forgiveness and desire to forget does not exist in the other, but awaits his opportunity to strike the criminal blow that he could not consummate in the first place, then there is no room for weeping or sorrow for one who, having had the opportunity of an effective reconciliation, gave himself up to Death to obtain what he could not by civil war and ruin.

Verily the Son of God has Power over the whole Kingdom of God by the Will of His Father. As the Son of the Creator of the Universe, He could turn the page because of His Infinite Power to raise all souls from their sleep, and, unconscious of the effects that Death has wrought upon Creation, open His Mouth to absolve all human beings of their crimes. Now, did not Nineveh return to his sin? Didn't that son of God become more evil who, because he had been pardoned and amnestied, believed himself immune from Divine Justice and blessed to commit as many crimes as he wanted?

God Himself showed His Son how to administer Justice by celebrating the Judgment of the Ancient World, in which He signed the Condemnation of Eternal Banishment from His Creation of that evil son of Death, who is not His. The Contradiction is logical. Once the being is created in the image of its Creator, the Creature inherits the Indestructibility of its Creator and the properties by which the Divine Personality is defined: Freedom of Decision, Creative Intelligence, Understanding of Right, Consciousness of Civilization, Social Nature. These properties of the Love of Life, once banished from being, come to install in this void the condition of wild beasts, which, because they have been clothed with the Natural Indestructibility of their Creator, become demonic.

The Power of God is Infinite. God could simply have created beings without Consciousness of their Existence as long as they were children of God, and, deprived of the properties of the Personality of their Creator, behaved like superior animals ruled by instincts, thus making it impossible to step on the borders of their Consciousness. However, the Creation of Life is founded on the Social Nature of the Creator. And once Creation is founded on that Social Nature, any discussion on this subject is a matter of beings without intelligence.

To put limits on the exercise of Power, and on the acquisition of Wealth against the Right of all the children of God to be free and happy, is to do Justice. Abolishing a pardon granted in the hope of reconciliation, followed by the threat of repeating the crime, is irrefutable proof before the courts that those who granted the pardon despite the knowledge of the invincible and confessed contumacy regarding the aggravated repetition of the pardoned crime were participants in the crime.

When the Judge judges not according to justice but according to private ties, the Judge is a party to the Crime. How could God put in the hand of a Son without His Spirit of Justice an event like the Last Judgment in which the Future of the whole Creation could be trapped!

When Justice breaks the Law due to political ties, everyone, judges and prosecutors involved in the assault on the spirit of Law, declares themselves de facto criminals; they must be judged not according to their positions but to their crimes, all the more so since, having consciously reached this situation, they have no choice but to declare political dictatorship as a means of salvation against their crimes.

What better school could God give to his Son than to become a man, to submit to the daily life of all of us against whose backs falls the whip of the boundless ambitions of kings, tyrants, dictators, politicians and spiritless people whose only illusion in this world is to live like a god at the cost of the sweat and blood of the peoples! God's Curse against Satan weighs on them. Or will the son of Man annul God's judgment on the ancient world for the love of man? Does not God show his Son all that he does, and as he sees in the Father does the Son? Isn't it written that way?

"Hope that is seen is not Hope," wrote the Holy Spirit. Therefore, let each one look to his Future in eternal Life, follow the Law of Freedom, and walk here on Earth as if he were already on it. To be Citizens of the Kingdom of God is to walk in eternal life, so what we do here testifies to what we will do there. Each one judges himself by his recorded acts in mortal condition. He is just as cowardly who limits himself to doing nothing to avoid being accused of something, as he is who remains silent in the face of injustice, corruption and war. The Law of Freedom, superior to Human Rights, brings the Duty of Intervention of all in favor of the Health and Peace of all.

War was declared to us millennia ago. It's time to end it.

IV

Every year that is born, we experience a miracle. The fact, certain, true, authentic, visible, that the human race is still alive: it is a supernatural event.

Knowing God as we know Him, the only reality that strikes our brains, to awaken us, is to marvel at the Power that the Creator of the Cosmos exercises over Himself. For the Father of Jesus Christ, the very idea of enduring the presence of a world subject to the Law of the Science of Good and Evil is an Abomination. An unbearable abomination for His Spirit to the point of having decreed the Banishment from His Creation of those who were originally "children of God". Having rejected "those children" the most elementary principles of the Logic of Thought, the Pride of Science drove them mad beyond all prudence when they conspired to discover the Achilles' point of the Creator of all that exists, within and without the Cosmos. Achilles' heel that they thought they found in the Nature of the Creator's Heart: "God is Love".

Speaking human; Is the Creator's Love for His creation weakness? Is genius human weakness?

The answer of "those sons of God" was the answer of the fools: "The Father is hurled against the Creator, and..." bingo.

A perverse generation of which the Servant of God spoke, writing:

"Hearken, O heavens, and I will speak, and let the earth hear the words of my mouth. Let my doctrine fall in drops, like rain. I distilled my speech like dew, like drizzle on the grass, like raindrops on the grass. For I am going to celebrate the name of Yahweh. Give glory to our God! He is the Rock! His works are perfect, all his ways are most just; He is most faithful, and there is no iniquity in Him. It's fair, it's right. His sons, a wicked and perverse generation, behaved unworthily toward him. Thus do you repay Yahweh, you foolish and foolish people? Is He not the Father who raised you, who of Himself made you and formed you? It brings to mind the past times, attends to the years of all generations; ask your father, and he will teach you; When the Most High distributed his inheritance among the nations, when he divided the children of men, he established the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the children of God. For Yahweh's own portion is his people, his hereditary lot is Jacob,

See, then, that I am I, I alone, and that there is no God but me. I give life, I give death; I wound and I heal; There is no one who will free himself from my hand.

"Surely I lift up my hand to heaven and swear by my eternal life: When I sharpen the thunderbolt of my sword and take judgment into my hands, I will repay my enemies with my vengeance and give what they deserve to those who hate me. I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will be filled with flesh; of the blood of the dead and of the captives, of the heads of the enemy chiefs. Rejoice, O people, for his people, for the blood of his servants has been avenged, he has avenged him on his enemies, and he will make atonement for the land and for his people."

This God's Response to the challenge of "that wicked and perverse generation of God's sons," among whom he "established the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the sons of God," was to be kindled in Fire. A Fire that does not go out and devours everything that comes near it.

Hence, returning to the Future, the Mystery of the Universal Supreme Pontificate of Jesus Christ, the One Being who stands before God face to face, HIS Equal: his Only Begotten Son.

So, knowing that God could not resist the sight of Man crawling through the streets of Sodom and Gomorrah, generating violence, evil, nursing in the human being a beast without law or morals: Why would God endure the vision of Sodom and Gomorrah of the 2030 Agenda?

Does not the Creator possess the Property of His Work? Doesn't the Creator of Power have to destroy His Work without giving explanations to anyone?

What Patience God has put on the table of the Ages! What has led you to maintain this Patience?

Without a doubt, the Hope of giving an End to the World inherited from Adam and opening the Future of the fullness of nations to the Inheritance of Christ Jesus, That Child who appeared before the Doctors of the Law of Jerusalem to open to them the Door of the Knowledge of all things, and to call all nations with their peoples to the Kingdom of Truth, of Justice and Peace: the Kingdom of God, his Father, the Kingdom of Freedom and Intelligence.

Can the vision of his Son on the Cross convey to us the spear in the heart that God suffered when he saw his Creation, the kingdom of Adam, the Alulim of the Sumerians, thrown into the fires of hell of fratricidal war?

Who has not yet understood that, from His Cross, with an open breast, That Child made Man showed us the Breast of His Father while He wrote with the blood that was shed from His Soul:

"Because you listened to your wife, eating of the tree of which I forbade you to eat, saying to you do not eat of it: For you the earth shall be cursed; with labor you will eat of it all the time of your life; He will give you thorns and thistles, and you will eat of the herbs of the field. In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until you return to the earth, for you have been taken from it, for dust you are and to dust you shall return."

Six millennia later, in the year 5785, who will deny that this has been the case?

Against Satan: "Because you have done this, cursed will you be among all the cattle and among all the beasts of the field. You will crawl on your chest and eat the dust all the time of your life..."

The equation says it all: "You are dust", to man; and "you shall eat the dust all the time of your life," to Satan. The equality is certain, true, and visible: We were all given over to be butter meat, armies of tin soldiers lined up on one side or the other for the glory and spectacle of demons engendered in the bowels of Death. God, our Creator, withdrew from the Show. Until "he" who would crush his head, "the son of Man," was born: "he will crush your head, and you will lie in wait for his heel."

Everything that concerns the Duel to the Death between the Champion that God raised up for us among His children is described in the DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS CHRIST by Christ Raul Y&S. From this it is understood that, having signed the Exile of "that perverse and wicked generation among whom God distributed the families of men", in order to build in each Family a specific Civilization, the thought set on the creation of a dazzling creative conjunction of a One World Civilization, established on multiform foundations, each one a pillar of the resulting edifice, and God having arranged a Date for the execution of the Sentence of Banishment of His Creation against Satan, head of the Serpent of Eden, that Day was to come and strike in the Clock of the History of the Human Race.

That Beast desperately seeks in this Day and in this Hour to consummate what in the first kingdom of Mesopotamia began: The destruction of Wisdom in Man.

V

My soul is poured out in the vision of the Victory of the King of Heaven. His Strength is HIS Father, who can stop the Flood of Wisdom that is going to rain down on His children?

The flaming sword that cut off man's access to the Fruit of the Tree of Life has been removed and returned to its sheath. The Science of Creation opens its laws and technologies to the service of Life. Man ceases to be "dust", "food for beasts", worshippers of Power and War, of Riches and Immunities. What was Olympus that "that rebellious and perverse generation of children of God, among whom the families of the Earth were distributed" if not an Association, Congress or Assembly of tyrants claiming for themselves Absolute Immunity from general laws?

"Freedom for the legalization of War as a Game between Thrones". If you are a child of God, you must enjoy the position of God himself. Or is being children of God a farce? Can anyone call God to answer for their actions? Ergo: "If we are children of God we must be beyond Justice; to live according to our Law of Absolute Immunity because of who we are: gods. So as gods we have the Power to do as is best for our happiness in the days of Eternity."

The slip was tremendous. The crime, abominable. The Love of the Creator for His Creation as an Achilles' heel, shooting the right arrow against the Holy Spirit who lives in God, was transformed into a boomerang "crushing the head" of that evil and perverse generation of children of God. For God gave us as Champion and Avenger the Son of His uncreated womb, Our King Jesus Christ: of whom for Two Thousand Years His Bride, Our Mother the Catholic, Roman and Apostolic Church has said: "True God of True God, begotten of the Uncreated Nature of God the Father". "Two Persons, One Spirit", the same by the work and grace of whom was incarnated in the Virgin Mary of Nazareth that Son of God of whom his Father wrote: "God said 'Let there be Light', so that his Word about the Divine Uncreated Nature of the Son of Mary of Nazareth would be the Signed Declaration of his Testimony before all the House of God, of Heaven and Earth, on the Divine Nature of JESUS CHRIST. Hence whoever does not worship the Son does not worship the Father, and whoever rejects the Son rejects eternal life. Can a father allow another to impose his own law in his house? Will not that father who hates his son be expelled from his house?

I raise my arm to Heaven and celebrate the birth of the Day and the Hour when the Beast, the Devil, the Serpent, will be banished from Earth as it has been from Heaven. The End is near for those who rejected the Kingdom of the Son of God; the Principle of the King's Divine Liberty to unite all his peoples and extend his Law of Peace and Health to all nations, begins.

In his last movement the Beast whips his tail and wants to drag us nations to our destruction; World War III is his dream; resurrecting Sodom and Gomorrah, the mother of all abominable violence and evil, is the horizon of the 2030 Agenda, the "gospel of the Devil"; inspiring the possibility of creating a World Order in Chaos is the chimera of the founders of the Alliance of Civilizations, the womb into which Satan slipped his 2030 Agenda.

There is no Power on Earth that can control the Chaos that Death sows to reap its harvest: Another World that disappears into the darkness of the Past, sinks into the quicksand of Time, and its memory disintegrates as it sinks into the bottomless pit of Infinite Space. Controlling the Power of Death? To kneel before an Uncreated Force whose horizon is to make the clock of the Time of the life of the worlds ring?

There is no New World Order to build in the Chaos unleashed by Death. Once Death enters a World and imposes its Law, the law of the science of good and evil, that world is condemned to return to the dust of the cosmos, matter for oblivion.

The Power of Death can only be controlled and defeated by God, Creator of a Cosmos conceived to cultivate in his body beings endowed with eternal life, intelligent beings invested with the natural Indestructibility of their Creator. When Science rejected Intelligence in the image and likeness of the Divine, and preferred the Reason of beasts as the mover and vehicle to the Knowledge of all things, is the question!

For the apocalyptic Beast the revival of Scientific Atheism was of high priority. Scientific Atheism disarmed the defense structures of human intelligence against the attack of Death. Human Reason ceased to drink from the fountains of eternal life; he preferred to take refuge in his own strength, all-powerful in his opinion, to depend on a Wisdom to receive which it is necessary to be, first and foremost, a child of God, that is, a "Christian", a disciple of Christ Jesus, our Master, the Rock of Truth from which arises the Water of Intelligence in the Image and Likeness of His.

But how shall we condemn men for erring in their ways through the darkness of centuries subjected to the Power of Death and its prince? Every bad person seeks to survive at the expense of others. Once survival is established by law, everything else is superfluous, and those who oppose that survival in Power are defined as enemies by those who make their law of resilience their "Mein Kampf", their Struggle. The Necessity of showing God to all His House the Reason why the Law of the Science of good and evil is Abominable to Him, imposed His Law.

Once the Redemption was consummated, although "that generation of rebellious sons of God" was banished from the Earth and imprisoned for a Thousand Years before being thrown back into our World, the Law had to continue its march: "Dust you are and to dust you will return." Death has continued to be omnipresent in our history, extending its empire until it consummates its destiny: to transform the Earth into a thermonuclear cemetery.

It is difficult to maintain Faith in God while Death freely devours His Creation. What else can be done but try to create a World Order that controls Chaos!

First the Renaissance, the GOOD, immediately the Cainite Protestantism of division to the death among the European nations of Catholic origin, EVIL. Two World Wars to convince men, reduced to the condition of gregarious beasts, and make them believe that they can live with Death, defeat it by becoming citizens of their Empire, the kingdom of men in the image and likeness of Satan.

Power is beyond Justice;

the Power must repeal all constitutional laws that submit them to Justice:

from Power the Law of Human Nature must be abolished, man is not male because he has genitalia of the male of mammalian species, nor is woman female because he has the specific vagina of mammalian families;

each one is what he thinks he is, each one is what he wants to be, even a monster murderer of the Freedom and Prosperity of Civilization based on his need to feel and live like god;

where there is neither Universal Law nor Specific Genetic Morality, each one is free to use the Power created to serve others, and make it his own, if he survives the attempt; owners of Power belong to them the destiny and life of all; they dispose of their lives according to the needs of survival in Power of one who believes himself to be a god;

Individual Property is abolished because it is Power that says what is law and what is crime, what is love and what is hate, what is justice and what is corruption, what is right and what is wrong.

The Civil War is served. They say that, in submitting to their law, kneeling before the 2030 Agenda and bowing our heads before the children of hell: "dictators, tyrants, genocidals, war criminals, traitors to their Words, sacks of lies from the storehouse of Death", is our life. If we do not kneel before the throne of the UN, from which Satan, in his Last Hour, leads History at his feet.

Wise men of the science of destruction whose eyes cannot see the exit door of the labyrinth in which their Utopia has put them, because God exists, the fingers with which you signed the baptism of weapons of mass destruction are going to fall from your hands. From glory you are going to fall into the misery of one who is miserable by his own choice. The Light of Wisdom will blind your eyes and without remission you will fall into the pot in which you proposed to cook our meats for the sake of the survival of your masters. We fight for freedom and you have placed it at the feet of your gods: genocidals, tyrants, dictators, lovers of War, Power and Riches. The wise men laugh at the grace: "The Axe rests on the trunk. We will cut down the tree of nations until its branches are reduced to the minimum necessary to establish the empire of the gods of Olympus on Earth," they say.

Do I not have the thought of him who begot me? That is why I tell you, since you love hell and want to control Death, your New World Order will enjoy them in the bottomless pit of the Abyss on whose surface the New Cosmos extends for Eternity.

Each one chooses his sentence. He who hates Truth, Justice and Peace, chooses Banishment from the Ocean of Galaxies; he who loves Riches, Power over the life and death of peoples, chooses to be a prince and god in hell. For the Day and the Hour has been born about which the Holy Spirit wrote in His Book: "The whole creation awaits with its heart in a fist the coming of the Day of the Glory of the Freedom of the Son of God, glory of the Only Begotten Son," that Glory of the GOD who said, "Let there be Light." In that God who became Man to save His Creation from destruction, and to Bear Witness with His Blood to the Innocence of His Father in the Fall of the First Man: "The Universal History that the nations have lived through never entered His Head."

The King comes to recover what is His: The Fullness of the nations of the Earth, to open the Intelligence of men to His wisdom, to banish the Beast from the World, to wage His Father's Final Battle against Death, to banish it from His Creation, and to open to all the peoples of the Human Race the Door of Peace and Health.

The Faith has kept this Hope alive in the bosom of the Catholic Church. "Come, Lord Jesus," has been the constant cry of the Bride to her Bridegroom. But the Time of development of the events that make the centuries a book, is known only to His Father. And that time in which that Hope must come true has been born.

The King of Heaven moves his own throughout all nations. Death moves his own, apostles of A.2030, opening that mouth from which all kinds of filth emerge against those who are his compatriots, blood brothers for History and Homeland. It is the spirit of Cain that crawls silently through the corridors of Power until it feels strong enough to take off its mask and declare a state of war.

Will not the tyrant of Venezuela die in his madness? He has already run out to hide in the house of a son of Satan the Butcher of Syria. At the Great Butcher's House all butchers are welcome.

The King of Heaven will unite all of his own, abolish the fratricidal doctrine of the UN, disarm the Alliance of Civilizations, make all armies HIS army of Peace and Freedom, and lead them against those tyrants, gods for a day, demons for eternity. Generals, judges, and security forces who do not depart from the tyrant and his sect of worshippers of Power will be banished from Life. Then the whole World will see their God, when the Peace and Health of the King will cover the whole Earth with His Mantle of Justice, Science will embrace the Wisdom of the Creator, and generations will enjoy the 120 years of life, in health and freedom, appointed by Him for the life of man on Earth.

Even without having begun the Game, the Victory was, is, the King's.

SAW

Christians were persecuted without mercy or mercy for four centuries. We were a diabolical danger to the Jew and to the Empire. The Jews discovered to the Empire the truth of the Future of Christianity: "Christianity is an Anti-Imperialist Doctrine whose direct, final goal is the Dissolution of the Empire. Rome had to crush that Pandemic of the Mind before seeing the Christian Virus spread through the Empire and dissolve it from within. The Christian proclamation of Universal Brotherhood implies the Abolition of social classes and the Equality of all men from the bosom of Nature. Disinherited from her children, the Catholic Church comes to act as Mother of all men, each and every one a child of God, and as such under the protection of one God, Father of all. Rome would lose something more important than the Empire: To be the Mother of the entire Roman Orb."

Surprised by the deluge of accusations of this nature, the Empire, dancing to the movement of the baton of the Jews and the imperial aristocracy, danced its last swan song before Rome was crushed by the boots of the Barbarians. What happened to the Roman was what happened to the fools of Progress while they search the sky for the donkey that flies, their leaders are looting their pockets. And with great honor! Progressive until "the fucking master" lets me live.

The Romans were naked teenagers living the wild life of the iron man.

Anti-Christian Judaism took the place of Satan in Eden, the one who at that time a son of God deceived the first king of Mesopotamia, the Alulim of the Sumerians, the Adam of the Hebrews, making him believe that he was the true enemy of his GOD.

The King of the First Kingdom of Mesopotamia fell into the trap. Men refused their Empire. Was it His duty to submit all peoples to His Divine Crown, if necessary, with blood and fire?

The same thing happened to Caesar, believing that the enemy was the Christian; without realizing it, but without ceasing to put the noose around their necks, the Caesars began to devour their own Corps as Christianity spread its strength throughout the provinces of the Empire.

By the time Rome came to realize the trap set by Judaism, accusing the Christians of preparing a Rebellion that would give them Power, Caesar found himself surrounded by savage tribes, Barbarians called them, first, moved by the need for land and bread, finally by hatred of the Roman. Too late for meas culpas. It did not take long for the Christian to prove himself to be the most powerful and fierce soldier of the time. And yet Rome had been slaughtering its best defenders by the work and grace of a new Serpent whose hatred of Jesus Christ was a lethal poison to all who opened his ears.

For four centuries, the Anti-Christian Jewish poison poisoned Caesar's empire to the point that Rome was surrounded by enemies. What now, Diocletian? The North and East have risen up against your imperialist New World Order paramilitary enterprise. Who will hold the walls of Rome while your successors tear each other apart, one by one cutting down the armies, reducing the forces of the frontiers, abandoning the provinces to civil war for the Supreme Divine Power? From the North and East the armies of the Barbarians begin to move. Your successors, Diocletian, kill each other; Who will unite all armies and strengthen the Walls of Civilization until the Fall of your Empire is that of the Phoenix?

Is not Our God a Creator of Universes, Omniscient and Omnipresent?

His name was Constantine. God created him to raise a New Army: the Christian Soldier.

Politics? Constantine understood that the best Soldier is the Christian because he does not defend an Empire, he defends a Kingdom, the Homeland of Truth, Justice and Peace. How could Constantine maintain the Law of Annihilation of the Best Roman Man, the Christian, cause with his loss the weakening of the Empire!

Can a teacher order a literary essay from someone who does not know how to write? Will the blacksmith say to the judge, "Make me a sword." Will not man feel the warmth of the Divine hand that sustains him? "IN HOC SIGNO VINCES". What one day is a political thought, the next is transformed into legitimate revolutionary action. The critics of Constantine, lost in the mists of the ages, denying Reality, claiming the vision of the Cross to be madness. The effect was to extend the Life of the Empire for two more centuries. The two centuries that it took the Church to keep in its arms the legacy of Classical Civilization.

The Victory of the Constantinian Peace exalted the Christian and embittered the Jew. Homeless in the world, scattered throughout the Empire, the Jew came to see how his efforts to destroy the Christians were lost in the marshes of the Divine Force that sustained them.

From the beginning, the Jews had only one dream: the Empire of Jerusalem.

David refused to transgress the Law on the borders of the Promised Land to the children of Abraham.

JESUS refused to put his Glory, and glory of the One who with his Word can do everything: "Let there be Light", "Lazarus, come out"; JESUS refused to place that Infinite Power at the feet of an Imperial Jerusalem, enslaving all peoples to a Law as a result of which civilization would die at the feet of Solomon's Temple.

Not even Solomon, in all his glory, having all the gold in the world and the most powerful army of the time, dared to transgress the Law of the Borders of Israel. What the Temple asked JESUS was to tread on the Law of YAHWEH GOD and extend the Borders of the children of Abraham to the ends of the world.

With that lapidary sentence: "Let his blood fall on our heads and the heads of our children, per seculam seculorum", the Jewish People sentenced itself to Exile, it gave itself up to the Hatred of all peoples. They did not crucify JESUS for calling Himself the Son of God and making Himself equal to God, they crucified Him for not putting His Power at His feet, Power with which they would have put the neck of the whole world under their boots.

Adam sinned by Ignorance; Caiaphas for Malice. But if the sin of the first was justly punished, and even though it was the cause of the Tragedy of the World, there was redemption; it would have been unjust on the part of the Divine Judge to punish to prison unto death one who the fruit of his sin reverted upon his own head and those of his descendants.

Oblivious to the Spirit who lives in the God of Moses, incapable of understanding the Wisdom of the God of Abraham, the Anti-Christian Jews stopped at nothing in order to achieve the desired end: The Extinction of Christianity; nor were they averse to allying themselves with Hell once they were friends of the Devil.

All for what? To offer to all of us the children of God the spectacle of Two Thousand Years wandering like masterless dogs through the Christian nations, exposed to the hatred and disgust of all, unaware of the Crime that would lead them to the Supper of the Holocaust?

Constantine and his mother had nothing to do with the fate of the Jews. As serpents hide from fire, the innocent children of murderous parents withdrew into the shadows, from the darkness of their Hatred of Christ scattering the tares of division among Christians. Would it not have been easier and simpler to recognize the Sin and ask for Absolution from the one against whom it had been committed? It would have been, but can the madman who does not recognize his insanity cure himself?

Such was the wisdom of the Anti-Christian Jew: to see in Christ the son of the Devil. All the other men in the world are blind. That is why the Jew sought the Universal Empire, to remove from all of us the Veil that covered our intelligence and prevented us from seeing Satan in Christ.

Not even though their Descendants lived the Victory of Christianity over Romans, Barbarians, Ottomans, Socialists, Nazis and Communists, the Descendants of those Criminals were able to look in the mirror and ask themselves: What did we do to deserve the Holocaust Supper?

As said, when in his Justice, and being the consequences of his sin of worldwide extension, GOD set a date of Freedom to the Condemnation of his son Adam, it would have been Injustice on his part to lock up in prison until death his son Israel for a Sin that exclusively affected his people. Israel would also have the day of Freedom. The Divine Word is firm. At the end of time, after the Supper of the Burnt Offering, the children of Abraham would return to the Promised Land, their Perpetual Inheritance among the nations of the Human Race.

We see what we behold and speak what we hear. Since the Return of the sons of Abraham to the Lost Land all anti-Christian powers directed their forces in the direction of the extermination of the Israeli Jews. Unable to rise up against Christianity, defeated by the Christian nations and subject to the Law of Christian Civilization, they released the frustrated hatred that their fathers transmitted to them, making the Israelis the target against a people whose condemnation came to an end.

The Israeli is here to stay, and his Home is the State of Israel.

We have all witnessed the Arab wars against Israel live and direct. We have all suffered the hallucination of the decades of Terror that the streets of Jerusalem and Tel Aviv experienced, constantly horrified by children carrying bombs that diabolical parents exploded. Remember Jerusalem, when you did the same thing to Christians, you denounced them and took them out of their homes to throw their children into the mouths of lions, meat for dogs. Don't your historians tell you this? Do your teachers only know that they don't know anything? They hide from you, under the funerary mask of our Socrates, the crimes of your fathers? When will you be free, now that you are free, from the Ignorance of your first father and the wickedness of your last pontiff! Man has no father but God, and his Pontiff is his Son, the One whom your anti-Christian parents condemned to death, at whose service is the Bishop of Rome to reconcile all men with the Past and to open to them the Door of the Future.

Who will be able to defeat us Christians? For a moment it seems that the world is sinking under our feet and the sky is falling on our heads. "The wise Man builds his house on the rock, whether the storms intensify, whether the earth rains or trembles, its walls remain for centuries." Won't you convert? Do you think that besieged by the powers of the Alliance of Anti-Christian Civilizations, this time the Christian will fall?

Well, watch, open your eyes and weep over your failure. China, the New Soviet Union and the UN, the godfathers of the 2030 Agenda, will fall. And each one will have to decide for themselves where to stand.

Victory is never proclaimed on a blood-free field. World War III is an abomination to the Christian. War against the State of Israel is an abomination to all of God's children. The borders of the State of Israel are written and must be subject to Scripture.

VII

1. - What is a Republic? The answer will depend on which mouth comes out. For an ignorant sage, the typical subject of the Left of the XXI Century, intellectual zombies who refused to travel back to the grave, and wander through the XXI Century with the sole purpose of dragging us all into the hell of their thoughts, each and every one of the shreds of their reasoning infallible; for this type of brainless human, the Republic is a Society where the Party performs the functions of the dethroned king. There is still a king, the leader of the Party is the new king, for a limited time, but during that time he remains invested with all the guarantees of that immunity enjoyed by kings through past centuries.

Nobody wants this kind of crown.

The true sage is repulsed by such a throne. The Crimes, Wars and Genocides perpetrated by the crowns of all times and continents have been innumerable. They were in all the wars. They caused the world wars, they are the godfathers and promoters of the 2030 Agenda. A question of survival; it's them or us.

But the repugnance of the Political Left towards a Crown provokes the chain reaction of those who, being from the Right, defend the unjustifiable, before God and Man, based on being their political enemy who proposes the Republic.

Because of the political sign, does the rain stop being water?

The Republic has nothing to do with the fact of the existence of a crown; the existence of a terrestrial crown, however, does have to do with the existence of the Republic.

The essence and substance of a Throne is based on the election of the ministers of its crown. The king commands. The king's will is grace that communicates itself and strengthens the nature of the chains of his subjects. Life is the king's grace to the slaves, his people. A social edifice founded on the Power of Freedom of the people to elect their public servants is a heresy in the ears of the crown.

The foundations of the earthly crown nail their feet in the Freedom of Power to annul the will of the People and impose their own "by the work and grace, in this case, of Democracy". From this it is understood that Democracy is the best friend of every earthly crown and the worst enemy of the Republic.

2. - What is Democracy in this context? The answer is so obvious, not that it seems so, it is obvious. Democracy is the Mask behind which the enemy of the Republic hides his true face.

Democracy is the coexistence between Parties and Crowns in a Pact of Power by which the terrestrial crown extends the Immunity, due to the throne, to the Political Parties, thus guaranteeing all, to each other, the Coexistence in Crime, natural in those who are beyond Good and Evil.

The democratic king delegates the Power of electing his ministers to a Political Body in exchange for Absolute Immunity for the Crimes to be committed during his Era. The body politic buys this immunity for its members in exchange for amnesty against crimes committed during its government. Freedom, in any case, remains; the terrestrial king communicates all his Absolute Power to a Valid, who in his name chooses his ministers, and in his name... To the final point of there being two kings, one: holder of the throne, and the other: "king without a crown", the executor arm of the grace by which all subjects are subjected to applaud and live this farce through the whip of Taxes.

The law of survival is imposed!

3. - "The Republic" was born in the intelligence of a wise man in response to the farce of Democracy. Plato understood that the aristocratic families had made the Athenian Senate their lever to stay in power and defend their family interests from power. Against the struggle of interests that its members maintained, whose final effect was the destruction of Democracy, the wise man conceived a Society governed by wise men. And he called it "The Republic."

Regardless of its legal concept of the Creation of "the Republic," the Platonic Ideal of the Nature of a Free Society, governed by free men, freely elected by free citizens because of the wisdom of each of them in the branches of Public Administration; it is the Republic.

The History of the Destruction of Athenian Democracy is open to the knowledge of all readers. The internal struggles for power and appropriation of the entire edifice of the State by private individuals came to replace the war between families. "Ride so much, ride so much", applied to this case did not intervene at all in the future that Democracy itself had traced in time, an invisible future for those who enjoyed Power for a day, but Perfect Future for the wise man who sought the Answer and found in the Republic of the wise the Wall against which that Final Destiny should crash... provided that "the Republic" was accepted as the Nature of Society and everyone was involved in its Foundation.

Which never happened. The Death of Socrates made clear the sentiment of the Greeks against Wisdom. Plato had a dream: when he woke up he found himself trapped in the nightmare of Reality. Greek Democracy was crushed. The Government of the People by the People proved to be a real chimera.

4. The Romans learned their lesson and created the Republic. The Roman aristocratic families rebelled against the kings, and created a Senate in which the wise men were replaced by the heads of the great divine families, of which Julius Caesar was their last representative. The error was reproduced again. The internal struggles leading to the destruction of the Athenian Democracy were installed in the Roman Senatorial Republic. Their civil wars were the result. The Roman People being deprived of their Power of Election over the best men to direct the Public Administration, their future was left in the hands of the ambition of Power of the representatives of the aristocratic families who founded the Power of Rome.

To the same causes and the same effects, the Fall of the Roman Republic became the chronicle of a history foretold. Against this effect, Octavian Augustus conceived the Empire, the only model of Power capable of establishing a New World Order on the ruins of the Roman Republic. Not the best but the strongest would be the prototype of the statesman. Not Wisdom, the iron law would be the foundation of Roman Civilization. A patch on the Wall of the immense dam that the Empire was transformed into. The Battle against this Final Effect is written, it is known as the Fall of the Roman Empire.

Thus, the Republic of the Wise, the Guarantor of the Freedom of the Citizens, was dissolved under the boots of the Barbarian Invasions. Civilization could not free itself from the ambitions and madness for Power of the ruling families. And he could not because the foundation of the Roman Republic continued to be Wealth as gasoline for the engine of the Empire.

The lesson is true and visible: When Private Wealth is used to conquer the Key to Public Wealth, which to use to grow Private Wealth, this dynamic is a Betrayal of the Nature of the State: on the one hand, material reason, against the Distribution of Public Wealth among its True Owners, citizens; and on the other, spiritual reason, against the Defense of the Enjoyment by all Citizens of Liberty and Justice.

Liberty and Justice trampled on by the criminal interest of the Possession of Individual Power, or Party, the sole guarantor of the permanence and enjoyment of a life of kings, the contempt of the citizens, deprived of Liberty and Justice, for the State and its Government led the Roman Imperial Civilization to its destruction.

That is to say, Democracy replaced the Monarchy, the Republic replaced the Monarchy, and in the face of the failure of both to maintain Freedom and Justice, the Empire was resorted to, a social model based on the Slavery of all to the Power of the State. "I am the State" has been the Confession of Faith of the Absolute Power. It was exercised by emperors for thousands of years before Octavian Caesar Augustus was born. It was exercised again by the emperors and kings who emerged from the Barbarians.

5. - As soon as the edifice of Civilization rose from its ashes in Europe, the same evils returned to parasitize in the human being. Not the wise or the best, the worst and the most beastly made their way to the thrones on a field of blood. Neither democratic nor republican, the new European crowns had an exclusive personalized destiny, to resurrect the Rule of Law of their crowns. A law that did not admit the word of anyone, not even that of God in person.

"The Investiture Struggle" between Roman Bishop Gregory VII and Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV balanced the question of the new basis on which to reinstate a monarchical power. Is it needless to say that, after the fright of the Pope of Rome, the offspring of the European princes sought a way to break with that Doctrine of Subjection of all human beings to a Divine Law, to which we all owe Fear and Obedience?

The Protestant Rebellion served the kings the Answer their fathers sought. Chosen by God to rule, the Law belonged to them, and they were accountable to God alone for their crimes. The Pope of Rome was to absolve kings of all their crimes.

Before the Protestant Revolt the wars between the kings and the cities became chronic. The Iron Law became the norm. Bestiality was imposed by doctrine, its Law collected in Machiavelli's "Prince", autocratic bestiality became the "New Gospel" of the European dynasts. From there to Absolute Power, what?

6. - Didn't the French Revolution have a justified origin? Two factors triggered it. The multiplication of European empires and their wars for the World Hegemonic Power, of one place. On the other, the growth of Wisdom in the Universities, which, as they became more popular each century, having previously been reserved for the aristocratic classes, ignited in the peoples the desire for Justice and Freedom, putting on the table a new Model of Society: The Republic, the Government of the People by the wise.

The History of Republican Terror is written. The declaration of war by the European Empires against the Republic triggered the need for the immediate transformation of the Republic into an Empire. In this way Civilization returned to the dark origins of its Renaissance.

Why?

Because Mal itself remained the base of the Republican Building. Not the best but the worst had the Key to Power. Napoleon, in short, crossed the Rubicon dragged by the same forces that led Octavian Caesar Augustus to put an end to the Republic and establish the Empire.

The Republic remained a monumental fraud as a Model of Civilization. The Necessity of Revolution was used as a lever towards the Power of characters without wisdom whose only genius was in their ability to make Terror their Government.

It was seen that establishing a Republic on the basis of Absolute Power, justified in the Need for Civil Peace, does not imply the destruction of the Absolute Power of the kings, to combat which the Republic was generated. Instead of destroying that Absolute Power, the Republic appropriated it, where before there was one, the Republic created many kings.

His fall into the Empire was another chronicle foretold. So to believe that a terrestrial Republic is the Model guarantor of Justice and Freedom of the peoples, given what we have read, is suicide.

7. Like the French Revolution, the Russian Revolution had the same sources. On the one hand, an Absolutist Crown under whose Criminal Law millions of human beings lived, exclusively, to serve and make happy those who by law of life had to be treated as gods. On the other hand, the growth of Wisdom in the men of the people. Lenin was a man of the people. The train wreck between intelligence and Absolute Power was inevitable.

An Absolute Autocratic power was unfeasible at the height of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The abominable slavery to which the Russian people had been condemned by the Tsar and the Patriarch could not be accepted, under any premise, by the Intelligence of a Russian Man open to Western European Civilization, whose Society, although corrupt and headed towards the final phase of the Struggle between Empires, manifested in his eyes to be a thousand light years away from the Tsarist Russian civilization.

Necessity was the Mother of the Lamb. Necessity is the Mother of all things that affect us humans. Man was created by God to give life to a Universal Need: To integrate all the peoples of His Creation into a One Body through the entrance into His Kingdom of a People begotten in His Wisdom, whose Doctrine about God would do what the sap of the tree would do to all branches. By this Sap all branches would be joined to the same Trunk of the Tree of Life. Whoever does not eat that sap, "who does not eat of my flesh and does not drink of my blood," perishes. The branch withers, dies, is cut down from the tree of the fullness of nations.

8. - We have arrived at the XXI Century. Two World Wars, an Atomic Age, Science has denied the existence of Wisdom, Democracy seeks its way in the darkness in the hunt for a New World Order. Empires dress up as a Republic to keep alive the fiction of Freedom and Justice.

The ghosts of the Past roam outside their graves. Just as the Empire saw its Fall and fought its destiny by creating a New World Order, the forces of the Past, unable to direct the Future, have bowed their knees to a New World Order in which Freedom and Justice will have no art or part: they will be sacrificed for the sake of survival. at any cost.

"You will have nothing and you will be happy" is the Law of the 2030 Agenda.

Greater madness, impossible to hear!!

So we go back to the beginning: What is the Christian Republic?

VIII

What is Life?

Life is an adventure. Not even the kings themselves ever knew how they were going to end. The world is there. It surrounds us. Smells. The drums of the end of the world are beating. The Lullaby of Change emerges from the mouth of Death. Always in search of the Perfect Civilization, the all-powerful weapon that will give its possessor the imperial scepter over the entire universe.

No one is infallible. Everyone falls into error. The vision of the privileges of riches is a virus that takes over the brain and nullifies the strength of the spirit. What happy times those of Absolutism! Who doesn't want to be an absolutist autocrat: the world at your feet, Justice is your harlot, Armies are your big penis, the State is your eunuch, pants on the floor, panties on the table!

He rebels, he opposes your will, he is a fascist, an enemy of democracy, of progress, of... of... of... impale him, now!

"ECCE HOMO. Behold the Man." Man lives in me. Don't you know how to govern yourself; Do you need someone else's brain to feel like you're not a beast of burden?

How good it is to exist on the line between survival and misery! You're a superhero, your whole life is a never-ending battle against supershit.

Zombies are here to stay, the alternate ending to Earth's history. Yes, very well fandango, Netflix, an ass making shit at the speed of light. Not happy?

You will experience the end of the world, the beauty of the oceans burying the lands, volcanoes crushing cities, cyclones dropping the weight of the skies on your head. Brilliant, awesome, Hollywood is the court of the Devil running the City of Angels. Are we going to throw it all away for a handful of gemstones?

When did we leave the Palaeolithic? Are we not still living in the Age of Stones and Metals? Of course not, we live in the Age of the Atom. Of the Atom that blows up and pulverizes buildings, how much beauty there is in destruction!

The Atom, the weapon of perfect mass destruction, not perfect, imperfect, but not forever imperfect. The architects of the New Global Order run to the W.C. Woke, they are going to shit the Planet's Weapon of Destruction.

They only complain about one thing: They do not know how to create the Weapon of Destruction of the entire Universe.

How did such anthropoid beasts get to the Academy?!

We all know the answer.

Voters have a price, they need to dress in gold, their god is Judas Iscariot, for thirty silver coins they sell the Nobel even to the mother who gave birth to them: (I was going to write "the whore whore." but it seemed to me politically incorrect, that is to say free, and after all poor mothers have no power of choice over what they are going to bring into the world, although well thought out they could undo the daisy: it will be good as bread, it will be another motherfucker). Maduro, Barack Obama, Vladimir Putin, Camilo José Cela, anyone who puts enough stone and metal on the scales to win the Peace Level Prize, for Literature, conquers it. The Academy is a casino, a bunny club.

And isn't living an adventure?

How can you believe in God, stupid from birth, if you have never heard the roar of Niagara, you have not conquered the Balkans, the Taurus, the Austrian Alps, on foot in the mountains, with pimples on your face and pimples on your ass! To me the mountains! I see the Arm Strength of my God.

God does not exist, they say, fools without wisdom walking around masks of chairs bought in the market of lies. The price? Freedom from the glory of a child of God.

The real adventure begins: eternal, indestructible, immortal life, Wisdom for mother, the Tree of Life of the Worlds opens a New Branch in a New Heavens and a New Earth, what will your Civilization be like? Which Branch Will God Cultivate?

I want to be there. To follow my Creator through the seas of stars that fill the galaxies and extend their shores over the Abyss covered by Darkness.

Stupid Mr. Einstein, father of the Atomic Bomb, the Cosmos expands for Eternity through the infinite spaces on the other side of the shores of the Ocean of Galaxies. Galaxies are Continents, Islands, Andean Mountain Ranges, Himalayan Mountains shining with the strength of infinite suns. I also want to travel through the Magic Forest of the Cosmos; nothing is what it seems, no galaxy is where you think it should, they advance and retreat, they continue to advance and unfold before your eyes a new landscape, you look back, and all you see is the obituary in the sea that the Lord of Infinite Spaces has opened on the surface of the Waters of the Cosmos. You see them born as you approach them, you see them grow as you move away from the cosmos inside. Galaxies are trees that move in magical terrain. The Enchanted Forest of Creation. I am enchanted by my Creator and everything I have seen can be contained in the palm of one hand.

How he will marvel at God who sees the world through a Smart Crystal APP. TV!

God does not exist and you do exist, because you think. And what do you think? Oh yes, to get rich, to be powerful, to in the mouth of a Sacred Constitution and to die of laughter, you are god! and your mother was the whore who fucked the whole town. Of course! All on their knees, whoever does not pay the tax of being alive, impaled. Take out the whip Mariquilla and bleed the ribs of all the fascists, (we are all fascists), until they learn what Progress is. We are the good guys, Mariquilla, the others are ghosts for a sixth sense. Fry them for taxes. It's like shaking a tree of ripe apples, some fall and others resist, for those that fall we create a survival cushion, do you understand Mariquilla? We call it... I don't know, call it what you want, social coverage for the vulnerable?... which will be everyone, except us, Maraquilla... We are the immortal gods, the divine guard of the foolish king, a very rare thing, but it doesn't matter, you kneel at my feet and everyone else kneel at your feet.

“Welcome al mundo al revés”

La Mentira al Poder; la Verdad, a la basura. Cada cual puede elegir su gloria y su ruina.

Recuerdo discusiones con amigos del Instituto unos días antes de las primeras elecciones democráticas en España, año 1976. Yo acababa de desembarcar de la India, un año sabático para ponerme las pilas, que todo el mundo debiera disfrutar, un año sabático entre el Instituto y la Universidad, pero que a nadie se le concede sino al que tiene los güevos para vivir. En los USA de los 70s y 80s del XX ese año sabático era sagrado, al menos en la clase media. Te meten en la cabeza una imagen del mundo y del universo que quieres tocar, oler, sentir, vivir. ¿De la escuela al taller de trabajo? Ese fue uno de los grandes crímenes de la Sociedad Antigua que vamos a matar y enterrar. ¿Creéis que la Edad Moderna no fue un camelo? Del Neolítico se regresó al Paleolítico, pero no a aquel estado feliz del Homo Sapiens conquistador y dominador de Flora y Fauna, sino al Paleolítico Homicida que se registra en la Lista de los Reyes de Sumeria, ciudad contra ciudad, sin cuartel, sin stop, Kish vence a Umma, Uruk aplasta a Mari, Babilonia se la mea con la mano de Bar Tibirá, etcétera etcéteras, la Historia Interminable. Dos Mil Años comiéndose vivos los unos a los otros. Ejemplo para la eternidad.

Los griegos no aprendieron el ejemplo. Los griegos se devoraron sin fin (esta es la parte que no te enseñan en la escuela) hasta que Persia fue a follárselos a todos, y del parto de sangre nació Alejandro Magno.

Tampoco los italianos siglos y siglos y siglos más tarde aprendieron nada de la enseñanza de los Antiguos. Italia prerrenacentista fue una orgía de batallas sin fin entre Florencia, Génova, Venecia, Siena, Nápoles, todos contra todos, bailad todos malditos la danza de la guerra. ¿Es extraño que Dios borrase de su vista un mundo en el que la violencia fue la ley, como se describe en el caso del hombre que entró con su concubina en Sodoma y Gomorra, se la quitaron y la violaron hasta la muerte? Desde el Paraíso a ese Infierno corrieron... ¿cuántos siglos? ¿Y creéis vosotros que el Socialismo del Siglo XXI le va a atraer a España el paraíso de vuelta? Leed en los libros de Historia, ¿qué nación entregada al Socialismo no recorrió su camino a la dictadura? Las piedras no hablan, pero los libros sí que lo hacen: Respuesta, “ninguna”. Donde entra la Muerte se crean cementerios, donde entra el Socialismo se crea la miseria y la ruina necesarias para edificar sobre ellas el edificio de la Dictadura del Obrero Socialista.

¡Dios no existe, es el Credo de la Agenda Woke 2030!

Y el Felipismo se hizo. Trece años después el Estado entró en bancarrota. Cinco Millones de Parados.

Vino el Aznarismo, tuvo que vender las propiedades de la Nación que no tuvo tiempo de vender el Felipismo, y se superó la Bancarrota de la Seguridad Social. Dos millones de parados.

Vino el Zapaterismo; ocho años más tarde el Estado, la Seguridad Social, todo el edificio de la Nación entró en Bancarrota. Vuelta a los 5 millones de parados.

Rajoy vivió la crónica anunciada de un fracaso. Se encontró a España en la UVI, estado comatoso. Quienes la llevaron a aquel feliz estado, el Zapaterismo y su socio: el gremio de las artes: músicos, actores, celebrities, se apuntaron al banquete de expolio de la riqueza creada por el Aznarismo. Entonces se inventó un Arte Nuevo: El saqueo del Tesoro de la Nación.

Emergieron nuevos artistas, crearon una Sociedad para la Felicidad de todas las naciones de España.

La Alianza del Progreso entre Comunistas, Socialistas, Podemitas, Ladrones, Narcos, Traficantes de personas, y el Camaleón venenoso más letal de todas las familias de los reptiles: Los Borbones.

Vino el Sanchismo, y se abrió la Marcha del “YES WE CAN”, eliminaremos a la Ultraderecha Maligna que quiere desmontar la Democracia e impedir que se vea en la Dictadura Borbónico-Sanchista la salvación de la Democracia Española.

¡Qué risa, Marisa! Las aguas de la corrupción sanchista han llegado alto, muy alto, pero no tan alto, no lo suficiente para cubrir la cima del monte desde la que el rey borbónico y su reina socialista mueven sus peones en el tablero de la Política.

¿Cómo puede un hombre entender lo que es Geopolítica sin haber salido jamás de su nación, de su pueblo, sin hablar idiomas, sin haber tenido la feliz alegría de disfrutar de un año sabático alrededor del mundo: premio del futuro próximo perfecto contra el abandono de los estudios! ¿Quién corre durante quince años, desde la Infancia a la Juventud, sin ver un premio a su carrera?

“Vive, hijo, abre las alas y vuela.” Recorre Asia, África, Las Américas, Australia, Europa, Indonesia, el mundo es tu alfombra roja, disfruta la gloria de estar vivo, deja que la Creación te habla de su Creador, siente el pulso de la tormenta eléctrica sobre el Mediterráneo profundo, no tengas miedo a perderte en un cruce de carreteras, es una nación que has visto mil veces en el mapa, es la Tierra, es tu mundo. Pero si lo que quieres es sexo y droga, y la vida es eso y nada más que eso, regresa al polvo, sé polvo, quítate de en medio. No existes.

Descartes fue un amargado que cerró los ojos a la vida: “Pienso luego existo”, o lo que es lo mismo: no quiero saber nada de nadie, ni muerto ni vivo; no quiero ver nada de nada, que se maten entre ellos, que se devoren entre ellos, esas bestias. yo pienso, yo existo, los demás . que se mueran.

Regresamos a Sodoma y Gomorra. Amenaza de Guerra Nuclear. ¿No cogéis la conexión?

Yo no pienso porque existo. ¿Acaso las piedras piensan? ¿Y las piedras no existen?

Yo Pienso porque el Hombre vive en mí. No Stalin, ni Pinochet, ni Guevara, ni Einstein. El Hombre que vive en mí es el Reflejo en mi Alma Viviente del Ser del Hijo de Dios, a cuya Imagen y Semejanza es creada la Vida, en este Mundo y en todos los que existen y existirán.

El Alma es la Dimensión exclusiva del Hombre. Su Propiedad es la del Espejo Vivo en el que se refleja la Imagen del Ser Divino; este Reflejo absorbe el ser entero de la Creación y vive en su Ser el “YO SOY”: imagen y semejanza del espíritu de Dios: Sabiduría, inteligencia, entendimiento, Moral, Ciencias, Ética, Derecho, Ley, Política, Sociología, Historia, Religión. “YO SOY un hijo de Dios, un Ciudadano de su Reino, una Criatura del Paraíso de Dios”. De Aventura en aventura. La Vida eterna es la Gran Aventura: “Allí”.

Aquí estamos en Guerra.

La Muerte vuela con alas de destrucción desde que se derrama la primera gota de sangre hasta no encontrarse en el mundo una sola gota de sangre más. Es su Fuerza, su Destino, reducir a polvo todo Mundo que le abre la puerta. La Historia Universal escrita no miente: El Motor de la Historia es la Guerra, la búsqueda del arma definitiva después de la cual la Tierra devendrá un Cementerio. Otro Mausoleo vagando por las tinieblas del cosmos. Un aborto arrojado al Abismo. La Muerte cabalga desde el primer homicidio hacia el Genocidio Global sobre los hombros de los sabios enemigos del Universo como Creación de un Ser en quien vive Dios.

En nuestro Ser vive el Hombre a la Imagen y Semejanza del Hijo de Dios, Prototipo de todos los hijos de Dios, tanto de Adán como de los Apóstoles. En el Ser de Creador del Universo vive Dios, Persona Indestructible, Eterna, de Inteligencia sin límites, con un Poder que extiende su Fuerza al Infinito, SU Omnisciencia fundada sobre la Ciencia de la Creación de Cúmulos estelares, Galaxias, Mundos. No hay otra dimensión del Conocimiento Verdadero.

La Muerte expande su majestad sobre todas las tierras porque vive en el hombre como bestia PARASITARIA.

La Vida extiende su gloria en el Hombre porque el Hombre es un hijo de Dios a la imagen y semejanza de quien nos llamó a la Vida eterna: “Hagamos al Hombre a nuestra imagen y a nuestra semejanza”.

50 años antes de esta Victoria el mundo está cubierto por las tinieblas de una Agenda firmada en los infiernos de la mente de homo sapiens antropoides marchando en una única dirección: La Aniquilación del Género Humano: Hombre y Mujer, el Origen de la Familia, el Principio de la Historia de la Civilización. La Tierra le parió a su Creador un único Género Humano. Hombre y Mujer, dos personas: un alma. Nace la Familia Humana. Nacen las Ciudades. Nacen las Naciones. El Hombre y la Mujer son la Puerta por la que las generaciones entran, se suceden, y la Civilización crece en Inteligencia y Sabiduría.

La ONU la llamó Agenda 2030 con el fin, exclusivamente, de ocultarnos a todos la diana hacia la que se dirige su flecha: La Destrucción del Género Humano, nuestra Alienación Absoluta (perdón, democrática) de la Ley del Universo.

¿No perteneció el Ántropos, padre del Homo Sapiens, al mundo de los Mamíferos? ¿Cuántos géneros tiene cada familia mamífera? Hasta hoy, que sepamos, macho y hembra es el género de todas las especies mamíferas. Millones de ellas han pasado por la Tierra y todas y cada una de ellas ha conocido un único género, compuesto por la unión del macho y de la hembra. No hay más género en todas y cada una de las familias de los mamíferos que la compuesta por el Macho y la Hembra, padre y madre de las familias que integran la especie a las que todas pertenecen, y todas están bajo una Ley Universal de Reproducción.

El Derecho de los creadores de una Civilización, madre de todas las artes y las ciencias, a defender su Alma, es Todopoderoso. No hay miedo a la Derrota. Fue sellada una Alianza entre el Hombre y Dios, con la sangre de Cristo Jesús De Yavé y Sión, por la que su Fuerza es nuestra Fuerza, su Sabiduría es nuestra Sabiduría. En Su Ser tenemos la Victoria.

Manipulan el ser de la Infancia desviando el camino de sus vidas hacia la Prostitución, la Locura, el Suicidio, la Desgracia y la Ruina. ¿A quiénes les importa? Al Socialismo Internacional Europeo, no. Las grandes industrias de la Pornografía, la Pederastia, la Perversión Sexual. necesitan corderos que se entreguen libremente a los Magnates y sus clientes de la Industria del Crimen.

¿Voluntariamente? ¡Nunca!

Durante la Infancia destruyeron en su ser el Espejo en el que el Hombre se ve a sí mismo en Modo Divino: Inteligencia Creadora, Mente Libre, Juicio Analítico Superior, Entendimiento de las Leyes del Universo y de las Ciencias de Ingeniería y Arquitectura del Árbol de las naciones, Cultivo de la Civilización en el Tiempo. La Imagen de Cristo Jesús sobre el Ser de Dios es la Savia que vivificó el árbol de las especies en la Tierra, y, cultivado por Dios, dio su fruto: El Género Humano, especie mamífera, macho y hembra, dos personas, una sola realidad: la Familia Cristiana. Todo lo que se diga de más, viene de la Muerte.

La Muerte elige a sus siervos. Aúllan como perros en los palacios del Poder. Una ministra de Sanidad, loba enloquecida por el Poder, alcanza su trono. Se descubre una medicina contra un cáncer específico, y la ministra Loba, sierva de Satanás, niega cualquier presupuesto para su adquisición y salvación de los afectados por ese grupo de cáncer, la Loba del Diablo dice que ese dinero debe ir para paliar el Cambio Climático.

¿Y no se levanta España entera para cazar a la Loba y juzgarla por crimen contra la Humanidad?

Otra Loba se levantó firmando una Ley por la cual el Delito de Falso Testimonio fue anulado para la Mujer: la Hembra es libre para dar falso testimonio y no ser penalizada por las consecuencias de su Delito.

¿Recompensa? Blindarla en el Palacio de los dioses de Bruselas, la casilla policial en la que una vez el ladrón dentro la ley no puede perseguirla, porque la ley de la A.W.2030 protege al lobo criminal y persigue al cazador.

Alguien debe relatarles a las generaciones que disfrutarán de la Victoria Universal Cristiana sobre la Batalla que se libró, las fuerzas que se desplegaron y de la dureza de los combates de las Naciones Cristianas contra la Muerte del Género Humano por unos poderes patologizados que pretenden destronar a Dios para sentarse ellos en el Trono del Hijo de Dios. ¿No es eso lo que buscó Satanás desde antes de la Creación de nuestros Cielos y de nuestra Tierra?

La Mujer ha vuelto a abrirle sus oídos a la Serpiente. El Veneno de la Agenda WOKE debe dar el fruto de Sodoma y Gomorra, contra el que Dios se alzaría para destruir no dos ciudades sino todas las ciudades de la Tierra. Sacan la bandera del Arco Iris retando a Dios: “No puedes destruirnos, lo prometiste, no volverás a causar un Diluvio Universal”.

Han perdido el norte, alienando a las generaciones de la Ley del Universo se han alienado ellos de la Sabiduría Creadora en cuyo palacio se ejerce el Poder sobre toda Criatura. Son Nazis. Son hijos de Menguele. El Género Humano es una especie para eliminar en Modo AGENDA WOKE. 2030.

Se crearán tantos géneros como ramas tenga el árbol de la Muerte; se servirá carne fresca humana y sangre joven y sana a las élites esclavas del Poder del dios que se sienta en el trono de la ONU. Estas élites estarán más allá del bien y del mal, pues quien gobierna hace la Ley, suyos son los hijos de todas las familias, y suyo es el Estado.

“No tendrán Nada, y Todos serán felices” palabra de Satanás.

“Los hijos no les pertenecen a los padres, les pertenecen al Estado”. Otro Dogma de la A.W.2030.

La gran cuestión es: ¿Por qué se callan los padres, no se levantan, y no le echan abajo los dientes a semejante secta maligna llamada Agenda Woke 2030? ¿Nuestros hijos les pertenecen a ellos? ¿Sin Nada seremos Todos felices?

Pertenecer a esta Secta A.W.2030 es lanzar un Grito de Guerra contra el Género Humano.

Defender Nuestro Mundo, Nuestra Civilización, Nuestro Origen, la Ley del Universo, blindar el Salto de la Evolución desde la Familia Sapiens a la Familia Cristiana: es un Deber ante Dios y la Historia de las Generaciones que disfrutarán de la Victoria de la Alianza entre Dios y el Hombre, firmada en el Acontecimiento de la Resurrección de Cristo Jesús, el Hombre cuya Imagen y Semejanza edificó en nuestros padres la Civilización que gozamos y se halla al Presente atacada a Muerte.

Padres, defended a vuestros hijos de esa AW 2030. Estamos en estado de guerra. Si matan al Género Humano: dos personas, un único ser, este fin de la Familia le abriría la puerta a la destrucción de la Tierra. No podemos permitirlo. Somos hijos de la Paz, pero quien entrega su Casa a un enemigo que busca la muerte de sus hijos no es un hombre, es un cobarde.

“Yo no he venido a traer Paz, sino Guerra”. Guerra a la Muerte de la Familia Cristiana Universal, Guerra a las Organizaciones Criminales Internacionales, Guerra a los Tiranos, Genocidas, Dictadores, Políticos y Jueces Corruptos. Guerra a las Enfermedades y a la Pobreza de las Naciones. ¿No fueron cada una de las Obras de Cristo Jesús una declaración de guerra contra la Muerte? Es la Hora de asumir esta Alianza hasta sus últimas consecuencias.

La Serpiente echa veneno por su boca, ¿quién se escandalizará? Las Lobas aúllan a la Luna Llena llamando al Poder de las tinieblas, ¿quién se maravillará de su sed de sangre?

Vivir es la Aventura más grande que podemos conocer. Quien entrega la Adolescencia y la Infancia al Destierro de la Ley del Universo borra de su Futuro esta Verdad: La Vida es una Aventura Multidimensional; si te encajonan en la dimensión del Sexo, estás muerto para la Aventura de la Vida.

Este el Credo de la Secta A.W. 2030: El Sexo es la vida, elige el tuyo y despreocúpate de las Ciencias, de las Artes, de la Sabiduría en la Historia del Género Humano y su Creación en el Universo.

Afirmar este Dogma: Únicamente existe un Género por especie Mamífera, y todas las Ramas Mamíferas del árbol de la Vida en la Tierra viven por la Ley de la Procreación y reproducción activada por el Macho y la Hembra: es un Delito.

Entregar la Adolescencia, sobreexcitada sexualmente desde la Infancia por los Estados Esclavos de la ONU, para cubrir las Necesidades Sexuales de los depredadores firmantes de la A.W. 2030, es un Deber; negarles el Derecho al Aborto, es un Delito.

El Aborto es el borrado de las pruebas contra el depredador sexual, que pudo ser un abuelo, un pariente, un vecino, un profesor, un cretino, todos ellos criminales sobre cuyas manos cae la sangre del ser eliminado, de la Prueba destruida.

Destruir las Pruebas de los Machos Criminales, glorificar el Falso Testimonio de las Hembras Asesinas, he aquí el Ideario Ideológico de la Secta A.W.2030, exportada desde la ONU contra todas las naciones bajo el Signo de la Cruz.

ESPAÑA EN LAS TINIEBLAS

Día nublado. También en el Sur hace fresco. La Sierra de las Nieves se abrazó a una nube gris, se puso bella como ella sola, sin mirar para atrás ha regresado al norte, dejando a Miguel buscarse una residencia de viejos donde esperar la muerte. Se divorció, se quedó sin casa, le puso una vela a la Constitución: El derecho a la vivienda es sagrado, la propiedad privada es sagrada. “Y una mierda” contesta. Está cabreado. Le han cortado la Paguita. El Gobierno progresista cabalga directo a la retirada de la paga extra de las pensiones. A los jubilados no les importa nada sus nietos. Votarán Rojo, aunque arruinen a sus hijos.

Blancanieves es una niña caprichosa, me pide una amistad que no tengo. Y poco más. El pueblo está muerto. El mundo está lejos. El Valle del Azahar se muere. Los guiris del Norte arrancan árboles y levantan casas. Vamos a acabar con todos los árboles frutales en los próximos 50 años.

Un año atrás el capo de los narcotraficantes enterró a dos guerreros contra la caballería de las narcolanchas, y sigue tan alegre, su mensaje ha sido captado: Quien se enfrenta a su ejército, la caga. A ver quién es el siguiente, dónde está el guapo que me hunda una lancha. Miguel invoca al Presi del Salvador; todos a la cárcel, a morirse de asco. ¿No sabe todo el mundo dónde están los puntos de venta de heroína y cocaína en el pueblo? ¿Por qué no pegan en sus puertas? ¿Quién les prohíbe a los agentes de la ley cumplir su trabajo contra los criminales? Gitanos y moros venden la heroína y la cocaína con toda libertad, se pasean en sus patinetes distribuyendo el veneno, tienen el super en el móvil. ¿Conexión entre el PSOE-PODEMOS y el Narcotráfico Marroquí y Venezolano?

Se llamaba como su madre lo llamó; un estupa en Madrid, perro de nariz fina, dónde vas colega, esto es una pistola y tú eres hombre muerto, vacaciones en Miami y regresas, a cazar moscas, eres tonto. ¿Qué harías tú, Raúl? ¿Yo? Cagarme en la puta que los parió a todos, renunciar y dedicarme a vivir la vida. Colega, ya le has visto la cara al diablo, se sienta en el trono del Estado, reparte beneficios en el Congreso, ¿quién eres tú, Serpico?

Así va el mundo, rodando cuesta abajo, la mierda flotando, los jueces y lo pasma de perros falderos atacando a los enemigos del Progreso. ¿Crees que se van a levantar los viejos cuando les quiten la paga extra? Votarán Rojo, aunque violen a sus nietas. Esto es Spain, y Spain is different. “Aquí no se mueve nadie”, no lo dijo Franco, lo dijo Felipe González. La dictadura del Progreso socialista comenzó ahí, y ahora viene Felipito a criticar a su nieto espiritual. ¿Quién dinamitó el Prestige? ¿Quiénes planearon el Atentado de Atocha? En el silencio las piedras hablan: Pues el PSOE, BILDU y ERC. ¿Qué hace JUNTS con esta trilogía criminal! No es una pregunta. PSOE y JUNTS se aliaron para derrumbar el Prestige del PP de Rajoy y sentar en la Moncloa al Lobo. ¿Tendremos que esperar al día del juicio final para que se hable delante del universo lo que se susurra en las tinieblas? ¿Qué les pasa a los españoles? “Han perdido los cojones”, dice el colega. La cocaína les ha destrozado el intelecto. ¿No ven la contradicción? España es el país de mayor consumo de cocaína en Europa y no se realizan operaciones contra el narcotráfico de ninguna clase. ¿Quién no recuerda a aquel juez estrella que veía amanecer? Y cómo se lo cargó el Zapatero. Normal que el hombre perdiera la cabeza y ahora sea el mejor amigo de dictadores, genocidas y mafias de todas las especies asesinas; le hicieron daño al pobre, le colapsaron la estrella, de perseguir a criminales a desenterrar muertos de la edad de piedra. A ver quién es el guapo que le pisa el territorio ahora a Zapatero con su hijo espiritual en el Poder. Y por mucho tiempo. Total, aunque no le haya votado nadie, quien controla el Ordenador Central donde se cuentan todos los votos tiene el Poder de equilibrar el resultado a su favor. El PP a la Oposición. El PP hubo de darle la Presidencia a la madrileña, no al gallego. Hoy tendríamos una presidenta. Rajoy es la continuación del PP de Rajoy. España necesita hombres con dos cojones y mujeres con ovarios en la cabeza, ambos. Mira uno a los palmeros del Progreso y vomita. No pongo la Tele ni aunque me paguen. Solía verla desde el extranjero. Desde fuera la imagen de Spain por la TV es la de un paraíso idílico en el que cabe toda África y Sudamérica, no hay drogas, no hay violaciones, no hay paro, no hay, por no haber, no hay nada de nada. ¿La verdad? Los jueces se echan el velo en los ojos y juzgan por el peso del oro en la balanza. Los listos se meten en la Política para hacerse ricos en un plazo mínimo de 4 años y máximo de 8. Desde el 2017 el Paro ha subido a 4 millones. Progreso. La Pobreza sube imparable. “Hay que progresar, aunque sea en el infierno”. Y no hables. Si hablas eres fascista. Le pagan a un español jubilado 500 euros al mes y a un inmigrante 600, plus casa, comida, trapos, “y los dejan traficar libremente con drogas y mujeres; violan impunemente, roban a destajo, criminales operando delante de las narices de todos, y no los toques porque si los tocas serás catalogado de fascista”. Las dos Españas, la de fuera y la de dentro. El Lobo se retirará en dos años, ¿pero ¿cómo dejará el país? Como lo dejó FP, en la bancarrota y con 5 Millones de parados. El Lobo ya va por 4 Millones, si nadie lo para la puerta de la Guerra Civil se abrirá. Una Noche los Millones de parados atacarán todas las sedes del PSOE, ERC, JUNTS, SUMAR, PODEMOS, BILDU y PNV, destruirán hasta el último sillón, y al amanecer caminarán juntos hasta Madrid, pasando por encima del ejército y la corona. Las ratas habrán abandonado el barco, y ay del que se quede. “Elecciones Generales Inmediatas”. Entonces se recogerá del suelo la Constitución pisada por los pies del Progreso. La Propiedad Privada volverá a ser sagrada. La Guerra contra las lanchas criminales la hará la Armada, y muera quien deba morir, vigilancia por satélite y ataque con drones. La Armada vigilará las Costas Internacionales de España. La Igualdad ante la Ley entre el Hombre y la Mujer será restaurada; quien proceda a dar falso testimonio, sea él o ella, que lo pague acorde a la Ley contra el Falso Testimonio.

¿Qué te pasa, España? Te pasa lo mismo que a la Tierra cuando sola en las Tinieblas esperó el regreso de su Creador; se sintió confusa, abandonada, el corazón desgarrado, los nervios a flor de piel, “no viene, voy a morir como una perra arrojada al bosque de los lobos asesinos. He sido creada para ser la burla del mundo”. Recuerda al Quijote. Cervantes vio tu futuro. Lo diste todo para recibir nada. ¿Quién te mandó meterte en la guerra de los alemanes? Todo el oro de las Américas en tus manos y tú lo dedicaste a salvar a Europa del Imperio Otomano. Siete siglos luchando contra los Moros y en lugar de descansar te puso tu Creador a trabajar como a príncipe guerrero al que le ha llegado la mayoría de edad y se lanza invencible al campo de batalla de las naciones. ¿Tu premio? Ser la burla de las naciones a las que le entregaste todo el oro y la sangre de tu Imperio. Le robaron la mano a Miguel, no el genio.

España, la reserva espiritual de la Civilización. Aquí nació el Dogma de la Divinidad de Jesucristo. Osio fue el cartero. De aquí salió Osio a recorrer las naciones del mundo. ¿Y te va a olvidar tu Creador tú, la más preciada de las joyas de su Corona? “Y la Luz se hizo”. Dios tarda, pero nunca abandona. Los sabios no entienden de Sabiduría. Se arrancan de la cabeza todo aquello que no entienden y no pueden comprender. Dios es el Señor del Tiempo. Recuerda la Gran Batalla de los Imperios. Europa estaba desnuda frente al turco. Solimán quería Roma, quería el mundo. ¡Qué estrategia la del Diablo! Dividir Europa, hundirla en guerra de religión, y mientras la demencia luterano-calvinista se apodera del Imperio, el Diablo avanza su rey, jaque mate seguro. La Muerte abraza a su príncipe, desata el Infierno sobre los Balcanes. Los protestantes saludan a su libertador Otomano. Europa está perdida. La Muerte aplaude a su campeón. Dios calla; conoce la estrategia de su enemigo antes de abrir la partida. Tiene a todos sus peones, caballeros y torres en sus posiciones. Le falta el Rey. Mueve peones y pone su Corona en la cabeza de Carlos. Falta el oro. ¿Dónde está el peón que avance hasta la línea del rey enemigo? El peón cumple su destino, pone al servicio de su rey todo el oro de las Américas. El ejército del rey del Sur ha sido forjado en 7 siglos de guerra sin cuartel contra el islam. El español no conoce el Miedo. La Batalla entre la Muerte y Dios se cierra en Lepanto. Europa es libre al precio de la sangre y del oro de España. Francia traicionó a Europa. Inglaterra parió su imperio mientras España se desangraba y levantaba la Cruz sobre las cuatro regiones de la Tierra. ¡Jaque mate devuelto! El Imperio Otomano se hunde en el polvo. ¡Gloria y vida eterna a España! Y se creen los enemigos de España, nacidos en su casa, que la desarmarán, venderán sus territorios y se reservarán para ellos una parte del manto dividido de la Sierva del Rey de los Cielos. ¡Despierta Andalucía, el rey moro te quiere! Sigue durmiendo Canarias, pronto te venderán al mejor postor. Cataluña y el País Vasco ya han sido compradas; Bruselas ha bendecido el contrato de venta. Valencia y Baleares para Cataluña; Cantabria, la Rioja y Navarra para las Vascongadas. Permanecerán Madrid, las Castillas, Galicia y Extremadura; Murcia es la huerta de España, ¿a quien se la venderá el Progreso, a Valencia o a Castilla? Quieren echarle la culpa de esta cuesta abajo, y sin freno, a Trump, como antes se la echaron a la Guerra de Ucrania. La Guerra en el Congo trae una nueva oleada de africanos a Canarias. Los canarios en chozas, los africanos en hotel de 5 estrellas. ¡Spain is different! ¿Hasta cuándo? La Sierra de las Nieves luce esplendida tras estas líneas. Es tan hermoso ver la corrida desde las gradas...

CONCLUSIÓN

CANTO DE VICTORIA

Mi alma está jubilosa. Mi ser entero proclama la gloria de mi Rey.

Has construido en mi alma una fortaleza. La asedian mis enemigos, y no tiemblan los muros con los que rodeaste mi ser.

Vengan tormentas y movimientos de tierra, mi ser es el de la estrella que contempla desde los Cielos tu Obra. ¡Quién como Tú en la Tierra!

Me levanto entre las estrellas con el brillo de un sol que se alimenta de tu Fuerza. Si las tinieblas me rodean, Tú me das la Mano, y camino al sol de tu Luz. Yo alabaré tu Victoria entre las naciones; tu Gloria vivirá en mi alma por la eternidad de las eternidades.

Abrid los oídos, hombres, y escuchad la sabiduría del hijo del Rey. Porque se os ha dado un tiempo para tomar una decisión final: Elevaros a la condición y naturaleza de los Ciudadanos del Reino del Hijo de Dios, o hundiros en la condición de las bestias salvajes que una vez prueban la sangre humana ya no quieren probar la de sus semejantes.

Por Ignorancia pecó el Primer Hombre. Ya nadie puede invocar Ignorancia. Por esto me ha enviado mi Dios, para conducirlos a la Puerta de la Vida Eterna, quien no quiera entrar caiga sobre su cabeza su destino.

Vuestros historiadores os han mentido. Vuestros sabios os han engañado. Vuestros reyes os aplastan en nombre de las riquezas. Vuestros políticos tienen un único fin: ser dioses por un día.

La Mentira es el pan vuestro de cada día. Rechazasteis el Pan de la Verdad, elegisteis el veneno de la Corrupción. Maravilla sería que habiendo hecho de la Justicia una ramera al servicio de los poderosos y de los ricos, la Paz reine en las naciones.

Antes de elegir entre el Paraíso y el Infierno, oíd las palabras de un sabio delante del Rey de los Cielos. Celebraré la Victoria de mi Dios, allá en la Plenitud de los Tiempos.

No había en la Tierra hombre bueno. Los pueblos se habían adaptado a la maldad de la ley del fuego y del hierro. La Muerte y su príncipe celebraban ya el fracaso del Señor Dios Creador del Cosmos, porque su Creación, el Hombre, tenía su Destino escrito en la pared: ser un aborto.

¿Quién dijo que el Señor Dios del Infinito y de la Eternidad sea Invencible? Ya se disponía la Bestia a celebrar su banquete, carne y sangre humana sobre la mesa, cuando Dios llamó a su Hijo y lo condujo a la Cumbre de la Montaña de la Eternidad, desde donde su Padre le mostró el Futuro de su Reino. La Gran Batalla de la Plenitud de los Tiempos estaba para celebrarse.

Como quien bate un terreno y lo prepara para levantar un Edificio que con su techo tocará el cielo, echó Dios abajo todos los reinos del Asia y le dio el Imperio a Ciro, su elegido. La Civilización tuvo ahí su comienzo. Se abrieron caminos de Oeste a Este, de Norte a Sur.

Los hombres comprendieron las virtudes y los defectos de la Civilización. Pero pronto los defectos superaron a las virtudes y los sucesores de Ciro el Grande cayeron en los abismos de la corrupción absoluta.

Tocaba mover peón en el tablero de la Gran Batalla que se avecinaba entre la Muerte y Dios. La Creación estaba en juego.

Lo llamó Alejandro, un bárbaro formado en la inteligencia y el pensamiento civilizador por el hombre más inteligente de su tiempo, Aristóteles; fue el peón elegido por Dios para echar abajo el Imperio Medo; vivían en Alejandro la fuerza indomable del bárbaro y el pensamiento del hombre civilizado. Su historia y leyenda se hizo sobre esas dos fuerzas.

Sus generales se dividieron su Imperio, pero el Padre del Rey dibujaba el horizonte, y en el ocaso del griego surgió el Imperio del Romano. Un pueblo pequeño, rodeado por lobos hambrientos, recibió de Dios el Poder y la Grandeza.

¿La Misión de Roma? Reunir a todos los pueblos de Europa, África y Asia en su Puño. La Resurrección de Cristo encontraría así abiertos todos los caminos, libres todas las fronteras para expandirse y levantar sobre una Roca Indestructible una Civilización nacida para crecer, hacerse fuerte y librar la Batalla Final de la Plenitud de las Naciones.

Desde Cristo al hijo del Rey pasarían dos Milenios. ¿Pero quién sería ese hombre que le abriría con su Victoria sobre el príncipe de las tinieblas la Puerta?

“¿Quién es ese Cristo? ¿Quién será el hombre elegido para aplastarle la cabeza a la Serpiente del Edén?”

Dios miró a su Hijo. “Eres Tú, JESÚS, Hijo mío”.

Los Cielos vieron descender del Mundo del Dios de la Eternidad al Hijo de su Creador.

¿Dónde vas, Rey Nuestro?

A conquistar la Tierra para mi Padre.

La Muerte abre los ojos. Demasiado tarde.

El hijo del Hombre, el Vengador de la Caída del Género Humano, va a ser encarnado por el Todopoderoso Rey del Universo.

La Muerte llama a su príncipe. El rey de los infiernos, ocupado en corromper toda alma y desangrar el Imperio de los Romanos, es despertado: “Corre, es la Hora de tu Duelo a muerte con el hijo del Eva”

¡Rey mío, quién alabará tu Victoria delante de la plenitud de las naciones! Levanta mi cabeza hasta los cielos, alzaré mi voz sobre las estrellas, declararé muerto al que vive y vivo al que está muerto. ¡Qué grandeza hay en el hombre que rechaza a su Creador y se cree más sabio que el Dios que le inspiró en el Rostro el Aliento de la Inteligencia! ¡Cómo alcanzar la Sabiduría sin sentarse a tus pies!

Mi alma está jubilosa, porque he visto la Victoria del Rey. Le he visto “desnudo” como el Primer Hombre: sin ejércitos ni guerreros que le defendiesen, sin corona sobre su cabeza, ni espada en la mano, abandonado por todos, como perro al que alejar a pedradas. He visto al Hijo de Dios levantarse como un dios de la tumba, hacer brillar su estrella sobre las tinieblas, extender su Luz sobre las naciones antiguas, escribir con sangre su Testamento, entregárselo a su Esposa, sellado hasta el Día en el que le naciese un hijo, sobre el que reposa su espíritu de inteligencia.

¡Quién como el Rey de los Cielos! Le ha hecho su Dios Señor de todos los pueblos de su Creación, Rey Universal Sempiterno, mi Dios, el padre de mi alma.

Amado por su Padre con amor infinito y eterno, toda la Sabiduría, Omnisciencia, Omnipotencia y Todopoder del Creador del Cosmos está al servicio de su Victoria en el Día de la gloria de Su Libertad, el Día de Batalla Final por la Plenitud de las naciones de la Tierra.

Cómo no mostrarle Dios a su Hijo los Milenios, las Batallas que la Muerte habría de declararle a su Reino hasta que sus “enemigos estuviesen en el escabel de sus pies”: Elegir entre levantarse a la condición de los Ciudadanos de Su Reino, o descender hasta la condición de las bestias a la imagen y semejanza de la Bestia del Edén.

¡Cómo no ver la Victoria de mi Rey!

Descended de vuestros tronos, poned vuestras coronas a los pies de la Esposa del Rey, pues el Decreto de Dios es eterno: “Quien se rebele contra su Voluntad será desterrado de la Vida”.

Abandonad todas las religiones e ideologías, apartad a los sabios y santos de vuestras casas, ni son santos ni sabios, son lobos que viven de vuestra sangre, sudor y lágrimas. No hay más Dios que YAVÉ; ni más Rey que su Hijo JESUCRISTO. Todo lo que se diga más allá de esta Declaración viene de la Muerte.

Los Cielos y la Tierra son Creación de Dios, Padre del Rey: el Hombre fue creado para albergar en su Alma la Estrella de la Inteligencia a la imagen y semejanza de su Creador.

¡Qué son el derecho y la justicia en manos de los poderosos y los ricos sino garras y colmillos con los que devorar a los pueblos!

Por esto yo amo a Dios, mi Creador, porque he visto su Corazón en su Hijo, abierto por la lanza de la maldad de los poderosos, pan bendito bajado del Cielo para fortalecer a sus hijos y vestirlos para la Batalla de la Plenitud de las Naciones.

He despertado con el yelmo de la Inteligencia, cubierto mi cuerpo con la armadura de la Fe, la espada de la Verdad está en mi boca, y el hacha para derribar el árbol de la ciencia del mal, a mi diestra.

Aunque las tinieblas cubran la Tierra, y porque la cubren, el Decreto Divino es mi Fuerza: “Brille la luz en medio de las tinieblas”.

Nadie tiemble ante la voz del príncipe de las tinieblas; la Muerte es su madre, el infierno es su padre, busca robarle a Dios nuestro mundo. Su locura lo ha arrastrado al Destierro, su demencia fue creer que podía vencer al Rey de los Cielos; su locura se transmite, y los pueblos aplauden su voz.

Cree en lo que lees: Nuestra Fuerza está en el Rey, nuestro Dios; y la del Rey en Dios, Su Padre. Por esto su Victoria es nuestra Vida, ¿y quién podrá detener la tormenta con la palabra, el terremoto que se acerca con un gesto de la mano? ¿No se mide la fuerza de la luz por la opacidad absoluta de las tinieblas?

He aquí pues por qué Dios ha permitido que las tinieblas de la corrupción y la maldad de los reyes llenen la Tierra, para que todas las naciones vean la Gloria del Rey y Señor de los Cielos y entendiendo que en el Rey y en Dios vive un Único Espíritu se conviertan. Recuerda Europa tu nacimiento: “Odía lo que amaste, ama lo que odiaste”.
