LET THE CHILDREN COME TO ME

Man, created in the Image and Likeness of the Son of God, by the very Force of the Divine Nature communicated to him, raises his Thought towards the One who is the Source of his Intelligence. Having said this, Man is a social being because his Creator is. Society does not arise from an act of imposition of a predatory beast upon other individuals of the same species. We already know that this evil and insane thought is the one that imposed in universities and schools the doctrine of materialistic evolutionism of scientific atheism, germ of world wars and necessary argument to which all dictators, genocidal, enemies of the Life of their fellow men and of Peace among all human beings embrace. As Pilate washed his hands, the scientific community washed theirs in the ocean of blood of the world wars, filthy vessel in which the political classes wash theirs while defending their hypocritical behaviors protecting that satanic doctrine, man being a predatory beast born from the cradle of the law of the strongest.

To be a Christian means a total and absolute rejection of a genocidal fratricidal doctrine, which has, to this day in the Nobel community its temple, from whose doors the messengers of War spread their evil tares all over the Earth.

Man, created in the Image and Likeness of the Son of God is social by Nature. Society does not have its roots in the law of the strongest. Society has its Origin in the Law of Love for Life of the Creator of the Universe. A Love for Life in the Universe that became a Creative Passion to the point of elevating the Life of His Creation to its Eternal Dimension. In this Love for the Life of His Creation, the Social Nature of God developed in Eternity to the point of giving form to His Universe, founding His Kingdom on the foundations of a Universal Civilization to whose Walls He communicates His Nature. This Building having been erected, it is up to His Creation to study the Plane of Social Engineering that served Him to establish this Kingdom.

I follow here the Divine Method: “Do according to the Model shown to you”. I mean, the Model already exists, it is an Eternal Reality. We all know that the First Model on which the Creator united Man to His Life was shaken by an infernal earthquake, whose Homicidal waves drowned the first generation of men.

Before the Consummated Facts, the Necessity of raising a New Universal Social Model, immunized against future structural shocks, was made.

Speaking about Events already historicized, and since their Foundation had its Conclusion here on Earth, with the Glorification of the Son of God to the Universal Throne over all the Worlds of Creation and their peoples, and because this Kingdom of the Son of God is already a Building invested with Eternity, this Kingdom is the Social Model of universal reference on which every existing Civilization in the Heavens bases its Structure. Having said this, it is logical that we define what are the columns on which God has raised the Kingdom of His Son.

Three are these columns.

The First is the Crown. The King, JESUS CHRIST, is the Head of the State, Supreme and Unique Head of all the Armies of the Peoples of Creation. To the King is the Final and First Due Obedience of all the Military Bodies of the Divine State; the Life of this State is Universal Peace.

Any people or group of individuals who attempt against this Peace among the peoples of the Kingdom of the Son of God, with absolute independence of the arguments to open a breach against the Peace in the Universal Fraternity, is installed in Crime against the Crown of the Son of God and, by bribery, against the Creation of God.

In the King; JESUS CHRIST; and in God, YAHWEH, being Two Persons, lives one and the same Spirit. There is no division of any kind between the King and God. In the King lives God. In God lives the King. The Wisdom and the Almighty Power of the Lord God Yahweh are the Crown Jewels of the Lord King Jesus Christ.

Every Creature who declares himself king over a people of Creation is installed in Crime against the Law of the Divine Crown; the Transgression of this Law leads to the Banishment of Creation, Sentence sealed against the generation of the children of God, not of our World, who rose up against the Law of the Universal Coronation of the Son of God. Upon this Law is founded the Universal Civilization of the Heavens, and it is upon this Law that the Civilization of Man on Earth makes its Way to the Gate of Eternity.

The Divine Civilization being the Model in whose image and likeness Man must raise his own, it is understood that the Unity of all the Armies of the Fullness of nations, their Obedience to the Crown of the King of Heaven, Horizon to which God directs our History, is the Incorruptible and Indivisible Guarantee of World Peace among all peoples for ever and ever.

The Mission for which the Armies live, Peace among all the peoples of a Nation, and their incapacity or their alliance with those who seek Hatred as a door to Civil War, whether by Nazi-racist ideology against their neighbors, or with acts of Terror against their fellow men, implies the bodies of those armies in Betrayal of the Peace of the Peoples, whose children their Body is nourished by, and whose fathers and brothers they betray, abandoning in the hands of Independence Hatred and Nationalist Terror the Meaning of their Existence and Life. The Sentence against the Betrayal of Peace is the Banishment of Life.

Thus, the Nature of the Armies of the Divine Crown is to be Peace in Body and Soul. The Obedience of this Body to a Local Government, with a vocation for life, devoted to Division, and founding its victory on the Hatred and Terror of its allies against the peoples whose Peace the Army in Body and Soul must defend and protect, in Heaven as on Earth, and because it renounces its Life and Betrays the life of the peoples under the Banner of its Defense, bending its knees before the Dictatorship Announced, the Sentence against this Crime is the Banishment of Life.

God has established, therefore, for the Preservation of Peace that the Armies of all the Peoples of His Creation live in a Universal Body, and their Obedience is exclusively subject to the Crown of His Kingdom.

The Divine Duty of this Body is to stand up against any civil body which, rejecting the Divine Law, pretends to lay at its feet the Obedience due to Peace.

Peace among all men is a Divine Right. Peace is founded on the Unity of all peoples in the same Law and Civilization.

Therefore, the Armies are to Society what the skeleton is to the body. The body cannot subsist without the skeleton. If the skeleton becomes ill, the body loses its health, a loss which, if it increases, will lead inexorably to death.

Health is to the body what Peace is to Society; when Armies are brought to their knees they are given over to Division and Hatred among peoples: in obedience due to a Pro, or Dictatorial Government, that Society and Nation sign their disappearance from History. Signature that will be seen in active in the next years to be fulfilled on Russia, a Nation and Society installed in the Crime against the Human Gender as modus vivendi.

Having said this, the Military Corps being the skeleton of the Society, the Government is the national head, whose function is to direct the Movement of the Society along the ever growing path of the Future of Civilization. Now, when a Government annihilates the Nature of armies, brings it to its knees and makes it renounce its Power to Defend Peace, throwing the Division born of Hatred to the peoples under its Banner, and in the service of that Government establishes Dictatorship over the Terror of its Forces : such a Government is the enemy of the very Society which it raised up to maintain Social Unity. So that depending on the Peace of the Body of Armies, the Indivisible Unity among the peoples of a Nation belongs, as a specific function, to the Government.

A Government which leads the social body into the abyss of Dictatorship, as a means of saving the Civil War which proceeds from the rupture of the social Unity among the peoples of the Nation, a rupture of Unity which it nourishes in order to found its life-long dictatorship, is a Government which declares itself the Enemy of Society : against which the Peace Corps has the Divine Duty and the Civil Right to rise up to prevent the Dictatorship of that Government from being consummated.

A Government which betrays the Unity of the Nation which gave it the Power to direct its Future along the path of Civilization, is a criminal body which feeds Hatred among the peoples and invests itself with an arm of terror in order to obtain Peace in the bosom of a Dictatorship, legitimate inasmuch as it came from the popular will, but illegitimately obtained inasmuch as its anti-democratic vocation was hidden from the peoples in order to make their vote a lever towards the dictatorship; the only means to save the Civil War necessary to obtain its allies the Independence proclaimed by Nationalism.

When a Social Body is directed by this head, its future is ruin. Living example of this ruin, with success achieved, we see it established in Venezuela, where the Peace Corps betrayed its existence and threw at the feet of a Life Dictatorial Government its Power, by that Government used to maintain by Terror the peoples of the Nation. The Nation will survive but that Political-Terrorist Body will be banished from Life in the coming years.

There is no Amnesty for the enemies of Unity and Peace among brothers, as in Heaven so on Earth. There is NO Amnesty for the Enemies of God's Creation, neither Today, nor ever in Eternity.

But what is a Body without Spirit?

We note then that the first two Pillars, Peace and Unity, of the Civilization of the Kingdom of the Son of God live by the Law of the Crown. Through the Military Body of the Fullness of the nations God has established Universal Peace in the Love of Life. Peace is the land where all the fruits of Civilization grow freely. And on the contrary, it is in the field of wars that all the fruits of Death become strong. When God said: "When you cultivate it, it will give you thorns and thistles", He was not referring to the soil of the earth, but to human intelligence. War is the soil of a hell in whose field, although it has in appearance the fruit of progress, it is discovered that its natural end is the absolute destruction of all life, as we see at present. Where have been those promises of scientific utopia that under that banner of freedom of thought the community of the wise raised against the Faith? It must be said: buried in the fields of the world wars.

Thus, a body without spirit is an animal entity governed by the law of fire and iron. A law that scientific atheism embraced, and in whose entrails were born the two monsters that in the 20th century devoured each other: Communism and Nazism.

The Third Pillar of Universal Civilization is the Religion of the Catholic Church. In this Body lives the Eternal Truth that extends its existence throughout the Universe, whose dogmas are known to all and by whose Faith comes to us all the Power to be children of God. Sons of God in the image and likeness of that Son of God who became man to show us both the True Face of Man created by God and that of Our Creator. And the conclusion of whose Doctrine can be reduced to two Dogmas: "God is Love, and Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself". Eternal Dogmas which embraces all the Worlds of the Kingdom of His Son, and whose Wonderful Power is abhorred by Nationalists, Independents, Dictators, Genocides, and all who raise against their neighbor the law of Hatred and Terror. Being this Face of God and of Man: his son, in whom lives his Thought and Spirit, what could be more natural than to rise up against the Catholic Church and banish its Religion from the Schools, thus declaring war on the Word of God: "Let the little children come to me".

Concluding, the Peace of the Social Body subject to the Obedience of the Armies of the Fullness of Nations to the Universal Peace of the King, and the Unity subject to the Law of Service of all the Governments of the World Body whose Head is the Divine King, the Sempiternal Universal Truth which governs the Thought of all men has its Living Body in the Catholic Church, from whose Doctrine emerges the Power which makes Man a child of God: Principle and End of his Creation, Growth and Development in the Wisdom of his Creator.

The Function, closing, of the Government is the Unity in the Fraternity of all the peoples under its Administration, applying the Law against the sowers of Hatred and Terror.

The Function of the Army is Peace, and as its Body that it is, it has been endowed with Power by Man's Divine Right to Peace, to rise up against any Government that uses Democracy as a lever to Dictatorship.

The Function of the Church is to cultivate the spirit of intelligence in Childhood in order to engender in man a free, incorruptible, Peace-loving, Life-loving, Civilization-loving being.

Upon these Three Pillars we will build for the coming generations a Civilization open to the centuries and the Heavens; a Civilization born to form part of a Kingdom open to Eternity and Infinity of Peoples, all united in the same Spirit of Truth, of Intelligence and Love of Life of the King and of God. The Seed that lives in all with Origin in the same Root Peace and Unity Mind and Heart of all in all the fruits of this Tree of Life, whose Head is the King, from whose Crown emerge all Governments for the Happiness and Liberty of all, Universal Supreme Pontiff, for who shall dare to stand before the Lord God Creator of the New Cosmos? Almighty Judge, Incorruptible, Head of all the States of all the Peoples of His Kingdom, in Whose Name and at the Service of Whose Crown and Throne the Universal Government engrafts His House, whose names we all know, His Apostles: Living Body of the Spirit that lives in the God and His Son, Holy Spirit, Immaculate, Heirs of the Power of Christ: His Word is God, before whose eyes nothing is hidden, whose love for the Life of all was sealed with His blood. Body of which it is said: The Holy Spirit is God.

Joy then, because we, the children of God, will never again feel alone during the Days of Creation, for in His Face God will always be with us.

THE WORD OF GOD IS GOD. GERMANY AND THE KNEES OF THE POPE

The existence of the phylogenetic teleological driving force of creation towards eternal life is a pre-existing reality in all human societies since the beginnings of the primary families, which were translated into religious sentiments and institutions, whose stories, wrapped in mythologies and legends, we know today. There is no people in the History of Humanity whose beginning does not contain a religious service. All the religions of Antiquity had their end in the existence of an eternal life on the other side of life on Earth. It was this vital force that fell into the abysses of human sacrifices, whether in the form of holy war or in the form of human sacrifices, which needed war for their realization. The response to this deviation towards an infernal coexistence between human families and peoples determined the nature of the religious services from which all peoples hoped to obtain open access to eternal life. The First Cause at the origin of this deviation is written in the Book of God, Inheritance of the Catholic Church, Bride of Christ the Lord. The Rejection of some peoples hereditarily immersed in Human Sacrifice and War, in reality the two sides of the same coin, to the Answer of Christ on the Cause of this Deviation from the Path to Eternal Life by the Creator communicated to His Creation, is an Answer that belongs as much to the History of Religions as to the History of the Catholic Church. The Universal History of Europe is sufficient argument to see the existence of this vital force, the religious answers to the necessity of religions and the rejection and holy war against the Answer of Christ, Inheritance of the Catholic Church, Mother of Christianity. This said, the Calvinist Protestant Reformation presented itself with its own Answer according to which there was never any Deviation, not even Fall, that is to say, the Answer of Christ was an absolute falsehood, because according to the Calvinist Lutheran Reformation, that Deviation and Fall of Man in the Human Sacrifice and in the Holy War was predetermined by the Creator Himself, who being Omniscient and Almighty imposes His Will, against which creation can do nothing. Luther, Calvin and Henry VIII rejected Christ's Answer.

Since in Christ Raul against Antichrist the answer to the antichristianity of Reformation thought, thought sown by the Evil One, against which God warned His Church, has been manifested, it is fitting to remind all Christians who by Faith have acquired the Power to be children of God, that this Power has its Origin and Principle in the Thought of Christ, and whoever rejects this Thought, no matter the nature of his words and works, turns away from the Gate of eternal life. What defines all the children of God, of Heaven and Earth, is the Thought of Christ, that is, the Answer of God to the Cause of the Fall of Man.

It could be argued that Christ being a man and desiring eternal life justified the unjustifiable for fear of being deprived of this dimension to which Creation was called by its Creator. Foreseeing this argument God wanted to annul the divine nature of the same by making his own Only Begotten the one who would give us the Answer. Jesus being of Divine Nature, eternal life its Existential Dimension, impossible its Destruction, his Word, free of all Fear, would become the Answer, whose Belief gives us all the Key that opens the Door of eternal life. The Thought of Christ became the inheritance of his House. Thus by Faith we inherit the Power of being children of God, and this Power, natural to those who rule with their Father and King the Creation of God, legitimizes us to rise to the Government of the World, in order to make the Law of the Creator the Way by which His Creation subsists in Eternity.

As the ancient world rose up against the Mother in its ignorance, while the Enemy, Death, remained, it is understood that the present world rises up against the children of its Lord. Nothing new under the Sun, except the children of God of the King's House.

We are already immersed in the Final Battle. The Offensive against the Power of this generation of God's children, heirs to the Government of the Fullness of the nations by Divine Right, we are living it. The new forces of Death have arisen to cause fratricidal civil divisions in the Christian nations; invested with progress and welfare, in word, they are leading to the most radical anti-Christianity to peoples founded on a Law of Progress and Welfare with roots in the Divine Law. In the name of a homicidal humanism, the doors of Christian Civilization have been opened to peoples who are enemies of the Human and Divine Rights of Man, whose aspiration is to overthrow the Christian Law and impose the law of hell, a law of Terror and Hatred of Fraternity among all peoples, without which there can be neither Liberty nor Justice. The new generation of Satan's children, begotten in the bowels of the Russian Orthodox Church, have launched the War for the crown over all the kingdoms and nations of the world, corrupting governments, financing independences, raising dictatorships, raising civil wars... under the protection of international institutions, directed by corrupt national organizations, the purpose of whose policies is to stay in Power without caring who maintains their levels of gods, beyond the laws of men and God. Final Battle lost for them, but which they are willing to win in the belief of being superior Death and its king to God and his King. Russia will drown in their blood, China will suffocate in their sky, Venezuela, Nigeria, Arabia, Iran... will sink swallowed by the blood with which they have watered their lands. The children of God are not born to glorify themselves but to glorify their King, to whom belongs the Government of the Fullness of the nations, of this and every World created by their Father in Heaven.

That said, the spirit of Christ is presently in the dilemma of the centuries. When a bishop arrives in Rome and is glorified as Holy Father, he finds himself before two doors, to drift towards the madness of one who believes he can make amends to God and even blaspheme His Name with his works, or to serve God against the centuries by maintaining the Life of the Church in the Temple of Eternity.

The Knowledge of the peoples in the Science of Creation has for its limits the Creative Omniscience applied to the Nature of the Creature. But the Law of the Creator is Eternal, and it is to this Eternity that Christ erected a Temple. Thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not bear False Witness, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself... it is not advice, it is the Law of Eternal Life.

As much a law as is every Word of God; Thou shalt not lie with man as he lies with a woman, it is the Word of God, it is not a counsel that can be revoked or simplified or subjected to the interests of the times. There can be NO blessing against the Word of God. Unless a Holy Father has fallen into the folly of many of his predecessors and believes himself to be more good and more merciful than God Himself, the Word of God can only be tinkered with by a man who denies his own Lord.

It should NOT surprise us that those who have denied, in the first instance, the Divine Nature of the Word of God, have been the German priests. An enemy nation of God and His Civilization since its birth, installed in genocide against humanity since its entry into Christian Europe, rebellious against the Church of God, which it accused of being a Harlot, putting in its mouth the words of Satan himself, its lord and father, to Her, the Bride of the Lord Jesus, against whom it rose up in Holy War, dragging, in its Hatred of Humanity and its Catholic brethren, the European nations to the world civil war of the 30 years, absolved of its Crime against Humanity by the World Wars of the 20th Century, that nation enemy of God and mankind, as soon as it has recovered from its wickedness, has returned to give its ear to Satan and its mouth to Death, rejecting the Word of the Lord God YAVE, threatening with Schism if the Bishop of Rome does not kneel to its will: Blessing what God forbade from the beginning: the union of one male with another, of one female with another female.

Thus, because the servant of the Evil One has brought the Bishop of Rome to his knees, the Lord God YAWEH, against whose Word he has risen again, will erase Germany from the Map of his People, will break the Federation, and the name of Germany, this name will be a curse for the nations that will arise from its banishment from History.

And as for the Bishopric brought to its knees, his Lord will place at the head of the Headship of his Servants a young and strong Bishop, against whose spirit the waves of Death will break, and at whose sight the enemies of his Lord will flee as wolves flee before the lion.

Can a State sign a Treaty and make of the Nation a people traitor to its Word? When a State forms a Treaty does it do so in the name of the Nation or in the name of the interests of a Government with whose fall the Treaty becomes water in the river of the interests of a group of individuals? What is a State? Who created it? With what objectives was it created? Is the Nation the creation of a group of peoples who unite for the Defense of Liberty, their Dignity and Happiness, Peace and Health of all the families united in the hope of reaching and maintaining these horizons of Justice AND Fraternity? Does the creation of the State correspond to this Horizon? Why and under what reasons does an art of the creator peoples of the Historical Nation, origin of all its advances, betray the creation of the State created to guarantee the movement of the victory of this Future State and conspire to overthrow this State? Is it madness, is it insanity, is it schizophrenia, is it paranoia, or is it a phylogenetic degradation product of an endogamy based on the superiority of a race to the other families until then sisters and against which it rejects Liberty, Peace, Health, Happiness and Natural Dignity, inheritance of the Divine Origin of Man, as the inheritance of those families whom he demonizes and against whose face he hurls the dialectic of an evil social excommunication, to the point of invoking the Necessity of Terror and Civil War as a good means to achieve the Destruction of that State for the consummation of the Betrayal of the founding fathers of the Historical Nation?

Man cannot live oblivious to the movement of Time around him. The dimension that defines the human being is precisely the Movement of Time. We call this Movement Universal History. We do not live in the pages of a book. Life is not a one-dimensional story, a spectacle to which one is oblivious. To turn away from the Movement expecting to find Peace, Health, Happiness, Freedom in a one-dimensional dimension is to reject the Human condition. Life permeates everything and moves all beings towards a Universal End. To turn away from this Movement, to rise up against this Universal End, is to declare oneself an enemy of Humanity. The Individual, whether family or national, cannot rise against the Universal Movement which distinguishes the Life of Man without committing a Crime against Humanity. The Nature of this Movement of Time can be distinguished and defined by looking at its Trajectory through the centuries.

Civil War between Nations proceeds from Ignorance of this End. For Millennia the peoples lived far from the Knowledge of the Universal End towards which Life moves the Human Being.

Present in their unconscious the existence of this End, during all the centuries human beings tried to discover this End, to open its Seal, to enter into its Nature. They invented religions, developed ideologies, made of nations weapons of domination and destruction in the belief of being able to write that Universal End and impose on the Universe their vision of Human Life in Time.

History collects in its Chapters the struggles between those religions and national ideologies raised in favor of the Empire, and the Banishment of some peoples and their adventure to survive without contact with the rest of the peoples.

The concept of racial superiority can be seen in the primitive peoples when they made the word "Man" their family heritage; for them the other peoples, even if they had a human appearance, were part of the world of the beasts, from which, having to move away, they led their families to make the most inhospitable habitable environments their ancestral dwellings.

In the discourse of the Nationalists, in this case Hispanic, we read again and again the contempt of the Spanish peoples, who are related to the beasts, at the same time that by this declaration they proclaim themselves superior races to the other Hispanic peoples, against which Terror and War are good and necessary means to reach that Recognition of Superiority by the part of the State created by those beasts, among which they lived and coexisted while their State was a gold mine. But once the mine was dry, the condescension with such peoples, genetically degenerated and with whom to be related is national heresy because of the degradation that the fruit of that procreation imposes on the ETHNIC cleanliness OF EVERY SUPERIOR RACE.

The War to impose the Dominion of some peoples over others has been the Force that Death imposed on the Earth. Far from rising and living this Force as a Fratricidal Abomination between nations, we observe how this Force has been invested with Thermonuclear Power and placed in Homicidal and Genocidal hands to drag Humanity to the Natural End that Death pursues, to reduce to dust all life on Earth.

The hallucination of victory against the Dying based on being its servants and being given as father to its prince, king of Hell is just that, an evil hallucination in which the same ones who feed on that chimera will be devoured: to inherit from that Satan all the kingdoms of the world. The core of this chimera resides in the belief that Satan is looking for a way not to be banished from the Cosmos once the Earth is conquered by his children.

The Truth, the whole Truth and nothing but the Truth is that Satan's goal is to serve his Mother, Death. The Decree of his Banishment from Creation has been activated; and there is no power on Earth nor Force in Death that can prevent its execution; it is the LORD GOD YAHWEH who has spoken and the LORD KING JESUS CHRIST who will execute his Decree. Those who remain in that chimera believing that they will be able to impose their own laws on the Creator of Heaven and Earth, creating a World Order based on thermonuclear weapons, will be erased from History. Each one chooses in which ranks he will enlist: in the ranks of Death or in the ranks of Life.

THE ERA OF THE KING

Tell me mortals, mighty and rich, gods for a second, lords of darkness, masters of lies, traitors to your words, who in stones have your glory and your greatness, tell me, you who have loved the image and likeness that Satan has set before you, and have on your knees accepted the crown of your abominable passions, answer me, where are your tongues born, in what dark lake does the river of your words pour over the Dignity of my people? And you, Mankind, do you not know that he who lives on his knees is a beast without a future? What is this world but a road to hell, and will you follow the path that the warlords and their political slaves are forcing you to follow with the lash of the whip? Rise from the dust, reclaim what belongs to you: the Dignity of a child of God and citizens of the Kingdom of his Son. Tear down the walls to whose stones your smiling enemies have chained you, with their infamous hands throwing from your treasures the copper coins as one who throws to dogs the spoils of their banquets.

You will die in your crimes, and you say to yourselves, every man dies, we are dust that the wind of eternity scatters through the cosmos. And yes, so it shall be. But then you will face a Second Death; where you will be banished, there is no wine or women, the damned do not dance to the sound of feasts; the fire that will devour you will never be consumed, the hatred of all your victims will feed it for eternity, and you will devour yourselves for infinite time reaching the glory you seek, to be demons by right and in fact.

Who is the madman who sells an eternity at the price of living a second the life of a mortal god? The Serpent within him who betrayed his God, plunging his creation into the hell of endless war, found in your fathers forests, jungles and caves in which to give birth to more basilisks, and has entered you.

Did you think that the Lord God of the Cosmos wrote a children's story when he called the murderer of the First Man a Serpent? Like that Serpent who made of his word a weapon of death, you make of yours a murderous dagger, a dagger of treason, a stairway to the heaven of Power and Glory that comes from stones, precious metals, black gold, diamonds, platinum and rubies are your passion, the source of the dark lake in which rivers are born that through the bed of your words expand the poison of civil war.

Dream of the lifetime dictatorship of kings who sleep in the grave, of the absolute tyranny of the one who lives beyond law and justice, may terror not overtake you, may your enemies tremble, for the fire of the Serpent in your mouths will devour them.

Alia jacta est, you have said to yourselves, and yet no one has issued you a decree of proscription. The necessity of making yourselves outlaws to justify your political delirium tremens has dragged you to the precipice. The more you walk, the more you progress towards the abyss. My King will raise his people with the force of the hurricane that moves away the breeze and lets fall on the tall and proud trees the rays of his Justice, his Voice will be heard among the stars, and his Law will rain a deluge of Dignity and Liberty on the whole Earth.

He who would live let him turn from the traitor who sells his soul for a second of glory. The Power is of the King of Heaven and before his Tribunal must answer all the disciples, sons and servants of the king of Hell.

The Day is born, the Hour has come, how not to raise the Voice, to let the spirit raise its eyes to the Light of Truth, source of all Life. Wisdom has dried my eyes, has widened my heart and I fly like a bird of paradise with a message in my beak to all the nations of the world: The King has arisen and comes to do the Will of his God.

The millennial plea of the Holy Spirit, "Come, Lord Jesus," has moved the Soul of the Creator of the Universe. His eyes can no longer endure the vision of my world dragged by the forces of Death to its destruction. Who will close the mouth of the spirit of Yahweh that lives in my being? Who will put locks on the ocean of Intelligence that the Creator has given to his creature? Who will cut down the mountain on the heights on which my feet have been raised to contemplate the future of my people?

As one who has at his side a father who deciphers to his beloved son the keys of the landscape he contemplates, mine has raised me by discovering to me the plans that in the shadows forge those who believe themselves gods, and invested with almighty immunity subject to slavery the Dignity and Liberty of the peoples who place their trust in them for the sake of a better future. Does not God know the designs of those who believe themselves lords of the world? They are blind leading the blind into the abyss. There is no Evil, they say. How much infused and profuse wisdom theirs is! My King will throw their evils in their faces, and on them they will reflect in the shadows among whose darkness they drew a Globe in the air, subject to the strings of their fingers, having terrorized all the inhabitants of the world, with their hearts in a fist, buying their lives in exchange for the limitless freedom claimed by those who pull the strings of the Geopolitics of the Future.

The Day is born, the Morning that no one expected to arrive, the Morning that others wanted to arrive in order to be the sole masters of the world, Holy God, it has arrived. Your Word knows no wall, no force to stop its flight through the millennia and its centuries. The trail of blood that your peoples have left in the Past marks the way to the Present. So that the whole world will know where we come from, and understand where we are going.

My spirit has believed in the Word of my God: My world will not fall into the shadows, they will not bury the Dignity of the Creator in the abyss of their blind designs. He left it written, He sealed it with the blood of His Son, His brethren arose as Witnesses. As Sarah and Elizabeth in their old age rejuvenated to give life to a sacred generation, so shall the Earth become green before the eyes of all, and the man that God created from his clay shall be made of stone, marble extracted from the Rock of the Spirit of the Creator.

No more shall Death find in Man's being soil in which to sow his accursed seed. God has sworn it by his Honor and Glory: Listen Man: you will be a son of God among sons of God, Citizens among citizens of the Kingdom of my Son, your life is in the King, your Creator, eternity will be the earth that will welcome your feet, the infinite will unfold before your eyes its beauty, the Beauty of the Creator of the New Heavens and the New Earth.

What can Man desire greater than days that never end! Do you not know how to interpret the Word written on the Stone? The Day of Him who was released for a Thousand Years to lead the nations to the Battle of Gog and Magog is over. Did you not wish to enter a New Age? Call it the Second Age of Christ, the Age of the King, for there will no longer be a Third.

ISRAEL, SON OF ABRAHAM

In what farm, factory or stable is the nature of men's intelligence determined? Why, having God given to men the Knowledge of the Science of creation by limit, have they chosen the Reason of the beasts over the Wisdom of the sons of God? What malignity do the stones hide to make their colors drive minds and hearts mad and not stop their murderous arms neither for father nor for brother nor for son?

They call it the Modern Age.

Really, at what point did these men come out of the Stone Age when it is for the possession of stones that they kill each other, plunge whole nations into the abyss of genocide?

Let the high priests of the temple of the North, all wise, all divine, all conjured up to make our exit from the caverns impossible! Yes, it is true, the new caverns have light, but it is not solar light. And how good it is that we men live under the protection of modern caves. The new cavemen do not know that they are cavemen. In them the maxim of happiness is fulfilled since ancient times written on the wall of Science: The more a man knows, the more unhappy he is, in ignorance is happiness. Lapidary sentence in favor of the world genocide that starting in a fratricide has extended its moral of the necessary destruction of the weak for the sake of the survival of the strong, all rich, all powerful, cavemen of gold, without conscience of the true criminal nature of their policies and of their religions, of their ideologies and of their corruptions, a plentiful river of black gold that drags all to the ocean of extinction in the arms of Death.

Has God given me for limit his Omniscience and I am going to be satisfied with the crumbs of the Genocidal Science that from the Temple of the North defends its golden tablets, banishing from its walls every man who dares to say this mouth is mine? Since they worship Doubt by Method, why do they not doubt themselves?

I know why, my God has taught me. They are infallible, they are omnipotent, their science is absolute, their reason is hyper-divine, without leaving the Earth they scrutinize the cosmos and assign ages and origins to the galaxies that extend the shores of the Ocean of Creation to the Infinite.

Whoever sees their minds sees everything, they sought freedom to become slaves with golden chains in the service of the sons of Satan. Do you not know, wise and holy ones that you all are?

In the beginning God set before Man a Living Soul in whose image and likeness the first fathers of the nations were formed, a model of Being who found in his own unearthly children the fiercest and most infernal enemy. God abhorred those rebellious children and in his right as Creator sentenced them to eternal banishment from Life. They worshipped the fruit of the entrails of Death, with their mother they will go to Hell.

The Sentence signed, the First Man in the dust, two Models of Being rose on Earth: To be in the Image and likeness of Satan, or to be in the image and likeness of the son of Man. Each one chooses his future in Eternity. For what God did, separating Life from Death and raising Life to its Immortal and Indestructible Nature, cannot be undone. The choice must be made. For this He made His Son man, that choice might be born in the womb of our fathers. But Science came and, bending its knees before the Being in the image and likeness of Satan, put its filthy claw into the womb of our parents to abort the Divine Seed in Humanity.

They wash their hands in the vessel where Pilate washed his. Enemy of the sciences? Dementia has a name.

And you, Israel, son of Abraham, are you still waiting for the Messiah whom you crucified and for whose death you have paid two thousand years of exile? Do you want him to come down from his World to crucify him again?

Awake from your sleep. Your condemnation is over. The God of your father swore by his glory and he has fulfilled it, you would return to the land of your origin. And there you are. What are you waiting for to bend your knees before the King? Bear witness to the Glory of the God of your father by proclaiming your adherence to the Crown of Messiah that your father gave to all the families of the Earth. It was for the Sin of Rebellion of your First Father, Adam, that all the families were condemned to live banished from God, abandoned in the hell of the War that Satan declared to the whole world. How could you have gone through the centuries shouting aloud that the origin of all the evils of all the peoples was found in your first father!

You lived in silence, so mute that even your parents forgot the true cause for which Abraham raised his arm against his firstborn. Blind, deaf and dumb came your parents to the Mount of Olives, where they dipped the pen of your Banishment Sentence in the blood of Him in whom God has His Life.

Cease, O Israel, son of Abraham, to seek that which thou shalt not find, to hope for that which shall never come to pass. Bend your head and turn to the King of Heaven. Curse what you loved, bless what you cursed; return to the Family of the nations in the fullness of the Right of him who has in God, Father of the King, his God.

And you, Ishmael, son of a slave, you tore off the name of the God of Abraham, your father, and gave yourself to a nameless god who has in Hatred and War his paradise. When will you stop hating Isaac? Your hatred consumes you. You do not want to understand that the one who opened the gates of Palestine to Abraham's son is the Creator God of the Cosmos. Why did you not banish Hatred and stay and live in the house of your father's firstborn? Now you are a game in the hands of those who have in Satan their Self. Those who claim to be your defenders are your infernal enemies, they will not cease until they see you destroyed, so that in the blood of your genocide they may feed the fire of the Hate of the god of your half-brothers towards whom the God of Abraham has led to the land of his origins. Break with those who want to throw you on the pyre of their hatred, lower your head, recognize the son of Abraham, his heir, his firstborn, live in his tent as a brother, let his enemies be your enemies, enjoy the milk and honey, the vine and the fruit of the tree of life.

And you, apologists for nothing and defenders of no one, where are the Forces of Pacification that we nations have created for War to crash against the wall of Peace!

Yes, I have heard it from my Father, will the slave be able to rebel against the lords of the industries of War, her master! Will the slave take her master's bread from his table? Will the master allow his slave to say this mouth is mine?

For this the King will take away the foundations of the slave's house, and break her master's arms. The whole Earth will hear the celebration of the Heavens when the building falls on master and slave. The nations will sign the Covenant that the King signed with God, and will put their armies at the service of his Crown, and the King will give Peace against whose walls dictators, tyrants, genocidal and fratricidal will crash. There will be no one among men who will see the thought born in his head reach his hand, before the order reaches his fingers his arm will fall to the ground.

Who are these who with one hand bless the abortion of life in the womb of its parents and with the other defend the abominable death that is born to sow the fire of hatred and war among the families of men?

They speak of Peace who in War have their Business, of Liberty those who have in Corruption their life, of Knowledge those who have in Science their Temple of Destruction.

What is man?

Image of the Son of God, Lord of Peace, he is all: likeness of Satan, Lord of War, he is nothing.

For this my eyes do not weep nor my pulse tremble when he writes and will see disappear in the mist of oblivion the existence of those who despised the Spirit of the Son of God and seized the souls of beasts as their origin and beginning.

Whoever does not convert to the King of Heaven and does not bend his knees before his Crown, will perish in his insanity. They shall be dust in the sandals of the peoples of God, which we shall shake from our feet without looking back.

Don't you see, son of Abraham? you lost your birthright, you are a people among the peoples of God, brother among brothers, our right is your right, your life is our life. Fulfill your destiny: Give glory to the God of your father, do not be afraid to recognize the sin of your fathers, the sentence was fulfilled, the blood of the Messiah fell on the heads of his descendants. Today you are free, come to meet all the peoples of God, your Creator; whoever rises against the son of Abraham rises against his Creation.

SEEING IS BELIEVING

The Power of God to reduce a world to dust does not need to be emphasized once the History of the Lord God YAVE has been read. The supreme existential question that we, the children of God, ask ourselves from here below does not refer to His Power but to His Patience. For we know that HE being what HE is, the fact of maintaining the situation to which His Human Creation was exposed by the Fall, must raise in us a firm suspicion about the general ignorance of the world regarding the answer due to that question.

From the time Man was left to his own devices until the present day, religious, philosophical, theological, scientific and political thought has been lurching from right to left without ever seeing the heart of the matter. What happened on Earth had repercussions in Eternity, both the death of the First Man and the Resurrection of the son of Man shook the foundations of Creation: Life in the Universe could not remain on the same pillars, the whole edifice had collapsed, it was time for a Divine Revolution that would affect the very House of the Creator of the New Cosmos.

We know the effect of that cause. The Son of God intervened in the History of the Earth to proclaim his Unity with his Father and to found his Crown on the new Political and Religious Pillars that will maintain for eternity the New Building of Life in the Universe.

From what has been seen and transmitted to all nations by the Roman Catholic Church, it is understood the considered Necessity of showing to the whole Creation why God feels as an unbearable Abomination to His Spirit the fruit of the Science of good and evil, to the point of elevating its doctrine to the Penalty of Death. Never ever did any world see with its eyes the Hell in that fruit, because never ever was any world brought up in that interior. None, except our World.

As the Necessity of Christ's Death was inescapable, the Necessity of showing to the Worlds created before ours the Hell which the Science of good and evil expands as its fruit, this Necessity was equally inescapable. That Son of God who ascended the Cross was God Himself who said, "Let there be Light." And yet understanding this Necessity and suffering in his Heart the Future of Humanity until his Coming for the Last Judgment, he bent his knees before the Lord God Yahweh, his Father, in the absolute and invincible conviction that he was doing the only truly effective thing to cause the Banishment of that Science from the borders of his Kingdom.

As a child of God the affirmation of his Obedience is solid as the Rock upon which he founded his Church. This leads us to consider that the Divine Revolution that has been bequeathed to us in Inheritance starts from that Necessity, the effect of which was to let the History of Nations continue its path until our Birth.

The Covenant signed in the name of God and Man by the Son of God has kept Humanity alive throughout these two millennia; just as the Old Covenant kept the House of Abraham alive during the two millennia from Abraham to the Birth of the son of Man, the path that the History of Christianity and of the Church has left written in the Memory of our peoples and of the Earth has been an epic through a battlefield in which Death unleashed its Hell and God its Strength.

But Necessity was still alive. "Dust thou art and to dust thou shalt return" was not a condemnation of an individual, but of a World in its entirety. It is the oldest History of the Cosmos. Life begins its journey, Death approaches and drives the created world to dust. Once twice, three times, a thousand times, a million times ... how many times did God see this process?

From experience two things are drawn, wisdom, and wisdom becomes law. When God tells the Human Race in the person of its head, Adam, that the future of his World was that, to be reduced to dust, God did not tell him but the Law that during Eternity was in force throughout the length and breadth of a Cosmos, Uncreated and Infinite.

Does Power over the life and death of your fellow men make you a god?

YES, of course, a god in the image and likeness of Satan!

But this is mush for wise men in their infancy. We are no longer children. Wisdom not only does not turn her back on us, but Today she embraces us as a Mother embraces her children.

Just as the sons of God, with Origin elsewhere in Creation, no longer need to see in order to believe, so we, children of God born on Earth, no longer need to see in order to believe. We affirm without the need to see that the future of every World left to its own devices under the law of Hell, which the Science of good and evil exports to all nations, is its global integral self-destruction.

No World ever defeated Death; its uncreated Force was upon every creature from the beginning without Origin of Uncreation. The Only Gate to Eternal Life is God, the Conqueror of Death.

Then it was with the Overcomer that Jesus Christ signed a Covenant between Man and God, whereby the King would arise from His Throne, and in the Fullness of His Glory, and Glory of the Only Begotten of the Creator of the New Cosmos, would beget a Generation of children of God for whom the Necessity of Seeing ceased to be by the Wisdom of Faith, and for Love of His House His Crown would spread its Peace and Health over all the nations of the Earth, uprooting from the Human Being the roots of the Tree of the science of good and evil.

For this Covenant the Mediator between God and Man shed his blood to dip in his Blood the pen with which this New Covenant was sealed. And Universal Covenant by which the Fullness of the nations open their eyes to the Truth and proclaim their condition of Citizens of the Kingdom of the Son of God for eternity.

This is the Historical Moment in which we are presently situated.

The Necessity, which God had to show His children of Heaven the nature of the Law, having died, has equally died for the children of God on Earth.

There will be no World War, no global destruction of the Earth.

All diseases will be defeated in this century, all dictatorships will pass into the history books before our eyes, all criminal organizations will be banished from Life. No longer will there be those who mourn for those who are leaving as those who lose what they will never have, for we will all see ourselves in the World from which the Son of God came.

Having said this, it is up to us to look at the Future from the Victory.

The peoples and their nations were subjected to the law of a hell in which they had to adapt in order to survive; a forced adaptation that has created in them, as our ancestors lived before, a behavior that acts in their deep minds as rings and chains that keep them prisoners of their Past, hooked to the wall of their ancestors as slaves to the oars of the ship that will lead them to the bottom of the ocean, which they hope to overcome in the belief that they can win the War against Death. They ignore that their gods are not God, they are simple amulets of letters, graphic icons, a dictatorial pseudo-religious totem to which they cling in the belief of being able to overcome Death.

They have been thousands of years surviving under the rain of the whip of tyrants and inhuman emperors who declared themselves gods to silence their own consciences and maintain their superhuman status over the ruin and misery of the peoples. They cannot be judged from Victory as if they were the Enemy.

Our Enemy is Death. Nor can we abandon the Battle because in their blindness they rise up to stop the passage of the Victor. Once the Final Battle has been declared and God has moved His King the movements towards World Peace and Universal Health are invincible. Not because we men are, but because He who is Our Ally is the Creator of the Universe of all that exists in the Cosmos. Who but HE, Lord God of Infinity and Eternity, has been awaiting this Day with more desire and passion! Who will now stop His Arm when even Death itself could not restrain His Son!

Indeed, they beat the drums of war, the sons that Death has given to Satan. The Fratricidal Monster of the North is doing what he must, undertaking the genocide of Ukraine, the mother of Russia, while in his infernal madness he threatens the entire creation with infernal destruction and pays mercenaries to launch himself against Israel, the son of Abraham, thus diverting attention from his abominable and filthy crimes.

Vain are the darkness that the democrat dictators send through the mass media to the world to show them the cleanliness of their sepulchers. What else did the damned of all times do but kill and die dancing! They run the worshippers of money to put on faces of incorruptible ministers, the smile drawn on the mask while they plunder and organize robberies from the Power, and to maintain the Power of corruption over the nations that declare themselves intellectually disabled to govern themselves, and delegate their Word in a blind box that the chosen ones of the gods throw into the cisterns over whose rotten waters they launch the boat of their limitless passions.

This is the Science of good and evil. It is Science, not an old wives' tale. Like all Science it has its laws, its principles, its dialectics and its language. It offends the intelligence of a child of God that this Science has been vetoed and banished from the Intellectual Formation of the generations, at national and world level. Is there a greater Science and of more importance for the Future of Humanity than the study of its laws and principles? Why do they reduce the Formation of the generations to the subject of Work, be it academic or labor, banishing from the Intelligence of the Individual the vision of Universal History to which he belongs and in which he develops, in which he must actively participate, forming part of a growing World that looks to the Heavens and cultivates the Earth with the love, passion and wisdom that a son embraces his mother?

The ghosts of Socialism and Capitalism say that there is Climate Change. Of course! It was them, the Communists and Capitalists who exploded against the body of our Mother Earth a number of 666 Megatons, 66,600 atomic bombs of the Hiroshima-Nagasaki type exploded against her body in the space of time from 1945 to 2000.

How could such a matricidal and genocidal deployment not affect the Biosphere!

The question is, what are they doing?

Europe and America burn, who has seen those apostles of Climate Change put on the table a development of Planet Forest Surveillance by controlled drones and dependent on populations of forest herders spread over the continents as a network of protection of the Fauna and Flora of the Planet?

Nobody has seen anything.

But we have all seen them putting their hands in the public coffers to fight Climate Change to which they do not allocate a single dollar, not a single euro. Their motto is to transform the battle into a Business.

There are so many businesses! The business of Hunger, the business of Diseases, the business of Drugs... For them we are all a Business, the general elections are a business...!

Everything comes to an end. Everything has a time. When the pendulum hits its top, it comes down at double the speed it ascended. In this Revolution we have entered, that speed is multiplied according to the Omnipotence of Our Ally. May I enjoy it and may your eyes see it.

THE GREAT LIE

With the Birth of Christ a conception of Power entered the world in an all-out war against the Power hitherto understood by all the inhabitants of the Earth. Power was understood as the Imperial norm. All peoples sought Empire. Kings were the failure of local patriarchal families to elevate their throne to Empire. The ancient religions understood Power in no other way and blessed the elevation of their kings to Empire, an elevation that would entail for the priestly castes the consequent empire of souls. The Throne would dominate the body and the Priesthood the soul of the people. Such was the mental structure of men before the Birth of Christ. The Roman Empire understood this reality perfectly and adapted its imperial armies to that end. Nothing new under the sun. Assyrians, Babylonians, Persians, Greeks, all tried to make their capitals the Eternal City. All the eternal cities and their empires fell and perished buried under the dust of the centuries. Such became the condition of human intelligence ever since a brother killed his brother for the sake of the Empire he dreamed of building. The story of Cain and Abel was repeated in the legend of Romulus and Remus. Nothing new under the sun. The desire to dominate all men, the death of whoever opposed this desire was the price to pay, without scruple or conscience even if the victim was one's own brother, became the daily bread of all those who believed themselves superior to their neighbors, and believed they had been chosen by the gods to impose their will, the death of the non-believer in their choice the door to Paradise, whatever the name of that hell adored by the chosen ones of Death.

It was what it was. The world was not made by Caesar. It was there. You killed or you were killed. It was the supreme universal law. Power was ripped out of the hands of the empire of the moment as a way to defend one's own life. Those who once ate the Forbidden Fruit of War could no longer abandon the road to glory, at the cost of being hell for all who crossed their path. Ephemeral glory, but glory nonetheless.

The future of Civilization had been written in blood. Whether it took a century, two centuries, three centuries, four or five, a Civilization built on a bloody Earth would one day be transformed into a sea of quicksand; the weight of its wickedness would end up sinking the whole edifice, swallowed by its own Past, never to return from the grave. The Great Babylon of the Assyrians, Babylonians, Chaldeans, Egyptians, Persians, Greeks, Romans... had withstood the passage of millennia. Every time the Great Babylon, founded by Satan, to lead all nations to the abyss of their extinction, every time that Great Babylon rose from its ashes, inhuman nature grew with it.

When Christ was born human life was meat with which kings and emperors fed their beasts, in their palaces and circuses. The Romans did not invent anything new; they applied the universal law, taking their inhumanity to the extreme. Power was not to serve Man, Power was conquered to destroy all those who opposed the glory of Caesar. At that moment, human life on the edge of the precipice to which the nations had been led, God intervened in Person in the History of the Earth to save the human race from falling into the precipice of absolute bestiality and to redirect its History towards a New Future. Christianity is born. The Christian inherits the mind of Christ, they have the thought of Christ. The Seed that God sows in men grows at dizzying speed, so great is its growth that Caesar declares it his enemy from the moment it penetrates Christian Thought and understands that the Future of Power, according to Christ, is the service to all men, not the Dominion over all peoples. Power exists to serve men in the Name of its Creator. Evil virus, evidently, against which the Empire rises in war. Slaves serve, masters dominate. What madness was that of the Christians? A world in which that Thought was Natural Law might talk that way; but in a world in which the Law was the sword and fire to give wings to that Thought would be to stand naked, to invite your neighbor to thrust his spear into your breast and cut your heart open. So the Christians were to die, to be sacrificed for the sake of the survival of the Empire. And Power remained in its palace of the mind asserting more and more strongly its nature of Master and Dominator of men.

Christianity became a Utopia. All brothers, all children of God, all one Family of Nations living in the light of a Universal Peace, established on a Justice emanating from the Spirit of the Creator Father, its Root Truth, its Fruit Liberty. In this Civilization God pours his Omniscience, making the Intelligence of all peoples grow, all Citizens of the Kingdom of his Son, who serves God with the Almighty Power of his Crown. Who is Almighty by Divine Nature becomes the Servant of all peoples becoming the Indestructible Pillar that guarantees Happiness to all, a dream! A Vision of the Future of Life in the Universe according to its Creator!

Curiously that Almighty Being, who with whose Word created all that we see in the Heavens and on Earth, JESUS, the SON OF GOD, lowers his head and puts his Arm at the Service of his Father, YAHWEH GOD. JESUS discovers in CHRIST the Incarnation of the Thought of his FATHER about the nature of the Power of a Universal State upon which the Future of the Civilization of His Kingdom will depend. He, JESUS, can establish His Crown on the Terror of His Almighty Arm, or found His Throne on the Love of Truth, Justice and Peace, in a word, Life.

The Christ is Servant of God, Living Incarnation of the Thought of the Lord God YAVE on the Nature of His Relationship with the Creator of the Universe with His Creation. The King of Heaven serves YAVE God for the Happiness of all the Worlds, having in His Arm every creature the Eternal Guarantee of the Invincibility of Peace, which with His Crown He upholds, and with His Wisdom He nourishes.

Power is not given by God to dominate the peoples, but to serve the nations of His Creation.

This is the Thought of God, which becomes Man, becomes the Thought of Christ, and is inherited by His Apostles. They build for this Thought a Temple, from which the Thought spreads to all peoples. The Empire becomes Christianized. The Church maintains with the State the divine relationship established by its Founder: "To Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's". To the Church the spirit, and to the State the body. For if the First Man was created a Living Soul, the New Man that God engenders is a life-giving spirit that lives the Word of Christ, in which he has the source of his Morals and the Law of his Behavior.

However, this Building founded by God in Person would be attacked with the full force of Death. With his words but with clarity he said it and the events gave him the Reason. His Church would be besieged by incessant social earthquakes against which his Victory would be the visible manifestation of the Divinity of its Founder. Romans, Heretics, Muslims, Philosophers and Scientists, Kings and Reformers, Politicians and Tyrants, Theocrats and Dictators, the forces that Death and his Prince unleashed upon Holy Mother Catholic Church was constant, incessant and deadly of necessity time after time. Open this battlefield for her Survival the Establishment of the Kingdom of her Lord over the fullness of nations would remain a Utopia, provoking this frustration the insanity we live in World Wars.

But God is not a Father who abandons his children to their fate, and for this reason his Apostle wrote: "The whole creation awaits in anguish the glory of the freedom of the children of God". Sons of God, sons of Christ, the Testator, Heirs of his testament, to whose Descendants he bequeathed the Divine Promise of Invincibility against all his enemies. Saying which opens the Intelligence to the nature of the century in which this Day is born to bring down from Heaven the Kingdom of his Father who is in Heaven. The Final Battle, then, has begun. The Law of Death shall be abolished, and the Law of Life shall spread over all nations its Health and its Peace.

It will not be by sword and fire, but by truth and Justice that the nations in their Fullness will adhere to the Citizenship of the Kingdom of the Son of God. The New Covenant, by which God becomes King, shall live forever. Death shall be banished from Mankind, its Tree shall be cast down and its roots shall be burned never to rise again in Man. Truth, Justice and Peace will engender Liberty, Equality and Fraternity among all the peoples of Creation. Power shall be at the Service of the Cultivation of the Tree of Life. From the Power delegated to men and the sons of Fios serves the Divine King, any deviation towards a physical or juridical entity is Corruption, and Corruption, the lesson of Universal History is categorical, leads to that World in which some groups used the Power of the States to impose their law on the peoples, who losing their Freedom became slaves of that Power whose cause was to armor themselves against Justice and corrupt the Law so that their Freedom to commit crime was without limits. This was the path by which nations were dragged to the World Wars of the 20th Century. And if anyone believes that by staging the same causes that led a nation to civil war the same effects will not follow, he is insane. He is as insane as those who use his insanity to get rich while his time is running out. The Nation will rise up and judge head and body. For the time of dictators and tyrants has come to an end. The Night has passed. The Day for which the children of God, of the House of Abraham, gave their lives, that Day has dawned.

The Democracy of the Tyrants does not exist. The invention of the end of the 20th Century, to manipulate Democracy from within to abolish its Constitution and give the Tyranny of the Socialism of the 21st Century a legitimate constitutional body, is the Big Lie. Venezuela is the visible and bloody example of the insanity to which the Power leads to in the service of a group of individuals driven mad by the Impunity of Power, with the connivance of the State, to plunder the Public Treasury.

The events of this Decade will demonstrate that where they expected to obtain in 2030 a Global Tyranny, formed by an Alliance of Tyrants, Dictators, Theocrats, Terrorist States, World Banking and Transnational Industries that live off the Death of men, this Homicidal and Genocidal Alliance of Civilizations will break its head against the Almighty Wall House of the King of the Heavens. Such madness is to challenge God as well as his Son.

Hope, then, where there is battle there is victory. Victory being the Inheritance of the children of the King of Heaven, let no one be afraid, the cowardly shall inherit the Kingdom of God.

THE RAINBOW FLAG

Is there greater tyranny, despotism, malignity, and exercise of dictatorship than to close the mouths of those who from the entrails of their fathers ask for a voice? Since the History of Man began to be written our life was at the feet of kings, emperors, dukes, counts ... all murderers, all criminals, all enemies of Humanity, their only purpose to be equal to the gods, shielded against their crimes, immune to the call of the arm of justice ... similar to God according to the idea conceived by that same Serpent that injected the poison of his insanity to Man. Is it a coincidence that Woman was the Trojan horse with which the Prince of Death brought down the World of the First Man, and today we see that same Trojan horse tearing down by force of Feminism's kicks the walls that the New Man raised to Civilization so that no force could deprive it of its Future? When we were fighting for the Annulment of all Political Immunity, Anti-Christian Feminism comes to consecrate for them that Privilege that kings, emperors and their courts enjoyed for thousands of years. They want to enjoy the fruits of that accursed fruit. We wanted them by our side, the Woman, and she wants the Man buried in the prison of her Hatred of the Male created in the image and likeness of the children of God. The successors of that race of murderers and criminals who conquered for themselves what God did not grant to Satan, making these Parliaments the palaces of the new gods, invoked Woman to share the fruit with them, the forbidden fruit of Power beyond Law and Justice. Like Yesterday, Woman has fallen again today to the Temptation of Power. But unlike Yesterday, the Man of Today is not the Man of Yesterday; both the disciples of those children of God who from the legitimately granted Power sought to crush the Divine Constitution in order to shield themselves against Universal Justice, both this Evil Socialist School and the Woman tempted by unlimited Power will answer for their Crimes before the Law; the Arm of Justice will bring down the steel walls behind which they have shielded themselves, to make them pay for the effects of their Fall into Temptation: to make of the Legitimate Power a Lever to the Tyranny of the Socialism of the XXI Century.

What could be expected, he who kills his son in his entrails, what heart will he have for the son of his neighbors?

Cruelty has been elevated to its highest deformity: when a Society corrects its crimes by committing the mass genocide of the generations that ask for passage, that want to speak, that bring the new blood that fortifies the social body of Civilization, that Society walks unflinchingly to its extinction. The Love of Life is the Existential Property that raised the Human Being on Earth. The anti-Christian schools, of all kinds: religious, political and scientific, have sought, sought thousands of ways to deny this Immortal Truth: Man is the fruit of Love of Life; when this Love is attacked in the name of a Society that uses the policy of the madman, cut the neck to end the headache, a Society that does not want to enter into the true cause of the circumstantial necessity of an interruption of the human neonate, it is a Society that condemns itself to Inhumanity, prelude to its total extinction, answer to the Abolition of that Unique Existential Property that engendered in Homo Sapiens the First Man.

Destroying Man is the evil star that guides Western Anti-Christian Feminist Socialism. Where God and Nature engendered Love of Life, that Movement has adopted Hatred of Christian Man for its Banner and Creed. The destruction of Man begotten in the image and likeness of the son of God is the Wall that separates that Organization from enjoying the glory of the gods in the image and likeness of the demons, creating an Olympus reserved for elites whose walls will be Immune against their crimes and misdemeanors. In vain did they call the New European Parliament "palace of the gods"?

It is from that Parliament, from the UN and from non-Western spheres of Power that the Hatred of Life has been imposed as the natural existential force to Progress, that is to say : Destroy the generations in the womb of their parents, bury the Voice of the Future under the feet of that Alliance of Civilizations that has called Women to eat of the Wonderful Forbidden Fruit, to be goddesses. What more infernal act of cruelty can be conceived than to invite women to the destruction of human beings in the entrails of their parents, to stick in their bodies the dagger of Progress, that they do not speak, that they do not express themselves, they have no right to life, woman is god, she has the Power over the Death of the children that Life sows in the fertile land of her entrails.

Woman transformed into a monster at the service of those who have adopted as a policy of Progress to cut the neck to end the pain of the Head.

The last world war took away 100 million human beings. How many tens of millions of human lives are destroyed every day by those who decide to close the Future of their entrails?

Like Yesterday, the Woman of Today is still the Trojan horse against Man.

They do not want to believe it. The same Lord God who created our Heavens and our Earth had already created other Worlds before the creation of ours. The princes of those Extraterrestrial Worlds participated in the Formation of the First Civilization that God made to arise among the first families of men, on whose families God brought down from Heaven the Crown that was to rest on a son of His, son of man and woman, as it was, the Crown that came down from Heaven rested on the head of Adam, son of God; against that Adam rose up to kill him a part of those princes not of our Earth, and in so doing they declared war upon the very Lord of Eternity and Infinity, YAHWEH GOD. The Betrayal, as it is already written in the DIVINE HISTORY OF JESUS, once consummated, imposed on the Betrayer the Need to free himself from the Sentence of Banishment, destruction of the Human Genus by means of. If there were no man to give birth to a woman's child that would crush her head, what! To flee forward is the destiny of those who make crime their star. How to make Adam's offspring die in the womb of Eve's children became the horizon of the thought of the prince of Hell. The history of the Old Testament is the irrefutable proof of this necessity.

Seeking their own salvation, and knowing God, for sons of God they were, knowing that the Holy Spirit of God cannot endure the Law of the Science of Good and Evil, those sons of God, not of our World, plunged the peoples born of the rupture of Adam's kingdom into a predatory condition unworthy even of the most savage beasts that inhabited the Earth. Free to do his will, the Chief of the princes of Hell dragged the human peoples to become abominable in the eyes of the Creator of Heaven and Earth. The cities of old gave themselves up to violence, crime and war. Men ceased to be men, women ceased to be women. The Universal Act in which the whole Creation discovered in the Nature of Love for our children the Father in God and the Strength of his Love for his Creature, us, the Act of Procreation was alienated from the Love of Life to be chained to Sex as an animal instinct without natural divine end. The devil is wiser for being old than for being wise! The descendants of the families that created the first cities of the kingdom of the First Man lost what makes Man: The Love of Life.

And YAHWEH GOD, as one who lowers his head in front of one who has won the battle, took the decision to play along with the madman who dared to use the Father in God against the Creator in HIM, the Lord of Infinity and Eternity. How solar to even enter the Mind of this Creator of the Cosmos and guess his last thought!

If as an old man the Enemy of his Kingdom was wise, what limits, extension, density and depth, will have the Wisdom of the one who counts his Age by eternities!

GOD was silent. His decision was made.

Determined to do what as Lord of Eternity He must do, God opened the windows of the firmament, the solar winds invaded the Ionosphere, swept through the Biosphere and the water of the Flood was made. Noah's Ark was raised on the waters, God separated the European plate from the African plate, He raised, collapsed the Pillars of Hercules, the Atlantic tsunami penetrated the Mediterranean Lake sinking islands, creating earthquakes and volcanoes, buried in its sands the north of Africa, and rushed over the Middle East, Adam's cradle, until dragging Noah's Ark beyond the Jordan. Sailing through that sea created by the Flood, dragged by the wave that sank Atlantis, the Ark would have been deposited in the Iranian plains, but he who created the Geophysical Body of the Earth opened the land between Egypt and Arabia, and between Arabia and Iran, through whose corridors the waters of the Indian Ocean penetrated the Iranian Plateau, dragging Noah and the families that accompanied his sons to the North. Until God deposited the Ark of his Man on Mount Ararat.

That generation of rebellious sons, the gods of very old, sang victory, because the human being had been destroyed; they had played with the feelings of the Spirit of the Creator as a puppet moves at the orders of the hands of the puppeteer, they could now dance the dance of the damned who had just escaped to their destiny: the Banishment of Creation, locked in the womb of the Infinite for Eternity, from whose Darkness they would never return, ever, ever.

And yet God knew no Defeat. When it was expected that, defeated, he would abolish the Law that forbade all his children to give themselves the status quo of those who live an Olympus of Gods immune against the Justice of the God of Gods, opening his Mouth he swore to Noah, by his Honor and Glory that ... "I will surely demand your blood, which is your life: from the hand of any living I will demand it, as I will demand it from the hand of man, stranger or kinsman, demanding an account of human life".

Instead of surrendering, God maintained the Decree of Banishment against the Murderer and Traitor to His Will. Let us remember: "I put perpetual enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; he shall crush thy head, and thou shalt lie in wait for his heel".

God renounced neither Vengeance nor Redemption. The Redeemer and Avenger would be born from the entrails of that Noah.

This does not mean that Satan stopped looking for new ways to make man abominable in the eyes of God. The Sentence said it all: "Thou shalt lie in wait for his heel", and yet "the Son of Man shall crush thy head".

We follow the History of the House of Noah to that of Abraham and from Abraham to Israel and his children contemplating how the one who living in the shadow of a Sentence of Eternal Banishment of paradise and the Creation of God did not stop seeking the destruction of the one who was to be born, to give life to the Cry of Victory of the House of Noah with his Voice.

The events are written. When the son of Man, son of Eve, mother of Mary of Nazareth, daughter of Solomon... when the Redeemer of the World and Avenger of the blood of his father Adam was born, there was no good man left in the world on whose arm God would rest the Mace with which his Servant would crush the head of the Ancient Serpent.

To defeat God? what madness is this! Without solution the redemption because he who deceived the Woman and killed the First Man had witnessed the Creation of our Heavens and our Earth. By the Love of the Creator for his creation we are children of God. From here to believe oneself uncreated, born of the same Divine Nature of the Lord of Infinity and Eternity, by the way arises insanity. God is True Father, he has a True Son, his Only Begotten, JESUS, and in the fact that this JESUS is his Firstborn, the whole Creation finds in God our Father. God has no need to lie to Himself. The Birthright of his Only Begotten is Truthful. The Love he has for his Only Begotten is the Love that extends over the entire House of his Firstborn. By Love we live and by Love we enjoy the Glory of the Freedom of the children of God. Now, let no one be confused, the Spirit that lives in God, Father and Creator, is Holy. Indeed, God cannot wean his Spirit from his Being. HIS Declaration for Eternity on the Nature of his Intimate Personality is written: "I AM WHO I AM". Declaration to which Creation responds: "I AM that I AM", a handful of stardust upon which the Divine Creator spread the Breath of Eternal Life that lives in Him. In Love we have everything in God; in Fear of losing this Love we have wisdom.

Thus madness took hold of a handful of stardust upon which the Creator of the Cosmos breathed His Breath of eternal life. And once the final step of Betrayal was taken, escape from the gallows was unthinkable to the Traitor. The Victory of the Son of Man sealed with the Blood of the Son of God the Sentence given by his Father: Eternal Banishment from Creation, to be cast into the Abyss covered by Darkness, Cemetery of the Ancient Cosmos, the floor of whose Tomb opens its mouth to the Infinite.

But things are not as simple as they may seem to those who do not have the Thought of Jesus Christ. Once the Liberation of the Evil One had been dictated for the beginning of the Second Millennium of our Era, once liberated on Earth, he who had kept himself hidden under the names of pagan gods throughout the millennia, after the Victory of the Son of Man, became the "hidden god", in order to, from the shadows of his abominable mind, destroy the Foundation of the Son of God : the Catholic Church, Heir of the Testament of her Lord, her Spouse, if glory: to be the Mother of His Offspring, in whose spirit would be made flesh the Promise of the Lord God to the Offspring of His Son: "They will seize the gates of their enemies".

The same "hidden god" who sought to bury our ancient fathers under the waters of that Flood, gave himself to the destruction of Our Mother in order to cause the Offspring of his Lord to miscarry in her womb. And the Division of the churches was made. The forces of the "hidden god", named Satan, the Ancient Serpent, the Dragon who terrorized the Paradise of God during the Days of the Creation of the Worlds, believed he could bury the Offspring of the Lord by burying their bodies in the tomb where he would bury, under the fratricidal infernal fires of the Thirty Years' War, the Mother in whose Soul the children of his Lord lived.

Did the walls of the House built by the King of Heaven fall? She withstood floods, earthquakes, tidal waves, internal civil wars, survived the Thirty Years' War, or the war of all against Her. Who wants to stain Her glory by throwing against Her Face the nature of their crimes? What the Prince of Darkness could not achieve, going by the hand of his mother, Death, do his worshipers, born of male and female of the human species, want to achieve?

It is the law of the science of good and evil, "I do not get the good I want, but the evil I do not want". The anti-Catholic Crisis changed its form after the defeat of the servants of the Evil Sower. It is the old story of the centuries. The son of the vanquished picks up the sword of the loser in the suicidal belief of being stronger and more powerful than the father who lost. Following this suicidal law, Philosophy gave birth to Neo-Atheism. Fools, sons of barbarians, behind what better mask could the king of Hell hide his true objective? God does not exist!!!!

Like Yesterday, Today, the Enemy of God has only one way to destroy Man, to make us abominable in the eyes of our Creator.

As long as the Christian lives in the World, the destruction of Life on Earth cannot be consummated.

It was necessary to kill in the womb the children of the Lord, to abort the Mother in whose womb has lived the Promise of God to the Offspring of His Son: "They will seize the gates of their enemies".

And here we are.

The Law of the Creator is eternal: "Cursed is everyone who sheds blood", and if cursed is the murderer of his brother, what a curse will fall on the one who murders his child in his womb!

It is curious that those who have abhorred the Law of Procreation, Reproduction and Multiplication of the Human Race wrap themselves in the Rainbow as a banner, in public and visible challenge to God, as Satan and his rebellious generation challenged Him.

"See, I am going to establish my covenant with you and with your descendants after you; and with every living creature that is with you, birds, cattle, and beasts of the earth, all that came forth with you out of the ark. I make a covenant with you that I will not again exterminate every living thing by the waters of a flood, and that there shall be no more flood to destroy the earth," And God added, "Behold the sign of the covenant which I make between me and you, and all living things that are with you, for ever and ever: I set my bow in the clouds for a token of my covenant with the earth, and when I shall cover the earth with clouds, the bow shall appear, and I will remember my covenant with you, and with every living thing, and with all flesh, and the waters of the flood shall no more return to destroy all flesh. The bow shall be in the clouds, and I will see it, that I may remember my everlasting covenant between God and every living soul and all flesh that is upon the earth."

In the same way that the Evil Sower, father of all Lies, challenged the Lord God of the Universe, to execute the Sentence against the Transgression of his youngest son Adam, trusting that for Love of his son he would open the door of Corruption, so this generation of deceived to death mock God by rubbing against his Face his own Word; transformed into an abomination in his eyes, will God say YES today where Yesterday he said NO?

Corruption, it is understood from the lessons of the Divine History of Man, is the betrayal of the Word issued and written, making of the Laws a mockery and of Justice a harlot to be bought and sold.

Incorruptibility is found in the Elevation of the written Law to the nature of the Divine Word, in whose Nature the whole Creation has the Infinite Guarantee of its Eternal Life in a Civilization founded upon Universal Truth, in the light of whose Reality all Beings live, independently of their Origin and Principle in Space and Time, an empty and sterile guarantee if the Judge who makes the Law were to transform his word into a leaf blown by the wind of the personal interests of his children.

Created in the Image and Likeness of God, the betrayal of the word by a man, a word that leads him to a situation of Power with the personal aim of making his word the Power, this betrayal opens the door to an Absolute Corruption, against which all men have the Right and Duty to rise up to life or death for their Liberty and Civilization, or suffer the tyranny of a Power that makes Justice its whore, the Law its murderous whip against the murderer of Liberty.

Man without Freedom is a worm that crawls on the spoils of the dead devoured by that same Power that deprived him of the most sacred Freedom that exists: The WORD. For the Word of God being God, and Man having been created in His image and likeness, in the Word of Man is his Life.

He who betrays his word by turning it into a key that opens the door of Power, to make of that Power the lever that will make of his word the true Power, that man has chosen between the Image of the Son of God and Satan the Unclean and Abominable Homicide, condemned to Eternal Banishment from Life, the path to which that key, which would lead him to the glory of the Dictatorship of his Will, will lead him irremediably.

Indeed, if the man who does not know how to die for the Freedom of his House is a human offal whose vision is an abomination to the entire creation, what will be he who subjects a nation to kneel or perish in response to the non-submission to his will? Who will ally with this Traitor to his own Word, having of the Divine Nature that in Man lives a jawbone of an ass, if not his fellow men, all corrupt, all traitors to his word, enemies of Liberty and of the Word as the Divine Existential Property of Man? Like that Satan who dressed himself as an angel of light to deceive the Woman, his disciples dress themselves with the finery of the mass media to wear the worst conceivable betrayal, the betrayal of their own word, of Progress and Civilization.

Now, a Civilization with its doors open to the Betrayal of the Word is a world that sinks in the quicksand of Corruption, and that splashes miserably in mortal agony when it had all the strength to rise up against those who led it to its ruin and desolation. This is why God said: "Out with the Cowards".

The Creation of a Universal Civilization formed by Peoples created at different points in Space and Time can only subsist in Eternal Life, and Progress to infinity in the Knowledge of creative sciences without number, on foundations established by a Power whose Incorruptibility makes Law and Justice the pillars of its Peace. The Impossibility of the Corruption of this Universal Power rises as Kingdom of Liberty for the joy and happiness of all its Citizens independently of their Origins in the stars. For from the same Creator of all comes the Spirit of all, building in all a single concept of Freedom, and Happiness. A single Universal and Eternal Wisdom, living in the Divine Creator of all, builds from the Creative Omniscience the Future of Civilization, nourishing all Life from the Heart of the one who declares himself Father of all the Citizens of his Kingdom.

The Law of Creation comes from God, and enters into conflict with human law from the moment it declares itself in rebellion against this Civilization that comes from God, from Heaven according to the Ancients. In our case, when the Civil Law put under the Natural Law under the boots of the kings, and of the global economic powers the conflict opened, letting into the nations the corruption as modus vivendi of the Powerful and the Rich. This status quo should proceed to the Dictatorship of its members, allied in an Anti-Christian Ideology, the effect of which would be the Extinction of the Image of God in Man. Knowing that this effect would provoke in God the answer He gave to Noah's world, in our days that Alliance of Civilizations sponsored by the UN, financed by the kings of the world, have raised as a banner the Arch on which God swore not to destroy man by means of the waters of a Flood. The insanity of that Serpent that Death hatched in those who were once children of God, under whose suicidal force they believed they could defeat God, has been transmitted to that Alliance of Civilizations whose Agenda has as its North the Disappearance of Christianity and the elevation of its members to a Federation of Nations united in the same spirit of Defense of their Global Tyranny.

The question comes by itself: What need does God have to make all life on Earth perish if this Alliance has already taken care of the destruction of all the forces that integrate them?

The Word is God, Man has been begotten in the Image and Likeness of God, in the Word of Man lives that Image and Likeness that makes him Family of his Creator, and Citizen of his Universal Sempiternal Kingdom.

The man in whom this Word does not live in his Divine Nature, and makes of his word what claws and fangs are to a wild beast, freely banishes Humanity from his being, chooses to be a beast that tears and tears apart all who oppose his will, at whose service he has all the Power of the State which he has corrupted until he has opened the door to its dissolution.

Those who do not abandon that ship will sink in the depths of their crimes. For thus has God said: "Son of man, tell him who commits a crime that he will die, if he listens to you he will have saved his soul, if he does not listen to you his death will be on his head, but if you keep silent his crime will be on yours". Word for the servants and for all the children of God.

Who was the criminal who invented Money? Who were the wretches who invented the business of usury, origin of the criminal associations called Banks? What was the homicidal intention behind the invention of Money and Banks? And what is absolutely vital: How to heal the body of the fullness of nations from this malignant virus that has been sacrificing peoples to its genocidal survival? How to free Humanity from this insanity that has installed itself as wisdom in its intelligence, enslaving the future of all men to the permanence of evil institutions created by fire and blood by the apostles of the Necessity of the Existence of Money and Banks?

If Communism is a Cancer without solution, from whose pathology a nation can only free itself by the disappearance of its State and the creation of a New Non-Socialist State based on the laws of the Spirit of Creation, the origin of Communism is in the law of the Science of Good and Evil, that is to say, there would have been no birth of the monster of Communism if its opposite, the monster of Capitalism, had not existed.

The existence of Capitalism implied in the distance the birth of Communism as a response to the Global Violence generated by the Power of Money and Banking. Birth in the distance occurred because of the alliance in a lethal homicidal body of the two dominant anti-Christian currents of modern European thought during the XVI, XVII and XVIII centuries: Calvinist Protestantism in its form of Imperial Anglicanism, and Scientific Atheism in its form of Historical Materialism. United these forces in a body of supremacist hegemonic interests conceived an Ideology, Capitalism, whose nucleus received from the Apostle of Death, Charles Darwin, its fundamental law: The destruction of weak peoples is of vital transcendence for the sake of the survival and domination of the more evolved nations, by Nature endowed with sufficient and necessary strength to reach a state of superior civilization.

But no matter which way thought turns the pendulum of History, the Existential Fact at whose feet ends the intellectual process of understanding the Origin of the Global Suicidal Pathology of the Human Genus, manifested in endless wars during the last thousands of years; beyond the pseudo-scientific ideological discourses of the Left, and the pseudo-Christian defenses of the modern political Right, the Fact is that both Monsters, Communism and Capitalism, arose from the Refusal of the kings and their empires to create for their peoples and nations a State founded on the Laws of the Spirit of the Gospel, whose Power would have in the Fraternity among all men and nations in God its Strength and Wealth.

Having established the origin of the kings and their empires on the Necessity of Slavery and War, product of the Fall of the firstborn of the kings of the Earth, Adam, son of God, father of Christ, it is understood that for the interests of the sons of Cain the Divine Law of the Universal Fraternity was a wall against which to throw themselves with all the weight of death. Tempted by Satan, they knelt at his feet in exchange for the crown. They were not saints. They did not have the strength of Jesus Christ. Between being a man in the image and likeness of this Jesus Christ or being a man in the image and likeness of Satan, they chose the second option. The effects of the blessing of those passions for Power and Riches having found in Protestantism its theological foundation, on the one hand, and its walls in Scientific Atheism, on the other, the blessing of Darwinian Genocidal Evolutionism opened to the XX Century the doors of the Battle between Gog and Magog. Battle already announced by the one who lived the Birth and Extinction of Worlds during his Life in the Eternity of the Cosmos.

What is left for us now? Every time they open their mouths, whether their flag is communist or capitalist, the ruin of nations grows by a hand span. It is not a matter of falling into discussions among the deaf, which are stillborn. No World in the History of Eternity survived the effect of its nourishment by the Science of Good and Evil. God lived this Truth thousands of times. The Law is inexorable. Every World left to its own devices in its struggle for Survival against Death, which its own deeds generate, all, without exception, fell into the dust of Oblivion, disappeared from the face of Eternity, returned to the dust from which they sprang. The how does not matter. When the soldier falls by shrapnel, by saber, by bomb or by donkey's jaw, the how is not transcendental, his death is.

The kings, bodies of an Evil that dominates them and makes them live a boundless ambition for Wealth, on whose possession they base and found their Power, were the creators of the civil, international and world wars that devastated History and have led us to the heart of darkness that today drags nations to the abyss of the destruction of all life on Earth.

But inasmuch as our Divine Creator saw this End from the very day that a son of His embraced the Law of the destruction of our World, loving His Creation, He bequeathed us a Testament by which the Descent of His Son rises to lead History out of the Darkness and away from the Precipice in which, by logic, the human being has been abandoned to the abyss of destruction, by logic, abandoned the human being to his own forces, he should sink forever in the abyss of his extinction, as Worlds without number already sank in that same Abyss, before the Cosmos knew its New Lord and God.

The Interpretations of the Relationship of the Divine Book with the History of the centuries has always been made from the Ignorance of the Relationship of the Creator of the New Cosmos with Life. The Creator is the Father of Life. "I am Life" says his Son. "Behold my Beloved Son" writes God. This Son becomes Man and takes Humanity as his People. Inexorable the Destiny towards which Man was walking, consequence of the Fall into the black hole of the Science of good and evil, for Love of his Son, and because he assumed to be the Head of the Church, his Body is blessed with a Promise of Liberation from that Destiny, which HE bought with his Blood to be collected in his Testament and taken to his Descendants, who, as Christ lived in Eve, these lived in his Bride, the Holy Mother Catholic Church.

The Final Battle was served from the moment the New Testament was signed and delivered to the Holy Spirit, who lives in the Church, until the entire Creation was freed from the anguished expectation that the World would suffer until the Birth of the Testator's Firstborn.

The centuries have passed, the millennia have done their work. The forces that were to drag the human race to its extinction have arisen and fulfilled their homicidal nature, their logical existential imprint. The question now returns to the beginning: If

Communism is based on the creation of a State with which the people are related from slave to master, and Capitalism is the creation of a Military State at the service of dynastic elites whose crowns are Banks and their Industries are those of War, the truth, beyond Byzantine discussions, is that both systems have the same root, Fratricide.

Cain killed Abel for many reasons, but it is understood that if he did not control the production of food and access to it, his vocation to restore the crown lost by his father could not have been realized. The crown that came down from Heaven and was lost in Hell could only make its return to the House of Adam by establishing its throne on the blood and fire of death of all those who opposed its destiny. Whoever killed his brother, what would he not be willing to sacrifice for the sake of his glory!

This is the origin of all the kings of the world and of all the States of the Earth. Origin that the son of Man came to fight and that he had to put aside for the sake of the Necessity of his Death. Death by no means in vain; neither for Heaven nor for Earth. The Strength of that Child who entered the Temple to unite all peoples and free them from the Empire of Death, creating a Kingdom on Earth whose Future History would be seen, forever, free from the Law of the Science of good and evil, that Future was signed with His blood, and sealed in His Testament until the Day of the Glory of the Freedom of the children of God, His Offspring in the Spirit of YAVE: of wisdom and intelligence, of understanding and strength, of counsel and Fear of God.

To put an End to a Power that has in Death its glory, to give Beginning to another Power that has in the Fraternity in God its mother stone, is the Challenge of this Generation of children of God of the XXI Century: and to do it without the need to invoke War.

The good thing about Communism was that it freed man from slavery; Capitalism transformed him into a creative person. But both carry an Evil inside, Communism frees the people to make them slaves of the liberator, Capitalism puts the freedom of the creative man at the service of the War of defense of the interests of the dynastic families that govern it. In the end both peoples are slaves of the Power they created in search of Freedom.

Both have in common that they need to blame their internal evils on an external agent. Communism accuses Capitalism to defend its defeat to the Absolute Tyranny of an Almighty State. Capitalism justifies the investment of all the wealth of the State in an Almighty Military Industry on the basis of the same flash of classic madness and insanity: the enemy is outside, it is Communism.

The same old story from Cain to Hitler and Stalin. Or as the wise man would say: "Nothing new under the sun". Only fools are shocked by the discourse of the one and the other, by their hot and cold wars. Both have the same origin: Gold is the source of State Power. The richer it is, the more powerful it is. Gold being the glory of a State, War is legitimate when it is a question of maintaining this Power and of maintaining Hatred towards this external agent, the main cause of all the evils created by the State itself.

To free the access of all men to the natural means inherent to the dignity of a child of God is a Vital Historical Necessity. A Wall of thousands of years opposes this Liberation. From the moment that the value of natural resources is given by Powers whose nature is Cainite, there is War. Natural Law and Divine Law were the two pillars on which Civilization was established. To prohibit and condition the access to the resources that Nature and God put at the service of all the peoples of His Creation is a Crime against Life.

Indeed, if you want to heal a body, you must first know the nature of the disease that affects it and drags it to death.

28/11/23

Where does evil come from, in what strata of the mind do evil people incubate, what makes one believe that by hurting another he is greater, in what cell of his conscience did a man give birth to the idea of measuring strength by the strength of the empire he spreads around him, what leads some to believe that their glory lies in the misery of others? There is no answer. Those who love themselves above all things do not ask themselves any question. The miserable is born to live in misery, it is his karma, his predestination, to be miserable; the powerful comes to this world to be a god, fidelity to his destiny is the beginning of the manifestation of his genetic superiority. Male or female, male or female, it is what it is, and woe to those who deny their glory and destiny; you will be a traitor to your nature.

To understand the psychology of a disciple of Satan: what is death, what is life? Thirty silver coins, a plate of lentils, my kingdom for a horse, an exit door, tunnels to hell, the throat of the lie is deep as the Mariana trench and powerful as the Himalayan mountain range, who will dare to close the abyss of contempt to the one who plants himself in its path, or put bolts on the hell in which he wants to lay the foundations of his paradise! You are History, you are the State, you are the Nation, you are the World, you are a god. All on your knees, to die with your boots on.

To be born on Earth is not a wonder, it is a tragedy. Under the feet of nations an ocean of blood feeds the breeding ground for end of the world cells. There is no beauty in Memory, the Past of Earth's inhabitant is a rosary of wars, the Present inherits fire for its legacy, the Future is an old wives' tale, always the same legend, an Atlantis that sank in the waters, dozens of empires that drowned the seas of blood they themselves filled.

Where is the wise man who sees concert, harmony, balance, on the stage of nations? Wealth is what counts; Power, what counts. He who believes in the power of man is the worst enemy of his house. What have men done for thousands of years in Power? All criminals, all murderers, all on the left, terrorists, pedophiles, pimps, drug addicts, prostitutes of the worst kind, monsters suckled by the udders of Power.

Me, only me and no one else but me, the gospel of the new gods. Hail Caesar, those who are going to die salute you....

But run, Caesar, for before we die we shall devour your glory, your strength, your pride and your house.

Yes, I have heard it from my God, "my sons not die like their Father".

The Cross was. Today it is the Face.

Blessed be God!

One can never say enough nor can one fail to say less, we do not live backwards, the account of life does not run upside down, into the abyss; we live forwards, we make the path to glory, counting each step as one more day, which brings us closer to the summit of eternal life.

There are many gaps that we have inherited from the Past, black holes in the Memory of our History, into which we fall unintentionally but knowing that they exist. War is not fought by preparing for the Slaughter, Peace is built by creating an Invincible Body for Peace. We are God's Creation, Citizens of the Kingdom of his Son, the question asks: Before us, because of our drama, our World having been subject to Universal Civil War, should God renounce his Duty to build Peace an Invincible Body endowed with his Topododer and Wisdom?

We have been wrong, as always. War is neither fought nor banished from the Human Race by preparing for War. We are living it live and direct. The Two-headed Bear of the North followed this policy and today finds itself on the brink of the abyss. As art calls for the artist, weapons call for the battlefield. It is to Peace that we must give our strength, our intelligence, soul and spirit.

History lays its book on the table, Wisdom guides us through its chapters. Corruption is the mother of War. The Beast of the North sank in corruption up to its neck and the only way it found to get out was to launch itself into Fratricidal War.

The lesson is genuine, a thousand times repeated by all corners of the Earth. The Corrupt One believes that by spreading the spider's web of his corruption he will outwit the Civil War. His insanity is a prelude to Slaughter. Corruption is fought by giving Justice all the natural and necessary Power and Liberty to prosecute the Corrupt, fight his criminal political organization and make this evil virus disappear from the body of the nation.

The Duty to stand up against Corruption and its body politic is Vital. A man who lives under the boots of a criminal organization that has given himself a body politic to install the dictatorship of his egolatriy, enslaving a whole nation to the health of his limitless passion for Wealth and Power, that man who bows his head and submits to impotence is not a man, he is a human wreck.

There is no doubt about the nature of the Ideology that from the largest Criminal Organization ever invented, the UN, extends its Evil without limits over all nations, seeking to eliminate Man created by God in the image and likeness of his children, a man who prefers to die rather than live under the boots of Tyranny.

Man in the Image and Likeness of the children of God, whose Model is Jesus Christ, is the number one public Enemy of that global Ideology that spreads its absolute corruption in the belief of being able to control its logical and natural effect: War. Where are the Forces of Pacification of that Organization that was born to give an international body to Peace? It has been corrupted to the point of making good the saying: Adolf Hitler was born and became Hitler. This is the law followed by the UN, which has adopted the Genocidal Doctrine of the Beast of the North. Where are these armies of Peace in the Israel-Palestine conflict? Just where they were when the Russian Cain rose against the Ukrainian Abel, sharing profits with the arms industries.

This is not the way to Peace. It has not been. It never was. Armament has always been a prelude to war, civil, international and world war. The law of History does not lie. And even if the criminal political organizations dependent on the greatest Genocidal Organization ever conceived deny it: Corruption leads inexorably to War. The only way to prevent this effect is to fight the cause, to rise up against the Government of Corruption, to give Justice all the Power to open the doors of the courts, to summon the members of that body who believe they can avoid the undesirable effect they cultivate, in the belief of being shielded against its ruin, to make the responsibility for their acts rain down upon their heads punishment and penalty.

Is not the History of our World, thrown to fight for its life on a perpetual battlefield, lesson enough? They want to get their hands on this Lesson by denying that Corruption is the mother of Civil, International and World War. We have been created in the image and likeness of the children of God; this is the problem of those who worship the god of corruption and bend their knees believing that by armoring themselves against their crimes, making the Congresses a Den of Thieves, immune against the laws, which they create to defend themselves from Justice, calling the judges to answer for the criminal act of calling to court and taking a politician to jail... this is the problem they have, we, created in the image and likeness of the children of God. This is why they fight us from the UN, from the Puppet Governments of the Left allied in this Alliance of Civilizations whose victory aims at the disappearance of Christianity from the face of History.

What has been said is written. You will be next.

That prophecy has already begun in the Europe of the Northern Lefts. The Israel-Palestine Battle is not a war of states, it is the classic war of Islam against Modern Democracy, it is the return of the Muslim nations to the natural Dictatorial Theocracy to the Koranic law, the nostalgia of a people that cannot, neither knows, nor accepts to live with the other peoples in the light of the law of the human and divine Rights of Man. This war has already begun in the Western European North and the puppet Left in the service of Islam, the new master of the UN, continues to open its doors to them, each year with hundreds of thousands of Muslims bursting through its borders who, fleeing their regimes, end up wanting to implant in the nations that opened their arms to them the regime from which they fled.

The effects are fought by looking at the causes, by extinguishing the fire within. A disease is not fought by feeding the virus through a policy of coexistence between health and disease; health and disease in coexistence means the death of the body.

As we already know, Pharmaceuticals have imposed a model of coexistence between health and disease for the sake of the growth of their wealth, with which they buy governments in need of Power to make the law of their empire grow. We once believed that the nature of the science of Life was born with the vocation of invincible victory against disease. Today we know that it has allied itself with Disease, has made its own the policy of War against the human being and lives at the expense of disease, banishing from its vocation its original ideology.

Each man must look at himself in the mirror of Time, see his own face, see the face of the world in which he was born and lives, and decide which side he is on, whether on the side of Truth, mother of Justice, and root of Peace, or on the side of Global Corruption fed by the UN through an Ideology that seeks to banish from Man the man created in the image and likeness of the children of God.

The ignorant say that submitting ourselves to the Ideology that demands our death is the root of progress and civilization. We look at Universal History and observe the opposite, that the elevation of political organizations to a position beyond the reach of Justice was the beginning of the destruction of nations, kingdoms, societies and civilizations that believed in the destiny of a few, driven mad by the vision of the riches that Power brings. This law has been operating for thousands of years.

It began its journey that day when a woman deceived her man, manipulating the love she had for him, to offer him the poisoned fruit of the glory of one who is equal to a god, creator of laws, lord of absolute corruption, master of all the citizens of his people, over whom he establishes by decree the power of his insanity. The Lie is his daily bread. He recognizes no sound but that of gold. He is a disciple of that Satan who wished to impose upon the very Creator of the Cosmos, Lord of Infinity and Eternity, the rule of his will.

Man lives in the Light of Truth, has in Justice the Invincible Guarantee of his existence and happiness. Just the opposite of the dictator who uses Power to raise to his glory the monument of his tyranny. I would rather die than live under the boots of such a bastard son of Cain.

Corruption leads to Civil War, it is an invincible law. Its very existence is a declaration of war; the hosts of such tyranny must be arrested, brought to court to answer for the crime of sedition, rebellion and treason against Peace among the peoples.

We observe in our days how they have armored themselves in the South, against Justice, believing that the people are cowards and will not rise up against the wolves in sheep's clothing that have assaulted their Democracy, and have even given themselves an armed wing with which they are ready to cut off heads. The Lesson of History has not served that criminal organization to understand that when that People, whom they want to enslave to their law of corruption, rises up, the foundations of the earth tremble. Their Organization will have its arm cut off, will be thrown into the fire, and the anchor of the ship from which the rats will want to flee will not be raised. Where will they go, in what part of the Globe will they hide when the Arm of Justice extends its Jurisdiction to the Plenitude of the nations?

This is not a day of darkness, but of light. Our World will not fall into the abyss of apocalyptic disasters with which the nations are bombarded. This is the day of Final Battle between Justice and Corruption, Truth and Lie. Science will bend its knees before Faith. Universities will lower their arms before the Church. The nations will rise up against the criminal organizations that have made the UN their Temple, Palace and Castle, from whose walls they bless the wars in favor of the New Doctrine of Non-

Intervention in the Wars of Genocide... as an internal matter of States, and spread Hatred towards man begotten in the Image and Likeness of the children of God.

We are Christians, Citizens of a Civilization founded by God on the Rock of a Universal and Eternal Truth: War is fought from the root by raising to Peace a Body with Universal Jurisdiction in which all nations participate, without reservations, nor obedience to any individual government in the search to maintain the NO Intervention as a guarantee of its existence.

Man recognizes no king but his King, Jesus Christ, God the Only Begotten Son, our Creator, who with his Almighty Word created the Light, the Firmament and all life that exists and has existed on the face of the Earth, and called us in his Image and Likeness to share his life, and eternal Life, and called us again with the Voice of the one who from a Cross asked us to believe in his Truth, not to be afraid of God, his Father, because who was seeing Him was seeing his God: Two Persons, one Spirit.

Bread and Fire in a Divine Whole, exalted, marvelous, magnificent. If the Son of God gave everything to whoever asked for it, and by that Invincible Nature of His to say YES conquered the hearts of all, how much more must Man love his Father, who gave us his Beloved Son, who is His Life!

And Science and its political masters want to make us believe that that Voice which from the Cross called us once again to His Image and Likeness is a Neurosis from which we must free ourselves... to be led to world wars, to the slaughterhouse of the final war, with the joy of the flocks that believe they are led to Utopia, to find themselves finally on the edge of the precipice, pushed into the abyss by a force from which no one can triumph.

This is why they cut down the intelligence of generations by reducing their vision to a moving screen on which they draw horizons inhabited by monsters and demons; between these fictional creatures and themselves, the choice is simple: better the bad known than the worst to be known. In this way, the same ones who create monsters on the horizon are the ones who come running to save us. The question is, who will save us from the creators of these fictitious monsters that only exist in their need to maintain the status quo of gods in which they have installed themselves?

Every day is one more step towards meeting our Creator. The conflict of Death is fed by those who have in the Politics of Fear the guarantee of their divine status quo. Was not this the dream of those Rebels who wanted to dethrone the Law of God in order to rise as gods ruling an Olympus of Dictators in whose hands War and Peace should rest? Since then that dream has taken hold of kings, emperors, and at last has made of the present political organizations the sleeping body, in whose minds they are gods, each and every one of them beyond good and evil.
